APPLICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP: Associate Membership application for Brian Hilliard was received and presented to the membership. Since no one was familiar with the applicant, voting on the application was tabled until members could get a chance to meet the applicant.

READING OF THE MINUTES: Minutes of the August meeting were distributed via the detachment list server (e-mail).

CORRESPONDANCE: Commandant of Detachment 1216 in Marathon, Florida Keys, Michael Rhine is asking for a Nationwide communication to our MCL members who may have a contact with building supply providers to seek donations of materials delivered to the Keys. The Department of Florida has established a dedicated accounting for donations to provide assistance to those impacted by Irma. 100% of donated funds will directly benefit MCL members and the local Detachment in their rebuilding and recovery efforts. He is also asking that we (the MCL) help in communicating to the Marine Corps to have the Marine PAO from the Pentagon travel to the Keys. Mike and a handful of Marines have been leading the way in the recovery efforts. He believes the Commandant of the Marine Corps would very much like to see some PR on what his Marines are doing.
