Golf Benefits Wounded Marines

By Mac McNeir

Friday, the 14th of May, dawned in an overcast fashion that had many of us recalling last year's tournament, which was played in a torrential down-pour. Fortunately, as time passed, the sun appeared and the 5th Annual Marines Helping Marines Golf Tournament was played under far better conditions than we had dared to hope.

Nearly 70 participants – some of whom could be called golfers – participated in the event held at the Bay Hills Golf Club in Arnold, Maryland. A special thank you is in order for General Manager, Steve Peterson and his staff, who went out of their way to accommodate us after a scheduling error prevented us from playing on our normal day – the first Monday in May. A number of last minute adjustments and concessions were required to accommodate the necessary scheduling changes but the cooperation between the Bay Hills staff and our golf committee made it happen.

The participating golfers were major contributors to the success of this event; however, we had many generous sponsors – several of whom have supported us from the beginning, five years ago. These sponsors allow us to raise significant monies that will be used to the benefit of Marines wounded in our nation's fight against terrorism. These sponsors include Quality Built Homes, Perry Building Services, the Rich Morton Auto Group, Harbour Liquors, Lauer's Supermarket & Bakery, Terminal Services, the Accutech Corporation, the International Union of Elevator Constructors, the Bank of Glen Burnie, Thunderbolt Global Logistics, Unique Catering, and Bay Area Computers. We also had the support of members of many veterans' organizations such as VFW Post 160 and its Auxiliaries, American Legion Post 195, as well as members of the Marine Corps League.

From the Editor

by Mac McNeir

This is the first issue of the Cutting Edge to be published since the installation of the newly elected detachment officers. In light of the fact that I am privileged to now be serving as your new Commandant, I will limit the content of this column to only those things specifically relevant to the publication of our newsletter.

Accordingly, my comments, opinions, observations, etc., which pertain to our detachment, will appear in the monthly Commandant's column.

It remains my goal to make this newsletter reflective of the detachment's membership. So, I will reiterate the need for articles that reflect upon the accomplishments, and special talents of our members and their families.

On another topic, this month will see the implementation of a cost-saving effort – the reduction in the number of copies of this newsletter that will be printed and made available for distribution via the rack located at VFW Post 160. This decision was made due to the excessive number of residual copies that I find in the rack each month when I stage copies of the latest issue.

As always, I look forward to seeing all of you at our next monthly meeting!

The submission deadline for all June newsletter articles is MIDNIGHT, Thursday, June 17, 2010!

Commandant's Message

Mac McNeir

Fellow Members of Anne Arundel County Detachment 1049

This is my first column as your Commandant; so I will take this opportunity to reflect upon the 2010 Department of Maryland Convention, the 5th Annual Marines Helping Marines Golf Tournament, and the challenges of my new role. I am grateful to have a fine team of officers, who have demonstrated a willingness to be involved and contribute to the betterment of our detachment. These officers, who will serve during fiscal year 2010-2011 are identified below.

Senior Vice Commandant.....Chris Thompson
Junior Vice Commandant.....Woody Bowman
Judge Advocate.....Joe Wright

I am also grateful to Ed Dahling and Tom Maiorana for volunteering to assume my previous roles as Paymaster and Adjutant, respectively.

CONVENTION

This year's convention was another success. For me personally, the highlight had to be meeting Hershel 'Woody' Williams, the sole surviving Medal of Honor winner of the 27 who earned our nation's highest honor for their actions during the fighting on Iwo Jima. I was also touched by the thoughtfulness demonstrated by our National Commandant Jim Laskey during his banquet remarks. In addition to taking the opportunity to recognize those who served in combat during World War II, Korea, Vietnam, Desert Shield and Desert Storm, and the ongoing campaigns in Iraq and Afghanistan... he just as importantly, had those league members, who through no fault of their own had never seen combat, stand and be recognized for their willingness to serve had they been called. A gesture that for far too many members of the military has been long overdue! Congratulations are also in order for James Brady, who was re-elected as our Judge Advocate; Manny Airey, who was named Pack Dog of the Year; and, Paul Taylor, who was named Department Marine of the Year.

MARINES HELPING MARINES GOLF TOURNAMENT

A special thanks to Rich Gonzales, chairman of the past two Marines Helping Marines Golf Tournaments and his staff for their commitment to making this year's tournament a resounding success. Their spirit and dedication are the personification of our motto Semper Fidelis! The result of their sustained efforts over the past few months will enable this detachment to present over $8,000 to Ron Short, National Director of Marines Helping Marines.

