B1.2.4 Assumption of Risk and Release of Liability. THIS IS A RELEASE OF LIABILITY. BY BECOMING A MEMBER OF THE PRCA, YOU ARE AGREEING TO RELEASE THE PRCA AND OTHER PARTIES FROM LIABILITY. PLEASE READ THIS PROVISION CAREFULLY.

Members acknowledge that rodeo events, including PRCA-sanctioned events, are inherently dangerous activities. Members further acknowledge that participation in a PRCA-sanctioned event (whether as a competitor, independent contractor, official, laborer, volunteer or observer) exposes the participant to substantial and serious hazards and risks of property damage, personal injury and/or death. Each Member, in consideration of his membership in the PRCA and his being permitted to participate in a PRCA-sanctioned event in any capacity, does by such membership and participation agree to assume such hazards and risks. Each Member further agrees to discharge, waive, release and covenant not to sue PRCA, PRCA Properties ("PRCAP"), all PRCA sponsors, all Members (including, without limitation, contestants, Stock Contractors, Rodeo Committees, Rodeo Producers and Contract Personnel), and any other PRCA-sanctioned event production entity (and each party's respective officers, directors, employees and agents), from all claims, demands and liabilities for any and all property damage, personal injury and/or death arising from such Member's participation in a PRCA-sanctioned event. This discharge, waiver and release includes claims, demands and liabilities that are known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, future or contingent, and includes claims, demands, and liabilities arising out of the negligence of the parties so released by such Member. Furthermore, where permitted by applicable law, this discharge, waiver and release also includes claims, demands and liabilities arising out of the gross negligence or willful and wanton misconduct of the parties so released. This discharge, waiver and release also includes claims, demands, and liabilities by a Member for indemnities and contributions arising from property damage, personal injury and/or death to a third party. In the event that any provision of this discharge, waiver and release is determined to be invalid for any reason, such invalidity shall not affect the validity of any of the other provisions, which other provisions shall remain in full force and effect as if this discharge, waiver and release had been executed with the invalid provision eliminated. The undertakings and covenants of the foregoing provisions shall be binding upon each Member, his or her heirs, legal representatives, successors, and assigns.

MEMBERSHIP

B2.0 General.

B2.0.1 Rights and Privileges. With the exception of local entries at PRCA-approved rodeos, only Active Members shall be eligible to participate in PRCA activities. Only Active Members shall be eligible to receive any awards or benefits sanctioned by the PRCA. Members will be allowed access to rodeos free of charge unless the Ground Rules provide otherwise.

B2.0.1.1 Definition of Conflicting Rodeo Association. Conflicting Rodeo Associations are companies, partnerships, associations or other entities whose direct or indirect purpose is to produce, promote, and/or sanction professional rodeo contests in which contestants compete in two or more of the following events: bareback riding, saddle bronc riding, bull riding, tie-down roping, steer wrestling, and team roping.

B2.0.1.2 Prohibition on Conflicting Rodeo Association Interests. In order to ensure that PRCA members—whose popularity and success are the result of participation in PRCA-sanctioned rodeos and related PRCA promotional efforts and activities (and the associated costly investments the PRCA has made in promoting PRCA events and rodeo sports in general)—are not pursuing interests in Conflicting Rodeo Associations while receiving the benefits of PRCA membership and are putting forth their best efforts on behalf of the PRCA, any person applying for PRCA membership who is an officer, board member, employee or has an ownership or financial interest of any form in a Conflicting Rodeo Association shall not be issued a membership, permit or renewal of membership with the PRCA.

B2.0.2 Cooperation with the PRCA. Any person becoming a Member of the PRCA shall become familiar with its Rules and Bylaws and shall comply with and be bound by same. Upon becoming a Member of the PRCA, an individual agrees to cooperate with and assist any PRCA official in the enforcement of the PRCA Official Rodeo Rules at any PRCA-approved rodeo or in any matter of official business.

- B2.0.3 Consent to Use Name and Likeness. Any Member of the PRCA who enters or otherwise participates in a PRCA sanctioned event, any official or staff of the event, and all other persons admitted to the event shall, as a condition of and in consideration of participation, admission or other involvement therein, be deemed to consent to PRCA ownership of all rights in and to his or her appearance or other involvement therein. The PRCA shall have the right, and may permit others as it sees fit, to dispense, reproduce, and otherwise use any such person's name, voice, likeness, biography, photograph and other pictures in connection with the advertisement and promotion of a PRCA-sanctioned event or the sport of rodeo. However, such advertisement and promotion shall not be made in conjunction with any statement constituting an endorsement by such person of any product or service, unless that person's consent thereto is first obtained. A Member of the PRCA who participates in a PRCA-sanctioned event authorizes the PRCA to act in the Member's behalf as well as in behalf of the PRCA in engaging in promotional activities relating to the conduct of the sport of rodeo.
- B2.0.4 No Power of Endorsement. No Member shall have any right or authority to grant an endorsement to any third-party on behalf of the PRCA.
- B2.0.5 Use of PRCA Logo by Members. Upon becoming an Active Member of the PRCA, a Member shall have a limited license to use the PRCA logo, a copy of which is illustrated on the front of this Rule Book, only to indicate that person's membership in the PRCA. To that end, the PRCA logo may be used on the Member's business cards and stationary letterhead; however, a Member may not use the PRCA logo or any other trademarks, trade names or logos of the PRCA in any other manner without the express written consent of the PRCA. This Bylaw shall not limit the requirements for Rodeo Committees set forth in Bylaw B10.7.14.
- B2.0.6 Advertising by Members. Garments, tack or gear advertising a commercial business, product, service or individual in an arena may only be worn or displayed by Members under guidelines approved by the PRCA Board of Directors.

- B2.0.7 Information Based on Audit. A PRCA Member shall be entitled to rely on the following information supplied by the PRCA National Office only if such information is given through a written report based on an audit of the PRCA Official Standings: (i) all information related to the PRCA Official Standings (including but not limited to prize money won, circuit points and number of official rodeos competed in by the requesting Member or any other Member); (ii) the number of rodeos for which a Stock Contractor has served as the Primary Stock Contractor; (iii) the number of rodeos and total performances at which a Contract Personnel Member has worked; and (iv) information on a Member's performance and standing for purposes of a qualification rodeo. Any information so supplied through a report based on an audit of the PRCA Official Standings shall also be subject to modification as a result of a challenge, as described in Part 12 of the Official Rodeo Rules. Any Member who receives such information supplied by the PRCA National Office that is not both in writing and based on the final audit of the PRCA Official Standings uses such information at his own risk.
- B2.0.8 Bylaws, Rules or Ground Rules Interpretations Must Be In Writing. A Member shall be entitled to rely on interpretations of PRCA Bylaws, Official Rodeo Rules or Ground Rules from the PRCA National Office only that if such interpretation is conveyed in writing by the CEO or his designee based on a request by the Member, provided that the CEO or his designee has the affirmative obligation to respond in writing to such Member request. Any Member who receives an interpretation of PRCA Bylaws, Official Rodeo Rules or Ground Rules from the PRCA National Office that is not both in writing and conveyed by the CEO or his designee uses such interpretation at his own risk.
- B2.0.9 Nonvoting Members. For purposes of the Colorado Revised Nonprofit Corporations Act, all Members shall be considered "nonvoting members" and shall have voting rights only as specified herein.
- B2.1 Release and Indemnification.
- B2.1.1 Assumption of Risk and Release of Liability. THIS IS A RELEASE OF LIABILITY. BY BECOMING A MEMBER OF THE PRCA, YOU ARE AGREEING TO RELEASE THE PRCA AND OTHER PARTIES FROM LIABILITY. PLEASE READ THIS PROVISION CAREFULLY.

Members acknowledge that rodeo events, including PRCA-sanctioned events, are inherently dangerous activities. Members further acknowledge that participation in a PRCA-sanctioned event (whether as a competitor, independent contractor, official, laborer, volunteer or observer) exposes the participant to substantial and serious hazards and risks of property damage, personal injury and/or death. Each Member, in consideration of his membership in the PRCA and his being permitted to participate in a PRCA-sanctioned event in any capacity, does by such membership and participation agree to assume such hazards and risks.

Each Member further agrees to discharge, waive, release and covenant not to sue PRCA, PRCA Properties ("PRCAP"), all PRCA sponsors, all Members (including, without limitation, contestants, Stock Contractors, Rodeo Committees, Rodeo Producers and Contract Personnel), and any other PRCA-sanctioned event production entity (and each party's respective officers, directors, employees and agents), from all claims, demands and liabilities for any and all property damage, personal injury and/or death arising from such Member's participation in a PRCA-sanctioned event. This discharge, waiver and release includes claims, demands and liabilities that are known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, future or contingent, and includes claims, demands, and liabilities arising out of the negligence of the parties so released by such Member. Furthermore, where permitted by applicable law, this discharge, waiver and release also includes claims, demands and liabilities arising out of the gross negligence or willful and wanton misconduct of the parties so released. This discharge, waiver and release also includes claims, demands, and liabilities by a Member for indemnities and contributions arising from property damage, personal injury and/or death to a third party.

In the event that any provision of this discharge, waiver and release is determined to be invalid for any reason, such invalidity shall not affect the validity of any of the other provisions, which other provisions shall remain in full force and effect as if this discharge, waiver and release had been executed with the invalid provision eliminated.

The undertakings and covenants of the foregoing provisions shall be binding upon each Member, his or her heirs, legal representatives, successors, and assigns.

B2.1.2 Indemnification. Each Member (including, without limitation, contestants, Stock Contractors, Rodeo Committees, Rodeo Producers and Contract Personnel) agrees to indemnify and save and hold harmless PRCA, PRCAP and all PRCA sponsors from any and all claims, demands and liabilities for any and all property damage, personal injury and/or death asserted by a third party (defined as any party other than the Member, PRCA, PRCAP or a PRCA sponsor) and arising from such Member's participation in a PRCA-sanctioned event.

B2.2 Membership Application and Renewal.

B2.2.1 Application for Membership. An individual applying for any membership or permit in the PRCA must submit an application using forms provided by the PRCA. An application must be signed and must include a circuit designation in accordance with Section B9.3. An application for any membership or permit must be submitted directly to the PRCA National Office. The PRCA may, in its sole discretion, deny an applicant membership in the PRCA, or may deny renewal of an existing membership, if the applicant or member has been convicted of a Serious Crime.

B2.2.1.1 Legal Age Requirement. No membership or permit will be issued to anyone under the age of 18, unless the age of majority in the state of which he is a citizen is greater than 18, in which case, the membership or permit will not be issued until the applicant reaches the age of majority in that state.

B2.2.1.2 No Financial Obligations Outstanding. No membership renewal in any membership category will be processed if the applicant for renewal has any delinquent financial obligations due to the PRCA.

B2.2.1.3 SSN or Tax Identification Number Required. No membership will be processed without that person's United States Social Security number or tax identification number.

B2.2.1.4 Applications Received after September 1. Membership applications received after September 1 of a Dues Paying Year will be considered for the following Dues Paying Year, provided that applicants may participate in PRCA-sanctioned activities as soon as their applications are granted.

B2.2.1.5 Event Representative Fee. Each active Contestant Card Member and each active Contestant Permit Member will pay an additional $40 and $20 respectively, when they pay their dues.

B2.2.1.6 One-Year Probation. All new Members will be on a one-year probation, and renewal may be subject to review.

B2.2.2 Renewal of Membership. All Members renewing their membership must submit to the PRCA National Office a signed PRCA membership renewal form within 30 calendar days from the date membership renewal payment is received by the PRCA National Office. Failure to submit a signed PRCA membership renewal form by the prescribed deadline will result in immediate ineligibility upon the expiration of the 30-day submission period. Circuit designation must be indicated on the renewal form in accordance with Section B9.3. All membership dues and fees for a Dues Paying Year shall be payable on or before December 31 of the preceding year, said dues and fees to be for the Dues Paying Year that follows. To enter any rodeo, contestants must further comply with any and all Dues Paying requirements set forth in the Official Rodeo Rules.

B2.3 Permit Members.

B2.3.1 Requirements to Become Contestant Card Member. An applicant desiring to become a Contestant Card Member must first become a Permit Member and fill a permit by earning at least $1,000 at PRCA-sanctioned rodeos in an unlimited number of PRCA Rodeo Years. Bareback riding, saddle bronc riding, bull riding and tie-down roping Day-Money will be counted toward filling a permit. In addition, any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the directors may be taken without a meeting if each and every member of the board in writing either: (i) votes for such action; or (ii) votes against such action or abstains from voting and waives the right to demand that a meeting be held. From time to time, any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the directors may be taken without a meeting and through email transmission if each and every member of the board responds either with: (i) a vote for the action; or (ii) a vote against such action or abstains from voting. Such email response to any action in this regard will be specifically recognized as a signature of each member. An action is approved by the board in this regard only if the affirmative vote for such action equals or exceeds the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to take such action at a meeting at which all of the directors then in office were present and voted. No action taken in this regard shall be effective unless writings describing the action taken and otherwise satisfying the requirements hereof, signed by all directors and not revoked prior to the effective date, are received by the PRCA. Any such writing may be received by the PRCA by electronically transmitted facsimile or other form of wire or wireless communication providing the PRCA with a complete copy of the document, including a copy of the signature on the document. Any additional money used to equalize prize money to be paid in an event must come from a source outside that allotted by the current NFR contract with the host committee.

All riding event livestock selected for the NFR must have been drawn for competition a minimum of eight times at PRCA rodeos during the Rodeo Year for which the NFR is being held. An animal selected for bareback riding or saddle bronc riding need only have been drawn for the minimum eight competitions in these two events combined. All riding event livestock minimum performance requirements must be met by the end of the Rodeo Year in order to be selected. A Stock Contractor qualifying to bring selected riding-event livestock to the NFR under paragraph B8.3.2 below may bring only Eligible Livestock.

B8.3.2 Qualification to Provide Riding Event Livestock. To qualify to provide riding event livestock to the NFR, a Stock Contractor must serve as the Primary Stock Contractor at three PRCA approved rodeos with a minimum accumulated total of $50,000 in added prize money, or five PRCA approved rodeos with a minimum accumulated total of $25,000 in added prize money during the corresponding Rodeo Year. If a PRCA approved barrel race is held at that PRCA approved rodeo, barrel racing prize money will be included in the accumulated total.

B8.3.2.1 Primary Stock Contractor Defined. A "Primary Stock Contractor" shall be that Stock Contractor or Probationary Stock Contractor (1) listed as the Primary Stock Contractor on the official PRCA rodeo approval form and on the Rodeo Committee contract for the furnishing of stock, and (2) which owns at least 20% of the total riding event stock (based on the number of contestants entered) supplied to that rodeo. If the final calculation result includes a fraction of .5 or less, the result will be rounded down to the next whole number. There will be no more than one Primary Stock Contractor per PRCA-approved rodeo. If no Stock Contractor or Probationary Stock Contractor satisfies these requirements of a Primary Stock Contractor for a given rodeo there will be no Primary Stock Contractor for that rodeo. The PRCA Director of Rodeo Administration shall have the right to review the rodeo committee contract to verify Primary Stock Contractor status. For purpose of this section, B8.3.2.1 and B8.3.2 no stock contractor shall receive credit as the Primary Stock Contractor at any Circuit Final rodeos or National Circuit Finals Rodeo.

B8.3.2.1.1 Primary Stock Contractor for Stand Alone Events. A PRCA sanctioned stand-alone event which has two or more events will qualify to count for the accumulated added prize money to provide livestock to the NFR. The contractor of record must own at least 40% of the total riding event stock (based on the number of competitions and re-rides) in each riding event at that rodeo.

B8.3.2.1.2 Probationary Stock Contractors. Probationary Contractors in their first year of membership are not eligible to provide riding event livestock to the NFR, but Probationary Stock Contractors in their second or third year of membership are eligible, provided all other requirements are satisfied.

B8.3.3 No Limit on Riding Event Livestock Provided. There shall be no limit to the number of riding event livestock which a particular Stock Contractor may provide to the NFR.

B8.3.4 Pledge and Nomination of Riding Event Livestock. Any Stock Contractor who desires to provide livestock to the NFR will have any and/or all animals considered pledged to the NFR once the Stock Contractor has met the requirements set forth in B2.5.13.5.2. The Stock Contractor must submit to the PRCA Office, no later than September 1 of the calendar year in which the NFR will be held, nominations for specific Eligible Livestock which Stock Contractor will supply if selected. After stock pledges have been made, any Stock Contractor pledging stock who withdraws from NFR participation shall be subject to a fine not to exceed $3,000, said amount to be set by full vote of the Board of Directors, and said Stock Contractor shall not be eligible to take stock to the NFR for the following year.

B8.3.5 Provision of Riding Event Livestock Not Owned by PRCA Stock Contractor. Any Noncontestant Card Member-Stock Contractor supplying riding event livestock to the NFR, any portion of which livestock is found not to be owned by the supplying Stock Contractor (per ownership definition found in R7.1), shall be fined $5,000 for each of the non-owned animal(s) at the subject NFR, plus the amount paid for transportation of each of the non-owned animal(s). Any Stock Contractor taking an animal to the NFR that said Stock Contractor does not own shall result in a two-year suspension from the NFR.

B8.3.6 Provision of Riding Event Livestock Which Have Not Met the Eight Performance Rule. Any Noncontestant Card Member-Stock Contractor providing riding-event livestock to the NFR in violation of the provisions of paragraph B8.3.1 above shall be fined an amount equal to the aggregate amount of his riding-event livestock payments at the subject NFR plus the transportation payments for the animals brought to the NFR in violation of those provisions, and he shall be disqualified from bringing riding-event livestock to the following year's NFR.

B8.4 Selection of Livestock. Selection of all NFR livestock shall be made by the Event Representatives to the Competition Committee from among Eligible Livestock which are to be supplied by Eligible Stock Contractors. Each Event Representative shall be responsible for selecting stock for the event he represents. An Event Representative may select livestock which has not been nominated by a Stock Contractor pursuant to Section B8.3.4 provided (1) the livestock selected is Eligible Livestock, (2) the stock is to be supplied by an Eligible Stock Contractor, (3) the Stock Contractor has pledged and nominated livestock from his herd pursuant to Bylaw 8.3.4, and (4) the Stock Contractor agrees, in writing, within 15 days after the date of selection to supply that particular stock. If any of these four conditions are not met, livestock which has not been pledged and nominated pursuant to Section B8.3.4 may not be selected. No bareback or saddle bronc horses with a history of having to be pulled out of the chute or stalling will be selected for the NFR. Event Representatives shall select 100 head of riding event livestock in each event and have the final list of livestock in each event to the NFR General Manager of Production and the PRCA Administration no later than October 20 of the calendar year in which the NFR will be held.

B8.5 Contract Personnel.

Contract Personnel must be Financially Eligible and must have participated in at least eight PRCA-approved rodeos in the Rodeo Year that they apply for the NFR position with a minimum of 20 total performances in the category applied for in order to participate at the NFR. For purposes of this Bylaw, rodeos at which a Contract Personnel Member works only in a slack shall not count towards the minimum number of rodeos or performances required to participate at the NFR. A Contract Personnel Member may not work at the NFR unless he has filed an application with the Director of Rodeo Administration in accordance with this Section B8.5.1. Applications for all Contract Personnel positions to the NFR will be accepted by the Director of Rodeo Administration up to May 1 of the calendar year in which the NFR will be held. For the one full entry week following the first vote, the same top 20 bareback and saddle bronc riders will vote for two of the top four vote-getters in the pickup men category; the same top 20 bull riders will vote for three of the top final vote-getters in the bullfighter category. The top two vote-getters and one alternate (the third-place vote-getter in the final tally) in the pickup man category and the top three vote-getters in the bullfighter categories will be selected for the NFR. All other Contract Personnel (excluding the Barrelman) for the NFR shall be selected by the National Finals Rodeo Committee no later than October 30.

B8.5.2 Barrelman. Barrelmen must be Financially Eligible and must have participated in at least eight PRCA-approved rodeos in the Rodeo Year that they apply for the NFR position with a minimum of 20 total performances in order to participate at the NFR. For purposes of this Bylaw, rodeos at which a Barrelman works only in a slack shall not count towards the minimum number of rodeos or performances required to participate at the NFR. A Barrelman Member may not work at the NFR unless he has filed an application with the Director of Rodeo Administration in accordance with this Section B8.5.1. Applications for the Barrelman position to the NFR will be accepted by the Director of Rodeo Administration up to May 1 of the calendar year in which the NFR will be held. CHAPTER 9

 CIRCUIT SYSTEM **

B9.0 General Principles. The circuit system is a part of the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association to encourage greater participation and interest in rodeos through a championship system on the regional level. To that end, the United States (“U.S.”) has been divided into 12 geographic Circuits together with one or more International Circuits, governed by separate co-sanctioning agreements, outside of the U.S. (collectively “Circuits”), all of which are detailed on the map. International Circuits may be added or subtracted from time to time.

B9.1 Incorporation and Bylaws. Each U.S. Circuit shall be incorporated and shall adopt bylaws.

B9.2 U. S. Circuit Board of Directors and Officers.

B9.2.1 Board of Directors. A Board of Directors for each U.S. Circuit shall be appointed by the PRCA Board of Directors at a regularly scheduled meeting in the first quarter of each calendar year. One director shall be appointed in each U.S. Circuit from each of the following categories: Active Contestant Card Member in a timed event; Active Contestant Card Member in a riding event; Active Noncontestant Card Member-Stock Contractor; Active Noncontestant Card Member-Rodeo Committee; and Active Noncontestant Card Member-Contract Personnel. These Boards of Directors will represent the PRCA Circuit system within their respective U.S. Circuits. The Boards’ duties and responsibilities will be outlined by the PRCA Board of Directors at the time of appointment.

B9.2.2 Officers. Notwithstanding the duties and responsibilities of officers as set forth under the Circuit Bylaws, the PRCA may designate a Circuit Coordinator to oversee matters pertaining to the Circuits.

B9.3 Circuit and Place of Residence Designation. Each Contestant Card Member and Permit Member, at the time of payment of dues, shall designate a Circuit and place of residence, both of which shall be considered his Designated Circuit and place of residence for purposes of qualification for a Circuit Finals Rodeo. If no circuit designation and/or place of residence is made, that Member's Designated Circuit and/or place of residence will be the Circuit and/or place of residence in which his mailing address is located. If place of residence is challenged per B9.4.5.2, the designated mailing address will be one of multiple factors considered per B9.4.5.1.1. A Noncontestant Card Member-Rodeo Committee's Designated Circuit shall be the Circuit in which the Rodeo Committee's rodeo is geographically located. A Stock Contractor may select his Designated Circuit at the time of payment of dues. The Circuit Finals Rodeo to which a Stock Contractor may supply stock shall be determined according to Bylaw B9.3.2.

B9.3.1 Discrepancy in Circuit Designation. Any discrepancy in the Designated Circuit of record must be brought to the attention of the PRCA within 30 days of the date of payment of dues.

B9.3.2 Stock Contractor's Designated Circuit. If a Stock Contractor's Designated Circuit is the circuit in which said Stock Contractor's home base is geographically located, that Stock Contractor shall be eligible to provide stock at that circuit's Circuit Finals Rodeo, provided that said Stock Contractor meets all other applicable requirements. If a Stock Contractor's Designated Circuit is a circuit other than the circuit in which such Stock Contractor's home base is geographically located, at least 40% or 5 rodeos, whichever is greater, at which that Stock Contractor serves as the Primary Stock Contractor (as defined in Section B8.3.2.1) in that Rodeo Year must be geographically located in that Stock Contractor's Designated Circuit in order for the Stock Contractor to be eligible to supply stock at the Circuit Finals Rodeo for his Designated Circuit (provided that said Stock Contractor meets all other applicable requirements). If a Stock Contractor whose Designated Circuit is not the circuit in which his home base is geographically located fails to meet this 40% or 5 (whichever is greater) requirement, said Stock Contractor shall not be eligible to supply stock at any other Circuit Finals Rodeo or the National Circuit Finals Rodeo for that Rodeo Year.

B9.3.3 Steer Roping Circuit. A Steer Roper who competes in two or more events may designate a second circuit for steer roping (the "Steer Roping Circuit") if there was no steer roping in the Circuit Finals Rodeo of his designated circuit during the previous Rodeo Year. Any contestant opting for a second Steer Roping Circuit shall be considered a resident of the Steer Roping Circuit for purposes of satisfying the Required Participation Rule, regardless of where that contestant's Place of Residence is located.

B9.4 Circuit Finals Rodeo.

B9.4.1 Circuit Finals Rodeo. Each Circuit will have a Circuit Finals Rodeo which shall be governed by these Bylaws, the Official Rodeo Rules, the Circuit Finals Rodeo Ground Rules and for International Circuits, the separate Co-Sanctioning Agreement. Each Circuit Finals Rodeo must be individually approved by the Director of Rodeo Administration.

