From the Editor

by Ed Dahling Editor Emeritus

This issue of the newsletter coincides with the beginning of two very important undertakings for the members of Anne Arundel County Detachment 1049. Specifically, the 2016 Toys for Tots Campaign and our 2017 Marines Helping Marines Golf Tournament.

Please consider making yourself available to assist with the various activities associated with the Toys for Tots Campaign. Christ Stevens need everyone to contribute to what we all hope will be a successful re-involvement with this very important event. Get your Christmas Spirit going early!

Christ Stevens is heading up the 2017 MHM Golf Tournament and needs an assistant to help with the behind the scenes activities necessary to continue our string of successful tournaments. We also need everyone to start talking about the tournament and encouraging family members, friends, and associates to be part of this event through participation as golfers and/or sponsors. Of course, we are counting on our previous volunteers as well as first-timers to assist with the behind the scenes activities which are absolutely essential if we are to host another successful tournament.

Semper Fi,

Ed Dahling

Commandant Ray Sturm

Greetings,

Happy Thanksgiving! I know everyone's situation is different, but I'd like to think we can all find something to be thankful for.. whether it's family, a special friend, a neighbor who always waves hello, your health, or a roof over your head. As we gather to give thanks, we who have stood as democracy's guardians should be thankful for those who now stand in our place. Give thanks to those on duty around the world and in our communities.

On behalf of the members who attended the Marine Cryptologic Support Battalion's Birthday Ball, I would like to thank LtCol Challengren and MGySgt Berry for their invitation and hospitality. I have been fortunate to have attended numerous Balls over the years, and I can safely say this event was truly first class. I would also like to thank the guest of honor, BGen Seely, for his kind and generous words about the Marine Corps League. The detachment looks forward to strengthening its relationship with this outstanding unit.

I was honored to attend the 3rd Annual Veterans Appreciation Dinner sponsored by the Lake Shore Volunteer Fire Department in Pasadena. To be recognized and thanked by an organization so dedicated to their community was very humbling. While the veterans in attendance graciously accepted their thanks for our past service, it is we who say thank YOU to all of the first responders who serve every day.

There are two items that will come up at our next meeting Nov 28th. First is a proposal under New Business for the detachment to purchase a $2000 Conex Box for storage. The box would be shared with Toys4Tots. This is a large purchase and I want your input. Second, the VFW Commander has asked that the detachment move its plaque wall from its current location to the bookcases in the pool table area. There is a lot of history here and it is an emotional topic. Again, I need your input in order to respond to the VFW.

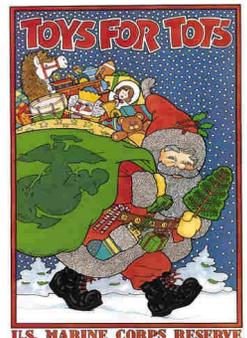

Finally, just a quick reminder that the MCL is an apolitical organization. This election has proven to be a very divisive one. We need to leave our political beliefs at the door when we gather as Marines.

Semper Fi,

Ray

There is not much to report this month except the ribbon cutting for the new Marine Corps League National Headquarters. The ribbon cutting was Friday the 18th and all went well with food and drink. Jack Severn hosted the flags for the honor guard part of the ceremony with Commandant Gore and National Director Tom Hazlett speaking. Hope to see all of you there supporting MCL Detachment 1049 at our next meeting.

Woof woof,

There is not a lot happening in Dogdom at this time, so it is an excellent opportunity for all Dogs to support the Marine Corps League's Toys for Tots drive. If you don't know what to do, ask Chris Stevens as she is leading the way for the Anne Arundel Detachment in this very worthy endeavor.

Pound 204 will Growl at 0900 on 11 December at the Dog House, with breakfast and bloody Mary's at 0800. Pups and mongrels should report to the Mad Dog at 0800.

We still have a few Dogs in the Pound who are in arrears of their dues and therefore cannot attend a Growl or hold office. If you are one of the delinquents, get with the program and send 15 big bones to your friendly Dog Robber (me) ASAP. A few extra bones, for the kids, from those of you who never attend a growl would be greatly appreciated. When you are two years in arrears, you will be dropped from the roles of the MODD. Don't let this happen. Pay your dues now.

Remember: It is an honor to be a Devil Dog!

Last month, we welcome a new member Jeremy Bowers to our detachment.

Membership Status

As of the end of August, we still have eleven members (regular and associate), who are delinquent with regard to the payment of their 2015 and 2016 dues. One member is delinquent in the payment of their 2015 dues. I would have hoped that all of our delinquent detachment members would have caught up by now.

If for some reason you do not wish to renew, let me know and I'll see if we can address your concerns. Hope to hear from you soon. If you like to pay your dues please submit your payment to me as soon as possible so that I may take you off the Delinquent Status List.

Toys for Tots is in full swing.....volunteers are needed and most welcome. Contact our ace Toys for Tots coordinator Chris Stevens at Chris@aatft.org or call 410-271-4847. It's a great way to give to less fortunate families.

This is that time of year when we pause to reflect on how fortunate we are to live in this great country among our families and friends. We also give thanks for the camaraderie and fellowship we share with our fellow Marines.

Sad to report.... Another Marine reporting sir.....The Supreme Commandant has called Marine Charles Albo home to his final duty station. He will be missed. A memorial service will be held in the near future. Details will be disseminated when they become available.

We are all aware of the suicide epidemic among our veterans, 20 + lives lost every day. Obviously, for this to continue is totally unacceptable. I am currently working with the TreatNOW coalition, a group of citizens, veterans, institutions and service organizations working pro bono to get help to our brain injured troops and others suffering from Concussions, Traumatic Brain Injury (TBI) and Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD). The coalition has already helped to treat and heal hundreds of brain injured individuals. For more information go to..... treatnow.org. I would appreciate your feedback..... dvader1@comcast.net.....or call 410-271-4847.

This hero horse of the Marine Corps just got her own statue

During the five-day Battle for Outpost Vegas in 1953, then-Pvt. Reckless spent three days transporting recoilless rifle rounds to embattled Marines under heavy fire. On the worst day of the battle, she ferried 386 rounds that weighed 24 pounds each and traveled a total of 35 miles while suffering two wounds from shrapnel. One of the cuts was a bad wound just above her eye.

After her heroics on the front lines of the Korean War, Lt. Gen. Randolph Pate promoted Reckless to sergeant. Reckless was transported to the U.S. where she became a Marine Corps celebrity, gave birth to four children, and was promoted to staff sergeant before retiring to Camp Pendleton.

Over the course of her career, Reckless received two Purple Hearts, a Good Conduct Medal, the Presidential Unit Citation with star, the National Defense Service Medal, the Korean Service Medal, and the United Nations Service Medal.

Since her death, Reckless has been honored with a memorial at the Camp Pendleton stables, a Dickin Medal for animal bravery, and now a statue at Camp Pendleton.

A U.S. Marine fires a M27 infantry automatic rifle at simulated enemies during an Integrated Training Exercise at Marine Corps Air-Ground Combat Center Twenty nine Palms, Calif., Aug. 18, 2016 (U.S. Marine Corps/Lance Cpl. Danny Gonzalez)

"It is the best infantry rifle in the world, hands down," Wade said of the IAR. "Better than anything Russia has, it's better than anything we have, it's better than anything China has. It's world-class."

The M4 carbine and the M27 IAR handle very similarly as they share a number of features. However, the M27 has a slightly longer effective range -- 550 meters compared to the M4's 500 -- and elements that allow for more accurate targeting. It has a free-floating barrel, which keeps the barrel out of contact with the stock and minimizes the effect of vibration on bullet trajectory. It also has a proprietary gas piston system that makes the weapon more reliable and reduces wear and tear.

On September 16, the Genesis II, M60A1 Main Battle Tank arrived at the National Museum of the Marine Corps after a long journey from the Marine Depot Maintenance Command (MDMC) in Albany, Georgia. Upon its arrival at the Museum, the tank was lifted by a crane and placed into its exhibit space in the Museum's Final Phase construction site. The tank will be displayed as it appeared on the morning that it breached the berm separating Saudi Arabia from Kuwait and will be a key feature in the Desert Shield and Desert Storm exhibit in the Forward Deployed Gallery.