CHALLENGES

Filling the shoes of our past Commandant and Detachment Marine of the Year, Pete Pervi, will be a tremendous challenge; but, I am committed to doing everything necessary in my attempt to do just that. Initially, I plan to meet with the newly elected/appointed officers and their predecessors; as well as those officers who are retaining their current roles, to ensure a seamless turnover.

Also of significant importance is the appointment of a Toys for Tots Coordinator. Once a coordinator is found, plans will need to be formulated with regard to our redefined role. As you should recall, our role as the coordinator for the Anne Arundel and Howard County region will be assumed by a yet to be determined individual/organization. A summary of all positions that need to be filled and their associated descriptions can be found in the Help Wanted column on page 13.

With your help, I hope that my term of office will be one of renewed volunteerism and involvement exemplified by a concerted effort to expand our membership – especially through the recruitment of younger members.

Mac

Senior Vice Commandant

Hello Marines,

My first monthly article is a brief one.

I would like to thank all of the membership for their support, which got me elected to my current office. I look forward to serving you for the upcoming year.

I would also like to congratulate all of the other officers, who were elected for the 2010-2011 fiscal year.

Finally, I would like to thank James Brady for the outstanding job he has done over the past couple of years as our Senior Vice Commandant – I have very large shoes and very short pants to fill.

Maryland Marine Killed In Afghanistan

NOTE – The following article is based upon news releases appearing on the Internet on 10 April 2010.

Military officials announced that three North Carolina-based Marines were killed this week while serving in Afghanistan.

Among them was Corporal Kurt S. Shea, 21, of Frederick, Maryland, who was killed on Monday (April 10th), while supporting combat operations in Helmand Province. He was a radio operator assigned to 3rd Battalion, 10th Marines, 2nd Marine Division, II Marine Expeditionary Force, Camp Lejeune, N.C. He enlisted in the Marine Corps in June 2007 and deployed to Afghanistan in November of 2009.

Cpl. Shea's mother Linda, says her son always knew what he wanted to do with his life. Shea's mother stated, "When he was three, he wanted to be an Army man... I never let him play with guns, so he would get a hold of Legos and make weapons."

Influenced by his uncles and grandfather, he was drawn to discipline and challenge. It wasn't surprising for Shea's family when the 2007 Frederick High School graduate committed to the military even before he started his senior year. "He wanted to be one of the few, one of the proud and a Marine," Linda Shea said.

Linda Shea last spoke to her son two weeks ago. Then on Mother's Day – around 9 o'clock at night – the doorbell rang," Linda said. The message that every mother fears was delivered... Shea, along with two other Marines, had been killed. "They don't show up at your doorstep to tell you your son is fine. I couldn't believe it. I just couldn't believe it. My heart was broken, still broken," she said.

The family is working to finalize arrangements and expect to hold a wake on Monday with the funeral on Tuesday.

Not Just A Bike Ride

Over the period of April 24th and 25th, my wife Lisa and I had the honor of riding with our 'Wounded Warriors' through the District of Columbia and Maryland as part of the Face of America bicycle ride. Lisa and I have done many bicycle rides together; but, we knew this ride was special and would bring with it an opportunity to meet American heroes. The ride had many special aspects. We were allowed to bicycle from the steps of the Washington Capital building with DC and Capitol Police escort, down Constitution Avenue and over past the Iwo Jima Memorial. After a beautiful 2 day trek through the Maryland countryside, we arrived at the Gettysburg battlefield.

The ride with the warriors has changed our perspective profoundly. Lisa and I, initially, looked at this ride as an opportunity to enjoy ourselves, and to be a part of a larger celebration of the sacrifice made by these warriors. What we learned was that this ride, was really about the warriors themselves. This was not our ride, it was their ride. It was an opportunity for these heroes to come out together and to show us the dedication, perseverance, and commitment they maintain day-in and day-out. Their commitment never ends! Because of their commitment, we are fortunate to be able to ride, period.

Of course, every successful event of this nature has countless volunteers working behind the scenes contributing their valuable time and money. Most significant among these is our Tournament Chairman Rich Gonzales, whose generosity knows no bounds. Thanks also to his wife Sally, who allowed him to totally commit himself to this huge undertaking. The members of Rich's team are identified below. My sincere apologies to anyone whom I may have inadvertently omitted.

The combined efforts of the organizations and people identified above will result in over $8,000 being donated to Marines Helping Marines.

