ABOUT JEFF

Jeff Lowery is a hard working, creative and versatile veteran digital media journalist, play-by-play announcer, video producer, videographer and editor. His business, APN Video, has been a trusted name in Arizona and debt-free since 1998.

Jeff has produced thousands of videos from sports, events, feature stories, and promotional videos while working with hundreds of organizations.

He served the Maricopa Community Colleges for over 13 years as executive producer, show host and reporter. Lowery has called 13 "Valley of the Sun Bowl" games from 2006-2018.

Lowery volunteers many production hours to promote youth football in Arizona and was honorably discharged from the United States Air Force in 1989.

"Jeff is the consummate professional. He is well-prepared, organized and detail-oriented. Despite, at time, some less than ideal work conditions, he maintained his composure, a positive attitude and most importantly, his professionalism. If you have the chance to hire or work with Jeff, I strongly recommend it."
