Pastor's Corner! October 11, 2020

In a wonderful string of parables & teachings, the Gospels of the last 5-6 weeks have reinforced Our Lord's teaching that the Father is the God of Love and nothing less. Throughout September, those Gospels focused on the Father's love in the form of forgiveness; specifically, forgiveness on two levels: [1] Forgiveness that God offers us when we have been unfaithful to him. [2] Forgiveness that we are expected to offer to those who have wounded us or others.

In this weekend's Gospel, Our Lord continues the theme of the father's radical love; a love that is unreasonably generous, open-ended, extravagant. In this parable, he relies on the imagery of a wedding banquet. The king invites all who know him, his family, his son and his in-laws. The kinds of food & drink, the amounts of it all is something one could only dream of. He honors his guests with this invitation; it is an expression of his love for them. In truth, there is no reason for anyone to refuse his invitation, the wedding and his hospitality. Stunningly, many of the "invited" turn down his invitation. Even after he invited them a second time, they treat his invitation as trivial; some went so far as to prefer working in their barn as opposed to celebrating with the king & his family. Incredibly, some kill his messengers. Hopefully, we see the parallel between the characters in this parable, and God [as Father], Jesus [as Son] and the invitation the Father offers to the people of Israel, and to us. There are many aspects of this story that bear focusing on, but we must be careful not to lose sight of the main point which Our Lord wishes to impress upon us; namely, the extravagance of the Father's love for us.

My sisters & brothers, we might not be rich in a lot of material things; however, we should be very much aware of the many subtle ways in which the Father has loved us and continues to love us. We must ask ourselves, are there times or issues in which God has loved me and those I love, and I failed to recognize it? Why? Are there any times, when I am like the King's guests and treated His love as something trivial? Do I make the effort to prayerfully send Him a "Thank You"? If I claim to be grateful for the Father's love, can I be accused of being as extravagant with my love to those around me, especially those who are strangers?

DESTROYING MURDERERS, BURNING CITIES

Jesus' parable of the king's wedding feast sounds extreme to our modern ears. After all, if a king—a beloved celebrity, say—were to invited us to his son's party, which one of us would refuse, much less murder the messenger? In Matthew's Gospel, the chief priests and elders obstinately refuse to acknowledge Jesus' mission as the anointed Son of God. Today's parable suggests that God will punish this stubbornness by burning their city. The extreme violence of this parable seems to be aimed at Jesus' stubborn first-century audience, but falls short of hitting us.

RESTORING RELATIONSHIPS, BUILDING BRIDGES

Instead of dismissing or quaintly smiling at today's parable, we can let the word of God work in our hearts. Jesus, who is the Word of God, exists in all time and knows each of us intimately. He speaks to us today through this very parable. The king's invitation applies to us. The Creator of the universe calls us, and we must respond. Eternal life is at stake. Today's liturgy is a rich opportunity to identify the invitation extended by God. The liturgy itself is our collective glimpse into heaven. Perhaps the Lord is calling us to be more attentive to the liturgy, or to enter more deeply into a parish's weekend experience. Or perhaps our liturgical prayer time today will reveal a call to service, an invitation to care intentionally for strangers in need or for people we know. Perhaps, too, we might discern a call to repair brokenness. Most of us do not witness murder or burning cities on a daily basis, but we surely know of relationships in need of repair. Once we hear the invitation to reconcile with others, we can pray for the strength to respond. Instead of ignoring the summons by filling our time with busyness, we can ask the Lord to help us apologize, or forgive, or begin a difficult conversation. "Many are invited," Jesus tells us. He will help us respond.