B9.4.2 Distribution of Per-Rodeo Fee for U.S. Circuits. The $3 Circuit Fee charged each contestant per rodeo (per Official Rodeo Rules R1.3.3.2) shall be distributed as follows: (1) the first $1 will go to the Circuit Finals Rodeo prize money; and (2) the remaining $2 shall be divided at 40% for U.S. Circuit Finals Rodeo prize money, 10% to U.S. Circuit Finals Rodeo Contract Personnel, 20% to U.S. Circuit Finals Rodeo Stock Contractors, and 30% to U.S. Circuit Board of Directors for circuit expenses.

B9.4.3 Circuit Points and Standings. Circuit Points for all PRCA-approved rodeos held within a Circuit shall be awarded. Standings shall be tabulated for each Circuit based on Circuit Points awarded within a particular Circuit to Contestant Card Members or Permit Members who have chosen that particular Circuit as their Designated Circuit. Separate PRCA Circuit points for heading and heeling in the Team Roping event will be kept, with a year-end Circuit champion in each.

B9.4.4 Circuit Points of Permit Members. Circuit Points won by Permit Members shall be counted in the Circuit Standings (provided the rodeo has been designated as an "official" rodeo by the Permit contestant in accordance with rules outlined in R1.7), and Permit Members will be eligible for Circuit Finals Rodeos, provided they meet the requisite qualifications. Circuit Points won by Permit Members will not count towards Rookie of the Year awards. Permit Members of any Intentional Circuit may not designate as "unofficial" any rodeos.

B9.4.5 Circuit Finals Rodeo Contestants. Each Circuit may designate the number of contestants to be accepted (10, 12, or 15) in events held at the Circuit Finals. The number of contestants accepted will be the same for all events, except for team roping, where the number of teams shall be the same as the number of contestants for all other events. In determining the CFR Qualifiers for the team roping, Circuit Points won by a contestant as a header and as a heeler shall be combined, and each roper shall be ranked within his respective circuit based on his combined point total. To be a “CFR Qualifier” for a Circuit Finals Rodeo event, a Contestant Card Member or Permit Member must have selected the Circuit as his Designated Circuit, must satisfy the requirements of the Required Participation Rule described in Section B9.4.5.1, must finish within the top number of contestants in the Circuit Standings equal to the number of contestants accepted in that event in the Circuit Finals Rodeo, must be Financially Eligible and Competition Eligible, and must officially enter the Circuit Finals Rodeo. If there are not enough CFR Qualifiers in an event, the remaining CFR Contestant positions shall be filled according to Section B9.4.5.3.

B9.4.5.1 Required Participation Rule. In order to satisfy the Required Participation Rule, a contestant must comply with the following: (1) If the contestant's Place of Residence is within his Designated Circuit, said contestant must compete in either 40% of the rodeos with that event within that Circuit (based on the total number of rodeos during the previous circuit Rodeo Year which held the particular event for which the contestant seeks to become a CFR Contestant) or 15 rodeos with that event within that Circuit, whichever is less; or (2) Each Circuit Board of Directors must designate prior to the circuit Rodeo Year Cutoff Date whether the non-resident Required Participation Rule will be based on 40%/15 or 50%/15 requirement as provided in the next sentence. If the contestant's Place of Residence is not within his Designated Circuit, said contestant must compete in either 40% (or 50% if so elected by the Circuit Board of Directors) of the rodeos with that event within the Circuit (based on the total number of rodeos during the previous circuit Rodeo Year which held the particular event for which the contestant seeks to become a CFR Contestant) or 15 rodeos with that event within that Circuit, whichever is greater (provided that, if there are less than 15 rodeos with a particular event in a circuit during a circuit Rodeo Year, a non-resident may satisfy this rule if he competes in 100% of the rodeos with that particular event in the circuit during that Rodeo Year). After a contestant has designated a circuit for five consecutive years, he will no longer have to meet the non-resident required participation rule to qualify for the Circuit Finals. After five years such contestant will have to meet the same requirements as a circuit resident.

B9.4.5.1.1 Place of Residence. For purposes of the Required Participation Rule, “Place of Residence” shall mean a locality in which the contestant maintains a regular physical presence and has, at a minimum, a dwelling unit where the contestant indefinitely keeps his personal effects and to which, whenever he is absent, he intends to frequently return and remain for undetermined periods of time. In determining whether a contestant’s Place of Residence is within or without his Designated Circuit, the following factors shall be taken into account: (i) location of place of employment and/or place of college enrollment; (ii) place where state and local income taxes are paid; (iii) state and locality where motor vehicle registration is made; (iv) state and locality where voter registration is maintained; and (v) locality where residential property is owned or leased. Additional factors to be considered shall include, but are not limited to: (a) mailing address for Federal income tax purposes; (b) state and locality where driver’s license is obtained; (c) places where bank accounts are maintained; (d) places where local phone directory listings are maintained; (e) if married, place where spouse (and minor children, if any) live permanently; and (f) places where real property taxes are paid. If challenged under Section B9.4.5.2, the burden of proving Place of Residence and satisfaction of the Required Participation Rule shall be upon the contestant, and the contestant shall have the responsibility to provide documentation and other evidence satisfactory to the PRCA to support by a preponderance of the evidence the contestant’s claimed Place of Residence as of the time of dues payment and circuit designation.

B9.4.5.1.2 Relevant Time for Determining Residence.

For purposes of the Required Participation Rule, a contestant's Place of Residence shall be determined as of the time the contestant's dues are paid and circuit designation is made. Except for changes made due to a discrepancy timely brought to the PRCA's attention pursuant to Section B9.3.1, once a circuit designation is made, that designation can be changed only at the time of the contestant's next payment of dues. Changes in a contestant's Place of Residence during the Rodeo Year or the contestant designated Circuit are irrelevant for purposes of the Required Participation Rule. For purposes of the Required Participation Rule, a Permit Member who fills his permit and purchases a Contestant Card Membership during the Rodeo Year may not change his Place of Residence or Designated Circuit when he pays dues to become a Contestant Card Member.

B9.4.5.2 Challenge to Place of Residence/Home Office or

Number of Rodeos. Any Member may challenge the validity of another Member's declared Place of Residence or home base, or the number of rodeos in which another Member competed, by filing a challenge in writing to the PRCA Circuit Coordinator no later than the year-end cut-off date of the challenged Member's Designated Circuit. If challenged and unable to prove Place of Residence or home base within the Designated Circuit, or unable to prove the number of rodeos in which the Member competed, a Member may be disqualified from participating at the Circuit Finals Rodeo and may be required to forfeit any advancements, privileges and/ or awards received in connection with that Circuit.

B9.4.5.3 Filling of Remaining Positions. If not enough CFR Qualifiers are available after entry closing to fill the CFR Contestant positions available, Non-CFR Qualifiers who have selected the Circuit as their Designated Circuit, who are Financially Eligible and Competition Eligible, and who have satisfied the requirements of the Required Participation Rule shall be accepted as CFR Contestants, in order of their ranking in the Circuit Standings for that event, until all available positions have been filled. Eligible Contestants must enter the Circuit Finals Rodeo. If not enough Non-CFR Qualifiers who meet these requirements are available after entry to fill the CFR Contestant positions available, the Required Participation Rule may be waived and the remaining positions may be filled from among the Non-CFR Qualifiers who failed to satisfy the Required Participation Rule, in order of their ranking in the Circuit Standings for that event. Non-CFR Qualifiers will be eligible for Circuit Finals Rodeo awards only and will not be eligible for Circuit Year End awards, titles or advancement to the National Circuit Finals Rodeo. Money won by a Non-Qualifier who did not meet the required participation requirements will not count toward World Standings or toward Qualifications for limited entry rodeos.

B9.4.5.3.1 Unofficial Rodeo. Circuit Finals Rodeo will be an unofficial entry rodeo for any competing contestant who did not meet the required participation requirements.

B9.4.5.4 Team Roping – Selection of Partners. Top qualifying headers who satisfy the Required Participation Rule must rope with the top qualifying heelers who satisfy the Required Participation Rule at the Circuit Finals Rodeo. If a team member enters the CFR and has not satisfied the Required Participation Rule, after entries close, that team member will be drawn out and the next qualifier in order of standings who enters the CFR will be added. Teams who wish to compete at CFR must enter through PROCOM. If a member has roped as a header and a heeler during the Rodeo Year, his count will be combined, but his money will remain separate.

B9.4.5.5 Year-End Awards. All Circuit Year-End awards, titles, or advancement to the National Circuit Finals Rodeo will be forfeited by a CFR Contestant who fails to enter and compete in all go-rounds at Circuit Finals Rodeo unless such CFR Contestant has entered and follows doctor release procedures as outlined in the Official Rodeo Rules. Championship title, recognition and awards will go to the next highest ranked CFR Contestant who competed in all go-rounds at the Circuit Finals Rodeo. Additionally, only CFR Qualifiers, as described in Section B9.4.5, will be eligible for Circuit Year-End awards, titles or advancement to the National Circuit Finals Rodeo.

B9.4.6 Contract Personnel.

B9.4.6.1 Selection and Qualification. Contract Personnel are eligible to accept any one U.S. Circuit Finals Rodeo of his/her choosing. Participation in more than one U.S. Circuit Finals Rodeo by any Contract Personnel without prior written permission, approved by the PRCA Circuit Coordinator, will constitute an automatic $1,000 fine to the individual accepting his/her second U.S. Circuit Finals Rodeo contract, as well as forfeiting all bonus money and advancement to the NCFR as referred to in all other rules. Contract Personnel for a U.S. Circuit Finals Rodeo, except for bullfighters and pickup men, shall be selected by the Circuit Board of Directors from among those Contract Personnel who are Financially Eligible and must have worked four rodeos in the current (applicable) PRCA Rodeo Year. Bullfighters and pickup men shall be selected by the vote of the eligible contestants in their respective events.

B9.4.6.2 Announcers. In order to be eligible to participate as an announcer at a U.S. Circuit Finals Rodeo, that announcer must work a minimum of ten PRCA rodeo performances in the same Rodeo Year the U.S. Circuit Finals Rodeo is being held. Any announcer that does not meet this requirement and announces at a U.S. Circuit Finals Rodeo will be fined $500 per offense.

B9.4.6.3 Bullfighters and Pickup Men. There will be no less than two bullfighters at any U.S. Circuit Finals Rodeo. The selection of those bullfighters will be made by a vote of the potential U.S. CFR Qualifiers in bull riding within the U.S. Circuit, based on the bull riders' positions in the U.S. Circuit Standings at the time of selection. If bull riders have not made their final selection at least one week prior to the Contract Personnel selection for any U.S. Circuit Finals Rodeo, that Circuit's Board of Directors may select the bullfighters for its Circuit Finals Rodeo. Likewise, the selection of pickup men for the bareback riding and saddle bronc riding will be made by a vote of the potential U.S. CFR Qualifiers in those respective events within the U.S. Circuit, based on the riders' positions in the Circuit Standings at the time of selection. If the riders have not made their final selection at least one week prior to the Contract Personnel selection for any U.S. Circuit Finals Rodeo, that Circuit's Board of Directors may select the pickup men for its Circuit Finals Rodeo.

B9.4.6.4 Applications. Contract Personnel must apply with the Director of Rodeo Administration to work in a U.S. CFR. The application shall specify in which U.S. CFR the applicant desires to work. An applicant may not work in a U.S. CFR if he has not applied to work in that particular U.S. CFR. Applications for Contract Personnel positions to a U.S. CFR shall be accepted by the Director of Rodeo Administration through May 1 of the Rodeo Year for which the U.S. CFR is to be held. Member photographers shall be exempt from this requirement and shall be selected at the discretion of the individual Circuit Administrators

B9.4.7 Livestock.

B9.4.7.1 Eligibility of Stock Contractors for Circuit Finals

Rodeos And National Circuit Finals Rodeos. Eligibility of Stock Contractors to supply livestock to a U.S. Circuit Finals Rodeo and National Circuit Finals Rodeo will be the same as the eligibility requirements set for the National Finals Rodeo except that (i) a Stock Contractor must serve as the Primary Stock Contractor at PRCA-approved rodeos with a minimum accumulated total of $25,000 in added prize money during the corresponding Rodeo Year, and (ii) all riding event livestock for a U.S. Circuit Finals Rodeo must be provided by one or more Stock Contractors whose Designated Circuit is the Circuit holding the particular U.S. Circuit Finals Rodeo, and further provided that no Stock Contractor may be on an ineligible list. Primary Stock Contractors in their first year of membership shall not be eligible to supply livestock to any U.S. Circuit Finals Rodeos or to the National Circuit Finals Rodeo. In order to supply stock at the National Circuit Finals Rodeo, a Stock Contractor must also supply stock at the U.S. Circuit Finals Rodeo of his Designated Circuit, unless that Stock Contractor can adequately demonstrate to the Director of the Rodeo Administration that he was unable to provide stock at the appropriate U.S. Circuit Finals Rodeo due to a conflict with another PRCA-sanctioned rodeo at which the Stock Contractor served as the Primary Stock Contractor (as defined in Section B8.3.2.1).

B9.4.7.2 Eligibility of Riding Event Livestock at Circuit

Finals Rodeos. Eligibility of riding event livestock at all U.S. Circuit Finals Rodeos will be the same as the eligibility requirements set for riding event livestock at the National Finals Rodeo, except that, with respect to the first sentence of Section B8.3.1, livestock selected for a U.S. Circuit Finals Rodeo must have been drawn for competition a minimum of three times at PRCA-sanctioned rodeos during the rodeo-year for which the U.S. Circuit Finals Rodeo is being held and must not otherwise be ineligible at the time of selection. A Stock Contractor may not supply an animal to a U.S. Circuit Finals Rodeo unless the animal satisfies the minimum performance requirements set forth herein while the Stock Contractor is the legal owner of that animal.

B9.4.7.3 Eligibility of Riding Event Livestock at the National Circuit Finals Rodeo. Eligibility of riding event livestock for the National Circuit Finals Rodeo shall be the same as those riding event livestock eligibility requirements set for livestock selected for a U.S. Circuit Finals Rodeo, which is the animal must have been drawn for competition a minimum of five times at PRCA-sanctioned rodeos during the Rodeo Year for which the Circuit Finals Rodeo is being held and that a minimum of $25,000 total accumulated purse will qualify. A Stock Contractor may not supply an animal to the National Circuit Finals Rodeo unless the animal satisfies the minimum performance requirements set forth herein while the Stock Contractor is the legal owner of that animal.

B9.4.7.4 Selection of Livestock for a U.S. Circuit Finals Rodeo. Livestock for a U.S. Circuit Finals Rodeo shall be selected by a "Circuit Finals Stock Selection Committee" which shall be appointed by the Circuit Board of Directors. At least two Directors from the Circuit Board of Directors shall be appointed to the Circuit Finals Stock Selection Committee. Selections shall be made from among livestock meeting all eligibility requirements and supplied by Stock Contractors meeting all eligibility and livestock ownership requirements.

Selections shall be made from among livestock meeting all eligibility requirements and supplied by Stock Contractors meeting all eligibility and livestock ownership requirements.

B9.5 Position Changes Due to Circuit Finals. A contestant may request a position change at no more than one PRCA-approved rodeo that conflicts with a Circuit Finals, provided contestant adheres to the following guidelines:

A) Contestant must request position consideration at time entry is taken at the conflicting rodeo.

B) Only those contestants fouled by the conflict and who qualified for their Circuit Finals Rodeo will be changed. If a contestant does not qualify and is later added to the Circuit Finals Rodeo, he will then be moved at the conflicting rodeo. Any contestant who qualifies for his Circuit Finals Rodeo and is moved at a conflicting rodeo, and then fails to enter or compete at his Circuit Finals Rodeo, will be fined $500. All changes are to be made at Central Entry Office prior to call backs at PRCA conflicting rodeos.

C) All contestants being moved will be moved according to the contestant's position on the conflicting rodeo's priority list.

D) Contestants may not compete prior to or be held beyond the completion of the go-round at the conflicting rodeo.

E) Consideration will be given to keep contestants in the same run on cattle in the timed events, allowing the runs on the cattle to stay the same in back-to-back rodeos.

F) Any contestant who receives his preference at the conflicting rodeo will not be allowed to change his position if his preference at the conflicting rodeo is in conflict with his position at the Circuit Finals Rodeo. This includes all preferences.

G) All contestants will be moved to the first available position similar to their original position at the conflicting rodeo, if possible. The only exception will be in the case of a contestant who has a distance of over five hundred (500) miles to drive. In this case, the contestant must notify the Central Entry Office when he enters that he wants to be set up on the second available position, if possible, due to the five hundred (500) mile rule. If the contestant fails to notify at time of entry in conflicting rodeo, he will be placed in the first available position.

H) No contestant may compete at the Circuit Finals Rodeo at a time other than as originally scheduled.

B9.6 Circuit Rookie of the Year. Circuit Rookie of the Year shall be awarded to that eligible first-year PRCA Contestant Card Member determined to be the circuit points winner within that Circuit as of the Circuit's year-end cutoff date. A Contestant Card Member must have selected that particular circuit as his designated circuit and must satisfy the requirements of the Required Participation Rule described in Section B9.4.5.1, but need not satisfy the other requirements for qualification for the Circuit Finals Rodeo, to be eligible for Circuit Rookie of the Year.

Should either of the qualifying contestants (per event) in a Circuit decide not to, or be ineligible to, advance to the NCFR, the advancement opportunity will be passed on to the next highest ranked qualifying (by the circuit points and the Required Participation Rules) year-end contestant in that event, in that Circuit, who entered his respective Circuit Finals Rodeo in that event. In the event that there is a tie in the average, and one of the contestants is also the year-end champion, that contestant will advance as the year-end champion. The remaining contestant tied for the average will advance as the average champion.

B9.7.2.1 Average Champion. In the event that the average champion did not meet the circuit participation requirement, the advancement opportunity to the NCFR will fall to the next qualified contestant in the average standings. If that contestant is also the year-end champion, then the position will be filled by the next qualified individual in the year-end standings.

B9.7.3 Team Roping. The Year-End Header Champion of a circuit must rope with the Year-End Heeler Champion of that same circuit at the National Circuit Finals Rodeo. Should one of the Year-End Event Champions choose not to compete at the National Circuit Finals Rodeo, the second qualifier will be determined by the highest ranked eligible (by circuit points) year-end contestant in that event, in that circuit. If either of the Year-End Event Champions chooses not to enter the National Circuit Finals Rodeo, the second place Year-End Header must rope with the second place Year-End Heeler, etc. The Circuit Finals Average Champion header and heeler must rope together at the National Circuit Finals Rodeo.

B9.7.4 Entry Fee. Those advancing to the NCFR, who have not already paid entry fees, are required to pay the entry fee payment upon arrival at the NCFR, or according to Part R11.3.1.

B9.7.5 NCFR Committee (“NCFRC”). PRCA may appoint other non-voting members to the NCFRC if the need arises. The NCFRC shall work closely with representatives of the host venue to assure the success of the NCFR. The NCFRC may appoint a General Manager of Production who shall have authority as designated by the NCFRC. In the event of such appointment, his duties shall generally include the overall supervisory responsibility with respect to operational aspects of the rodeo, including contestants, stock officials, announcers, Clowns, musicians, rodeo secretary, and all other production personnel. In particular, he shall perform preparatory functions, including attendance at planning meeting, supervision of ground crew, livestock care and other physical, operational and production aspects of the NCFR. He shall also coordinate the actual performance of the rodeo with other activities such as television broadcasts, bullfight competition, award presentations, and other related activities. The General Manager of Production shall consult with PRCA staff regarding preparation for and conduct of the NCFR, including, but not limited to, the needs and desires of participants and their families. He shall also consult with representative of the host venue to work toward an economically efficient production, within budgetary constraints and mindful of the tradition of PRCA standards. It shall be his responsibility to diligently search out alternative bids, where appropriate, for equipment and materials used in the NCFR production.

CHAPTER 10

 RODEO APPROVAL **

B10.0 General. The PRCA has provided rules and regulations in these Bylaws, the Official Rodeo Rules, and various Ground Rules, for the operation of individual rodeos. In order to receive PRCA approval of a rodeo, the respective Rodeo Committee must meet all applicable requirements of these Bylaws, the Official Rodeo Rules and applicable Ground Rules, and must agree to abide by all PRCA rules and regulations, as set forth in these Bylaws, the Official Rodeo Rules and any applicable Ground Rules. The PRCA reserves the right to refuse or withdraw Membership of any rodeo that does not conform to these rules.

B10.1 Application for Rodeo Approval.

B10.1.1 Application. A Rodeo Committee must submit an application (on the appropriate official PRCA approval form) for PRCA approval of a rodeo to the Director of Rodeo Administration, along with the appropriate approval fee, as set forth in Section B10.1.3, and the appropriate Rodeo Committee dues, as set forth in Chapter 1 of these Bylaws and a designated primary Stock Contractor. The PRCA may, in its sole discretion, approve or deny the application for rodeo approval. In the event that an application is denied, the applicant will not be liable for an approval fee or dues in connection with that particular rodeo. In evaluating whether to approve or deny an application, the PRCA may rely on any factors which it deems appropriate, including but not limited to whether the applicant's rodeo is in the same geographic area as an existing PRCA-approved rodeo, the population base of the marketing area where the rodeo is to be held, the date of the rodeo, the number of tourists in the marketing area where the rodeo is to be held, and the rate of turnover for said tourists.

B10.1.1.1 Definition of Competing Rodeo Events. Competing Rodeo Events are events not sanctioned by the PRCA in which contestants compete in two or more of the following events: bareback riding, saddle bronc riding, bull riding, tie-down roping, steer wrestling, and team roping.

B10.1.1.2 Rodeo Committees. In light of the PRCA's long-standing and ongoing efforts to create popular and successful PRCA-sanctioned professional rodeo competitions and promote rodeo sports in general, including but not limited to creating the National Finals Rodeo event and qualifying points system, soliciting corporate sponsors and television contracts, establishing rodeo rules and regulations, and developing youth and new contestant growth programs—and in order to protect the quality of all PRCA-sanctioned events—any rodeo committee and/or contracting party involved in producing a PRCA-sanctioned event agrees not to schedule, produce, promote or participate in a Competing Rodeo Event seventy-two hours before, during or seventy-two hours after a PRCA-sanctioned event. The PRCA shall have the right to approve specific events that are in conflict with this Bylaw should the PRCA deem any such event to be in the interests of its members and the promotion of professional rodeo sports in general.

B10.1.2 Multi-Year Rodeo Approval. A Rodeo Committee may apply for PRCA approval of its rodeo for up to three years, provided that the Rodeo Committee complies with all requirements set forth in this Section B10.1.2, as well as other applicable requirements set forth in the Rule Book.

B10.1.2.1 Application. Multi-year approval of a rodeo must be applied for on a separate multi-year approval application supplied by the PRCA. The Rodeo Committee shall be responsible to notify the PRCA immediately in the event of any changes to the format of a rodeo or information set forth in the original approval application. Each year, at least 150 days prior to the date of the first performance of that year's rodeo, the Rodeo Committee should file with the PRCA a confirmation form (to be supplied by the PRCA) advising the PRCA of (I) the time of performances and slack; (II) the exact amount of added purse money; (III) the Stock Contractor of record and the primary Stock Contractor (if different) for the rodeo; (IV) the Ground Rules for the rodeo; and (V) any special considerations for the rodeo. Committee dues and approval fees shall be payable annually (the dues and fees for the first rodeo covered by the application must accompany the multi-year application). Each rodeo covered by a multi-year approval application shall be subject to the PRCA Bylaws and Official Rodeo Rules (as well as other rules and requirements) in effect at the time of the rodeo.

B10.1.2.2 Purse Money. The amount of purse money to be added to those rodeos covered by a multi-year application must be approved by the Director of Rodeo Administration (or his assistant), provided that the amount of added purse money may not decrease from the previous year.

B10.1.2.3 Termination of Multi-Year Approval. The PRCA may terminate all remaining years on a multi-year approval if the Rodeo Committee fails to adhere to any applicable rules, regulations and requirements for a rodeo. A Rodeo Committee may terminate all remaining years on a multi-year approval only if an act of God (force majeure) prevented the Committee from holding a rodeo in one year covered by the multi-year approval.

B10.1.2.4 Extension of Multi-Year Rodeo Approval. Upon the completion of a rodeo covered by a multi-year approval, the Rodeo Committee may request an additional one-year extension of a multi-year approval by submitting the appropriate extension request form (to be supplied by the PRCA) to the PRCA. The PRCA shall approve the one-year request provided that (i) the Rodeo Committee complied with all applicable requirements with respect to the recently completed rodeo; and (ii) the Director of Rodeo Administration, in his sole judgment, has no reason to believe that the Rodeo Committee will be unable to fulfill its duties and obligations in future years.

