

Admissible evidence

UCAS

Consequences

Have you ever played consequences?

No?
then here it is - with a twist!

Take turns contributing sentences to the following story.

*On a piece of paper
write your answer,
fold your paper to hide your answer
and pass it to the next player.*

Be as silly or serious as you like.

Consequences

COMPLETE THE STORY BY ADDING YOUR chosen examples:

- (choose a name)
- wanted to study (name a subject)
- so, they listened to (give an example)
- and they read (give an example)
- which led them to interview (name a person)
- next they decided to research (what did they research)
- and finally wrote a blog on (title of blog)
- the consequence was (what happened)

Consequences

[Name] wanted to study [subject/course] so, they listened to [example], and they read [example] which led them to interview [name] next they decided to research [example] and finally wrote a blog on [title of blog] the consequence was [what happened].

Now read out your story

Dictionary definition

'evidence'

1. Oxford English dictionary: The available body of facts or information indicating whether a belief or proposition is true or valid
2. Cambridge English dictionary: Facts, information, documents, etc. that give reason to believe that something is true
3. Dictionary.com: Ground for belief or disbelief; data on which to base proof or to establish truth or falsehood
4. Collins dictionary: Evidence is anything that you see, experience, read, or are told that causes you to believe that something is true or has really happened

Evidence will help to back up examples you want to share.

Think far and wide

In person work experience	Blogs & vlogs	Positions of responsibility	Projects or essays	Mentoring
Virtual work experience	Documentaries	Awards	Books	Tutoring
Work shadowing	Podcasts	Challenges	Influencers	Online subject courses
Paid employment	TED Talks	Personal life experiences	Hobbies	Trips or visits
Volunteering	Articles	Work based learning / training	Clubs	Competitions

It's a jigsaw!

Ultimately, think of completing your personal statement as if it is a jigsaw, built of pieces of evidence.

Browsing history

Go through your online history (or YouTube, social accounts, browser history) for the last two weeks.

Make a note of how many things you have viewed, watched, read or listened to link to a subject or career area you might be thinking about for your future.

- How many link directly?
- How many link indirectly?
- How many are because you've been researching a specific topic in your current studies vs how many are just because you came across it?

Start thinking about the most interesting, most surprising or new things you've learnt.

If you have none then this is your chance to start thinking about that evidence!