2010 Convention Highlights

NOTE – This article is based upon an email received from the Department Adjutant, Paul Taylor – See photos on adjacent page.

Commandant Fay recognized and thanked The only surviving Iwo Jima Medal of Honor recipient Hershel “Woody” Williams, who received a rousing standing ovation. Commandant Fay then dedicated this convention to the memory of Denny Bynum.

The following guests were introduced: National MCL Commandant, Jim Laskey; MCL Executive Director Mike Blum, National Mid-East Vice Commandant, Jim Tant; Director, National Marines Helping Marines Program, Ron Short; National North-East Vice Commandant, Richard Gore; National Mid-East Division Chaplain, Guy Hall, 2010 National Convention Committee Chair, Danny Braken, Kennel Police Dog, PDD Jack Severn; and, Vice Chief Devil Dog, Mid-East Division, Jerry Fay.

The Department has lost two Marines from the Anne Arundel County Detachment and one each from the Mountainside and Patuxent River Detachments.

Department Paymaster, Dick Wischhusen gave his report indicating Department monetary assets of $11,649.55.

Jerry Devlin, representing the Maryland Disabled Veterans, presented a check to the Marine Helping Marines Program Director Ron Short, in the amount of $2,500.00. SSgt Taylor Detachment presented the MHM Program Director with a check for $4, 848.00. Recently joined member Craig Reeling presented a check from his New Jersey Detachment for $619.00. A rousing ovation was given after each presentation. Also of significance is the fact that the ladies who tended bar outside of our hospitality suite (Auxiliary members), donated all of their tip money to Marines Helping Marines – approximately $250.

National Executive Director, Mike Blum, spoke at length on the MCL's participation in the Defense Department's "Don't Ask, Don't Tell" policy hearing. He also spoke on the widespread effort to change the Department of the Navy to the Department of the Navy and Marine Corps.

Judge Advocate Jim Brady re-read the proposed by-law change permitting the annual convention to be held outside Ocean City. Motion made and seconded to accept the proposal. After a very lengthy discussion, motion failed by voice vote. A request for a second vote by hand count was honored and the motioned failed once again.

Ray Chatary made a motion to sponsor one of the monthly cook-outs at the Bethesda Naval Medical Center for our wounded troops, for an amount not to exceed $850.00 – the motion passed.

Bud Raines presented an award to Jack Severn for his continuously preparing an outstanding convention memory book.

Former governor Robert Ehrlich and his wife Kendel stopped by and spoke briefly. He revealed his affinity for the Marine Corps has its roots in the fact that his father is a Marine Korean War Veteran.

Commandant Fay asked Jack Colleran to take nominations for Department Officers for the coming year. The following individuals were nominated and accepted as candidates:

- Commandant ..... Bud Raines
- Senior Vice Commandant ..... Ed Ross
- Junior Vice Commandant ..... Stuart Blain (Baltimore Detachment) and Pete Pervi (Anne Arundel County Detachment)
- Judge Advocate ..... Jim Brady

As only one nominee existed for all but the Junior Vice Commandant position, the three nominees for those offices were elected unanimously. Judge Advocate Brady distributed election ballots to all delegates for the office of Junior Vice Commandant. The subsequent vote count resulted in Stuart Blair being declared the winner. The Department Officers had the distinct honor of being sworn in by Medal of Honor recipient Woody Williams.

At the evening banquet, the MODD Pack Dog of the Year was presented to PDD Manny Airey (Pound 204), and the most prestigious department award, the Department Marine of the Year, was presented to Adjutant Paul Taylor – it was obvious that Paul was overwhelmed with the honor.

If you have not attended the Department Convention in the past, you don't know what you're missing. You should really consider attending the 2011 convention.

Tireless Supporter of Marines Helping Marines

Tony Begewald, a past Commandant of the Marine Corps League's Free-State Detachment and Commissioner on the Prince George's County Commission for Veterans, recently received a donation of seventy nine cartons containing 474 hair clippers from Folica, Inc. – a New York City based Beauty Supply Company as a donation to the Marines Helping Marines (MHM) Foundation. These clippers were for distribution to the Wounded Warriors at the Bethesda Naval and Walter Reed Army hospitals. Tony remarked that this donation proves that... “There still are generous people out there! Retail value of this donation is about $47,000.00!”

wald, who is also the Vice President/Director – East Coast of the MHM Foundation, said the donation was received as a result of his email solicitation for hair clippers and shavers back in February. He said that his solicitation was in response to a need to meet a requirement at the hospitals to provide each wounded warrior with an instrument of his own. Once a shaver or hair trimmer is used on one of the wounded in their bed, it must be given to him as it cannot be used on other wounded because of the potential of it being an infection transmitter. Begewald added, “Now that we have the hair trimmers, we are working on getting shavers, preferably the type that vacuum up the whiskers since the wounded are bed-ridden with their wounds and you know how whiskers in the bed would feel! Any company that would like to donate shavers, or anyone who would like to donate funds that we can use to purchase shavers, can contact me at caroletonybeg@aol.com.”

The MHM Foundation is a fully tax deductible 501(c) 3 charity established by the Maryland Marine Corps League in the spring of 2003 to provide extensive emotional, material, and financial support at the Bethesda Naval and Walter Reed hospitals for the injured Marines and Navy FMF Corpsmen returning from the Afghanistan and Iraq conflicts. In 2005 the program became nationwide to by expanding to include the Balboa Naval Medical Center in San Diego, the Brooke Army Medical Center in San Antonio, and the Wounded Warrior Regiments at Camp Lejeune and Camp Pendleton.

The program obtained its 501 (c) 3 status in 2007. The program's website – <http://marineshelpingmarines.org/> – provides information and points of contact for the MHM program; provides corporate donors with a means of obtaining a copy the IRS's 501(c) 3 status notification; and, provides a means for making donations to the program using credit cards.

Parade Priority

NOTE – The following letter to the editor was written by one of our own and appeared in the May 15th edition of the Maryland Gazette.

It was noted by many that the U.S. Marine Corps Color Guard was not leading the Ferndale Days Parade and that the Marine Corps League members and their Jeeps were placed to the rear of the parade. Why? They have always led the parades.

Have we all forgotten the history of the Marines, leading the way?

These men were all combat veterans from previous conflicts: World War II, Korea, Vietnam, and the Gulf Wars. Perhaps, those in charge of these parades would rather listen to the fire truck sirens than the Marine Hymn?

The patriots that lined the streets, showed their feelings with salutes, clapping, hands over their hearts, and cheers.

Thanks to them, we momentarily forgot that the parade committee relegated the Marines to the rear of the parade. But we won't forget!

Perhaps the other parade committees (Glen Burnie, Severna Park, Lake Shore) will position these dedicated warriors where they belong – at the front of the parade. It's a position they earned by their service under the stars and stripes.

Blind Double-Amputee Marine Re-Enlists

NOTE – The following is a reprint of an article by Natalie Bailey – Medill News Service, which appeared in the Saturday April 17, 2010 online edition of the Marine Corps Times.

Three years ago, Corporal Matt Bradford lost both legs and his vision after a bomb blast in Iraq. Despite these devastating injuries, Bradford had no interest in retreating to civilian life. He wanted to continue his Marine career.

Bradford recently got his wish when he became the first blind double-amputee to re-enlist in the Corps.

Cpl. Matt Bradford walks alongside another Marine during Bradford's re-enlistment ceremony on April 7, 2010 at Brooke Army Medical Center, San Antonio. (Photo by Tom Reel/San Antonio Express-News)

In January 2007, the 23-year-old was on patrol near Hadithah when a bomb exploded under him.

“I thought if I got hurt that bad in Iraq, I’d rather just die,” he said. “But I regret having thought that – I’ve been able to do some amazing things since then.”

He spent the next couple of years in various therapies, growing accustomed to walking with his new prosthetic legs. Learning how to do this without his vision was the hardest part for Bradford, whose wounds were so extensive doctors thought he wouldn’t survive.

“At first I couldn’t walk a straight line because of the blindness,” he said. The loss of his sight took a few months to settle in, said Bradford’s mom, Debbie. Everything got easier when he arrived at Brooke Army Medical Center in San Antonio, Bradford said.

Less than two years after losing his legs, Bradford completed last year’s Marine Corps Marathon on a hand cycle. He also led the Tunnel to Towers race in New York City and received the George Van Cleave Military Leadership Award at the 48th USO Armed Forces Gala.

Now, he’s living a life he considers to be independent.

Bradford pursued Permanent Limited Duty status and re-enlisted for another four years in an April 7 ceremony in San Antonio.

“From the day that he first came out of the coma from being hurt, I knew he wanted to stay in the Marines,” his mom said. “I think it’s been a godsend for him to work toward this.”

