

GENERAL BIO INFORMATION

Richie Phillips is a former schoolteacher-turned- acclaimed morning radio personality/ song parodist with 28 years and hundreds of crazy songs under his belt.

He was the co-recipient of a National CMA Award in 2000 for top medium market country morning show in the nation! His comedy song parodies have been syndicated to stations all over the country, and cover every subject imaginable.

He recently stepped away from the early alarm clock to pursue his many varied interests, including performing for conferences as he has done in addition to his radio career, songwriting with children (his "Rhymin' With Richie" school songwriting program also has racked up multiple "kudos" from the New York State Broadcasters Association along with the School Administrators Association of NYS), and other ventures.

He is available as both a solo entertainer and also as part of an all new interactive music and comedy duo "A Guy With A Piano and A Guy With A Guitar" - the guy with the guitar being one of the area's best known music personalities - Jay Yager.
