

'See you later'

We are so glad Kaylee got to be with us the last few months.

It has been our pleasure.

We will miss her so much, but we are excited to hear about all of her adventures in preschool.

October 2024
Vol VI Issue VI

This is an exciting announcement!

We started this project in 2015 however, we encountered various setbacks that were outside of our control and had to be put on the back burner multiple times.

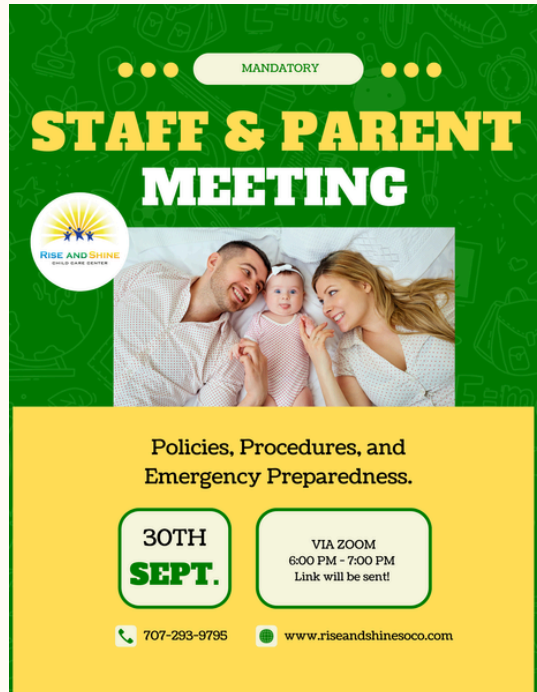

We are very excited to announce that book 1 of 4 has been published. Book 2 & 3 are on the editor's desk and book 4 has illustrations being completed on the last two stories.

We are constantly striving for excellence! We hope your family will enjoy these family friendly and beautifully illustrated stories.
