Veterans Day Chapel Service

We had the privilege of honoring veterans during our chapel service on Friday, November 12. Student Government read Roll Call and our secondary choir sang The Star-Spangled Banner. We were blessed to have nine veterans in attendance and gave each one a token of appreciation. Air Force Chaplain Scott Conner presented the message about what the military uniform means and how it protects servicemen and servicewomen. He compared the military uniform to the Christian armor we wear to signify that we are in the Lord's Army. It was such a blessing to learn more about our military and about Christian service.

We would love to give your tree a good home. Thank you!

Christmas Store

Christmas Store is Wednesday, December 8 through Friday, December 10.

We are looking for inexpensive items that would make nice gifts for moms and dads, aunts and uncles, and siblings. Chocolate, flashlights, calendars, and tools make great gifts, as well as kitchen items and adult water bottles. We have already received some very nice items for the store. If you would like to donate items please bring them in to the office. You may turn in your receipt for PSO!

Christmas Store Volunteers

We still need volunteers to help students pick out presents for people on their lists and carry their presents to the wrapping area. The wrappers will wrap the presents and place labels on the packages. Volunteers are needed from 12:00 p.m. until 3:00 p.m. Wednesday, December 8 through Friday, December 10. It is so much fun and you will earn PSO hours too!

More information regarding the store will be sent home with the students before Thanksgiving break.

By Erica Crawley, A.D.
Photos By Judy Nichols

The elementary and junior high boys basketball boasted a night of wins on Thursday, November 11. The elementary hosted local rival St. Ann. The Patriots played a solid game with good ball movement as they topped the Spirits 32-11 in their MMSL match-up. The win on Thursday bumps the elementary record to 1-1.

The junior high hosted fellow locals CAHA. As the Patriots worked at getting to the rim, they also created several other scoring opportunities and were able to top the Panthers in an impressive 38-9 result. The win on Thursday boosts the junior high record to 2-0.

The elementary and junior high boys will be back in action for two more home games next week. On Monday, November 22 the teams play host to Renaissance Academy. Then on Tuesday, November 23 they will host St. Mary.
