Making a Lawful Declaration of We the People to the Institute of Noahide Code

Be it adopted by the Senate and House of Representatives for the republic of Texas, in Congress assembled, a Joint House Resolution Making a Lawful Declaration of We the People to the Institute of Noahide Code

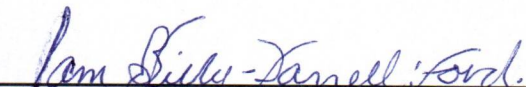

We, the people of the republic of Texas, do not consent to be governed by any religious law, code or tribunal. We retain our natural rights, natural liberty, constitutional rights, and our freedom of conscience. No religious body, council, or congress has authority over any one of the people, and no presumption of consent may be made. Any attempt to impose religious law upon any one of the people is rejected, void, and without jurisdiction.