Bradford will switch from infantry to public relations and be assigned to Wounded Warrior Battalion East at Camp Lejeune, N.C., where he will encourage other wounded troops during their recovery. “I just want to show them that no matter what injuries they’ve got, they’re still alive.”

As the first blind double-amputee to re-enlist, Bradford paves the way for others, his mom said. “He could have felt sorry for himself. He could have wanted to get out of the Marines and just do nothing,” she added. “Having someone with these types of injuries stay in the service shows the Marines are making changes.”

Captain Leticia Reyes, a spokeswoman for the Wounded Warrior Regiment in Quantico, Virginia, first met Bradford in 2008 and has followed his accomplishments since. “His re-enlistment... sets the stage for other Marines to follow,” she said. “He’ll help to really set their focus on their abilities and not their disabilities – for all Marines, not just those who are injured.”

The Fun & Honor Society of the Marine Corps League

Woof-Woof,

Pound 204 had a very successful Growl last month. The very well-attended Growl was topped off by swearing in seven new Pups. Welcome aboard to Pups Ashley, Hoernig, Jones, Kaminski, Luthardt, Thompson, and Wright.

We also did a very good job of collecting bones for the children's hospital in Greensboro, North Carolina, by amassing $317.00, bringing the year's total to $812.08. For all of last year, the Pound contributed $280.00, which was the second highest of any Pound in the Kennel. It is our pledge that we will not be outdone this year.

We also had a very successful Grand Growl on the last day of last month. And we did very well in collecting for the children's hospital in Greensboro: a whopping $428.00, which brings our total for this year to $1,324.04! I don't foresee any Pack coming close to that total. We gave more than any other Pack last year with $552.00.

At the Grand Growl in Ocean City, we initiated seven Pups, advancing them to Devil Dog.

At this point, we have 15 DDs ready to go to Greensboro for advancement to PDD. Remember to get there on Sunday and fully participate in the initiation.

Pound 204 Dog of the Year was awarded to DD Bob Rossi.

Last, but certainly not least, the highlight of the Devil Dog weekend was the naming of your very own PDD Manny Airey as the Maryland Pack Dog of the Year. Congratulations, Manny! You earned it. And the kids in Greensboro will love you for your ability to collect so many bones for them.

As always, keep the fleas at a safe distance.

Remember: It is an honor to be a Devil Dog!

Woof-Woof,

VA Volunteerism

by Ed Dahling, VAVS Officer

VA Hospitals – A Reflection

When I reflect upon the time I've spent volunteering at the local Veterans Administration Hospital, two thoughts come to mind. First, I believe that it's the little things that matter when interacting with veterans. Second, I've come to learn that, contrary to what I expected, interacting with veterans is not a one-way, passive endeavor, but rather an opportunity to forge meaningful friendships. Indeed, the patients often cheer me up more than I cheer them up!

When you see stories about patients in hospitals and rest homes on television and in the movies, you inevitably witness actors experiencing awe-inspiring epiphanies about their lives. In the real world, however, I've learned that the most powerful experiences are often the subtlest.

When I step into the veteran's hospital, the sobering reality of life quickly dawns on me: many residents are confined to wheelchairs, depressed, and in need of human contact. They need volunteers who will listen and show them that there are people who genuinely care? It is the small details – brief eye contact, a smile, a wave, a pat on the back as you walk by – that mean the most. These are the small actions that have the power to make someone's day.

Young Marines

The Young Marines are gearing up for Memorial Day and a busy summer.

We started out the month by presenting the colors at the opening ceremony of the Department of Maryland Convention in Ocean City and will end the month by...

- Helping place 1400 flags on veterans graves at 23 cemeteries in Southern Anne Arundel County.
- Conducting a flag-folding ceremony at Kalis Funeral Home in Edgewater. Commander Martin will be conducting the ceremony.

The Young Marines lost 17 sets BDUs (utility uniforms), which were mistakenly left in the POD container (that was used as temporary storage for toys during the Toys for Tots campaign) that has been returned to its distributor. This put a big dent in our ability to issue appropriately sized uniforms, which cost $40 a set. We will be sending letters soliciting donations, as well as hosting a fund-raiser in the near future to defray the cost of replacing the lost uniforms.

We are looking forward to a busy and rewarding summer.

As always, thanks for your generous support and Semper Fi!

Chaplain's Corner

by Ken Webster, Detachment Chaplain

Please keep all of the following members of our extended detachment family in your thoughts and prayers.

