
PROBATE

Our Service, Fee Scale and Timescales

The probate process can be complex and stressful if you are an executor or personal representative of an estate, especially if you are dealing with bereavement. There are many unknowns you may have to face, but we do not believe that your legal costs should be one of them. At Rasiah & Co Solicitors we aim to make our pricing as transparent as possible. Since every case is different however, we do recommend you contact us on 020 8543 4040 to obtain a specific quote. Alternatively, you can email us at info@rasiah.co.uk. We set out below details of our fees for dealing with non-contentious probate matters, together with brief details of the service included, as well as estimated timescales.

The estimated fees are based on there being no disputes between beneficiaries on the division of assets and on the basis that there is a valid Will which is not being contested (non-contentious). The estimates do not take into account any complexities in the matter, nor do they include our fees for dealing with the sale or transfer of any property. Please refer to our “Residential Property” fee scales in this regard. The estimates also assume that:

- there is only one property involved
- there are a maximum of 3 bank or building society accounts
- the estate does not consist of any shareholdings (stocks and bonds)
- there are no other intangible assets
- there are 1 -2 beneficiaries
- the beneficiaries are not missing, quickly identifiable and they have full capacity during the entire administration process and they respond promptly and properly at all times
- there are no disputes between beneficiaries on division of assets
- there are no trusts in the Will
- there are no claims made against the estate
- there are no lifetime gifts in the seven years prior to death
- there are no deeds of variations involved
- the estate does not consist of foreign assets
- The above fee estimates assume the following:

The following are examples of other issues that may affect the cost:

- how promptly you are able to provide any information required
- whether any additional assets are discovered in the course of the administration

- whether there is any delay from third parties
- the level of experience/seniority of the person dealing with your matter

Please note that the above lists are not exhaustive and should any of the above matters (or other non-specified matters) apply, then additional fees may apply. Here at Rasiah & Co Solicitors, we have a dedicated team of Probate solicitors, and your matter will be handled by one of the following; if a solicitor is handling your matter, he/she will be supervised by a partner at all times:
