Paul Falcon's Bio:

Paul Falcon has been performing on the international stage since the age of two years old, beginning as part of the Fabulous Falcon's Family Band. This family band included his father, mother, brothers, sisters, and even a "singing" dog. Often being referred to as "The Latin Jacksons" or "The Latin Osmonds", they gained critical acclaim with international hit songs "El Beso" ("The Kiss"), and "Ojos Colored Miel" ("Brown Eyed Girl"). It was here that Paul learned to hone his skills as a vocalist, and multi-instrumentalist while simultaneously learning the importance of family values and experiencing world cultures. These skills have allowed him to share his talents with such artists as Selena, Patti LaBelle, No Doubt, Mary J. Blige, Stevie Nicks, and most recently Tyler Perry.

Paul is also co-founder of Gearheadz Inc. A Professional Backline Rental and Production Company.

Today, Paul writes, produces, records and performs music. Additional collaborations include writing, performing and Musical Director for Eric Seats' "Next Great Drummer" All Star Band. International electronic duo "MonoLogic", and Los Angeles favorites "Dub 8", "Calvin Banks & The Tellers", & "The Bash". His latest release, the self titled, "Paul Falcon" is his first full length album.
