HOSPITALITY MARKETING PRODUCTS

STATIONERY

Notepads are useful items to place in hotel and resort rooms, while letterheads and envelopes are perfect when delivering messages to guests. Event tickets can be used as admission or given away at amusement parks or cruise functions.

MARKETING MATERIALS

Every business in the hospitality industry needs an outlet to showcase products, services and activities. For hotels, resorts and cruise lines, booklets and catalogs provide consumers with an in-depth outline of activities at their location and in the area. Flyers and brochures are great for quick informational takeaways in lobbies, concierge or at checkout.

FLAGS

Flags are a big, colorful, dramatic way to get noticed, and are the only promotional product that can stand up to the over-the-top sights of an amusement park. A great way to be seen from a distance, flags are perfect for outdoor use and make a huge statement when used indoors.

SIGNAGE

Turn any basic waiting area into a high-art locale with unique posters and mounted canvas. They are an artistic way to add dimension to a company's logo and designs. Window and floor graphics utilize valuable, usually forgotten ad space, and are perfect for directing guests both indoors and outdoors.

ENTERTAINMENT MARKETING PRODUCTS

PROMO MATERIALS

T-shirts, tote bags and buttons are an exciting way to show off your favorite film or artist and let everyone know that you were there! Great as souvenirs, these products are not only functional but represent important event memories.

MARKETING MATERIALS

A great way of informing patrons of artist info, act schedules or cast credits is with booklets and catalogs. Ideally used as show programs, these materials are not only informative but are fun event souvenirs. Brochures and rack cards are budget-friendly options that make for good menus at concession stands and food vendors.