B10.1.3 Approval Fee. The approval fee shall be calculated based on total purse money added to all approved events according to the following scale:

Purse Bracket.....	Approval Fee
$2,500 to $4,999.....	$600
$5,000 to $9,999.....	$700
$10,000 to $14,999.....	$800
$15,000 to $24,999.....	$900
$25,000 or more	$1,000

Each year, at least 150 days prior to the date of the first performance of that year's rodeo, the Rodeo Committee should file with the PRCA a confirmation form (to be supplied by the PRCA) advising the PRCA of (I) the time of performances and slack; (II) the exact amount of added purse money; (III) the Stock Contractor of record and the primary Stock Contractor (if different) for the rodeo; (IV) the Ground Rules for the rodeo; and (V) any special considerations for the rodeo. Committee dues and approval fees shall be payable annually (the dues and fees for the first rodeo covered by the application must accompany the multiyear application). If a Rodeo Committee submits an application for approval which is received by the PRCA National Office 150 calendar days or more prior to the date of the first performance of the rodeo shall be required to pay only half of the scaled approval fee. A Rodeo Committee submitting an application for approval which is received by the PRCA National Office no later than 120 calendar days prior to the first performance of the rodeo shall be required to pay only three-quarters of the scaled approval fee. A Rodeo Committee submitting an application for approval which is received by the PRCA National Office less than 120 calendar days prior to the first performance of the rodeo shall be required to make full payment of the scaled approval fee. An application for approval which is received by the PRCA National Office less than 90 calendar days prior to the rodeo may be denied but, if approved, will result in required payment of $100 above the scaled approval fee.

- B10.1.4 Ground Rules. Rodeo Committees requesting special competition Ground Rules must submit a copy of the proposed Ground Rules and an explanation of the reason for the requested change along with the application for approval at least 150 calendar days prior to the first scheduled competition of the rodeo, and must be approved by the appropriate Event Representatives and the Director of Rodeo Administration. Any special Ground Rules approved by the PRCA will be enforced by the PRCA, and corresponding fines will be assessed and collected by the PRCA.
- B10.1.5 Limitation on Acceptance of Contestant Card Members. Other than the National Finals Rodeo, the National Circuit Finals Rodeo and any Circuit Finals Rodeo, a rodeo must be open for competition to all Contestant Card Members, unless specific limitations are set forth in the application for approval and are approved by the Director of Rodeo Administration and the Event Representative.
- B10.1.6 Permits. A rodeo applying for PRCA approval must set forth its policy on accepting Permit Members (pursuant to the rules listed in the Official Rodeo Rules) in the application for approval. Unless a rodeo specifically notifies the PRCA in its application for approval that it will accept Permit Member entries, no Permit Member entries will be allowed at that rodeo, except for those rodeos required to accept Permit Members under these Bylaws.

- B10.1.7 Special Permit Sections. When applying for approval, a Rodeo Committee may request approval to hold a special section of any of the standard rodeo events for permit holders during the rodeo. The committee shall establish maximum limits, if any, at the time of approval. The special section shall be in addition to the standard events. Such special sections shall be limited to permit card holders. The added purse money for the permit events shall be no less than $250 and shall be separate from, and in addition to, the purse for the standard events. A permit card holder may enter the regular rodeo in addition to the special permit section.
- B10.1.8 Non-PRCA Events. Any non-PRCA events to be held during a rodeo must be listed on the application for approval. If a Rodeo Committee desires to hold a “local competition” or some other form of non-sanctioned competition in a rodeo, which competition is one of the following events: bareback, saddle bronc, bull riding, team roping, steer wrestling, tie-down roping or steer roping, that rodeo must also hold a PRCA-sanctioned competition for that event during the rodeo, and the Rodeo Committee must add at least as much prize money to the PRCA-sanctioned competition as it adds to the local competition. The Rodeo Committee remains subject to the terms of the Featured Event Bylaw set forth in Section B10.3.1 with respect to prize money added to the PRCA-sanctioned competition. Failure to comply with this Bylaw shall be grounds for denial of approval of a rodeo, or shall be grounds for imposition of a fine of $1,500 per performance in which the local competition is held, which fine shall be assessed against the offending Rodeo Committee. Unless otherwise approved by the Event Representative and the Director of Rodeo Administration, this Bylaw shall not prohibit an “exhibition event,” the entire net proceeds of which will benefit one or more charities, from being held at a rodeo where a sanctioned PRCA competition is not held in that event. However, no more than five competitions per performance will be accepted.
- B10.1.9 Performance-Preference. Any Performance-Preference modification of any part of the rodeo (as described in this Section B10.1.19) must be listed on the application for approval and approved by the Director of Rodeo Administration.
- B10.1.10 Exclusion of Members from Rodeo Grounds. If a Rodeo Committee intends not to afford any Members not participating in the rodeo admittance to the rodeo grounds free of charge, such exclusion must be stated on the application for approval and approved by the Director of Rodeo Administration.
- B10.1.11 Special Consideration for Excess Entries. Any Rodeo Committee desiring special consideration to modify entry rules to alleviate an excess number of entries must request such special consideration on the application for approval, and such special consideration must be approved by the Director of Rodeo Administration.

- B10.1.12 Finals. If a Rodeo Committee wishes to modify its rules for qualifiers competing in a finals, such request to hold finals or modify rules for qualification must be set forth on the application for approval and approved by the Director of Rodeo Administration.
- B10.1.13 Commercial Sponsorship Agreement. A Rodeo Committee seeking approval of a rodeo must execute a PRCA Commercial Sponsorship Agreement and return said Agreement to the Director of Rodeo Administration along with the Application for Approval.
- B10.1.14 Performances and Slack. A rodeo will be approved by the Director of Rodeo Administration only after slack for that rodeo has been coordinated with conflicting rodeos.
- B10.1.14.1 Application Information. With respect to scheduling of performance or slack, the application for approval must set forth the time all performances start and the day(s) and time(s) when slack will be run.
- B10.1.14.2 Notification. Should a Rodeo Committee run contestants before the final scheduled performance of the rodeo, notification of such arrangement must be carried in the PRCA Business Section pursuant to the procedure set forth in Section B10.11 of these Bylaws.
- B10.1.15 Events. A rodeo must include bareback riding, saddle bronc riding, bull riding, tie-down roping, steer wrestling and team roping to be approved.
- B10.1.15.1 A rodeo committee adding less than $1,000 per event must have equal money in the team roping.
- B10.1.16 Special Events. Upon special application, the Board of Directors may accept any rodeo or rodeo event which is deemed by the Board of Directors to reflect substantially upon the business reputation and public image of the PRCA. A Special Event will not be included in PRCA membership insurance coverage unless coverage is specifically approved by the Board of Directors.
- B10.1.17 Prize Money. A Rodeo Committee must comply with all rules pertaining to prize money and purse money as set forth in the Bylaws and the Official Rodeo Rules.
- B10.1.17.1 Minimum Purse Money Added by a Rodeo. To receive PRCA approval, all Rodeo Committees must add at least $250 per required event, per performance, or $500 per required event at a one-performance rodeo.
- B10.1.17.2 Deposit in Escrow. Any Rodeo Committee may be required to put all purse money in escrow with the PRCA. Additionally, when a Rodeo Committee is required by the PRCA to place guaranteed purse money in escrow, the PRCA may also require that Rodeo Committee to place in escrow a sum of money equal to the value of any contract signed with a PRCA Member.

B10.1.18 New Rodeo in Same Marketing Area as Existing Rodeo. A Rodeo Committee which is applying for approval as a PRCA-sanctioned event for the first time and whose rodeo is in the same marketing area as an existing PRCA-approved rodeo (established for at least two years) will not be approved by the Director of Rodeo Administration if any of the Rodeo Committees whose rodeos are in the marketing area object to such approval; however, if a Rodeo Committee so objects, the application may be submitted to the Board of Directors for approval. For purposes of this Bylaw only, the Rodeo Committee of an existing PRCA-sanctioned event which applies to change the date of its event by more than two weeks from the corresponding date of the previous year shall be treated as a Rodeo Committee applying for approval for the first time. The Board may review the consequences of approving the rodeo after one or two years and may withdraw approval of the application at that time.

B10.1.19 Performance-Preference. Each Rodeo Committee will have the option of requesting Non-Performance-Preference; the acceptance of that request is subject to approval by the Board of Directors. For Performance-Preference Rodeos, the following rules apply:

B10.1.19.1 Request of Performance-Preference. A Rodeo Committee, if it so requests at time of approval, may specify “riding-event performance-preference,” “timed-event performance-preference,” “all performance-preference,” or “no performance-preference.”

B10.1.19.2 Back-to-Back. Performance-Preference may be accepted in events approved for back-to-back.

B10.1.19.3 Timed Events Features. In the timed events where the competition format is two go rounds back-to-back the same day, a Rodeo Committee may feature up to two contestants and move them into the performance from the slack after the performance only. The move must be done by 5 p.m. on the first business day following the first go-round trade deadline.

B10.1.20 No Stock Charge for Permit Members. The Stock Contractor has the option to apply for a Ground Rule whereby Permit Members (in any event) would not be required to pay a stock charge.

B10.1.21 Special Status. A Rodeo Committee may request, in its application for approval, Special Status as defined in Section B10.5.4 of these Bylaws. If such status is granted, that status must be reflected in PRCA Business Section listings for that rodeo.

B10.1.22 Arena Advertising. Any advertising in an arena shall be subject to the control of the PRCA.

B10.2 Special Considerations. Any Rodeo Committee which has an excessive number of entries may apply for special consideration at time of rodeo approval. Available special considerations include, but are not limited to, the following:

- B10.2.1 Progressive Go-Round. A progressive go-round and/or multiple progressive go-rounds may be approved in any event by the PRCA Director of Rodeo Administration and the Event Representative, if so requested at time of approval by the Rodeo Committee. The PRCA Director of Rodeo Administration and the Event Representative may approve progressive entry fees at these rodeos. Refer to Rule R7.8.4 for the required minimum number of animals for the timed events in order for a progressive go-round to be approved.
- B10.2.2 Steer Roping Qualifiers. In the steer roping, the number of qualifiers that advance to a progressive go-round will be a minimum of 18, and a maximum of 24, with a minimum of 6 contestants competing in a performance. The number of qualifiers must be approved by the event representative and the Director of Rodeo Administration at time of rodeo approval.
- B10.2.3 Eliminate Slack in the Bull Riding. Rodeos may be approved with Ground Rules to eliminate slack in the bull riding, provided there is an agreement for such between the Stock Contractor, Event Representative and Rodeo Committee. The Rodeo Committee agrees to subsidize the purse in exchange for eliminating slack in accordance with added money as indicated in Rule R1.2.15.
- B10.2.4 Eliminate Slack in Bareback Riding and Saddle Bronc Riding. Rodeos may be approved with Ground Rules to eliminate slack in the saddle bronc and/or bareback riding, provided there is an agreement for such between the Stock Contractor, Event Representative and Rodeo Committee. The Rodeo Committee agrees to subsidize the purse in exchange for eliminating slack in accordance with added money as indicated in Rule R1.2.15.
- B10.2.5 Permits Maximum. At rodeos where limits are set and the compensation formula is in effect and Permits Maximum is used (see B10.5.4.1), Permit Members drawn out per the Permits Maximum procedure shall not be subject to compensation.
- B10.2.6 Non-Same Performance Back-to-Back. A Rodeo Committee, with the approval of the Director of Rodeo Administration and the Event Representative at the time of rodeo approval, may utilize back-to-back.
- B10.2.7 Same Performance Back-to-Back. A Rodeo Committee, with approval of the Director of Rodeo Administration and the Event Representative at the time of rodeo approval, may utilize back-to-back, same performance (For back-to-back, non-same performance, see B10.2.6). In this instance, two sections of the event in question (at least 20 minutes apart) will be required for each performance utilizing back-to-back, same performance. If this option is approved, it must be used.

- B10.2.8 Drawing Out of Contestants in the Slack. If approved at the time of rodeo approval, a Rodeo Committee may provide that all positions be drawn in accordance with Part 2 of the Official Rodeo Rules and all contestants drawn in the slack be automatically drawn out of the rodeo.
- B10.2.9 Dollar-Won Qualification. A Rodeo Committee, with the approval of the Director of Rodeo Administration and the Event Representative at the time of rodeo approval, may implement “Dollar-Won” qualification as provided in Official Rodeo Rules R1.2.14 and its subparts.
- B10.2.10 Co-Approval For Two or More Circuits. Rodeos that add $6,000 on or after Jan. 1, 2017 and increased by 1% each Jan. 1 thereafter, or less per event may request co-approval for one or more additional circuits. Criteria is as follows: a) Must be a bordering circuit b) rodeo must be within 200 miles of contestant’s home circuit. Money won will be counted as official earnings for his circuit standings/points however the rodeo will not count towards his circuit count.
- B10.3 Purse Money.
- B10.3.1 Featured Events. For any new featured event, no PRCA required event shall have more or less money added to that event’s purse than is added to the purse of any other PRCA event at a PRCA-approved rodeo unless otherwise approved by the PRCA Board of Directors or the Director of Rodeo Administration. However, a Rodeo Committee shall have the option of adding money to the purse for up to three events selected by the Rodeo Committee to be its featured event or events in an amount that is up to double the base money added by the Rodeo Committee to the purses of the other PRCA events approved for the rodeo (such base added money in the other events shall not, for purposes of determining the double money, include those events whose purse is compensated for limited entries). The rodeo committee must provide equal money in the team roping to use this option. Any additional moneys which may be added in a featured event or events at the Rodeo Committee’s election shall not be considered by the Director of Rodeo Administration in the determination of the amount of “fair and just” money to be added by the Rodeo Committee to the purses of the other PRCA events. Moreover, any Rodeo Committee electing to increase the added purse money in a given event or events may not, without the approval of the PRCA Board of Directors, reduce the base added money for the other PRCA events held at its rodeo from that which was added by the Rodeo Committee to those events in the previous year.

B10.3.2 Team Roping. Unless otherwise approved by the PRCA Board of Directors or the Director of Rodeo Administration, the money added to the team roping purse must be a minimum of the same as the money added to the purses of the other standard events. The Rodeo Committee may, at its discretion, add additional money to the team roping event provided the total purse for the team roping is not more than double the added money for each of the other standard events.

B10.4 Finals. A Rodeo Committee requesting to hold a finals in its rodeo must add at least $12,500 purse money to each event which has a finals and have equal money in the team roping. In order to maintain a finals, a Rodeo Committee must increase its purse money by a minimum of 5% per year each year following initially adding $12,500 in purse money per event. Once the added purse money per event reaches $20,000 a Rodeo Committee is not required to add any more money in order to continue with a finals. If a Rodeo Committee has a finals in one or more events, the Rodeo Committee must add no less than half of the money offered in the event with a finals to each of the remaining PRCA required events.

B10.4.1 Finals Performance. Unless otherwise approved at the time of rodeo approval, no finals in any event shall be scheduled during the same performance in which a regular go-round competition in that event is scheduled.

B10.4.2 Eligibility for Final Head. Only the number of qualifying contestants, specified prior to the first performance, for a finals will be eligible to receive the final head.

B10.4.3 Finals Contestants. Unless otherwise approved at the time of rodeo approval by the Director of Rodeo Administration, the standard procedure for selecting finals contestants shall be:

A) Two or more head with a finals: Top 12. Ties will be broken by the highest marked ride or fastest time on any one head. If still tied, the tie will be broken by the second highest marked ride or time on any one head. If still tied, the next highest mark or time will be used, with the process repeated until the tie is broken. If still tied, all will be accepted.

B) One head with a finals: Top 12. If 12th place split, drop all splits and use 11 contestants. If 11th place split resulting in more than 12, drop all those splits and go to top 10. If 10th place split resulting in more than 12, all must be accepted.

B10.4.4 Eligibility. All qualifiers for a finals including additional contestants resulting from ties, shall be eligible to compete during the finals performance. Any deviation from this must be approved at the time of rodeo approval.

B10.5 Permit Member Contestants.

B10.5.1 Rodeos Accepting Permit Members. Unless a Rodeo Committee has indicated its intention to accept Permit Members as contestants in the application for rodeo approval, a rodeo may not accept Permit Members as contestants. Rodeos may accept Permit Members in specific events when carried in the listing of their rodeo in the PRCA Business Section pursuant to section B10.11 of these Bylaws.

B10.5.2 Permit Members Required to Contest. All rodeos that add $5,000 or less in purse money per event must accept Permit Members as contestants in each event pursuant to either Circuit Permits, All Permits, Circuit Permits Maximum or Permits Maximum special status as set forth in B10.5.4; provided, however, that rodeos with four or more performances that add $5000 or less in purse money per event are not required to accept Permit Members under the terms specified in this Bylaw B10.5.2 as contestants in the timed events.

B10.5.3 Steer Roping Rodeos. Rodeos with fewer than four performances which add less than $1,000 in the steer roping must accept Permit Members as contestants in the steer roping.

B10.5.4 Special Status Rodeos. A Rodeo Committee adding $5,000 or more in purse money per event may request, in its application for approval, that any of its rodeo events be granted "Circuit Permits," "All Permits," "Circuit Permits Maximum" or "Permits Maximum" status.

B10.5.4.1 Permits Maximum. Any rodeo with such special status will be required to accept all entries from all PRCA Contestant Card Members. If PRCA Contestant Card Member entries alone do not constitute 15 competitions per event per day or 10 competitions per event per performance (whichever is greater), said rodeo will be required to accept all and/or enough of Permit Members from the designated class of Permit Members to fill the remaining competitor positions. If local entries are to be accepted, they are not to be counted when determining the number of permits that will be accepted.

EXAMPLE FOR ONE GO-ROUND: A rodeo with three performances in three days has 35 Contestant Card Members entered in a specific event. Said rodeo must accept all 35 Contestant Card Members entered and at least enough of the Permit Members to make a total of 45 entries (thus 10 of the Permit Members. These 10 will be determined by a random draw.)

EXAMPLE FOR TWO GO-ROUNDS: A rodeo with four performances in four days has 25 Contestant Card Members entered and 40 Permit Members entered in a specific event. Said rodeo must accept all 25 Contestant Card Members entered, and at least enough of the Permit Members to make a total of 30 entries times two runs (or five Permit Members). For all events (except team roping), a rodeo accepting Permits Maximum must accept enough Permit Members to satisfy the requirements outlined in Section B10.5. However, a minimum of five permits must be accepted through a random draw.

B10.5.4.1.1 Excess Entries. Stock Contractor/Rodeo Committee/Rodeo Producer shall have the option of accepting all or any part of Permit Members that make up the excess entries.

B10.5.4.1.2 Team Roping. Permits Maximum will not apply to the team roping event.

B10.5.4.1.3 Limited Rodeos With Permits Maximum. At limited rodeos with Permits Maximum, if the number of Contestant Card Members exceeds the requirements for Permits Maximum, no Permit Member entries need be accepted.

B10.5.4.1.4 Limited Rodeos-Number of Competitions. At limited rodeos, the number of competitions required per performance for Permits Maximum shall not exceed the per-performance limits set.

B10.6 Local Entries.

B10.6.1 Eligibility. No local entries shall be accepted at PRCA-sanctioned events, except where local entries must be accepted pursuant to state law. It shall be the responsibility of the Rodeo Committee to inform the PRCA, in the application for rodeo approval, that state law requires local entries to be accepted at that event and to provide the PRCA with legal authority in support of such requirement. However, in no instance will local entries be accepted in the bull riding. All references to local entries set forth in these Bylaws or the Official Rodeo Rules shall apply only to those events which must accept local entries pursuant to state law and shall not be construed to allow a Rodeo Committee to accept local entries unless required by state law. Local entries must not be on the PRCA's ineligible list and may compete at no more than one PRCA-sanctioned rodeo per year as a local entry. Collection of entry fees and related fees as charged Contestant Card Members or Permit Members for local entries shall be the responsibility of the Rodeo Committee. No local entry under the age of eighteen or the age of majority of the state of which he is a citizen (whichever is greater) will be accepted. The PRCA accepts no responsibility for property damage, personal injuries, or other claims arising from local entries participating in PRCA-sanctioned rodeos. Each local entry must sign a PRCA-approved release form.

B10.6.2 Limited Rodeos. At limited entry rodeos, if local entries are accepted, all local entries will be accepted in addition to the maximum number of entries approved by the Rodeo Committee.

B10.6.3 Insurance and Entry Fees. All local entries will be required to purchase an accident insurance policy for a premium of $15. This $15 premium and a $10 administrative fee per entry and entry fees and charges must be collected by the Rodeo Committee prior to entering the local entries with the Central Entry Office.

B10.6.4 Entry With the Central Entry Office. The Rodeo Committee shall submit each local entry's name, event and Social Security number to the Central Entry Office at such time as determined by the Central Entry Office. Verification of the Social Security number of each local entry is the responsibility of the Rodeo Committee. If a local team roper is partnered with a Contestant Card Member team roper, the local entry must be submitted with both partners' names. Additionally the Contestant Card Member will be required to submit an official entry through the Central Entry Office according to the regular Central Entry Office procedure.

B10.6.5 Ineligible List. Any local entry found to be on the PRCA ineligible list after he has competed will be fined an amount equal to prize money won by that contestant at that rodeo, plus his entry fees and charges. If found to be on the ineligible list after entering but before completion of the rodeo, such local entry shall be immediately disqualified.

B10.6.6 Infractions. A Rodeo Committee accepting local entries will assume full responsibility for any fines related to infractions committed by the local entries.

B10.7 Rodeo Committee Procedures.

B10.7.1 Change in Original Approval. Any changes in the format of a rodeo approved by the Director of Rodeo Administration after original approval must be listed in the PRCA Business Section pursuant to the procedure set forth in Section B10.11 of these Bylaws.

B10.7.2 Office for Arena Secretary. The Rodeo Committee shall provide office facilities for the Arena Secretary at the arena. Said facilities shall provide shelter and security for Arena Secretary equipment.

B10.7.3 Contract Personnel. With the exception of riding groups and specialty act personnel under the age of majority, all Contract Personnel hired by a Rodeo Committee or Stock Contractor in connection with a PRCA-approved rodeo shall be Noncontestant Card Member-Contract Personnel. A Rodeo Committee, Rodeo Producer or Stock Contractor which hires non-Member Contract Personnel will be subject to a $1000 fine per rodeo, per individual hired, except in the case of Timers and pickup men. Using a non-Member Pickup Man or non-Member Timer will result in a fine of $250 per rodeo.

B10.7.4 Contract Personnel Salaries. Although the PRCA has no established minimum salary for Contract Personnel, the PRCA expects each rodeo to pay fair salaries to Contract Personnel. One factor to be used in determining a fair salary shall be the size of a rodeo.

B10.7.5 Judges. The PRCA shall assign judges for all PRCA events. The Rodeo Committee shall provide judges for all non-PRCA events held during a rodeo.

B10.7.6 Judges' Fees. A Rodeo Committee shall pay to the PRCA $225 per performance per judge. A Bull riding special section will be considered a performance and require an additional $225 per judge. This fee is in addition to the fees paid by the sponsors and contestants. Rodeo Committees will be charged an amount equal to the per diem paid per judge required to be at the rodeo prior to the day of the first performance or any days between performances in which no rodeo activity takes place.

B10.7.6.1 New Rodeos. Rodeo Committees of all new rodeos must deposit an amount equal to the judges' fees in escrow with the PRCA no later than 30 days prior to the first performance of that rodeo.

- B10.7.6.2 Established Rodeos. All established rodeos must pay judges' fees within 60 days from the date of the statement billing such fees. Failure to pay judges' fees by the prescribed deadline shall result in a $25 fine per month such payment is delinquent. Additionally, any rodeo which fails to pay judges' fees by the prescribed deadline shall be required to deposit judges' fees in escrow with the PRCA no later than 30 days prior to the first performance of the following year's rodeo.
- B10.7.7 Provide Ambulance. The Rodeo Committee shall cause an ambulance, licensed in the jurisdiction where the rodeo is held and fully approved to transport patients, to be at the rodeo arena during all performances and slack, and shall further ensure that adequate first-aid services are available for all performances and slack. Any Rodeo Committee failing to comply with this rule will be subject to a $1,000 fine per performance and/or section of slack for which the Rodeo Committee is in violation.
- B10.7.8 Provide Veterinarian. A Rodeo Committee shall ensure that a veterinarian is present and on site for every performance and/or section of slack. Any Rodeo Committee failing to do so shall be subject to a fine of $500 per performance and/or section of slack per rodeo.
- B10.7.9 Post Ground Rules. Any approved Ground Rules for an individual rodeo must be posted in the Arena Secretary's office during the rodeo.
- B10.7.10 Access of Members to Rodeo Grounds. Any Noncontestant Card Member-Rodeo Committee receiving PRCA rodeo approval shall allow any PRCA Member (including Permit Members if that rodeo accepts Permit Member entries) access to rodeo grounds if valid PRCA membership card is presented, unless at time of application for approval, said Rodeo Committee requests special exclusion of the rule requiring admittance of all PRCA Members. Each contestant and contract personnel member will receive, upon his entry for reporting to fulfill his contract, an extra tax-free seat and gate pass for all performances. If seat tickets are required, contestants must obtain said ticket from the Arena Secretary.
- B10.7.11 Access to Arena. No person shall be allowed in the arena during a rodeo performance unless entered in an event, or unless he has signed a PRCA-approved waiver releasing the Rodeo Committee, Stock Contractor and Rodeo Producer from liability. This rule shall be enforced by the arena director.
- B10.7.12 Access of PRCA Officers and Directors. Any officer or director of the PRCA shall have access to any part of the rodeo enclosure or arena when representing the PRCA on official business, provided that an official identification card is presented.

