

Civil War Era Historical Days

Har-Ber Village April 23rd, 24th, and 25th

3 Day Event

We are excited to bring Civil War Era Historical Days to you this year! We look for this to be another annual event that will be honored to offer you all.

The 23rd is our home school day. This will be an educational based day for students to come and learn, as well as have an immersive experience of our past.

The 24th and 25th are family days. This has more of a festival like feel, as well as the immersive experience the whole family is looking for!

Saturday Evening, the 24th we will be hosting a Civil War Era Dance! We have a Caller and Band that will instruct you on the dances of the period. Come out and join us for an evening under the stars with music and social graces from 7:30pm to 9:00pm.

Reenactments

There will be several immersive historical activities.

Lifestyles

Immersive demonstrations of everyday life skills during the era. These depict the hardships of war time.

Dance

Saturday evening join us for a period piece dance featuring a caller and band from the era. They will instruct you on dances of the times. Great time to be had for everyone! Admission cost is $5 per person.

Education

Friday the 23rd, is Home School Day. All groups and families are welcome. Reservations required. Call 918-786-6446 for a reservation. Reservations close April 19th unless it fills before.

Shopping

The Country Store is open to sell handmade items made at the Village. Many demonstrators will also have their products for sell.
