

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

June 20, 2021

C3 Bullion (“C3” or the “Company”) announced today that they have engaged the accounting firm of Begalke and Associates LLC to conduct a financial review of the company’s financial statements and operations in accordance with the upcoming filing of Form C with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with a future capital raise planned by Securitize Markets, LLC of New York, New York.

Christopher Werner, CEO, stated “The Financial Review of our operations is the first step in relying on independent accounting professionals to oversee and validate our financial condition that will ultimately lead to regular and annual audits.”

C3 Bullion is planning strategic investments in late-stage exploration and early-stage gold and precious metal producers in North America. Please visit www.c3bullion.com
