To be eligible for a refund, your item must be unused and in the same condition that you received it. It must also be in its original packaging.

Shipping:

Shipping costs are non-refundable. If you are eligible for a return the original shipping fee will be deducted from the refund amount. You will be responsible for paying for your own shipping costs to return your item(s).

Return Process:

To complete your return, we require you to send a copy of proof of purchase with the unopened and unused product. The purchaser is responsible for the postage cost of any returns.

Please mail return to:

NOTE: Please do not send your purchase back to the manufacturer address.

Refunds (if applicable):

Once your return is received and inspected, we will send you an email to notify you that we have received your returned item. We will also notify you of the approval or rejection of your refund.

If you are approved, then your refund will be processed, and a credit will automatically be applied to your credit card or original method of payment, within a 10 days of receiving email.

Late or missing refunds (if applicable):

If you haven't received a refund yet, first check your bank account or credit card statement again. Next contact your bank or credit card company. There is often some processing time before a refund is officially posted.
