

Running Through the Clothesline: A Textile Workshop with Elaine O'Neil and Ali Givens

Come create with us

Two friends come together to teach you how to compose and create your own art quilt using clothing that has been important in your life: an old apron, a pair of jeans you can't quite squeeze into, a well-worn baby dress, your mother's favorite scarf, your boy's favorite tie, your dog's favorite bandana, your cashmere sweater with too many holes – anything goes.

Take these garments out of the box and bring the memories alive by making your own fabric collage that will bring you joy every day.
