

"Raine"

I have a granddaughter that lives downstairs
She makes me happy, she makes me laugh,
Everyday I bring her upstairs for a while
I try my best to make her smile
She pushes her cart or we play ball
When she gets tired she starts to crawl
The floor no longer any fun, she cries "uppy, uppy"
When in my arms she hugs me, she loves her Poppy
I give her treats she's not supposed to have Sometimes we have to give them up, 'cause Mommy gets mad
We stand by the front door and look outside
Hurry! Daddy's coming let's play peek-a-boo and hide
I show her squirrels up in the tree
She gets so excited she shouts with glee
I point to a bird in the bright blue sky
It's the same amazing color that shows in her eyes
I don't know how long she is going to stay
But I'm sure delighted she came my way
We all love you and we're so glad you came
Who needs sunshine when
God sent us Raine

Happy 1st Birthday