B10.7.13 Insurance. Any Noncontestant Card Member-Rodeo Committee must obtain and submit proof of public liability insurance. The insurance company must be rated a minimum of A-IX by the A.M. Best Guide. The type of Insurance must be Commercial General Liability-Occurrence Form. No “claims made form” coverage will be accepted. Limits of Liability will be $1,000,000 each occurrence and $2,000,000 General Aggregate. The coverage must include: Bodily Injury and Property Damage, Products Liability, Personal Injury Liability and Contractual Liability. Additional insureds must be shown on certificate: The Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association, PRCA Properties, Inc., their officers, directors and employees. The following wording should be in the “description of operations” section on the certificate: Coverage evidenced by this certificate provides spectator liability for the rodeo (place) on (dates). If a Rodeo Committee fails to provide the PRCA Director of Rodeo Administration with satisfactory evidence of such insurance at least two weeks prior to the date of the first performance of the Rodeo Committee’s PRCA-approved rodeo, the PRCA may, at its election, either revoke its approval of the rodeo or obtain the required insurance policy in its name and at the Rodeo Committee’s expense.

B10.7.14 Display of PRCA Emblem. Once a rodeo has been approved by the PRCA, all printed advertising and promotional material used by the Rodeo Committee, Rodeo Producer, or Stock Contractor of the rodeo to promote that rodeo shall prominently display the official PRCA emblem. This requirement does not permit the use of the registered trademark on products or advertising of products that are to be sold commercially.

B10.7.15 Display of Approval Certificate. After a rodeo has been approved by the PRCA, said rodeo must display its approval certificate in the Arena Secretary’s office during the rodeo.

B10.7.16 Determination of All-Around Performer. A rodeo’s All-Around cowboy will be determined according to the PRCA system, unless otherwise approved. (Refer to Section R12.4 of the Official Rodeo Rules.). At a given rodeo, only those who compete on every head in every event entered will qualify for the All-Around honors. At individual rodeos, the saddle bronc riding, bareback riding, bull riding and tie-down roping Day-Money will not count towards the All-Around award unless that award is determined by the person entered in a single event who has won the most money in a single event.

B10.8 Television and Media Rules.

B10.8.1 Rights Remain in PRCA. The PRCA retains all rights in and to the filming, taping, recording in any media now or hereafter known, still footage/photography, radio or television broadcasting or reproduction in any manner or form thereof of any PRCA-sanctioned event.

B10.8.2 Appearance of Member. No Member may be required to participate as a contestant or otherwise appear on any form of television, including pay, cable, subscription, closed-circuit or otherwise, radio, film or other visual and/or sound depiction in connection with any PRCA-approved rodeo, unless the person or entity seeking such participation or appearance by a Member first secures the PRCA's prior consent. Legitimate news coverage shall be exempt.

B10.8.3 Assistance to PRCA Television and Filming Coordinator. If a Rodeo Committee receives PRCA approval, the Rodeo Committee must comply with all requests made by the PRCA representative appointed by the PRCA to coordinate television and filming of approved rodeos. In addition, said representative will be empowered to enforce any applicable rules set forth in any applicable special notice.

B10.9 Duties of the Arena Secretary.

B10.9.1 Submissions. All PRCA Arena Secretaries are required to use the PRCA Secretary System software, except at PRCA rodeos that require other systems. Each completed rodeo is to be uploaded to the PRCA Office no later than 10:00 am the morning following completion of the final performance of a rodeo. Failure to abide by this Bylaw shall result in a $100 fine.

B10.9.2 Collect and Submit Fees and Local Entry Insurance Forms. Arena Secretaries are required to collect all entry fees and additional charges not already paid to the PRCA from all contestants entered at individual rodeos, and shall submit the local entry insurance forms for PRCA events to the PRCA National Office.

B10.10 Postponements and Cancellations.

B10.10.1 Cancellation After Announcement. Should a Rodeo Committee cancel its rodeo after announcement of the rodeo has been printed in the "Long Listings" of the PRCA Business Section as an approved rodeo, the approval fee and committee dues will be forfeited.

B10.10.2 Cancellation Less Than 30 Days Prior to the First Performance. A Rodeo Committee agrees that, upon application for PRCA approval, if the rodeo is canceled by that Rodeo Committee (for reasons other than natural disasters) less than 30 days prior to the date of the first performance, said Rodeo Committee will pay to the PRCA National Office a sum equal to the purse money.

B10.10.3 Lack of Entries. If fewer than five contestants per performance are entered in an event, that event may be cancelled by the Rodeo Committee at the time entries close in that event. The minimum number of contestants shall be determined by multiplying five times the number of performances. Re-entries will not be taken in that event if the event is cancelled due to lack of entries. If an event is canceled because there are not enough entries, the purse money for that event may be used to put on an exhibition of competitions in that event. Purse money not paid for exhibitions will revert to the Rodeo Committee. Should the Rodeo Committee elect to have the event with fewer than 4 contestants entered, see R5.4.4 for special payoff.

B10.10.4 Performance. A rodeo performance may not be postponed or canceled unless the Rodeo Committee chairman, Stock Contractor and a PRCA official agree that it would be a physical impossibility to hold the performance. In the event no PRCA official is present, a Contestant Card Member should represent the contestants.

B10.10.4.1 Rescheduling. Only that performance or section of slack which had to be postponed will be rescheduled. Such postponed performance must be rescheduled within 48 hours or the start of the subsequent go-round, whichever comes first.

B10.10.4.2 Draw outs. Contestants scheduled to compete in a performance or section of slack that is postponed will have the option to draw out. For this rule specifically, a rodeo performance or section of slack will be considered postponed when there is more than a three-hour delay from the scheduled start time of that performance or section of slack.

B10.10.4.3 Order of Competition. In case of postponement, the order of competition for that postponed performance will be maintained exactly as drawn. Stock for the postponed performance will be redrawn for the timed events.

B10.11 Publication of Notice. Unless otherwise stated, any notice through publication in the PRCA Business Section required under these Bylaws must be listed at least 15 days prior to the entry closing date of a rodeo.

CHAPTER 11

OFFICIAL RODEO RULES

B11.0 Official Rodeo Rules. The rules governing the fairness or conduct of the competition at PRCA rodeos, the safety of contestants and livestock and the definition of rodeo events shall be referred to as the “Official Rodeo Rules,” which shall be published separately from these Bylaws but which shall have the weight and legal effect of Bylaws of the PRCA, provided, however, that in the event of a conflict between a Bylaw and a Rule, the Bylaw shall prevail.

B11.1 Amendment of Rules. The Official Rodeo Rules may be amended or modified in accordance with the procedures set forth herein. Proposed changes are to be put on the table for one full year of consideration before finalized.

B11.1.1 Proposals.

B11.1.1.1 Submission and Publication of Proposal. Any Member, Director to the Board of Directors, Event Representative, PRCA staff or the CEO may submit a rule change proposal requesting an addition to, a deletion from or a modification of the Official Rodeo Rules. Such rule change proposal shall be made in writing, shall state the reasons therefore and must be received by the CEO by the Submission Deadline (5:00 p.m. Colorado time on the second Friday in March). The CEO shall forward such proposals to the Competition Committee or, if a Ground Rule change is proposed, to the Contestant Executive Council. Any such proposal shall be published in the PRCA Business Section no less than once per month for one full year, and shall not be acted upon by the Competition Committee until the legislative meetings of the Competition Committee in the calendar year following the year in which the proposal is first published. A proposal which is received after the Submission Deadline shall be considered with the proposals which are received prior to the corresponding Submission Deadline in the following year. The person submitting a proposal may withdraw the proposal by written notification to the CEO at any time prior to the proposal’s adoption or rejection by the Competition Committee or the Contestant Executive Council, as the case may be.

B11.1.1.2 Submission and Publication of Proposals by Competition Committee or Executive Councils.

Notwithstanding the Submission Deadline stated in Bylaw B11.1.1.1, the Competition Committee, each of the Executive Councils and PRCA staff may also submit rule change proposals, which must be made in writing, state the reasons therefore and be received by the CEO no later than 5:00 p.m. Colorado time on the second Friday in April (the "April Submission Deadline"). Any such proposals shall be published in the PRCA Business Section no less than once per month along with the proposals published in accordance with Bylaw B11.1.1.1, and shall not be acted upon by the Competition Committee until the legislative meetings of the Competition Committee in the calendar year following the year in which the proposal is first published. A proposal which is received after that April Submission Deadline shall be considered with the proposals which are received prior to the corresponding April Submission Deadline in the following year.

B11.1.2 Committee or Council Consideration. Once a proposal has been published in the PRCA Business Section in accordance with Bylaw B11.1.1, the Competition Committee or, in the case of a proposed change in the Ground Rules, the Contestant Executive Council, shall evaluate each properly submitted rule change proposal. The Committee or Council shall adopt, reject or table such a rule change proposal. The Committee or Council may amend or modify such rule change proposal before adopting, rejecting or tabling such proposal, or may propose and adopt, reject or table a rule change on its own without having to comply with the requirements of Bylaw B11.1.1. The Committee or Council shall table a proposal only if additional information is needed or desired before a decision is made, in which case the rule proposal can be tabled only until the next regularly scheduled meeting, at which meeting the Committee or Council must adopt or reject the proposal, if it is not withdrawn. If the Committee or Council does not act on a proposal as required herein, such failure shall be deemed a denial of the rule change proposal which may then be acted upon by the Board of Directors as though it were the final recommendation by the Competition Committee or the Contestant Executive Council, as the case may be.

- B11.1.3 Opportunity for Comment. Modifications or amendments to rule change proposals made by the Competition Committee pursuant to Bylaw B11.1.2, rule change proposals initiated by the Competition Committee pursuant to Bylaw B11.1.2, and rule change proposals made by the Competition Committee or Executive Councils pursuant to Bylaw B11.1.1.2 shall be published at least once in the PRCA Business Section or in such other appropriate form of written notice so that the appropriate Members are given an opportunity to comment on rule change proposals prior to their adoption by the Board of Directors.
- B11.1.4 Notification of Decision and Board Action. Within 15 days after each meeting but in no event later than September 30 of each year, the Competition Committee or the Contestant Executive Council, as the case may be, shall provide the Board of Directors with a written summary of those rule change proposals that the Committee or Council has recommended for adoption and those proposals that it has rejected. The Board shall review the Committee's (or Council's) recommendations and may override any of them by the affirmative vote of six directors or may amend or modify any of them by the affirmative vote of seven directors. If the Board fails to override the Committee's (or Council's) recommendation on or before October 20 of each year, such failure shall be deemed an adoption of the Committee (or Council) recommendation.

B11.1.4.1 Adoption or Amendment of an Existing Rodeo Rule on Initiative of the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors may, without prior action by the Competition Committee in accordance with Bylaw B11.1.2 (including with respect to proposals which have not been published in accordance with Bylaw B11.1.1), amend an existing Official Rodeo Rule or adopt a new Official Rodeo Rule, in the manner stated below. The Board may take such action by the affirmative vote or concurrence of at least seven Directors, provided that a quorum of at least five Contestant Representatives to the Competition Committee is present during the meeting of the Board of Directors where such proposal was adopted and that at least four such Contestant Representatives approve or concur in such proposal in a vote separate from that of the Board of Directors. For purposes of determining whether a quorum of Contestant Representatives is present, once five Contestant Representatives are all present at one time during the meeting, a quorum shall be deemed present for the remainder of the meeting; however, alternative representatives and proxies shall not be counted as Contestant Representatives in determining whether five Contestants are present. In connection with a vote by the Contestant Representatives, no alternative representative or proxy may vote on behalf of an absent Contestant Representative.

B11.1.4.2 No Rule Changes Effective During Current Rodeo

Year. No rule changes shall be made so as to be effective during the current Rodeo Year, unless approved by four-fifths majority vote of the Board of Directors at a Board meeting.

B11.2 Arbitration. Within 10 days of a Board decision to override the recommendation of the Competition Committee or Contestant Executive Council concerning a proposed change in the Official Rodeo Rules (but in no event later than September 25), upon the unanimous request of all four Contestant Directors to the Board of Directors (or such lesser number as may exist in the event of a vacancy) the dispute concerning the subject rule change proposal shall be submitted to a mandatory, binding, and expedited arbitration as set forth herein.

- B11.2.1 Notice and Place of Hearing. Upon the unanimous request of the Contestant Directors to submit a rule change proposal to arbitration, the Contestant Directors shall provide a written “Notice of Arbitration” to all other directors and to the CEO. The CEO shall in turn notify the arbitrator, selected as provided in Section B11.2.2, or one of the alternates if the arbitrator is not available. The arbitrator (or alternate) shall convene a hearing within 10 days of receipt of such notice from the CEO at a time and place to be designated by the arbitrator (or alternate).
- B11.2.2 Selection of Arbitrator and Rules Governing Arbitration Proceedings. Arbitrations shall be governed by the American Arbitration Association and its rules. Arbitrators for resolution of rule change proposals shall be selected according to the rules of the American Arbitration Association. Arbitration procedure shall be in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association.
- B11.2.3 Presentation of Positions. The Board members favoring adoption of the rule change proposal and the Board members disapproving of the adoption of such proposal shall each designate a representative to be a spokesperson for their position. The spokespersons so designated (which may but need not be Board members) shall present their respective positions to the arbitrator. The arbitrator may call such additional witnesses or request such additional information as may be desired to provide a better understanding of the issues at hand.
- B11.2.4 Standard for Determination. The arbitrator shall have full power to decide whether or not the rule change proposal should be implemented. The arbitrator shall decide whether the rule change proposal should be implemented based on the standard of “Whether the rule change proposal is equitable in balancing the interests of the competing cowboy and the progress of the sport of rodeo in general.”
- B11.2.5 Arbitrator’s Decision Is Final and Binding. The decision of the arbitrator shall be made within 10 days after the close of the hearing and such decision shall be final and binding upon all parties.

GRIEVANCES, DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES AND OTHER DISPUTES

B12.0 Release. As a condition of membership, all Member-participants in PRCA approved rodeos or approved Special Events affected in any manner whatsoever by a decision of the PRCA Board of Directors or any person or committee authorized by the PRCA Board of Directors to handle disciplinary matters, hereby releases the PRCA, PRCAP, their affiliated, related or subsidiary companies, their officers, directors, and employees, the Grievance Review Committee and its members, jointly and severally, individually and in their official capacity, of and from any and all claims, demands, damages and causes of action whatsoever, in law or equity, arising out of or in connection with any disciplinary decision or action by the PRCA, or by the individuals or committees to whom disciplinary matters may be authorized by the PRCA.

B12.1 Agreement to Resolve Disputes Internally. As a condition of membership and in consideration thereof, each Member agrees that any disagreements or disputes (including protests of disciplinary actions taken or to be taken against such Member) with the PRCA, its affiliated entities, directors, officers, administrative staff and/or officials regarding an arguable misinterpretation or misapplication of the PRCA Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, Official Rodeo Rules (including PRCA rodeo Ground Rules) or rules of Special Events or programs administered by PRCA Properties affecting such Member that are the proper subject matter for a grievance shall be resolved through the grievance procedures outlined in this Chapter.

B12.1.1 Procedure Not To Be Used To Contest Judgment Calls.

The grievance procedures outlined below may not be used to challenge or contest actions of PRCA officials involving honest judgment calls made during rodeo competition that are based on an official's personal observation of the facts and circumstances to which the judgment call relates; rather, such judgment calls shall not be reviewable. However, an allegedly erroneous interpretation or application of the PRCA Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, or Official Rodeo Rules (including PRCA rodeo Ground Rules) by a PRCA official shall be proper subject matter for a grievance, provided the facts and circumstances underlying such interpretation or application that are determined by the official based on his personal observations and judgments in the matter shall not be subject to question in connection with any such grievance.

B12.1.2 Procedure Not To Be Used to Contest Corporate Actions.

The grievance procedures outlined below may not be used to challenge or contest corporate actions taken or authorized by the PRCA Board of Directors, to challenge or contest the substantive content of any provision in the PRCA's Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, Official Rodeo Rules (including PRCA rodeo Ground Rules) and rules of Special Events or programs administered by PRCA Properties, or to request a waiver of any provision of the PRCA's Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, Official Rodeo Rules (including PRCA rodeo Ground Rules) and rules of Special Events or programs administered by PRCA Properties.

B12.1.3 Class IV Offenses. The grievance procedures outlined below may not be used to challenge or contest the commission of a Class IV Offense, nor the Automatic Penalties, as defined in Part 11.5 of the Official Rodeo Rules, assessed in connection with a Class IV Offense. The grievance procedures outlined below may be used to challenge or contest any Discretionary Penalties, as defined in Part 11.5 of the Official Rodeo Rules, assessed in connection with a Class IV Offense.

B12.1.4 Deadline for Filing Certain Grievances. It is important to the sport of rodeo to have finality in standings for purposes of determining qualifiers for certain rodeos like the NFR, CFRs, etc. Therefore, notwithstanding any time limitations in which to bring a grievance as may be set forth in this Chapter 12, if a Member desires to file a grievance (including a grievance filed pursuant to the expedited grievance process), the result of which, if successful, could be a change in the Official Standings, and the Member desires that any resulting changes in Official Standings be made in time to affect qualification for the NFR, the NCFR, a CFR, a special sponsorship event or year-end sponsorship awards, such grievance must be received by the Director of Rodeo Administration no later than 14 calendar days after the end of the corresponding Cutoff Date for that rodeo, event or sponsorship award. If the 14th day after a Cutoff Date falls on a non-PRCA National Office Business Day, then the grievance must be received no later than the next PRCA National Office Business Day. Any grievance filed after this deadline may still be considered, provided that all other requirements for a grievance are satisfied, but any resulting changes will not impact the applicable Official Standings for qualification for the particular rodeo, event or sponsorship awards.

B12.2 Disciplinary Actions by the Director of Rodeo Administration and Appeals Therefrom.

B12.2.1 Class I and II Offenses. The Board of Directors has delegated general authority to the Director of Rodeo Administration to impose fines and declare ineligibility in cases where potential Class I and Class II Offenses under Part 11 of the Official Rodeo Rules are reported to or found by the PRCA National Office. In such cases, the Director of Rodeo Administration may impose applicable disciplinary penalties without further actions or proceedings beyond the giving of notice to the accused Member of the nature of the infraction and the penalty imposed. In such cases, the Member involved may contest the penalties imposed through the normal grievance procedures of this Chapter 12.

B12.2.2 Class III Offenses. In the event that a potential Class III Offense is reported to or found by the PRCA National Office, the Director of Rodeo Administration shall follow the following procedures before giving the accused Member notice of the nature of the infraction and the penalty imposed, if appropriate. It is the purpose of these special procedures to afford each Member a fair investigation and an opportunity to explain his position prior to the imposition of major disciplinary penalties for Class III Offenses.

B12.2.2.1 Investigation: Notice and Appearance. The accused Member shall be notified by the Director of Rodeo Administration by mail at his address appearing on the books of the PRCA, or by fax, e-mail or personal service. Such notice shall inform the Member of the nature of the charge and the potential penalty that could be imposed. Upon request, the accused Member shall have the right to make a personal appearance before the Director of Rodeo Administration during the investigation process before initial disciplinary action is taken by the Director of Rodeo Administration in the matter. Failure of the accused Member to appear at the time and place designated for such personal appearance may result in the immediate finding of a violation and imposition of the corresponding penalty. Whether or not the accused Member requests or makes a personal appearance before the Director of Rodeo Administration during the investigation process, the Director of Rodeo Administration shall, upon completing his investigation, impose such disciplinary action upon the Member as he deems appropriate if he finds the Member guilty of a Class III Offense, provided no fine in excess of $5,000 or suspension for more than one year shall be imposed by the Director of Rodeo Administration for any such Offense. Unless the disciplinary action taken by the Director of Rodeo Administration is timely contested by the accused member through the grievance process, the disciplinary action shall be final, subject to the imposition of further disciplinary penalties in the matter by the Board of Directors.

- B12.2.3 Class V Offenses. In circumstances where the conduct of the accused is found by the Board of Directors to be extremely damaging to the PRCA, its Members, or the sport of rodeo, the Board may, by a vote of two-thirds of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present, expel such Member from the PRCA indefinitely. As a corrective or disciplinary measure, the Board of Directors, by a vote of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present, may issue a reprimand, impose a fine, or suspend a Member for a period of not more than five years, or any combination of such penalties. The decision of the Board of Directors under this Section B12.2.3 may not be appealed under the grievance process.
- B12.2.4 Contesting a Disciplinary Action and Cash Bond. Any Member who wishes to contest (i) a disciplinary action taken against him by the Director of Rodeo Administration under B12.2.1 for a Class III Offense, (ii) the imposition of a Discretionary Penalty under Part R11.5 of the Official Rodeo Rules in connection with a Class IV Offense, or (iii) an assessment of a cost or fee pursuant to Section B12.7 of these Bylaws may utilize the grievance process to appeal the action. In such cases, the grieving Member may bypass Step 1 of the grievance procedure outlined below and submit a full position statement (detailing all mitigating circumstances and other grounds for disputing the discipline imposed) to the CEO under Step 2 of the grievance procedure. The disciplinary action may thereafter be appealed to the Grievance Review Committee under Step 3 of the grievance procedure if the grieving Member is dissatisfied with the CEO's decision under Step 2. Upon application by the Member, the Director of Rodeo Administration may, but shall not be obligated to, allow the Member to compete at PRCA rodeos or otherwise participate in PRCA activities during the grievance process if the Member posts a cash bond with the PRCA; the amount of the cash bond shall be equal to 50% of any monetary penalty imposed, and in the event of a disciplinary suspension, in an amount determined by the Director of Rodeo Administration, but not less than $1,000.
- B12.2.5 Review of Decision by Board of Directors. If the final decision on the grievance rendered by the CEO or the Grievance Review Committee, as the case may be, is adverse to the Member and the Member is found guilty of a Class III Offense or liable for the Discretionary Penalties costs or fees assessed, the grievance decision and finding shall be reported to the Board of Directors. The Board may review the matter and, by a vote of seven members, may increase the amount of the fine or the length of the suspension imposed. By a unanimous vote of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present, the Board may take action to expel the Member for the PRCA, in the event the Board should determine that such additional disciplinary penalties are warranted under the circumstances involved.

B12.3 Grievance Procedure (Non-Expedited). The following procedures shall be followed in the event a grievant desires to challenge or contest actions of the PRCA involving an alleged misinterpretation or misapplication of the PRCA Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws or Official Rodeo Rules (including PRCA rodeo Ground Rules) that adversely affects the grievant.

B12.3.1 Step 1. The grieving Member shall bring the subject matter of his grievance to the attention of the Director of Rodeo Administration in writing within 60 calendar days following notice to the grievant of the action taken or interpretation made by the PRCA. The letter shall set forth in full the subject matter of the dispute and the relief requested by the grievant. Within 15 calendar days following his receipt of said Step 1 grievance letter, the Director of Rodeo Administration shall reply in writing to the grievant, setting forth his decision in the matter. Said decision shall be final and binding unless appealed by the grievant under Step 2 below. In the event the Director of Rodeo Administration fails to reply to the grievant's Step 1 letter within 15 calendar days following his receipt of said Step 1 letter, the grievance shall be deemed denied by the Director of Rodeo Administration, whereupon the grievant may pursue an appeal of the matter to the CEO in accordance with Step 2 below.

B12.3.2 Step 2. Within ten calendar days after the grievant's receipt of the decision letter of the Director of Rodeo Administration, the grievant may appeal that decision to the CEO. In the event that the grievant's Step 1 letter is deemed denied by reason of the Director of Rodeo Administration's failure to reply to the grievant's Step 1 letter within 15 calendar days following his receipt of said Step 1 letter, the grievant may appeal the matter to the CEO under this Step 2, which appeal shall in no event be submitted later than 30 calendar days following the grievant's submission of his Step 1 letter to the Director of Rodeo Administration; otherwise, the grievance shall be deemed abandoned and there shall be no further right to pursue the subject matter of the grievance. The Step 2 grievance letter shall briefly summarize the position of the grievant and, if applicable, shall state the reasons for his belief that the Director of Rodeo Administration reached an improper decision at Step 1. Within 15 calendar days of his receipt of said Step 2 grievance letter, the CEO shall issue a written decision, which decision shall be final and binding unless appealed to the Grievance Review Committee under Step 3. In the event the CEO fails to reply to the grievant's Step 2 letter within 15 calendar days following his receipt of said Step 2 letter, the grievance shall be deemed denied by the CEO, whereupon the grievant may pursue an appeal of the matter to the Grievance Review Committee in accordance with Step 3 below.

