

Magnificent Father, thank you for loving me. Thank you for hearing my every word, even those unspoken. In tiny details, in glorious movement, overwhelm me again today. Take my breath away and leave me speechless. May I never lose the wonder of being a child of God.*

JOURNAL PROMPTS

Ways I sensed God's fatherly love toward me this week:

Something that caused me to pause in awe of God's involvement in my day:

A desire or struggle I haven't spoken aloud to God yet:
