

Gender Speaking Engagements

I speak to groups, sharing my story of adapting to change, promoting personal growth, and overcoming obstacles to connect with others struggling with similar issues. Being an executive myself with an economics background and having worked as a community volunteer, I have rich experience through which I can enrich other people's lives.

The Purpose

- Share the experience of my journey as a transgender businesswoman, author, and former political candidate.
- Speak to people who are currently in leadership positions or planning to become leaders in for-profit or non-profit groups.

The Environment

Whether the audience is small or large, the environment will be:

- Safe, respectful, and sensitive.
- Empathetic and engaging.
- Interactive, with time for questions after the address.

The Audience

The audience can be from many different groups, including:

- Industry trade groups.
- Companies, either large or small.
- Political groups.
- Non-profit groups.
- Educational groups.
- Government agencies and departments.

The Costs

- $25.00 per person, $20.00 per person for groups of fifty or more.

The Time

- This session is one hour in duration.

The Contact

- Ms. Stacey Piercey, via email contact@staceypiercey.ca or phone (709) 276-0891.