B12.3.3 Step 3. If the grievant is dissatisfied with the decision of the CEO under Step 2, he may then appeal the decision to the Grievance Review Committee. Such appeal must be submitted within ten calendar days after the grievant's receipt of the decision letter of the CEO. In the event that the grievant's Step 2 letter is deemed denied by reason of the CEO's failure to reply to the grievant's Step 2 letter within 15 calendar days following his receipt of said Step 2 letter, the grievant may appeal the matter to the Grievance Review Committee under this Step 3, which appeal shall in no event be submitted later than 30 calendar days following the grievant's submission of his Step 2 letter to the CEO; otherwise, the grievance shall be deemed abandoned and there shall be no further right to pursue the subject matter of the grievance. The Step 3 grievance letter shall notify the Grievance Review Committee of the grievant's desire for an appeal hearing on the matter. The Step 3 letter shall be addressed to the Chairman of the Grievance Committee in care of the CEO at the PRCA National Office. Said Step 3 letter shall briefly summarize the position of the grievant and, if applicable, shall state the reasons for his belief that the CEO reached an improper decision at Step 2. Within 30 calendar days after receipt of said Step 3 letter, the Chairman of the Grievance Review Committee shall appoint three or five members of the Grievance Review Committee to a Hearing Panel to hear and decide the grievance. The Chairman of the Grievance Review Committee shall promptly thereafter notify the grievant, in writing, of the members of the Hearing Panel, the date and time, and if the hearing is to be held in person, the location for said Member to be afforded an opportunity for a full hearing of his grievance. Any replacement of a Hearing Panel member shall be appointed by the Chairman of the Grievance Review Committee. The hearing shall be scheduled as soon as reasonably practicable following the receipt of the grievant's Step 3 letter and, in all events, within 45 calendar days following receipt of said Step 3 letter unless the grievant agrees to a later date of the hearing that will better suit the convenience of the grievant, the Hearing Panel, the CEO, the Director of Rodeo Administration, any witnesses that may have information relevant to the determination of the grievance, and any third parties that may be affected by the Hearing Panel's decision on the grievance who may wish to participate in the hearing. Following such hearing, the Hearing Panel shall issue a decision in the matter which shall be final and binding on all parties. A decision concurred in by a majority of the Hearing Panel members shall constitute the decision of the Hearing Panel.

B12.3.4 Contact With Hearing Panel Members Forbidden. Under no circumstances is a grievant to contact a Hearing Panel member without the prior written approval of the Chairman of the Grievance Review Committee. Any unauthorized contact shall result in an automatic, non-appealable fine of $1,000 imposed against the grievant, and the Chairman of the Grievance Review Committee shall determine, in his sole discretion, whether the contacted member of the Hearing Panel can continue to serve in that capacity. Likewise, the PRCA shall not have contact with the Hearing Panel members except in an administrative capacity. In the event the PRCA violates this rule, the Chairman of the Grievance Review Committee shall determine, in his sole discretion, whether the contacted member of the Hearing Panel can continue to serve in that capacity. The Chairman of the Grievance Review Committee may also impose, in his sole discretion, appropriate penalties on the individual(s) from the PRCA who violate this Bylaw.

B12.3.5 Hearing: Purpose and Procedure. The purpose of the above-stated grievance procedure is to provide an open and informal method of resolving disagreements and disputes between the Members and PRCA officials. The hearing provided in Step 3 of the grievance procedure outlined above will therefore be conducted in a conversational, non-courtroom atmosphere with emphasis on full presentation of all relevant facts. At the Step 3 hearing, the grievant and other persons participating in the hearing shall be given a reasonable opportunity to present oral or written evidence, to cross-examine witnesses, to be represented by counsel, and to present such factual or legal claims as desired. Rules of evidence shall not be strictly enforced. In the event that compliance with regular procedures would not be likely to produce a sufficiently early decision to do justice to affected parties, the CEO shall have the authority to make appropriate arrangements in consultation with the Chairman of the Grievance Review Committee to cause the grievance to be heard and decided by the Hearing Panel under such expedited procedures as may be deemed necessary or appropriate in order to timely resolve a matter relating to or affecting an upcoming PRCA-approved rodeo or other scheduled PRCA event. Hearings may be conducted by telephone conference call or other remote communications technologies.

B12.4 Expedited Contestant Eligibility Grievance Procedure. This expedited contestant eligibility grievance process is available only to Contestant Card Members. Notwithstanding the other grievance procedures set forth in this Chapter B12, a Contestant Card Member may elect to use this special expedited grievance procedure if (1) the Contestant Card Member desires to challenge or contest actions of the PRCA involving an alleged misinterpretation or misapplication of the PRCA Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws or Official Rodeo Rules (including PRCA rodeo Ground Rules) that denies or threatens to deny the Contestant Card Member's eligibility or opportunity to compete at an upcoming or impending PRCA-approved event prior to the commencement of such event; (2) the Contestant Card Member desires to have a resolution of the grievance within a period of ten days or less; and (3) the grievant files the expedited grievance in time for the CEO to conduct a thorough review of the matter and to render a decision prior to the upcoming or impending PRCA-approved event. If any of these conditions is not present, then this expedited contestant eligibility grievance procedure may not be used.

B12.4.1 Grievance to Be Handled by CEO. A grievant using the expedited grievance procedure shall file a written request for an expedited grievance directly with the CEO. The grievant shall also file with the CEO any materials which he believes would be helpful to the CEO in evaluating the grievance, including but not limited to grievant's position statement. If the CEO determines that the request is appropriate for the expedited grievance procedure, he shall review the matter and conduct such an investigation into the issues surrounding the grievance as the CEO deems reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances. The investigation may include interviews with any and all individuals having information relevant to the determination of the grievance. The CEO may also request any additional written materials which he deems relevant, including but not limited to position statements of third parties that may be affected by his decision. The CEO may also conduct a hearing on the grievance, if he deems a hearing to be appropriate. Such hearings may include all individuals having information relevant to the determination of the grievance and any third parties that may be affected by a ruling, and shall be conducted in accordance with the rules for hearings set forth in Section B12.3.5. Upon completion of the CEO's investigation and the hearing, if one is held, the CEO shall issue a written ruling on the grievance, which written ruling shall be issued in time to restore a Contestant Card Member's eligibility or opportunity to compete at the upcoming or impending PRCA-approved event, provided that the CEO rules in favor of the grievant.

B12.4.2 CEO's Ruling Is Final and Binding. The decision of the CEO in connection with any grievance filed pursuant to this expedited grievance process shall be final and binding on the grievant and any other parties or persons impacted by the ruling. The grievant and any other parties or persons impacted by the ruling may not appeal the CEO's decision to the Grievance Review Committee.

B12.5 Appointment and Composition of Grievance Review Committee. The CEO shall appoint ten Members to the Grievance Review Committee for a two year term, provided that the initial appointment shall consist of five members for a one year term and five members for a two year term. In appointing the members of the Grievance Review Committee, the CEO shall ensure representation of Stock Contractors, Rodeo Committees, Contestants and Contract Personnel. The CEO shall also designate one member of the Grievance Review Committee as its Chairman.

B12.6 Dispute Resolution. As a condition of membership in PRCA, and in consideration thereof, each Member agrees that the following procedure shall be the exclusive remedy and avenue of recourse for the assertion or prosecution of any Claim as hereafter defined.

B12.6.1 Definition of Claim. As used herein the word "Claim" shall mean any assertion of right, assertion of deprivation of right, assertion of violation of right, dispute, controversy or disagreement, of whatever kind or nature whatsoever, and regardless of upon what legal or equitable theory based (including the alleged violation of the antitrust laws or the securities laws of the United States or of any State, Territory or District thereof), arising out of or in any way related to the membership of the person making such Claim in PRCA, made by a Member, or his, her or its heirs, personal representatives, successors or assigns, against PRCA, or any PRCA director, officer or employee, including, but not limited to, assertions of right, assertions of deprivations of right, assertions of violation of right, disputes, controversies or disagreements arising out of, related to, concerning or in any way involving: (i) alleged errors or omissions of any PRCA director, officer or employee; (ii) corporate governance issues or matters; (iii) alleged misfeasance or malfeasance in the conduct of the management of PRCA; (iv) alleged breach of fiduciary duty, breach of contractual duty, negligent conduct, willful wrongdoing or other wrongful conduct by PRCA or any PRCA director, officer or employee; (v) the fiduciary duties of PRCA, PRCA directors, officers or employees and/or PRCA's members, agents, contractors or other constituencies; (vi) the validity or enforceability of any provision of PRCA's Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws or Rules, or any amendment or purported amendment thereof; (vii) the enforcement, interpretation or application of any provision of PRCA's Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws and/or Rules; and (viii) alleged violation of the antitrust laws of the United States or of any State, Territory or District thereof. The word Claim does not include any matter that is properly the subject of a grievance under Part 11 of the Official Rodeo Rules.

B12.6.2 No Institution of Court Proceedings. No Member, or his, her or its heirs, personal representatives, successors or assigns, may institute any action asserting or in any way involving a Claim in any court or agency of the United States, any court or agency of any State, Territory or District of the United States, or in any court, agency or other adjudicative body of any foreign jurisdiction, other than proceedings brought in the District Court of El Paso County Colorado to enforce or set aside an arbitration award entered under B12.6.6.

- B12.6.3 Initiation of Claim. Any person wishing to assert a Claim shall file a written Notice of Claim with the CEO. To be effective, the Notice of Claim must be filed with the CEO within six months of the later of (i) the date on which the conduct or event giving rise to the Claim occurred or (ii) the date on which the person making the Claim knew or, in the exercise of reasonable diligence, should have known of the occurrence of the conduct or event giving rise to the Claim. In no event may a Claim be brought more than one year after the occurrence of the conduct or event giving rise to the Claim. Failure to bring a Claim within the time prescribed herein shall operate as a conclusive bar to its assertion. The Notice of Claim shall set forth the nature and basis of the Claim and identify all persons or entities against which or whom it is made and all persons having knowledge of the facts and circumstances underlying the Claim.
- B12.6.4 Good Faith Efforts to Resolve Claim Informally. Within ten business days of receipt of a Claim, the CEO shall convene a meeting in PRCA headquarters of the person(s) making the Claim and the person(s) against whom it is made. At that meeting the persons involved shall endeavor in good faith to resolve the Claim. If the CEO is either making the Claim or is a party against whom the Claim is made, the CEO's function hereunder will be performed by the Co-director of Rodeo Administration responsible for office administration or, if that position is vacant at the time or the person filling it is also involved in the Claim, then by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or some other independent director designated by the Chairman of the Board of Directors.
- B12.6.5 Mediation. If the parties to the Claim are unable to resolve it informally within thirty (30) days of the initial submission of the Claim, any person making the Claim may demand that the Claim be submitted to mediation before a professional mediator to be mutually agreed upon. Such demand shall be made in writing delivered to all persons involved in the Claim and the CEO. If the parties are unable to agree upon a mediator, either may request the Judicial Arbitrator Group to appoint a mediator from its membership panel in accordance with its normal practices and procedures for doing so. The parties shall share the cost of the mediator equally. Submission of a Claim to mediation is a prerequisite to submission of the Claim to arbitration under B12.6.6.

B12.6.6 Arbitration. If the parties are unable to resolve the Claim through mediation within thirty (30) days following its submission to mediation, any person making the Claim may submit the matter to arbitration under the auspices and Rules of the American Arbitration Association (“AAA”). Failure to submit the Claim to arbitration within ninety (90) days of the initial submission of the Claim to the CEO shall forever bar assertion of the Claim in arbitration under B12.6.6, and, accordingly, shall forever bar assertion of the Claim in any court, forum or adjudicative body of any kind in any jurisdiction. The arbitration shall be conducted in Colorado Springs, Colorado under the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the AAA, applying the Procedures for Large Complex Commercial Disputes. The arbitration shall be conducted by a panel of three arbitrators (“Arbitration Panel”), all of whom shall be lawyers who have practiced for more than fifteen (15) years. At least one of the arbitrators must be experienced in complex commercial and/or corporate litigation, and at least one arbitrator must be experienced in the practice of corporate law and/or corporate governance law. All arbitrators must be experienced in at least one of the following fields of practice: (i) corporate law, including the formation of corporations and the drafting of corporate documents, or general corporate litigation; (ii) corporate governance or the litigation of corporate and/or partnership governance claims; (iii) antitrust law or the litigation of antitrust claims; (iv) securities law or the litigation of securities law claims; (v) contract drafting or the litigation of contract related claims; (vi) business torts and/or unfair competition litigation; or (vii) corporate class action litigation. The award to be issued by the Arbitration Panel shall be a Reasoned Award, with Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law under the AAA Rules. The decision of the Arbitration Panel shall be final and binding in accordance with the Rules of the AAA and the Federal Arbitration Act. The administrative costs of proceeding with the arbitration, including the fees of the arbitrators, shall be borne equally by each party, subject to the Arbitration Panel’s ultimate allocation of fees and costs as part of its Award. The Arbitration Panel shall award one hundred percent (100%) of the costs of the arbitration to the substantially prevailing party in the arbitration. In circumstances where neither party prevails on substantially all of its claims and defenses, the Arbitration Panel shall allocate and award the costs of the arbitration proportionately as it deems just. Each party shall bear its own fees and costs, including attorneys’ fees, unless the Arbitration Panel determines that one party asserted claims that lacked substantial justification in law or fact. In that event, the Arbitration Panel shall award the prevailing party its costs of prosecuting or defending the arbitration, including its reasonable attorneys’ fees. The award of the Arbitration Panel shall have the same merger, bar, claim preclusion and collateral estoppel effects as a final judgment entered by a United States District Court under federal law.

- B12.6.7 Merger, Bar, Claim Preclusion, Collateral Estoppel and Stare Decisis. In any arbitration conducted pursuant to B12.6.6, the Arbitration Panel shall accord the award or awards of any prior arbitrations conducted pursuant to B12.6.6 the same merger, bar, claim preclusion and collateral estoppel effects as a final judgment entered by a United States District Court under federal law. Failure to do so shall be a ground for overturning or refusing to enforce the award, the provisions of the AAA Rules, the Federal Arbitration Act and/or the Colorado Arbitration Act to the contrary notwithstanding. In addition, the Arbitration Panel shall accord awards in prior arbitrations the same stare decisis effects as that accorded to decisions of the United States Supreme Court and the United States Circuit Courts of Appeal under federal law. Failure to properly apply prior awards for purposes of stare decisis shall not, however, be a ground for overturning or refusing to enforce an award. Any attempt to arbitrate claims, positions, facts or mixed questions of law and fact barred by the doctrines of merger, bar, claim preclusion and/or collateral estoppel as applied to all prior arbitration awards shall be deemed to lack substantial justification in law or fact for purposes of awarding attorneys' fees and costs under B12.6.6.
- B12.6.8 Exclusive Remedy. Each Member agrees that the dispute resolution procedures set forth in this B12.6 shall be the sole and exclusive remedy and procedure for resolving Claims, and agrees that in any litigation instituted in violation of B12.6.2, the party instituting such litigation shall be liable to the other party for all expenses incurred in securing the stay or dismissal of such litigation, including, but not limited to, court costs, attorneys' fees, reasonable compensation, if applicable, for time spent by PRCA officials and employees in securing such stay or dismissal, including court appearances, and travel expenses.
- B12.6.9 Suit to Compel Arbitration or Enforce or Set Aside Award. Any suit to compel arbitration or to enforce or set aside an arbitration award hereunder shall be brought in the District Court of El Paso County, State of Colorado. In any such suit, the Federal Arbitration Act and federal law shall govern the issue of the proper scope of judicial review of the arbitration award. The prevailing party in any suit brought to enforce or set aside an arbitration award entered pursuant to B12.6.6 shall be entitled to recover the fees, costs and expenses incurred by that party in prosecuting or defending such suit that are listed in B12.6.8.

B12.6.10 Class, Derivative and Other Representative Claims. No Member, or his, her or its heirs, personal representatives, successors or assigns, may assert any Claim hereunder on behalf of any other Member, or his, her or its heirs, personal representatives, successors or assigns, whether asserted as a class action, as a derivative action or in some other purported representative capacity, it being the intent of this Bylaw that no such representative actions may be asserted hereunder. In the event this preclusion of representative claims is held unenforceable by any court, arbitrator, arbitration panel or other body, however, then and in that event only, the word Claim shall be interpreted to include all claims purporting to be asserted on behalf of other Members, or their heirs, personal representatives, successors or assigns. In such circumstance, but in such circumstance only, the Arbitration Panel shall have the same authority as the District Courts of the United States to certify a class or derivative action class. Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 23 and 23.1, as appropriate, and as interpreted by the Courts of the United States, shall apply to all class or derivative class action issues. Each Member included in a class certified by any Arbitration Panel hereunder agrees to be bound by the award to the same extent that class members in a class certified by a United States District Court would be bound by a judgment in such action.

B12.6.11 Governing Law. In so far as state law supplies the rule of decision in any arbitration conducted under B12.7, Colorado law, exclusive of its conflict of law rules, shall apply.

B12.7 Exhaustion of Remedies. No Member may invoke the aid of the courts in the United States without first exhausting all available remedies within the PRCA, including, but not limited to, the Grievance Procedure set forth in Chapter 12 of these Bylaws, and then only in the event the mandatory arbitration provisions set forth in these Bylaws are held unenforceable. For any violation of this rule, including an unsuccessful challenge to said grievance and arbitration provisions, the offending party shall be subject to the sanctions of suspension and fines, and shall be liable to the PRCA for all expenses incurred by the PRCA and its officers in defending each court action, including, but not limited to, court costs, attorneys' fees, reasonable compensation for time spent by PRCA officials and employees in responding to and defending against allegations in the action, including responses to discovery and court appearances, and travel expenses.

B12.8 Forum Selection in Case of Litigation. If the mandatory arbitration provisions set forth herein are held unenforceable, a Member or Permit Member, after exhausting all remedies available within the PRCA, must file any suit or other action against the PRCA in an appropriate court located in El Paso County, Colorado (provided, however, that if the suit or action involves a claim for which federal courts have exclusive jurisdiction, then such suit or action must be filed in the U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado in Denver, Colorado), and such suit or action shall be governed by the laws of the State of Colorado. This provision is intended also to apply to a former Member or Permit Member who files a suit or action against the PRCA and whose claim arose while such former Member or Permit Member was a Member or Permit Member of the PRCA.

OFFICIAL RODEO RULES

If the Central Entry Office is not notified of a slack order when the entries close, they will post one prior to the position callbacks.

R1.2 Entry in PRCA-Approved Rodeos or Events.

R1.2.1 Must Not Be Ineligible. In order to enter a PRCA-approved rodeo or event, a contestant must be Financially Eligible and Competition Eligible at time of entry opening. A contestant who is not Financially Eligible at entry opening may still enter on a contingent basis in the event he pays his outstanding financial obligations prior to entry closing time. If the contestant who is not Financially Eligible at entry opening fails to enter on a contingent basis, he shall not be allowed to enter after entry closing time in the event he pays all outstanding financial obligations prior to entry closing. Anyone drawn out of a rodeo at entry closing time due to ineligibility will not be reentered into the rodeo unless there has been a justifiable error which can be verified by the PRCA National Office.

R1.2.2 Must Have Paid Dues. Contestants entering any rodeo with competition scheduled on or after January 1 of any calendar year must have paid dues for that Dues Paying Year, pursuant to Part R1.1.1, even if the entry opening time is set prior to or on December 31 of the prior Dues Paying Year.

R1.2.4 Valid, Correct Membership Numbers. Contestants, when entering, must have valid, correct PRCA membership numbers.

R1.2.4.1 Contestants Responsible for Use of Membership Number. A contestant is responsible for any use of his PRCA membership number and all possible consequences related to its use.

R1.2.4.2 Unauthorized Use of Membership Number. The unauthorized use of another Member's membership number, or the use of another Member's membership number for an unauthorized purpose, shall be a Class III Offense and shall result in a fine of $250 for the first offense, with the amount of the fine progressively doubling for each offense thereafter.

R1.2.5 Enter by Entry Closing Time. All entries must be received by the Central Entry Office by entry closing time. The entry closing times appearing in the long listings of the PRCA Business Section shall be the official entry closing times and shall supersede any other information appearing elsewhere in the PRCA Business Section.

R1.2.6 Commitment to Pay Entry Fees and Additional Charges. Unless drawn out due to ineligible or inactive status, or due to failure to meet qualifications, contestants without a legitimate doctor release or draw out are committed to paying entry fees and related charges at all rodeos they enter.

- R1.2.7 Grace Period. There will be a one-hour and thirty minute time period after the Central Entry Office has set up the rodeo to allow contestants to draw out or change preferences. Contestants must make any adjustments to their entry before the ninety minutes expire, unless a further extension of time is allowed by the Central Entry Office and Director of Rodeo Administration.
- R1.2.8 Additional Entries. A Stock Contractor or Rodeo Committee shall have the opportunity to add just enough contestants to make a contest, provided such additions are made within one hour after entry closing time. These added contestants must meet all eligibility rules of the PRCA.
- R1.2.9 Duplicate or Multiple Entries. In the instance of duplicate or multiple entries, the latest entry's parameters and preference will be accepted.
- R1.2.10 Team Roping Entries. Team ropers who are entered but do not have partners at entry closing time will be deleted from the entry list. No positions will be drawn for a single entry. Team ropers deleted from the entry list pursuant to this Rule shall not be charged entry fees or additional charges. Contestants may enter only once. A Permit Member may team rope with a Contestant Card Member at any PRCA-approved rodeo.
- R1.2.11 Buddy System. A contestant may elect to use the buddy system, as described in Part R1.5, at the time of entry.
- R1.2.12 Parameters. A contestant may elect to impose parameters, as described in Part R1.6, at the time of entry.
- R1.2.13 Official Entry. A contestant may designate a rodeo as an unofficial entry in accordance with Part R1.7.
- R1.2.14 Dollar-Won Qualification. A "Dollar-Won" qualification may be implemented in any or all events, whereby determination of qualifiers in the team roping, ranking of individual contestants shall be based on money won by the individual as a header and heeler combined. If a Dollar-Won qualification for a rodeo involves consideration from the current Rodeo Year, only those rodeos which end on or before 7 days prior to entry closing time shall be used in determining Dollar-Won qualifications for the current Rodeo Year (only those received and audited by the PRCA will be included). Contestant limits, except "Dollar Won" limits as governed by B10.2.9, must be accepted by mutual agreement of the Rodeo Committee, Stock Contractor, Rodeo Producer, Event Representative and Director of Rodeo Administration. The percentage of accepted entries in each category (world, circuit, random) will be determined in accordance with Rule R1.2.14.2 unless otherwise approved by the Event Representative.
- R1.2.14.1 Contestants Exempt From Qualification. The following contestants may be exempt from the Dollar-Won qualification rule:
- A) Former World Champions in the event they are entering.
 - B) Three-time NFR qualifiers in the event they are entering.

- C) NFR qualifiers in the event they are entering during any of the past three years.
- D) Those who have been injured a total of six months during and who have not entered and paid entry fees for the event in question at more than 20 rodeos in the previous year, but have met the qualification in the season two years prior. A letter from a physician stating that the contestant was unable to compete for those six months because of an injury or illness must be received by the PRCA National Office prior to entry opening time. No letters submitted in the previous year as a doctor release are acceptable. For circuit qualifications, an injury exemption will be considered, provided contestant did not enter and pay entry fees for more than five circuit rodeos in that event the previous year.
- E) Former World All-Around Champions.
- F) Any specially-approved exemptions as may be listed in the Ground Rules and published in the long listings of the PRCA Business Section.
- G) Any contestant who is an active duty military personnel member who has not competed in the previous year(s), but has met the qualification his last year prior to beginning active service may file for a military exemption. A letter from a commanding officer stating that the contestant was active duty military must be received by the PRCA National Office prior to entry opening time.

For a contestant to request NFR or World Champion exemption from qualification (per part A, B, C, or E of R1.2.14.1) that contestant must have been consecutively active every year since the latest NFR qualification or World Championship. At those rodeos where entries are determined by random draw, no exemptions will be allowed. Contestants utilizing any of the exemptions listed above must notify the Central Entry Office at the time of their entry. For first-year Members, the money won on a permit at PRCA rodeos in the previous year will count towards meeting the qualifications.

R1.2.14.2 No Entries as Locals. At qualification rodeos, Members must meet the qualifications to enter and may not enter as locals if locals are accepted at that particular rodeo.

R1.2.14.3 Money For Dollar-Won Qualifications. Official and unofficial money combined (as defined in Section R1.7) will be used in determining dollars won for qualification purposes. Circuit qualifications will use money won in that Circuit by that contestant.

