

Joe,

Joseph, wonderful son, devoted brother,
Our beloved, handsome boy,
You filled our home with laughter
You filled our lives with joy.

True, sometimes you gave into your temper,
Ever paying the price.
Then, you'd turn on your adorable charm,
And be so incredibly nice.

Adored by your sisters, idolized by your brothers,
You were always mentor, buddy and friend,
You showed them all, you could run over,
around or sometimes through,
Whatever life could send.

There was no one greater at any sport than you.
You held your own, in many a game.
Everybody knew and loved "JOE COOL",
A legend within a name.

As a father you gave your children, a love far beyond any truth.
May they always remember to honor that love,
In everything they do.

Joe, always strong,
in touch with the Spirit,
As a family we are proud to say,
God chose you now
to go ahead,
And bravely lead
the way.

Wait for us,
Your Family

©Mary L Faller

