

Twenty-Eighth Congress of the Republic of Texas

Proposed Resolution for an amendment to Article 1 Section 4 of the Constitution

Sec. 1. Be it resolved by the senate and the house of representatives of the republic of Texas in Congress assembled, under the Declaration of Emergency for the protection of the people of Texas, the following amendment be enacted within the election process due to threats imposed by an invasion of unlawful immigrants crossing the borders of the republic of Texas, the presence of domestic terrorists operating within the republic of Texas government that interfered with the 2023 election that disenfranchised Texians of their right to vote in the 2023 election, the theft of the republic of Texas website and other media applications and a coup to overthrow the government of the republic of Texas.

Sec. 2. Be it further resolved to achieve protection for the Texian people who are domiciled on the lands of the republic of Texas that the following actions be taken under this Declaration of Emergency of amending the constitution of the republic of Texas with the objective of this amendment being to promote stability in the republic of Texas government by increasing the qualifications through requiring Congressional candidates to have been in the republic for at least one year.

Sec. 3. Be it further resolved, as is currently written in the Constitution, Article 1 Section 4, no person shall be eligible to a seat in the house of representatives, until he shall have attained the age of twenty-five years, shall be a citizen of the republic, and shall have resided in the county or district six months next preceding his election.

Sec. 4. Be it further resolved, the following amendment be enacted, Article 1 Section 4 of the Constitution to read as follows: No person shall be eligible to a seat in the house of representatives until having attained the age of twenty-five years, shall be a Texian national of the republic of Texas for “one” year for being native born of Texian parentage, a Texian national of the republic for “two” years for people immigrating from any English-speaking American nation state or territory or a Texian national of the republic for “seven” years for people immigrating from international countries, and shall have domiciled in the county or district six months next preceding their election.