R1.2.15 Limited Entry Qualifications. The entry qualifications for limited rodeos will be as follows, provided that in no case will the Rodeo Committee be charged for more than 20 draw outs, except for Bull Riding and are otherwise subject to the requirements for early season limited rodeos set forth in R1.2.15 below:

R1.3.3.2 Circuit Fee. At which time contestant pays entry fees, he will also pay a $3 "Circuit Fee." This fee will not be added to the payoff, but will revert to the PRCA National Office to subsidize Circuit Finals Rodeos, with each circuit allotted money equal to the total number of contestants entered in rodeos in that Circuit.

R1.3.3.3 Insurance Fee. At which time PRCA event contestant pays entry fees, he will also pay a $10 insurance fee. This fee will not be added to the payoff but will revert to the PRCA National Office to subsidize the membership accident insurance program. No Member shall pay more than one such $10 insurance fee for each PRCA-approved rodeo in which he participates.

Tie-down roping & Steer wrestling permit holders will pay a $10 Stock charge per event at the time they pay their Entry fee. Team ropers will pay $5 Stock charge per permit team member. This fee will not be added to the prize money but will be paid directly to the Stock Contractor.

R1.3.3.5.1 Steer Ropers. Unless otherwise stated herein, the stock charge in the steer roping will be $45 per go-round. For purposes of calculating the stock charge only, no stock charge will be assessed for progressive go-rounds or finals/short go-rounds. A contestant with a non-notified turn out for any go-round will be required to pay the applicable stock charge for the rodeo. A contestant with a notified turn out, doctor's release, visible injury, or draw out for every go-round of the rodeo will not be required to pay the applicable stock charge.

R1.3.3.5.2 Permit Member Steer Ropers. If a Permit Member is entered in the steer roping where there is a stock charge, said permit holder will pay the same stock charge as a Contestant Card Member (without the additional $10 as required of other events).

R1.3.3.5.3 Team Ropers. At rodeos where there is one steer for every entry, or where the committee has equal money in the team roping (see Bylaw B10.3) and the competition has more than 15 entries, there will be a stock charge in the team roping of $10 per go-round, per team, or $5 per man. For purposes of calculating the stock charge, no stock charge will be assessed for progressive go-rounds or finals/short go-rounds. This stock charge will be assessed equally for Contestant Card Members and Permit Members.

R1.3.3.5.4 Steer Wrestling. At rodeos where there are two or more go-rounds, and the Stock Contractor/Rodeo Committee provides one head of livestock for each contestant and the competition has more than 15 entries, there will be a stock charge in the steer wrestling of $5 per go-round, per entry. The entire steer wrestling Herd must meet all requirements (R7.3.2 brands on left side or left horn, R7.10.2 horn length of 9" minimum, R7.13.2 certified Corriente with "m" brand weighing between 450-600 lbs.). For purposes of calculating the stock charge, no stock charge will be assessed for progressive go-rounds or finals/short go-rounds. This stock charge will be assessed equally for Contestant Card Members and Permit Members.

R1.3.3.6 Team Roping. If a rodeo does not add equal money in the team roping, the team roping headers and heelers will pay half for the PROCOM, judging and circuit fees. The insurance premium will be paid by both the header and heeler. The 6% purse money and entry fee deduction would be 3% paid by the header and 3% by the heeler.

R1.3.4 Local Entries Insurance and Entry Fees. All local entries will be required to purchase an accident insurance policy for a premium of $15. This $15 premium and a $10 administrative fee per entry and entry fees and charges must be collected by the Rodeo Committee prior to entering the local entries with the Central Entry Office. The sum total of all these charges, along with a completed insurance form for local entry, must be presented to the Arena Secretary upon his/her arrival. Failure to do so will result in the local entrant(s) being eliminated from competition.

R1.3.5 Entry in CPRA Rodeos. In connection with each CPRA-sanctioned rodeo entered by a PRCA Contestant Card Member, such Contestant Card Member shall be billed by the PRCA a $10 insurance fee. The insurance fee will revert to the PRCA National Office to subsidize the membership accident insurance program and shall be in addition to the required premium for membership group accident insurance coverage. No Member shall pay more than one such $10 insurance fee for each CPRA-sanctioned rodeo in which he participates.

R1.4 Setting Up the Rodeo. Generally, a rodeo shall be set up by that rodeo's Primary Stock Contractor. A representative of the Rodeo Committee may set up the rodeo only if specifically authorized, in writing, by the Primary Stock Contractor, and if such authorization is forwarded to the Central Entry Office prior to the scheduled time for setting up the rodeo. However, if the Primary Stock Contractor/Rodeo Committee representative has not contacted the Central Entry Office within 30 minutes after entry closing time, the Central Entry Office will be allowed to set up the rodeo and draw positions, using the Central Entry Office's discretion. Exceptions will be made only if the Primary Stock Contractor/Rodeo Committee representative has made arrangements with the Central Entry Office prior to entry opening time or if the rodeo has never before been sanctioned by the PRCA. The Director of Rodeo Administration shall have the authority to levy fines if a Primary Stock Contractor/Rodeo Committee representative fails to return a call at a mutually agreed time.

R1.4.1 Failure by Stock Contractors to Report Required Information to the Central Entry Office. Failure to notify the Central Entry Office of the anticipated slack times for a given rodeo, or failure to adhere to the specified order and time, shall subject the Stock Contractor to a $250 fine for the first offense, and a $500 fine for the second and subsequent offenses.

R1.4.2 Minimum Number of Head of Stock. There shall be a minimum of 12 head in the riding events and 10 head in the timed events for each paid performance in all events where slack is run, unless otherwise approved by the Director of Rodeo Administration.

R1.4.3 Minimum Go-Rounds in Timed Events for Rodeos with Four or More Performances. Rodeos that have four or more performances must have at least two go-rounds in a timed event if the number of Contestant Member entries in that event is less than the following (unless otherwise approved at time of rodeo approval): (a) 75 Contestant Member entries at a four performance rodeo; (b) 90 Contestant Member entries at a five performance rodeo; or (c) 105 Contestant Member entries at a six performance rodeo. A rodeo with seven or more performances must have a minimum of two go-rounds.

Notwithstanding any Bylaw or Official Rodeo Rule to the contrary, for purposes of this Rule R1.4.3, a finals shall be considered a performance. The number of Contestant Card Member entries in an event and the number of go-rounds for the event will be determined before the parameters are applied. Once the parameters are applied, an entry who is drawn out of the rodeo due to his parameter will not be placed back into the rodeo. For example, if 80 Contestant Members enter a timed event at a four performance rodeo, and ten of those entries submit the parameter "out if one go-round," the event may be only one go-round (based on the number of Contestant Member entries before the parameters are applied) and the ten Contestant Members using the "out if one go-round" parameter will be drawn out of (and will not be placed back into) the rodeo.

R1.4.4 Steer Roping. Only rodeos with at least $1,000 added in the steer roping may have more than two long go-rounds. Only rodeos with at least $3,000 added in the steer roping may have more than three go-rounds.

R1.5 Buddy System.

R1.5.1 General.

R1.5.1.1 Election. Persons wishing to use the Buddy System must specifically request this option at the time of entry. Persons wishing to buddy with another contestant or contestants must provide that contestant's PRCA membership number to the Central Entry Office at the time of entry. If anyone in the buddy group later enters without providing the same buddy information, then the original buddy arrangement will be negated.

R1.5.1.2 Limited Rodeos. Members of buddy groups that are entered at limited rodeos must state at time of entry if they wish to be drawn out if any or all of their buddies are not accepted. If contestants do not state, at time of entry, their preference to be drawn out if their buddies are not accepted, they will remain entered even though any or all of the rest of the buddy group may be drawn out.

R1.5.2 Single Event Buddy.

R1.5.2.1 Same Event. Contestants wishing to buddy must have exactly the same preferences and parameters and can buddy only in the same event. Any deviation shall negate the buddy arrangement.

R1.5.2.2 Implementation. To the extent possible, up to four individuals, or two teams, entered under a buddy arrangement will be placed in the same performance.

R1.5.2.3 Team Roping. In team roping only, teams shall be buddied team on team. If two teams are buddied, one team partner cannot buddy with another contestant in any other event unless that contestant is already a part of the two-team buddy group.

R1.5.2.4 Split of Group. A buddy group may be split, creating at least one group of two, in order to keep a more even and balanced distribution of contestants in performances. A maximum of one buddy group per event may be split.

R1.5.3 Multi Event Buddy.

R1.5.3.1 Requirements. The multi-event buddy system may be requested only for those events with one go-round, and only at those rodeos which are Performance-Preference Rodeos. At rodeos that have two go-rounds that are back-to-back, contestants may request the multi-event buddy system be used. A contestant or contestants competing in more than one event may request a “Multi-Event Buddy” in order to position themselves during the same performance or slack for all one go-round events entered, provided there are corresponding performances or slacks available in all one go-round events requested. A contestant requesting a “Multi-Event Buddy” may buddy with one other contestant, provided that both contestants enter at least one common event with one go-round only. Preferences for all events must be exactly the same.

R1.5.3.2 Implementation. To the extent possible, up to two contestants (with at least one common event with one go-round only) under the Multi-Event Buddy arrangement will be placed in all events in the same performance or slack.

R1.5.3.3 Valid Preferences. If a contestant requesting multi-event buddy gives a preference that is not valid in all events with one go-round only, his preferences will be deemed invalid.

R1.6 Acceptable Parameters.

R1.6.1 Event Specific. Any “out if” parameter imposed by a contestant on his entry must be event-specific.

R1.6.2 Draw out of Another Event. A multi-event contestant may be allowed to draw out of one event by virtue of a parameter if drawn out of another event. (EXAMPLE: “Out if two in bareback, then draw me out of bull riding also.”)

R1.6.3 Parameters Specifying “Out If Less Than.” “Out-if-less-than (specified number) of contestants” will only be accepted with the specified number stated in increments of five. (EXAMPLE: Out if less than 10, 15, etc.) For purposes of this Rule, the total number of contestants in an event shall include the contestant specifying the parameter.

R1.6.4 Non-Priority Position Rodeos. Certain non-priority-position rodeos may be approved to accept a “not performance” preference. This will be valid only in events with one go-round. A “not-slack” preference will not be accepted.

R1.6.5 Bull Riding at “If Limited” Rodeos. In the bull riding, at “If Limited” rodeos, contestants may attach an “Out if Not Limited” parameter to the entry, and must pay the $5 Central Entry Office charge if drawn out.

R1.6.6 “Out If Slack.” At all rodeos an “Out If Slack” will be accepted as a parameter. Contestants so drawn out will be required to pay the $5 Central Entry Office charge.

- R1.6.7 Replace Me. “Replace me if I don’t get my performance-preference and if a replacement is available” will be accepted at time of entry. If a replacement is available, contestant will be drawn out of the rodeo. Replacement shall be defined as any contestant drawn out due to Permits Maximum or qualifications. If more contestants give this parameter than the number of available replacements, a random draw will determine which of the contestants is replaced. Replacements will be accepted as follows: (1) In a qualification rodeo, according to qualification procedures; and will be subject to preferences and parameters listed in the potential replacement’s original entry; and (2) otherwise, by random draw, and will be subject to preferences and parameters listed in the potential replacement’s original entry. A replacement who has given a “no preference” parameter at time of entry will be accepted if he is one of the first drawn in the random draw.
- R1.6.8 Not Performance As Second Preference. A contestant may give a “not performance” preference as a second preference at any Performance-Preference Rodeo.
- R1.6.9 Unofficial. At the time of entry a contestant may specify that a given rodeo be considered an unofficial entry if a certain number of go-rounds or entries occur. Examples: “unofficial entry if two head,” “unofficial entry if less than 40.”

R1.7 Official Entries.

- R1.7.1 Championship Points. Only money won at “official entry” rodeos will count for Championship Points.
 - R1.7.1.1 All-Around Points. No more than 70 rodeos will be accepted as “official entries” for All-Around Points. Xtreme Bulls will not count in the All-Around Points.
 - R1.7.1.2 Sponsor Points. All sponsor points will count at any rodeo, regardless of the “official” or “unofficial” designation.
 - R1.7.1.3 Circuit Points. Circuit points and the requisite rodeo count for Circuit Finals Rodeo eligibility will count for those rodeos considered either an “official entry” or “unofficial entry” rodeo (excluding co-approved rodeos according to Bylaw B10.2.10).
- R1.7.2 Maximum Number of Official Entries. A contestant may enter as many PRCA-approved rodeos as desired. However, no more than the following number of rodeos will be accepted as official entries:

Bareback Riding	100 Official Rodeos
Saddle Bronc Riding	100 Official Rodeos
Bull Riding	No limit
Tie-Down Roping	100 Official Rodeos
Steer Wrestling	85 Official Rodeos
Team Roping	65 Official Rodeos

R1.7.2.1 Specification of Unofficial Entry. Any rodeo entered will be considered an “official entry” unless otherwise specified by the contestant at time of entry. Once positions are drawn, a contestant cannot change an “unofficial entry” to an “official entry”, unless Part R1.7.2.2 applies.

R1.7.2.2 Positions in Riding Event Slack. At a rodeo where a riding event contestant is positioned in the slack, the designation will automatically change to “unofficial entry.” Riding event slack contestant may redesignate to “official entry” anytime prior to the scheduled time of stock verification.

R1.7.2.3 Canadian Rodeos. The “official/unofficial” rules for entering Canadian rodeos will be the same as those outlined in this section except that the entry will be taken through CRES (Canadian Rodeo Entry System).

R1.7.2.4 Redesignation of Canadian Rodeos. Timed event contestants entering a Canadian rodeo have the opportunity to redesignate to “unofficial entry” a conflicting rodeo (either Canadian or U.S. rodeo) up until the first turn out deadline of the rodeo that the contestant wishes to redesignate. All such redesignations must be done through the Central Entry Office.

R1.7.2.5 Team Roping. In the team roping, the “official” rodeo count will be based on the combined total of heading and heeling entries.

R1.7.3 Conflicts.

R1.7.3.1 Conflict Due to Qualification for Progressive Go-Round or Finals. A contestant who qualifies for a progressive go-round or finals, resulting in a conflict with another “official entry” rodeo at which he has not yet competed, may request that the Central Entry Office draw him out of the conflicting rodeo. This notification must be no later than the turn out deadline of his scheduled competition at the conflicting rodeo. Contestant shall pay $5 Central Entry Office charge.

R1.7.3.2 Position in Multiple Rodeos on Same Day. If a contestant is entered in two rodeos, and is positioned in both rodeos on the same day, said contestant may designate one of the two rodeos as an “unofficial entry” rodeo, provided that a riding event contestant relays his decision to the Central Entry Office prior to the scheduled time of riding event stock verification. Timed event contestants have until the first turn out deadline of their specific event to declare a redesignation for the conflicting rodeo. In the team roping, both members of the team may request a redesignation if one member of the team meets the criteria outlined above.

R1.7.3.3 Conflict Due to Reride or Rerun.

R1.7.3.3.1 Riding Events. A riding event contestant with a reride which can only be taken during a performance other than that contestant's originally scheduled performance for that rodeo, may draw out of that rodeo or a conflicted rodeo.

R1.7.3.3.2 Timed Events. A timed event contestant with a rerun which can only be taken during a performance other than that contestant's originally scheduled performance for that rodeo, thereby creating a conflict with a second rodeo, may redesignate either rodeo as an unofficial entry only if that contestant has not broken the barrier and/or no elapsed time was recorded for the competition in which the rerun was awarded. If contestant has broken the barrier and/or an elapsed time was recorded for the competition in which the rerun was awarded, contestant may only redesignate the second rodeo as unofficial.

R1.7.3.4 No Redesignation for Go-Round Conflict Created by Contestant. No redesignation will be allowed if a contestant creates a conflict by trading his original second go-round position.

R1.7.4 Team Roping. If one member of an original team is replaced, the original team roper left to compete may redesignate that rodeo an "unofficial entry", provided that the original team roper complies with all other applicable Rules set forth in this Part R1.7.

R1.7.5 Verification of Unofficial Entry. Verification of "unofficial entry" will be conveyed to each contestant who has designated a rodeo as an unofficial entry no later than 14 days following entry closing time of the given rodeo. Verification, or protest, must be returned within 14 days of the date of the notification. If no protest is made by the contestant within 14 days of the date designated on the notification, earnings will stand as posted.

PART 2

 DRAWING POSITIONS **

- R2.1 Drawing. Positions and priority lists shall normally be drawn at the Central Entry Office. If drawn at a location other than the Central Entry Office, plastic poker chips must be used.
- R2.2 Placement.
- R2.2.1 Timed Events. In the timed events, contestants shall be placed at the bottom of the performance or slack they request, if they are drawn on the priority list to receive their preference.
- R2.2.2 Riding Events. In riding events, contestants shall be placed according to their position on the priority list, with performance positions filled first, and then placed into slack as performance positions become unavailable.
- R2.3 No Contestant to Compete on Two Head of Stock During Same Performance. No contestant will compete on two head of stock in the same event during the same performance, except for rerides in the riding events or reruns in the timed events, unless specially approved at time of rodeo approval.
- R2.4 No More Than One Scheduled Competition in Bull Riding Slack Per Contestant. At rodeos with $5,000 or more purse money in the bull riding, where bull riding is a two go-round contest, no contestant may be scheduled to compete twice in the slack.
- R2.5 Multiple Go-Rounds. For all events of a Performance-Preference Rodeo, and the timed events of a Non-Performance-Preference Rodeo, the positions shall be drawn for the first go-round, with the positions reversed for the second go-round. For second and subsequent go-rounds in the riding events of a Non-Performance-Preference Rodeo, as well as the third and subsequent go-rounds of all events in a Performance-Preference Rodeo, positions shall be drawn.
- R2.5.1 Scheduling Where Subsequent Go-Round is the Reversal of a Previous Go-Round. In those events where a subsequent go-round is the reversal of the previous go-round, if a go-round ends and the next one starts during the same performance, contestants finishing the go-round will be dropped off and start the next scheduled available competition time for their next head of stock. This same procedure will be followed if drawing of positions results in a contestant drawn twice for the same performance.
- R2.5.2 Commencement of Next Go-Round. A go-round must be finished before the next go-round starts, with the following exceptions:
- A) Rerides in the riding events.
 - B) Events with a go-round finishing and the next one starting during the same performance.
 - C) Back-to-back.

R2.5.3 Steer Roping With More Than Two Go-Rounds. For the steer roping event where there is more than two go-rounds, positions for the second and subsequent go-rounds will be determined as follows:

- A) 3 go-rounds-Once positions for the first go-round are set, the second go-round will be the reverse of the first go-round. The third go-round will be the same as the first go-round.
- B) 4 go-rounds-The same procedure shall be used as described in #1 above, except that the fourth go-round will be the same as the second go-round.
- C) 5 go-rounds-The same procedure shall be used as described in #1 above, except that the fifth go-round will be the same as the first go-round.

R2.6 Progressive Go-Round. Positions for a progressive go-round in all events will be the reverse of the qualifying scores or times. In case of a tie, judges will draw for positions for those tied. Contestants may trade positions in accordance with the procedures outlined in Rule R2.12.1. (Refer to Rules R6.5.3 and R6.5.4 for those not eligible to advance).

R2.7 Finals. In a finals, the positions shall be set in reverse order of qualification, with the lowest ranked contestant positioned first and the highest ranked contestant positioned last. In determining the ranks for qualification, if there is a tie for one or more positions, the person with the highest single score (in the case of a riding event) or the fastest single time (in the case of a timed event) from the previous go-rounds shall be ranked highest among the tied contestants. If, after using this tie-breaking procedure, a tie still exists, the judges will draw by lot to determine the rankings of those contestants still tied. (To determine the contestants for a finals, see Bylaw B10.4.3.) (Refer to Rules R6.5.3 and R6.5.4 for those not eligible to advance).

R2.8 Performance-Preference Rodeos.

R2.8.1 No Preferences for Local Entries. If Performance-Preference is accepted by a rodeo, only Members will be allowed to designate preferences. Local entries may not designate preferences.

R2.8.2 Choosing Preferences. For Performance-Preference Rodeos, contestant shall indicate, when he enters, whether or not he has a preference for when he is up in the first go-round. A maximum of two preferences will be allowed. A specific slack may be given as a preference. In the case of two or more go-round contests, "middle" may be designated as a preference. Middle will be defined as the performance or slack in which the first go-round is completed.

R2.8.3 No Conflict Preference Policy. In choosing preferences contestants shall also follow the "No Conflict Preference Policy" which shall be published in the PRCA Business Section and made available to contestants. Any revisions to the No Conflict Preference Policy shall be approved by the CEO and Chairman of the Competition Committee.

- R2.8.4 Placement. After entries close, a master priority list will be drawn. The computer will start at the top of the priority list, placing contestants in the performance or slack of their first preference. If a contestant's first preference is unavailable, he will not be placed in the performance or slack until the computer has considered the preference of every contestant on the list. Once every contestant has been considered, the computer then will go back to the top of the priority list and place contestants not placed into their first preference into their second preference, if available.
- R2.8.5 Filling of Available Positions. When a performance is filled for the contestant's first and second preferences, he is to be held and placed where he is needed, along with those contestants with no preference. These contestants will be placed in performances and/or slack lacking contestants, in the order they appear on the priority list. The order they fill will be from the end to the start of the go-round in the timed events. Performances will be filled from the start to the end of the go-round, and then slack, in that same order, in the riding events.
- R2.9 Non-Performance-Preference Rodeos. At Non-Performance-Preference Rodeos, riding event contestants will be placed in the first performance first, in the order they are drawn on the priority list, then will be filled into slack positions as performance positions become unavailable. Timed event contestants will be placed from the bottom of the go-round to the top of the go-round in the order they are drawn on the priority list. Positions shall remain as drawn (may not be traded) for all go-rounds at Non-Performance-Preference Rodeos.
- R2.10 Contestant Verification for an Event with Two Sections. At rodeos having two sections of any PRCA event in the same performance, that rodeo's Stock Contractor must notify the Central Entry Office of the number of sections prior to riding event contestant stock verification. If a rodeo has two sections of any PRCA event, a contestant in that event must verify, through the Central Entry Office, the section in which he will compete. Such verification may not be made before the riding event stock verification.
- R2.11 Late Arrival. Where there is more than one section of an event and a contestant arrives late for his section but alleges that the late arrival is due to an error by the Central Entry Office, he shall be able to compete on his stock if he has a Central Entry Office confirmation number. However, the judges will investigate the allegation as soon as possible. If the Central Entry Office is not responsible for the error, contestant will forfeit any money, points or awards won and will be fined $250.

R2.12 Trading Positions.

R2.12.1 Second and Subsequent Go-Rounds [Trading Positions].

At Performance-Preference Rodeos, positions in subsequent go-rounds may be traded by contestants upon obtaining, from the Arena Secretary, a trade form and submitting said form to Arena Secretary prior to the specified deadline. At no time will a contestant be allowed to trade, man-for-man or into an open position, within the same section of slack or within the same performance. Arena Secretaries may trade a contestant into an open position created by a turn out, doctor release, visible injury or draw out, provided this is done prior to the time indicated below. A trade to an open position which would move a contestant from a performance to a section of slack will not be allowed, nor will a trade to an open position within the same performance or section of slack be allowed. No second go-round trades will be allowed if an event is back-to-back. A contestant will be allowed only two trades for each of the second or subsequent go-rounds.

R2.12.1.1 Deadline for Timed Events. The deadline for submitting the trade form to the Arena Secretary in the timed events shall be no later than when the last time of the first go-round is recorded, except that, where a split performance ends a go-round, the deadline shall be the end of the prior performance or section of slack.

R2.12.1.2 Deadline for Riding Events. The deadline for submitting the trade form to the Arena Secretary in the riding events shall be prior to the stock draw.

R2.12.2 Conflict Due to a Finals. If a contestant qualifies for the finals of a rodeo, and that contestant is scheduled to compete on the same day as the finals in another conflicting rodeo with added purse money of $3,000 or more in the event that contestant entered, the contestant will be moved forward at the conflicting rodeo to the first available position, where possible, provided that the contestant notifies the Central Entry Office or the Arena Secretary of the conflicting rodeo of the conflict no later than the turn out deadline for his originally scheduled performance at the conflicting rodeo. If there are no available positions for the contestant to be moved forward, the contestant will not be moved. This Rule shall not apply where the contestant creates the conflict by trading from his originally drawn position in the second or subsequent go-round at the conflicting rodeo. (Trading in the first go-round through PROCOM does not apply.) Once a contestant has been moved because of this conflict, he shall not be entitled to trade that position.

R2.12.2.1 Original Draw Not Available in Riding Events. If a riding event contestant qualifies for the finals of a rodeo, and that contestant is scheduled to compete on the same day in the finals in another conflicting rodeo with added purse money of $3,000 or more in the event that contestant entered, and his originally drawn animal cannot be made available at the conflicting rodeo, that contestant can either accept the designated ride for the next available performance or, if prior to the end of the first go-round of the conflicting rodeo, elect to be drawn out of the conflicting rodeo.

