

MEET THE AUTHOR

How do you achieve your dreams? Does God have favor with only a few? Can you receive God's favor? These are the questions I asked myself as I saw authors publishing books, entrepreneurs celebrating their ballroom anniversaries, keynote speakers practically going on tour, and transformative miracles happening for others.

After a deep dive, not with my scuba gear but with Scripture and daily living in faith, prayer, obedience, and seeking God, I am joyfully living in God's favor! I have so many testimonies of living in God's favor that stun me more each day and put a smile on people's faces when I share. Living in God's favor does not eliminate trauma, it teaches you how to respond to it. When you know Whose you are and who you are, living in God's favor becomes natural.

As President of Echo & Encourage Ministries, Hannah creates spaces where honesty meets hope—inviting you into conversations on resilience, restoration, and transformation.
