OF HIP HOP FOR TEENS

Attention middle and high school students!

Join the Library District and the Hip Hop Entrepreneurship Program (HHEP) to learn all about the creative history of Hip Hop and its impact on modern culture. Expert instructors will provide experience in sound engineering, music production, DJing, lyric development, and more. Gain skills and learn about what it takes to succeed in the music industry and beyond. Don't miss this chance to network, make new friends, and have fun in a safe and inclusive environment.

The Hip Hop Entrepreneurship Program is a year-round academy that connects at-risk youth with a passion for Hip Hop music and culture with mentorship and education opportunities. HHEP is led by Founder Robert Strawder Jr. who partners with law enforcement and community leaders to provide a safe space steeped in Hip Hop music, culture, real talk, artistic expression, artistic development, music industry business knowledge, and entertainment opportunities.

Free and open to the public. Seating is on a first-come, first-served basis and may be limited. For more information, please scan the QR code or call 702.507.3532.