R2.12.2.2 Turning Out Of Finals If Moved Or Drawn out Of Conflicting Rodeo. If a contestant is moved at a conflicting rodeo in accordance with Rule R2.12.2 or is drawn out of a conflicting rodeo in accordance with Rule R2.12.2.1, and that contestant turns out of the finals which had created the conflict, that contestant shall be subject to a $500 fine.

R2.12.3 First Go-Round. Contestants may trade positions in the first go-round for a PRCA-sanctioned event only in accordance with the terms and conditions of Rules R2.12.3-R2.12.3.4.

R2.12.3.1 Eligibility [for first go-round trade]. Contestants may trade positions in the first go-round for a PRCA-sanctioned event with $7,500 or more added money within four business days following the original callback for that rodeo. Contestants may trade positions in the first go-round for a PRCA-sanctioned event with $7,499, or less, added money within two business days following the original callback for that rodeo. A contestant shall be limited to two 1st go-round trades per event at any given PRCA-sanctioned rodeo. Trades for multiple events must be requested and granted separately, and the granting of a trade in one event shall not automatically entitle a contestant to a trade in another event. Trades shall also be specific to the individuals involved and shall not apply to buddy groups of which the traded individuals are members.

R2.12.3.2 Notification to Central Entry Office and Second Callback Period.

For a trade to be effective, at rodeos adding $7500 or more per event, each contestant involved in a trade must personally notify the Central Entry Office of the trade no later than 5:00 P.M. (Mountain Time) on the fourth PRCA National Office business day following original callbacks for that rodeo. For a trade to be effective, at rodeos adding $7499 or less per event, each contestant involved in a trade must personally notify the Central Entry Office of the trade no later than 5:00 P.M. (Mountain Time) on the second PRCA National Office business day following original callbacks for that rodeo. The Central Entry Office will establish a second position callback time (after the original callback time) for contestants to confirm whether the trade was made. Contestants shall be responsible for contacting the Central Entry Office to ensure the trade was made, and no contestant shall be excused from fines or other sanctions for missed competition times because a trade was not made. Information on entries will not be given to Rodeo Secretaries or Rodeo Committees until after the second callback period has ended.

R2.12.3.3 Trading Options; No Designation of Unofficial.

If a trade is allowed under this Rule, the positions of the contestants involved in the trade may be exchanged, or a contestant may trade into an available open position, as long as no open position in a performance is created by such trade. Once a trade is granted, the traded positions shall be effective for all go-rounds in that rodeo. If a trade request is granted, the contestants' status ("official" or "unofficial") prior to the trade shall be retained and cannot be changed, even if the contestant would have otherwise been eligible to designate the rodeo or event as "unofficial" pursuant to Rule 1.7.3.2.

R2.12.3.4 Violations and Turn Out Fines.

Any contestant or other individual found to be intentionally violating the provisions of this Rule will be disqualified from the rodeo, will be required to return any and all monies won at the rodeo in the event involved, and will be subject to a fine. For purposes of turn out fines, once a contestant has traded positions, he will be treated as if he has received his requested performance for a Performance-Preference Rodeo.

R2.12.3.5 Conflict with Second or Subsequent Go-Round. A contestant may trade position in the first go-round of a PRCA-sanctioned rodeo if the scheduled competition time of that rodeo is in conflict with his scheduled competition time in that same or any other event during the second or subsequent go-round of another PRCA-sanctioned rodeo approved as Non-Performance-Preference or approved for no trading in the second or subsequent go-rounds.

R2.12.3.6 Conflict with Potential Finals. In all events, if a contestant draws up at a rodeo during a performance which will conflict with an upcoming short go-round, that contestant may use the first go-round trade option even though the short go-round qualifiers at the potentially conflicting rodeo are not yet established. The second person who agrees to participate in the trade will not be entitled to move at the conflicting rodeo should he qualify for the short go-round.

R2.12.3.7 Conflict at Rodeos with $5,000 or More Added. At rodeos with $5,000 or more added, contestant(s) who are positioned and conflicted at another PRCA Rodeo with $5,000 or more added, may turn out by 3:00 PM the first business day after the trade deadline and will be replaced by another contestant(s) who entered the rodeo but was drawn out due to the qualification process. (A) Replacement order will be the same as the qualification process. (B) If replaced, contestant(s) which are replaced will not be responsible for entry fees or turn out fines. If not replaced, original contestant(s) must pay entry fees and any applicable fines. (C) If contestant(s) turn out and are replaced under the aforementioned parameters, the rodeo will be designated unofficial.

R2.13 Competition Discrepancy. When a contestant arrives at a rodeo prepared to compete at a performance or slack other than what is listed on the information provided each Arena Secretary from Central Entry Office, and he alleges that his arrival is due to an error by the Central Entry Office, he shall be able to compete on his stock if he has a Central Entry Office confirmation number. However, the judges will investigate the allegation as soon as possible. If the Central Entry Office is not responsible for the error, contestant will forfeit any money, points or awards won and will be fined $250.

 DRAWING STOCK **

R3.1 General.

R3.1.1 Drawing. All stock in contest events not drawn at the Central Entry Office must be drawn by number by a judge, using plastic poker chips. Stock draws must be conducted so that any entrant may witness the draw, provided that a judge may require any individual who does not maintain businesslike behavior to leave the draw area.

R3.1.1.1 Drawing or Competing on Same Head of Stock. No contestant may compete on or draw the same head of stock twice at any one rodeo in the same event, except in the case of a reride in the riding events or a rerun in the timed events in the same go-round.

R3.1.1.2 Competing on Stock Drawn. A contestant must compete on the stock drawn for him unless he has been awarded a reride or rerun by the judges. Each contestant shall be responsible for knowing which stock they are to compete on. In the Riding Events, competing on an animal not drawn for that contestant will result in a disqualification.

R3.1.2 Mount Money Charges for Turn outs. If a contestant turns out in accordance with Part 6 of the Official Rodeo Rules, and if exhibition animals are necessary, such contestant may be required to pay mount money charges.

R3.1.3 Final Go-Round. In a final go-round, stock shall be drawn and assigned in reverse order, with the lowest qualifier receiving stock drawn first and the highest qualifier receiving stock drawn last.

R3.1.4 Misdraws.

R3.1.4.1 Misdraw Defined. Any animal drawn to a contestant which must be replaced will be considered a "Misdraw".

R3.1.4.2 Herd Defined. In the timed events, "Herd" shall be defined as those animals designated prior to the start of the first go-round to be used in a given event. Once a Herd has been established for a rodeo, no animals may be added to the Herd.

R3.1.4.3 Extra Defined. In the timed events, if pens are drawn from the pre-designated Herd, at least one more animal than the number of contestants should be drawn to be used in the case of a Misdraw. Following the cattle draw, that animal (or animals) remaining shall be considered the "Extra(s)". In case the Extra(s) are not used for that given performance or section of slack, said Extra shall be placed with those animals not already included in a competition draw or a pen draw, unless the subsequent pen ends the run on the cattle.

R3.1.4.4 Four Misdraws. If four or more head are Misdraws, all unused stock shall be put back in the draw box and redrawn.

R3.1.4.5 Misdraw Discovered Prior to a Performance or During Slack. In case of a Misdraw discovered prior to a performance, or any time during the slack:

- A) If one or more Extras are available, all animals not competed on below the Misdraw up to the end of the run on the cattle shall be eligible to be drawn. One animal is drawn, that being the animal assigned to the contestant with the Misdraw. The contestant who originally had that animal will be assigned the Extra. All other contestants will be assigned the animals originally drawn for them.
- B) If no Extras are available, all unused animals below the Misdraw up to the end of the run on the cattle shall be eligible to be drawn, with the last unused animal drawn in that run designated the Extra.

R3.1.4.6 Misdraw Discovered After the Start of a Performance. In case a Misdraw is discovered after the start of a paid performance:

- A) If an Extra is available, the contestant involved will automatically be assigned the Extra, regardless of a possible difference in runs on the cattle.
- B) If no Extras are available, the contestant involved will not compete as scheduled, but shall compete later in the performance or immediately after. A replacement animal will be drawn from all animals left in the run. If a contestant is scheduled at the end of a run and no animals are available from that run, one will be drawn from the Herd.

R3.1.5 Tie-down Roping, Steer Wrestling, and Team Roping Draw If One Animal For Every Entry. At rodeos where there is one animal for every entry, the Event Representative shall establish the Herd and shall also designate those animals which shall be deemed Extras, but not part of the original Herd. Once the Herd is established, one animal will be drawn per each contestant in the go-round. Those animals not drawn will be considered sleepers. The sleepers will not be included in the draw for the next go-round, but will be used as extras to replace any injured, sick or sulking animals. At the completion of each go-round, sleepers must be run to be used as extras.

R3.1.6 Furnishing Tie-Down Roping Animals. At all tour rodeos, the Rodeo Committee must be responsible for furnishing one tie-down roping animal for every entry in the tie-down roping. All tie-down roping animals have to be approved by the event representative. If tie-down roping animals are not approved by the event representative, the Rodeo Committee will be fined $25 for every animal per entry.

R3.2 Riding Events.

R3.2.1 Turn out. Stock shall not be drawn for a riding event contestant if he has notified the Central Entry Office prior to the stock draw that he will turn out (as defined in Part 6 of these Official Rodeo Rules) in that go-round.

R3.2.2 No Animal May Be in the Draw Twice on the Same Day. In all riding events, stock cannot be placed in the draw twice in the same day, with the exception of rerides, unless approved by event representative and the Director of Rodeo Administration. The designated reride must be different from those animals competed on that given day. Failure to abide by this Rule will subject the offending Stock Contractor to a $250 fine per animal so used.

R3.2.3 Animals Used in Slack. If a riding event animal is drawn for the slack twice at a given rodeo, that same animal must be included in the performance draw at least once. If 15 or more animals are used in a performance, any rodeo may have an animal in the slack three times before it has to be in a performance. Failure to comply with this Rule will result in a fine imposed on the Stock Contractor of $50 per animal so used.

R3.2.4 Central Entry Office Stock Notifications.

R3.2.4.1 Submission of List of All Riding Event Stock For a Particular Rodeo. The Stock Contractor must submit a list of his riding event stock to the Central Entry Office at a time agreed upon by the Stock Contractor and the Central Entry Office, such time to be prior to the start of the first go-round (such time to be early enough to allow compliance with Rule R3.2.5). Failure to submit this list on time shall result in a $250 fine for the first offense, and a $500 fine for second and subsequent offenses.

R3.2.4.2 Submission of List of Riding Event Stock For a Particular Rodeo With $5,000 or More Added Purse Money. Rodeos which add $5,000 or more purse money in a riding event at a PRCA-approved rodeo must have the list of riding event stock available for review by the Event Representative at the Central Entry Office at least 24 hours prior to stock call back for the event or events to which $5,000 or more purse money is added. Failure to submit this list by the prescribed time shall result in a $400 fine.

R3.2.4.3 Notification of Each Animal's Ownership. The Primary Stock Contractor of a rodeo must notify the Central Entry Office of each individual riding event animal's ownership prior to the start of the rodeo. Any Primary Stock Contractor failing to comply with this Rule shall be fined $25 per head of stock not reported.

R3.2.5 Draw for Rerides and First Go-Rounds. Stock for rerides and first go-round must be drawn, in its entirety, a minimum of 72 hours prior to the start of the first go-round, unless otherwise approved by the Event Representative and the Director of Rodeo Administration at time of rodeo approval.

R3.2.5.1 Animals Drawn for a Reride. Any riding event animal drawn for a reride, but not used in that go-round, may be held out of the draw for rerides in the following go-round along with the feature animals, then will be returned for the go-round draw after the rerides have been drawn. An animal can be drawn for a reride only one time in a go-round.

R3.2.5.2 Draw for Second and Subsequent Go-Rounds. In the riding events, second and subsequent go-rounds must be drawn, in entirety, a minimum of 24 hours prior to the start of the respective go-round, except that this Rule shall not apply to the following:

A) Progressive go-round events with two performances on the same day where the first performance of the day ends the qualifying go-round.

B) Finals go-round events with two performances on the same day where the first performances of the day ends the qualifying go-round.

R3.2.5.3 Designated Re-Rides Set. Any PRCA rodeo that adds more than $9,999.99, two designated re-rides must be drawn per rule R3.2.6. Failure to have available re-rides will result in a $1,000 fine to the contractor and will progressively double after each offense.

R3.2.6 Procedure for Drawing Riding Event Stock.

R3.2.6.1 Where Pens Are Set by Primary Stock Contractor. The Primary Stock Contractor shall include in the pen at least one more animal per performance than the number needed for competition. A single animal shall be drawn from each pen and shall be considered the designated reride for that performance. Two-thirds of the animals per performance may be featured, but must be so indicated prior to reride draw, and thus held out of the reride draw. After the reride for a given performance has been drawn, all featured animals for that performance are to be returned to the draw.

R3.2.6.2 Pens Drawn, Not Set by Stock Contractor. The Primary Stock Contractor may feature a maximum of three animals per performance which shall be held out of the reride draw.

R3.2.6.3 Drawing Stock For Progressive Go-Round(s). Stock for a progressive go-round shall be drawn in the same manner as stock drawn for any other go-round, with the exception of a finals. However, stock for the progressive go-round is subject to Event Representative approval and the Event Representative may designate the rerides and the order of rerides.

R3.2.7 Finals.

R3.2.7.1 Selection. Selection of individual riding event stock for a final go-round in that event will be accomplished by a mutual agreement among a Riding Event Representative or his duly designated appointee, the Primary Stock Contractor, and a judge designated by the Supervisor of Rodeo Judges. The Supervisor of Rodeo Judges may designate a different judge for each event. At least two head of additional stock will be available for rerides. Rerides for the short go-round will be designated by the Event Representative or his appointed representative. The order of the rerides may be set by the Event Representative or his appointed representative.

R3.2.7.2 Qualification of Stock for Finals. In the riding events, any animals designated for the finals go-round must be drawn at least one time in regular competition at that rodeo in that event unless otherwise approved by the Event Representative.

R3.2.8 Admission For Slack. If admission is charged for slack in the riding events, the slack contestants must draw at the entire Herd, unless otherwise approved by the Event Representative.

R3.3 Timed Events.

R3.3.1 Turn out. Stock shall not be drawn for a contestant if he has notified the Central Entry Office prior to the turn out deadline that he will turn out, as defined in Part 6 of these Official Rodeo Rules, in that go-round, or has been disqualified. If additional timed event cattle are needed, cattle to be competed on will be drawn from those remaining in that performance's pen, with a record of the times and names of persons competing on these cattle posted for reference. These cattle will be considered run for purposes of determining the number of runs per animal.

R3.3.2 Pens of Stock.

R3.3.2.1 Drawing Pens. No pens of stock in the timed events may be drawn for more than one day in advance. Pens of stock shall be drawn by a judge, but if a judge is not available at the time it is necessary for a pen of cattle to be drawn for the first section of competition, the Primary Stock Contractor and secretary may draw that pen, preferably with a timed event contestant to witness the draw.

R3.3.2.2 Stock Selected for a Pen But Not Used. Stock already drawn for a pen, but not drawn for competition, shall be placed with those animals not already included in a competition draw or a pen draw.

R3.3.2.3 Back to Back Rodeos. At back-to-back rodeos, the number of animals in each slack pen will be the same as the number of animals in each performance pen, provided that an adequate number of cattle is available.

R3.3.2.4 Progressive Go-Round. The Event Representative has the authority to eliminate cattle from being used in the progressive go-round provided there is at least one animal for each contestant advancing to the progressive go-round.

R3.3.3 Draw.

R3.3.3.1 Procedure. Stock shall be drawn by a judge of the particular event (provided he is not contesting in that event) not more than one-and-one-half hours before the performance or section of slack. The arena secretary shall provide the judge with an exact copy of the draw.

R3.3.3.2 No Stock to Be Held Over. In timed events, no drawn stock can be held over from one performance to the next or overnight.

R3.3.3.3 Stock Drawn One Run and One Go-Round at a Time. Stock shall be drawn one run and one go-round at a time. All cattle in the Herd will be run one time before any cattle will be run twice, etc. except for a back-to-back performance rodeo. When this procedure becomes impossible due to a split performance, the draw will include remaining cattle that have been competed on the least number of times. Immediately after a split performance, the draw will then revert to the cattle that have been competed on the least number of times. Any animal drawn will be considered competed on. Extras may be added only if competed on an equal number of times at that rodeo, unless otherwise approved by the Event Representative.

R3.3.3.4 Sleepers In The Steer Roping. Sleepers may be used only in the Steer Roping. Prior to the stock draw for the first go-round, the Event Representative or his appointed designee shall establish the Herd and shall also designate those steers which are acceptable for competition but are not part of the Herd. The Event Representative shall also assign an order by which these acceptable steers which are not part of the Herd may be used as Extras in accordance with this Rule. Once the stock draw is complete for an entire go-round, those animals which are part of the Herd but which have not been drawn for a contestant shall be considered the sleepers. At the conclusion of the stock draw, an order will be drawn for the sleepers to be used as Extras. In the event that Extras are needed in the Steer Roping, those Extras shall first come from among the sleepers, and if additional Extras are needed, then from among those steers deemed acceptable for competition but not made part of the Herd.

R3.3.4 Back to Back. All cattle in back-to-back pens must be competed on or exhibited.

R3.3.5 Individuals Exhibiting the Stock. The individual or individuals exhibiting stock are subject to all Rules and fines pertaining to timed event competition.

R3.3.6 Finals.

R3.3.6.1 Selection of Finals Head of Cattle. All timed-event cattle competed on at a rodeo by finalists in an event will be used when drawing for final head for that event, excluding any cattle used in a prior performance the same day.

R3.3.6.2 Steer Roping. In the steer roping, steers used for the finals go-round shall be those roped by the finals qualifiers in the previous go-round(s), with those steers never having a time recorded in that rodeo eliminated from the finals Herd.

R3.3.6.3 Additional Head of Cattle for a Finals. If not enough cattle are available for a finals after using all the cattle brought in by the finalists, those remaining in the Herd with the fastest times will be used.

R3.3.7 Cattle for Progressive Go-Rounds In The Steer Roping. The cattle to be used for the progressive go-round in the steer roping event will be those cattle on which the progressive go-round qualifiers competed in previous go-rounds. However, no cattle without a single qualified time will be brought forward.

PART 4

 RODEO ACTIVITY **

R4.1 Timing of Competition on Stock.

R4.1.1 First Section of Event on a Program. No stock in any event, except for rerides or reruns, may be competed on before the first section of that event on the program, and no stock in that event can be held back for a contestant beyond the end of the event on the program for the performance (except for rerides or reruns). Any deviation from this rule may be authorized by a judge, if deemed necessary to prevent a production delay caused by a failure of equipment or breakdown in part of the facility.

R4.1.2 Slack. In slack, no stock in any event may be competed on before that event is scheduled. All animals drawn for that event must be run as scheduled prior to the start of the next event. Likewise, no stock may be held beyond the end of the competition for that draw, or the end of the run in that event, as the case may be.

R4.2 Inability of Contestant to Compete.

R4.2.1 Contestant May Be Held Back. If a contestant is unable to compete at a rodeo due to sickness or injury, he may be held back until later in the go-round with the consent of both judges and Stock Contractor. If held back, contestant may not compete at any other rodeo until he has competed in the performance to which he was held back.

R4.2.2 Timed Events. In the timed events, sick or injured contestants shall not be held back past the original end of the run on the cattle. If the timed events are back-to-back, no contestant may be held back due to injury beyond the end of the original pen in which he was drawn.

R4.3 Announcement of Times or Markings. All times or markings, whether for performance or slack, shall be announced. Any announcement of times or markings shall be deemed unofficial until posted. The announcer must announce accurately the information received from the judges. If a judge makes a correction to a time or marking, the correction must be announced. Failure to announce corrected information shall constitute a Class I offense.

R4.4 Location of Contestants During Rodeo.

R4.4.1 Seating for Contestants When Not Scheduled to Compete. If the management of a rodeo provides satisfactory seats for the contestants, the PRCA urges contestants to stay out of the arena when they are not scheduled to compete.

- R4.4.2 Must Not Interfere With Press, Photographers, or Spectators. Contestants in the arena must not interfere with the work of bona fide press and professional photographers, or with the view of the spectators. The arena director or a judge may enforce this Rule and shall have the authority to require contestants to take any action necessary to eliminate such interference.
- R4.5 Grand Entry and Parades.
- R4.5.1 Participation by Members. The PRCA urges each Member to ride in the grand entry.
- R4.5.2 Ground Rules. Stock Contractors may request a Ground Rule that horses not be allowed to be led in the grand entry. This Ground Rule must be listed in the PRCA Business Section if approved.
- R4.6 Contract Acts and Bullfights.
- R4.6.1 Excluded From Arena If Not Pertinent to Rodeo. Contract acts not pertinent to a rodeo will be excluded from the arena.
- R4.6.2 Bullfights. No non-PRCA-sanctioned sponsored bullfight matches will be considered part of a PRCA rodeo, and participants shall not be covered by PRCA group accident insurance coverage. Regular fighting bulls put out during a performance are considered part of the rodeo.
- R4.7 Contract Personnel.
- R4.7.1 Required Personnel. In order to participate as Contract Personnel in a PRCA-approved rodeo, an individual must be an Active Noncontestant Card Member-Contract Personnel and must be Financially Eligible at all times during the rodeo. A PRCA-approved rodeo is required to have at least two bullfighters and two pick-up men. For the purposes of this rule, a bullfighter will be considered to be an Active Member who meets the requirements of B2.5.5-B2.5.5.6 and has been hired for the rodeo for the protection of cowboy contestants during the bull riding event. More specifically, a Barrelman, a Clown, or any other active PRCA member will not be considered to be a bullfighter to satisfy the requirements of this rule. Only those persons who were specifically hired for and are actively engaged in cowboy protection bullfighting will be considered to meet the requirements of this rule.
- R4.7.2 Must Not Interfere With Competition. Contract Personnel shall not interfere with competition. Failure to comply will result in disciplinary action.
- R4.7.3 Photographers. In selecting a photographer or photographers to cover a PRCA-approved rodeo, the Rodeo Committee should give first right of refusal to a Member Photographer or Photographers, where such Photographers have applied to cover the rodeo, before selecting non-Member photographers. This Rule shall not apply to photographers covering the rodeo for legitimate news purposes.

R4.8 Arena Conditions.

R4.8.1 Ground Preparation. Ground preparation for PRCA events at PRCA-approved rodeos should be approved by the arena director, a majority of the event representatives present, any judge or the Primary Stock Contractor prior to the start of the rodeo. The ground must be laid flat prior to the rodeo, with no deep ground. Sandy ground must be watered and packed.

R4.8.2 Riding Event Chutes. Riding event chutes must have support for the contestant's feet when he is in the chute. Chute signage may not impair rider's ability to place feet in chute slats. Signs which so impair the rider's ability to place feet in chute slats are to be immediately altered. Riding event chutes must have a platform in the back of said chutes which must extend the full length of the chute.

R4.8.3 Unsafe Arena Conditions. If the arena conditions are deemed at any time to be unsafe by the arena director, a majority of the event representatives present, any judge or the Primary Stock Contractor, competition may be stopped until which time the arena conditions are deemed satisfactory by the individual or individuals who initially determined that arena conditions were unsafe.

R4.8.4 Lighting Over Event Chutes. The Stock Contractor and/or Rodeo Committee shall ensure that there is adequate lighting over the timed event and riding event chutes at all indoor and night rodeos. The Stock Contractor, and a contestant at Stock Contractor's request, shall notify the Rodeo Committee of any lighting deficiency.

R4.8.5 Barrier Rules.

R4.8.5.1 Height. The height of the barrier in timed events shall be from 32-36 inches, measured at the center of the box.

R4.8.5.2 No Automatic Slack Catchers. Automatic slack catchers may not be used.

R4.8.5.3 Side Pull Barrier. Barriers in the timed events must be a side-pull barrier with pulley and neck rope pulling from side of chute.

R4.8.5.4 Barrier Flag. The barrier flag must be on the barrier instead of on the neck rope of the timed event cattle whenever possible.

R4.8.6 Chutes.

R4.8.6.1 Automatic Trip Gate. All timed event chutes shall have an automatic trip gate with horizontal bars, unless otherwise approved by the Director of Rodeo Administration and the Timed Event Representatives.

R4.8.6.2 Clearance. The timed event chute must have at least 28 inches clearance inside the chute, and at the gate when in an open position for steer wrestling, team roping and steer roping.

