

STACEY PIERCEY

GENDER CONSULTANT

GROUP SESSION SERVICE

I provide a safe environment to explore or learn about gender, diversity and inclusion issues.

PURPOSE

These group sessions consider the surprising and beautiful ways that gender impacts all of our relationships. Whether in the workplace or the coffee shop, or at home. You get to:

- Explore current gender equality and diversity issues;
- Learn about how gender directly affects our public performance and private interactions; and
- Understand how bias, language and social norms can undermine us, making us laugh or cry.

ENVIRONMENT

This service is available online and (hopefully) free of glitches. The learning environment will be:

- Safe and respectful;
- Challenging, fun and supportive; and
- Interactive, with time for input from all participants.

PARTICIPANTS

This session will improve awareness through:

- Creating a positive affirming culture for your group;
- Establishing and reaching goals for greater inclusivity;
- Encouraging future personal engagements to be respectful of gender and diversity; and
- Benefiting from advanced team building tools and problem-solving strategies.

OUTCOME

You will transform and improve by:

- Supporting access and enhancing relationships with diverse communities;
- Establishing and reaching goals for greater inclusivity;
- Creating norms that are accommodating and sensitive for all stakeholders; and
- Refining your product or service towards its intended or targeted audience.

COSTS

$25.00 per person, group rates available.

TIME

This session is one hour in duration.
