Pastor's Corner! July 25, 2021

Today's Gospel contains a number of insights about Our Lord. Most scripture scholars immediately focus on the Multiplication of the Loaves & Fishes as Our Lord's way of anticipating the institution of the Eucharist. He does this by invoking the same basic words and actions which He will use at the Last Supper when he transforms the Passover Meal into that mystery which captures His Death and Resurrection. "Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted." These are the foundational actions performed by the priest each time he celebrates the Eucharist. He takes...he blesses.....he gives/distributes. Another insight which John offers us is the compassion of Our Lord. "A large crowd followed him because they saw the signs he was performing on the sick. Jesus went up the mountain, and there he sat down with his disciples. The Jewish feast of Passover was near. When Jesus raised his eyes and saw that a large crowd was coming to him, he said to Philip, 'Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?' Throughout all of this is the fundamental notion that people are hungry; their hunger is as much spiritual as it is physical, and at this moment Jesus Christ is the only one who possesses both the power and love to address both types of hungers.

However, I would like to draw your attention to another aspect of this Gospel story and it is contained in its last sentence: "Since Jesus knew that they were going to come and carry him off to make him king, he withdrew to the mountain alone." Upon first consideration of this event, it would seem that Our Lord is wasting a critical opportunity to build on His influence and promote the Gospel message which He was teaching. We must ask ourselves, "why?" The short answer to this question is that the response which Our Lord seeks from all those who would be His disciples is one of faith. If He is going to be the center of their lives, they must seek this based on his love, not His power. As well-intentioned and well-meaning as these people are, they are attracted to Jesus for the wrong reasons. He will be a spiritual Messiah, not a political Messiah or a cultural Messiah. He came into the world to change hearts, not political conditions. How difficult this must have been for Our Lord to resist. This moment was right up there when the Power of Evil tempts Our Lord three times; one of those temptations was when the devil shows Jesus all of the kingdoms of the world and offers him those kingdoms if only Jesus would kneel before him and worship him. Notice that as the story concludes, John tells us that Jesus, "Withdrew to the mountain alone." No doubt, even the disciples weren't in agreement with Our Lord for passing on this critical moment. Our Lord simply needed to get away from all of this and regain his spiritual focus.

My brothers & sisters, we would be very naïve if we thought that this kind of temptation is only what the Messiah is exposed to. Hopefully, they don't happen often, but have not each of us been tempted with choices that are both subtle and powerful; where all of those around us would support a response on our part that on the surface had all of the appearances of being justified, but which we knew in our hearts was not the right choice? There is no way possible, that one can make those kinds of choices unless they are a person of prayer, familiar with the life of Our Lord, such as we witness in this weekend's Gospel and nourished by the Eucharist. Knowing our weaknesses and our faults, let us ask Our Lord each day to be women and men whose courageous decisions enable Our Lord to continue building His Kingdom.

Your Brother in Christ,

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The feeding of the five thousand (and more) by the seaside is certainly the most famous of picnics. The miracle of the loaves reminds us of the earlier miracle of the wine at Cana. Like the Cana miracle, this one begins with human initiative as the small child responds to the hunger of the crowd by offering a seemingly meager gift. What could be more appropriate for deep summer than a Gospel account of a joyful picnic with Jesus and the generosity of a child at the center?

The coming month of August has always been a time for delight in the bounty of the earth, for picnics by the sea, dinner under the stars, for porch and rooftop, for parks and beaches, and enjoying the best of local crops. August's festivals of Transfiguration and Assumption have long given Christians the best of excuses for feasting on the abundance of summer: corn, tomatoes, pesto, bowls of fresh fruit. Picnics are a sign of the welcome table of God: always room for one more, always plenty to share, always a place of laughter and story-telling and always speaking to us of our deepest longings. Don't let August pass by without a picnic!
