Introducing

Our new curriculum that will benefit all of the babies in our program, no matter how young!

Learning BEYOND

INFANTS

During their first 12 months, infants learn, change, and grow quickly. There are distinct differences in developmental milestones between younger and older infants. This growth can be challenging to plan for when you have very young, immobile infants, as well as those who are older and have a bit more independence and mobility. With Learning Beyond, we will plan engaging activities for babies, and structured activities designed for different developmental levels. Our teachers will be focusing on development and relationships as the heart of learning and growth.

YOUNGER TODDLERS

The ages of 12 to 24 months bring about a flurry of activity, movement, language, and initial steps of independence as young toddlers continue their growth and learning. Everything is new and exciting, or a bit challenging and frustrating to toddlers. As our teachers of young toddlers, Learning Beyond will include practical, concrete learning opportunities for young toddlers while giving our teachers the knowledge to know if each child is at their developmental level, requires more opportunities for practice and encouragement, and how a single activity can meet the needs of many young toddlers when teacher expectations are consistent with the child's age. Learning Beyond focuses on building practical skills, language, social and emotional learning - all with relationship-focused teaching and care at the heart.