Denny Bynum

I, as well as other members of the detachment, have received Thank You Cards from the family of our late and dear friend Denny. The grace and dignity of Denny's family in their time of immense sorrow underscores the dignity and humanity of the gentleman who served as head of their household.

Frenchy Verrier

Frenchy is continuing treatment for the tumor in his neck. Remember that Frenchy will initiate contact with all of his friends, once he feels ready.

Please notify me if you are aware of any Marines or Marine family members, who are sick, in distress, etc.

Legislative Report

by Jim Le Gette, Legislative Officer

The Veteran Affairs Department has acknowledged that the department has been paying the wrong "living stipend" rate to veterans under the GI Bill. Some vets have been overpaid while others have been underpaid. The problem is blamed on the computer software being used... it's the computer, never the manager. Corrections, hopefully, will be made by July of this year.

DOD advises that after three years, only two of the five Centers of Excellence for our injured troops are operational. The two centers: Traumatic Brain Injury and Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder have been combined into one site (National Intrepid Center of Excellence) at Bethesda, Maryland. The remaining three categories: Vision Loss; Hearing Loss, and Extremity Injuries (amputation) have not been addressed with much progress, possibly because of serious management missteps, as stated by Rep. Susan Davis (D-Calif.). There is a physical rehabilitation hospital in San Antonio, Texas.

The Wounded Warrior Regiment, located at Quantico, was established in 2007. The purpose of the 'Regiment' is to advise of the variety of benefits available to our wounded warriors. The Regiment has made significant outreach by telephone to several thousand veterans. The Regiment can be reached by telephone – 877-487-6299 or via the website – www.woundedwarriorregiment.org.

Reimbursements

I would like to remind everyone that...

the deadline for submitting requests for reimbursement for monies paid to obtain services & materials on behalf of the detachment is June 30, 2010.

Remember that receipts are needed to substantiate the validity of all reimbursements. Please see me if this presents a problem for any of you.

– HELP WANTED –

Toys for Tots Coordinator

Simply stated, we need a facilitator/coordinator to oversee the collection of toys locally, and have them picked-up by the yet to be designated area coordinator. This event will likely not require much time before the Marine Corps Birthday; however, the pace increases significantly from then on and will continue right up to a few days before Christmas. Both Pete Pervi and I are available to the TFTC for insight, suggestions, etc. If you want to be part of a really rewarding experience, this is the activity for you.

Public Information Officer (PIO)

The Marine Corps League is one of the best kept secrets throughout the Marine Corps community. An important aspect of recruiting members is publicizing the existence and purposes of the League. Perhaps the most cost effective approach is to use news releases about detachment activities, meetings, and events. Contact with newspapers and other media can draw attention to the Marine Corps League, and create positive visibility in the community. This is important for attracting members, and for attracting funds and donations for detachment programs.

The PIO can be a major factor in advertising the detachment by maintaining a continuing stream of information – articles, event calendars, public service announcements (PSAs) – flowing to local media (newspapers, radio, and TV).

VA Volunteer Services (VAVS) Officer

Spends time at VA hospitals on visitation, planning and coordinating events (i.e. Bingo, games, reading, etc.) and/or soliciting donations of funds or items that may be needed by the occupants of the hospital. These items may include books/magazines, clothing, and toiletry items, or other items identified by the hospital staff. The VAVS Officer for the detachment should be responsible for coordinating events with detachment members and planning donation activities. A detachment may also serve Veterans and the VA Hospital if participating in the VAVS program is not practical. The VAVS Officer can take responsibility for soliciting donations of funds and/or items to send to a VA Hospital, or to a Veterans establishment in the local area.

I believe that the VFW has been running a successful volunteer services effort. Our representative is encouraged to coordinate our involvement as either part of or adjunct to the VFW's effort.

Cooks – Friday Nite Dinners

Friday Nite Dinners are one of our detachment's primary fund-raising efforts. Members volunteering to cook are responsible for menu planning, ingredient purchasing, and meal preparation of the meals offered for sale at VFW Post 160 on the first Friday of each odd-numbered month. An experienced staff of assistants will help the cook with kitchen set-up, serving, and post dinner clean-up.

I would like to have different cooks to prepare the six dinners that we serve each year; since, having one person prepare the meals for the entire year is asking a bit much – and I do not want to wear-out our new Senior Vice Commandant and Judge Advocate prematurely! Openings are currently available for July, September, and November of this year and January, March, and May of next year (2011).