- R4.8.7 Measuring Tape. The Stock Contractor or Rodeo Committee shall ensure that an adequate measuring tape shall be on hand for the barrier judge.
- R4.8.8 Length of Timed Event Box. Unless otherwise approved by the Director of Rodeo Administration, the box for each timed event must be at least 16 feet in length, and the boxes must be the same length.
- R4.9 Slack and Events.
- R4.9.1 Slack. Slack shall be produced under the same conditions as a paid performance. Stock Contractor may be reported for violation of this Rule at the discretion of the judge(s). First offense will constitute a warning; second and subsequent offenses will constitute a $250 fine for each offense.
- R4.9.2 Order of Performance. The order of performance events may not change once a go-round has started without the consent of the event representative, all judges and Rodeo Committee. If the events are changed and a contestant gets turned out because of the change, contestant should be assigned his original stock, if possible.
- R4.9.3 Events Held During The Performance. Unless otherwise approved by the Event Representative, all events must be held within the confines of time allowed during the regular performance for the presentation of PRCA events and must be listed on all materials presented to the general public which set forth the PRCA events to be held during the regular performance. The announcer may not dismiss the spectators at a PRCA-approved rodeo until all events listed on the program have been held, unless an event has been cancelled.
- R4.9.4 Barrel Racing. At rodeos where barrel racing is held, that event must be run after all PRCA timed events for a given performance or section of slack are completed, unless otherwise approved by the Director of Rodeo Administration. A Rodeo Committee agrees that, should the barrel race be approved to precede a PRCA timed event, the competition will be stopped and the arena reworked in a manner similar to arena preparation prior to the start of the performance or slack.
- R4.9.5 Contestant May Not Talk With Judge or Timer. No contestant may talk to a judge or Timer in any way while an event is going on. Questions may be addressed to a judge no sooner than at the end of the event for that performance or section of slack. Any contestant violating this regulation shall be reported to the PRCA National Office by the judges.
- R4.9.6 Steer Roping in a Different Arena. If approved by the Steer Roping Event Representative at the time of rodeo approval, steer roping may be held in a different arena in conjunction with a regularly scheduled rodeo, provided that a complete go-round is held in said arena during that regularly scheduled rodeo time.

R4.9.7 Vehicles Causing Ruts in Arena Ground. If a vehicle is to enter the rodeo arena either during or immediately prior to a performance or section of slack, thereby causing ruts to be left in the arena ground, either (i) the vehicle must enter the arena only after the steer wrestling is completed, or (ii) the arena ground must be re-prepared prior to the beginning of the steer wrestling competition.

R4.9.8 No Bull Released. No bull shall be released from a bucking chute, back pen or let out gate without verbal approval of a rodeo judge or verbal notification by the chute boss to all in the arena by way of rodeo announcer's public address system. Anyone failing to do so will be subject to a fine of $250 per incident to be levied to the Stock Contractor of record or chute boss of record. This shall include any bull which is released for the purpose of retrieving a bull that will not leave arena. Exemptions to this rule will include steers released to retrieve fighting bulls or bulls which escape from bucking chute by mechanical error. This rule shall be in effect from performance start time until 5 minutes following the final bull (bucking or fighting) exiting the arena.

R4.9.9 Pulling Animal From Chute. A Stock Contractor may not use another animal or horse to pull any animal out of a bucking chute. Pulling an animal out of a chute will result in a fine of $500.00 per occurrence. Pulling an animal out of the chute for any reason deemed by judges to be in the interest of the animal's or the contestants safety or physical welfare shall not be considered a violation of this Rule and must be approved by the judges at the time of occurrence.

R4.10 Timers and Timing.

R4.10.1 Must Be Members. All PRCA-approved rodeos must use at least two Timers who are Members.

R4.10.2 Timing. Two hand-held digital watches must be used in the timed events. One hand-held watch should be operated by each timer. All digits beyond tenths will be ignored. Official time shall be the average of the two times, ignoring any digit beyond the tenths. All times in the timed events are to be recorded in 10ths of a second. If one of the two Timers misses the start or stop or is delayed in starting or stopping the watch, or if the watch used by one Timer malfunctions, that Timer shall declare the problem to the other Timer and only the time recorded by the other Timer will be used.

R4.10.3 Electronic Timers/Scoreboards. Any rodeo using electronic Timers for PRCA-approved events shall be required to use a minimum of two back-up hand-held stopwatches.

R4.10.4 Positioning of Timers. Timers will work from the same location during all competition in PRCA events.

R4.10.5 Changing Timers. Timers for a rodeo may not be changed after the first competition of a PRCA-approved rodeo, except for sickness or injury; by request of a PRCA official because of Timer's incompetence; or through agreement of the Primary Stock Contractor, the Rodeo Committee and a PRCA official. Timer(s) who time first competition of a particular event must time that event for the duration of that rodeo.

R4.10.6 Timing. Once a particular event has commenced, a timer may not perform any other duty except timing. Failure to comply will result in a $50 fine per occurrence.

R4.11 Judges and Judging.

R4.11.1 Changing Judges. Neither the barrier judge, field flag judge nor the riding judge may be changed during the course of the rodeo, except in the case of sickness or by request of a PRCA Supervisor of Rodeo Judges.

R4.11.2 Markings. Markings in the riding events shall be totaled by both judges, verified by the Arena Secretary. Judges shall post the final scores after each performance.

R4.11.3 Turn outs and Mount Outs. Judges are required to mark on their books anyone turning out stock, and which animals were mounted out in the riding events or run in the timed events. Judges shall report same, in full, to Arena Secretary.

R4.11.4 Barrier Fines. Barrier judges shall keep a record of all barrier and field fines. They will be furnished a complete list of contestants by the Arena Secretary. Following each performance or section of slack, the barrier judges shall verify that the Arena Secretary has properly recorded the barrier and field fines.

R4.11.5 Rule Infractions. Judges are to post Rule infractions for all Members in the Arena Secretary's office, except for those infractions which take place during the last performance. No dismissal of violations will be allowed if the infraction is not posted.

R4.11.6 Bull Riding. The judge on the latch side of the chute gate shall serve as a back-up Timer in the bull riding event. The judge's stopwatch reading shall be used as a means of verification when the length of the qualified ride is in question. The judge shall stop his watch when, in his opinion, the contestant has been disqualified for any reason, or when he hears the whistle or horn, whichever comes first. In either instance, the judge will refer to his watch for a time verification on each ride. In any instance where the time is eight or more seconds on the judge's watch, the contestant shall be entitled to a marking without penalty. In the instance the whistle blows before the eight seconds, the judge must go with the whistle.

R4.11.7 Barrel Racing. In the event there is a PRCA approved barrel race included with the PRCA regular events, PRCA judges shall be required to flag said barrel racing and enforce all Rules pertaining to that competition according to the Rules of the sanctioning body for the barrel race.

R4.11.8 Judge's Decision Final. With respect to matters the authority over which has been specifically delegated to the judges by these Rules or the Bylaws, decisions of the judges will be final and may not subsequently be overturned by action of the PRCA, its officers or directors, or any other party, subject to the Grievance Procedure set forth in Chapter 12 of the Bylaws. Any judge, however, who does not perform his duties in compliance with these Rules, or who otherwise abuses his position, will be subject to disciplinary action by the PRCA Supervisor of Rodeo Judges. Penalty for such improper conduct shall be a minimum fine equal to the judge's pay for one performance of that rodeo and/or ineligibility to judge.

R4.11.9 Authority to Have Interfering Individual Removed. A judge shall have the authority to request that any person be removed from the arena if that person, in the judge's opinion, is interfering with the contest event.

R4.11.10 Flag Horse. Stock Contractor is responsible for supplying rodeo judges with a gentle, broke, saddled, and warmed up flag horse prior to start of each performance and slack. Failure to supply flag horse will result in a $100.00 fine, doubling for each offense.

R4.12 Timed Events. For purposes of these Rules and Bylaws, the term "head" used in the context of the number of competitions per contestant at a rodeo shall have the same meaning as a go-round (i.e., a "one-head timed event" shall have the same meaning as a "one-go-round timed event").

R4.13 Rodeo Proceedings and Results.

R4.13.1 Notification of Official Turn outs, Doctor Releases, and Draw outs. Arena Secretary shall be responsible for obtaining a list of official turn outs, doctor releases and draw outs no earlier than three hours prior to performance time. However, in the case of slack to be held in the morning, the list of official turn outs, doctor releases and draw outs must be obtained no later than 5:00 p.m. Mountain Time of the PRCA National Office business day preceding the day such slack is to be held. If a situation exists at a rodeo where the Arena Secretary is unable to call the Central Entry Office to obtain such a list, it will be the responsibility of one of the judges to contact the Central Entry Office to obtain such a list.

R4.13.2 Non-PRCA Events. At PRCA-approved rodeos where non-PRCA events are held, the PRCA Arena Secretary shall not be required to assume the responsibility of handling any of the details necessary for the completion of those events.

R4.13.3 Monies due the PRCA. Should the "For Secretary Use" sheet indicate that the Arena Secretary owes money to the PRCA, that money must be submitted to the PRCA postmarked no later than the first business day following the completion of the rodeo.

R4.13.3.1 Prize Money. Prize money is to be paid via RodeoPay. However, should the PRCA approve any prize money payment other than via RodeoPay, such must be paid by check and the Arena Secretary shall send all prize money checks not claimed at the rodeo and a copy of the check distribution sheet to the PRCA National Office postmarked no later than two days from the last performance, not including date of last performance. Contestant's membership number must be on each prize money check sent to the PRCA National Office. Arena Secretary shall be fined $50 for failure to comply with this Bylaw. However, if a contestant has specified where he wants his money sent, Arena Secretary shall send the corresponding prize money to that address.

R4.13.3.2 No Deduction for Horse Percentage Money. Arena Secretaries shall not deduct any timed event/horse-percentage money from prize money checks.

R4.13.4 Names of Personnel. Arena Secretaries are required to submit the names of the following for each rodeo: announcer, secretary, Timers, specialty acts, bullfighters, Barrelman, pickup men, Flankman and arena director (chute boss). No PRCA numbers are required.

R4.13.5 Responsibility for Errors. Arena Secretary will be responsible for reviewing the individual rodeo results and correcting any errors before submitting said results to the PRCA National Office.

R4.13.6 Membership Numbers. Arena Secretary shall be responsible for submitting correct Contestant Card Member, Permit Member or Life Member membership numbers and all other required information regarding entry status on all results forms submitted to the PRCA National Office.

R4.13.7 Post Slack Order. The order of events for any session of slack shall be posted in the Arena Secretary's office.

R4.13.8 Post Stock Draw. The Arena Secretary shall post the stock draw for all events in the Arena Secretary's office.

R4.13.9 Times. All times for timed events shall be posted in the Arena Secretary's office.

PART 5

 PAYOFF **

- R5.1 Calculation of Payoff. The payoff for a PRCA event at a PRCA-approved rodeo shall be based on the added purse money plus contestants' entry fees, less the six percent deduction described in Part R5.1.2, plus any sponsor money, if available.
- R5.1.1 Determination of Number of Contestants. The number of contestants, for purposes of determining the total amount of entry fees, shall not include contestants who properly doctor release or draw out in accordance with these Official Rodeo Rules prior to their scheduled competition in first go-round.
- R5.1.2 Six Percent Deduction. Six percent of the purse money and entry fees shall be deducted from the total prize money (not including bull riding, bareback, saddle bronc or tie-down roping day money), before determining the number of places to be paid. Only sponsorship money added to an event or all events at any rodeo by a PRCA National Sponsor is exempt from six percent deduction, unless otherwise approved by the Director of Rodeo Administration.
- R5.2 Determining Prize Money for Each Go-Round and/or the Average (Rodeo Without a Finals). Add all purse money and entry fees per event. Deduct six percent from this total. Add any sponsorship money available. This figure is referred to below as the Total. (In the team roping, divide this Total by two before continuing on.) The distribution of prize money between go-rounds and the average may then be determined as follows:
- R5.2.1 One Go-Round. The entire Total should be used for prize money for the one go-round.
- R5.2.2 Two Go-Rounds and Average. Prize money for the average is the same as for each go-round. Divide Total by three. The result is the prize money for the average and each go-round.
- R5.2.2.1 Two Go-Rounds and Average in Team Roping, Tie-down Roping, Steer Wrestling and Steer Roping. Prize money for the average is one and one-half times the go-round. Divide Total by seven. Multiply the result by two to obtain amount of prize money for each go-round and by three to obtain amount of prize money for the average.
- R5.2.3 Three Go-Rounds and Average. Prize money for the average is one-and-one-half times the go-round. Divide Total by nine. Multiply the result by two to obtain amount of prize money for each go-round and by three to obtain amount of prize money for the average.
- R5.2.4 Four Go-Rounds and Average. Prize money for the average is two times the go-round. Divide the Total by six and the result will be the prize money for each go-round. Twice the result will be the prize money for the average.

- R5.2.5 Five Go-Rounds and Average. Prize money for the average is three times the go-round. Divide the Total by eight and the result will be the prize money for each go-round. Three times the result will be the prize money for the average.
- R5.2.6 More Than Five Go-Rounds. Prize money for the average is never more than three times the go-round. Take the number of go-rounds to be held, add three, and divide the Total by this figure. The result is the prize money for each go-round and three times the result is the prize money for the average.
- R5.3 Determining Prize Money for Each Go-Round and/or the Average (Rodeo With a Finals).
- R5.3.1 Finals Prize Money. To determine the prize money for a finals go-round, refer to Part R5.4.3.
- R5.3.2 Determination. Add all purse money and entry fees per event. Deduct six percent from this total. Add any sponsorship money available. This figure is referred to below as the Total. The distribution of prize money between go-rounds and the average may then be determined as follows:
- R5.3.2.1 One Go-Round With a Finals and Average. Prize money for the average and the go-round are the same. Deduct the amount of the prize money for the final go-round from the Total. (In the team roping, divide the answer by two before continuing.) Divide the remaining total by two. The result will be the prize money for the go-round and the prize money for the average.
- R5.3.2.1.1 One Go-Round with a Finals and Average in Team Roping, Tie-Down Roping, Steer Wrestling and Steer Roping. Prize money for the average is one and one-half times the go-round. Deduct the amount of prize money for the final go-round from the Total. (In the team roping, divide the answer by two before continuing.) Divide the remaining Total by five. Multiply the results by two to obtain amount of prize money for the go-round and by three to obtain amount of prize money for the average.
- R5.3.2.2 Two Go-Rounds With a Finals and Average. Prize money for the average is one-and-one-half times the go-round. Deduct the amount of the prize money for the final go-round from the Total. (In the team roping, divide the result by two before continuing.) Divide the remaining total by seven. Twice the result is the prize money for each go-round. Three times the result is the prize money for the average.

R5.3.2.3 Three Go-Rounds With a Finals and Average.

Prize money for the average is twice the go-round. Deduct amount of prize money for the final go-round from the Total. (In the team roping, divide the Result by two before continuing.) Divide the remaining total by five. The Result will be the prize money for each go-round. Twice the Result will be the prize money for the average.

R5.3.2.4 More Than Three Go-Rounds With a Finals and Average.

Prize money for the average is three times the go-round. Deduct the amount of prize money for the final go-round from the Total. (In the team roping, divide the remaining total by two before continuing.) Divide the remaining total by the number of go-rounds plus three. The Result will be the prize money for each go-round and three times the Result will be the prize money for the average.

R5.4 Number of Placings and Percentages of Prize Money. The number of placings and percentage of prize money distributed to each placing shall be based on the total money paid per go-round.

R5.4.1 Riding Events. $000-$2,999.99 pays four places to be divided 40 percent, 30 percent, 20 percent, 10 percent. $3,000-$5,999.99 pays six places to be divided 33 percent, 25 percent, 18 percent, 12 percent, 7 percent, 5 percent. $6,000 or more pays eight places to be divided 30 percent, 23 percent, 17 percent, 11 percent, 7 percent, 5 percent, 4 percent, 3 percent.

R5.4.2 Timed Events. Amounts listed herein for team roping shall be per man. Tie-down Roping, Steer Wrestling, Team Roping (per man), Steer Roping: $000-$2,999.99 pays four places to be divided 40 percent, 30 percent, 20 percent, 10 percent. $3,000-$6,999.99 pays six places to be divided 29 percent, 24 percent, 19 percent, 14 percent, 9 percent, 5 percent. $7,000 or more pays eight places to be divided 23 percent, 20 percent, 17 percent, 14 percent, 11 percent, 8 percent, 5 percent, 2 percent. Any one-head timed event (without a finals or average) with more than $12,500 will pay 10 places to be divided 19 percent, 17 percent, 15 percent, 13 percent, 11 percent, 9 percent, 7 percent, 5 percent, 3 percent, 1 percent.

R5.4.3 Finals Go-Round. At rodeos with a finals, money to be held for the final go-round will be 50 times the number of contestants. In the riding events, the money to be held out for the final go-round shall be determined by the Event Representative at time of approval. Payoff distribution for a short go-round will be: $000-$2,999.99 pays four places, $3,000-$6,999.99 pays six places, $7,000 or more pays eight places unless an alternative payoff distribution has been approved by the Director of Rodeo Administration and the Event Representative. Refer to Rules R5.4.1. and R5.4.2. for the percentage breakdown equivalent to the number of places to be paid for the riding events and timed events, respectively. (In the team roping, divide the money to be held out for the final go-round by two to determine the number of places to be paid.)

R5.4.3.1 For All Events If Fewer Than Four Contestants Are Entered. Should there be only 3 contestants entered in an event, there will be three places paid in each go-round and average (if applicable): 50 percent, 30 percent, 20 percent. Should there be only 2 contestants entered in an event, there will be two places paid in each go-round and average (if applicable): 60 percent, 40 percent. Should there be only 1 contestant entered in an event, there will be one place paid in each go-round and average (if applicable): 100%.

R5.5 Payoff in Go-Rounds.

R5.5.1 Amount of Money and Number of Places. Determine amount of money and number of places for each go-round using procedures outlined in R5.2.-R5.4.

R5.5.2 Payments. Contestants are to be paid any money won in a complete go-round upon completion of the go-round. At certain specified rodeos, as approved by the Director of Rodeo Administration, no prize money checks will be issued prior to the last performance.

R5.5.3 Procedure When Not Enough Contestants Qualify for Paid Places. If not enough contestants qualify for the number of places to be paid in any event, the remaining places shall be divided evenly among those contestants who did qualify (have a score or a time), but that money shall be considered ground money and will not be posted as Championship Points except in the bull riding. If no one qualifies for prize money in an event, the prize money will be divided evenly among all who competed, but this money shall be considered ground money and will not be posted as Championship Points.

R5.5.4 Procedure Where All Contestants in a Go-Round Turn Out, Draw Out or Doctor Release (With At Least One Contestant Competing In Another Go-Round). In the case that all contestants in a given go-round of a multiple go-round rodeo turn out, draw out, or doctor release, and at least one contestant competes in at least one other go-round of that rodeo, prize money for the go-round in which no contestant competed will revert to the average payoff.

R5.5.4.1 Procedure Where All Contestants in a Go-Round Turn Out, Draw Out or Doctor Release (With No Competitions Occurring In Another Go-Round).

In the case that all contestants in a one go-round rodeo turn out, draw out, or doctor release, or in the case that all contestants turn out, draw out, or doctor release from all go-rounds of a multiple go-round rodeo, the added prize money for that event shall revert to the Rodeo Committee, and the entry fees for that event, in addition to any applicable fines, shall revert to the PRCA.

R5.6 Payoff in the Average.

R5.6.1 Amount of Money and Number of Places. Determine amount of money to be used in the average. All averages are to pay the same number of places and the same percentages as previous long go-rounds, regardless of the total amount of money in the average.

R5.6.2 Inclusion of Finals Results. When there is a finals, all markings and/or times will be included for purposes of determining the average.

R5.6.3 Contestant Must Compete in Every Go-Round. A contestant must compete in every go-round to qualify for the average. However, in the case that every contestant in a particular event has turned out at least once, the average money will be equally divided among those contestants who competed the most number of times, with this money not counting as Championship Points, but as ground money.

- R5.6.4 Determination of Average Placings. Average placings shall be determined by the highest total score (riding events) or the fastest total time (timed events) for those who received a score or a time, as the case may be, on livestock drawn for each go-round. When enough contestants do not receive a score or time, as the case may be, on all stock drawn for them equal to the number of places to be paid, revert to those contestants not already placing in the average who have competed in every go-round and who have the highest total score, or the fastest total time, on one less head of livestock than the number of go-rounds. This process shall be repeated until the number of contestants eligible for the payoff equals the number of average placings. If a contestant competes in all go-rounds but fails to receive a score or time, as the case may be, in one go-round, he shall not be eligible for the payoff in the average, unless no contestant has received a score or time, in which case the money shall be divided among all contestants who competed on all stock drawn for them. This money shall not count for Championship Points, but instead will be ground money.
- R5.6.5 Procedure When Too Few Contestants Compete. When fewer contestants have competed in each go-round, or fewer contestants have qualified on at least one head of stock, than the number of placings in the average, the prize money for the remaining places shall be divided evenly among those who do place in the average pursuant to Part R5.6.4. This money shall be considered ground money and will not be posted as Championship Points except in the bull riding (If a contestant makes a qualified ride).
- R5.6.6 Team Roping Teams Where Roper Has Been Replaced in Second or Subsequent Go-Rounds. A team roping team newly established in the second or subsequent go-rounds pursuant to Part R6.4.5 shall not be eligible for the average payoff.
- R5.6.7 Steer Roping in Different Arenas. Where the long go-rounds in the steer roping event take place in a different arena than the progressive and/or finals go-round(s), if it is necessary to play a placing in the average on fewer than the total number of head, those who qualified on all head in the long go-rounds would have priority over those who advanced to the progressive go-round with fewer qualified times than the number of long go-rounds.

R5.7 Bull Riding Day-Money Payoff.

R5.7.1 Use of Day-Money System. The day-money system will be used, in the bull riding only, 1) at all rodeos with two or more performances, $300 or more added money and one go-round in the bull riding, and 2) at all rodeos with one go-round and a finals if a minimum of 60 contestants are utilized in performance competition prior to the finals in the bull riding. The day-money system may be used in the bull riding at rodeos with two or more go-rounds in the bull riding if such use of the day-money system has been approved by the bull riding Event Representative. Each contestant scheduled to compete during a paid performance must pay double entry fees; half of those fees being used for day money, and the other half being used, along with fees from contestants up during the slack, for the overall payoff. (At certain specified rodeos, this division of entry fees may be altered as so approved by the bull riding Event Representative.) Six percent will not be deducted from the funds used for day money. All bull riders making a qualified ride during a paid performance will be paid an equal share of the day money. Money won in the day money competition will count as Championship Points. The following guidelines shall be used:

R5.7.1.1 Designated Performance Change. In the instance that a contestant's designated performance changes due to injured livestock, contestant injury, rerides, etc., the portion of that contestant's entry fee will remain in the performance in which that contestant was originally designated.

R5.7.1.2 Contestants Scheduled in Slack. Contestants who are originally scheduled to compete in the slack shall not be eligible to compete for day money no matter where they complete competition.

R5.7.1.3 No Qualified Rides. If no qualified rides are made during a paid performance, the total day money (less the deduction set forth in R5.7.1.1) for that performance will be added directly to the overall payoff. Six percent shall not be deducted from this money added to the overall payoff. At rodeos with more than one go-round where day money is involved in one or more of these go-rounds, should there be a given performance where no contestant makes a qualified ride, the day money for that performance will be added to the total amount paid in the average.

R5.7.1.4 Payoff. Day-money checks shall be written at the end of each performance if the performance competition has been completed.

- R5.8 Day Money in the Bareback Riding and/or the Saddle Bronc Riding. Day money in the Bareback Riding and/or the Saddle Bronc riding may be used if requested by Rodeo Committee, and approved at time of rodeo approval. Rodeo Committee agrees to add an additional $100 per performance per event, with that money specified for the Bareback Riding and/or Saddle Bronc Riding day money. Entry fees will increase by $25. The following guidelines will be used:
- R5.8.1 Designated Performance Change. In the instance that a contestant's designated performance changes due to injured livestock, contestant injury, rerides, etc., the portion of that contestant's entry fee will remain in the performance in which that contestant was originally designated.
 - R5.8.2 Contestants Scheduled in Slack. Contestants who are originally scheduled to compete in the slack shall not be eligible to compete for day money no matter where they complete competition. Entry fees for contestants in the slack will not be increased by $25.
 - R5.8.3 No Qualified Rides. If no qualified rides are made during a paid performance, the total day money (less the deduction set forth in R5.7.1.1) for that performance will be added directly to the overall payoff. Six percent shall not be deducted from this money added to the overall payoff.
 - R5.8.4 Payoff Procedure. A day money payoff will be completed following each performance provided all contestants scheduled to compete have done so (see Rule R5.8.2 for exceptions). The total amount of available payoff for each performance shall be: $100 purse plus $25 times the number of contestants scheduled to compete that performance, less the deduction described in R5.8.1. No six percent shall be deducted. The contestants with the top three scores of that performance will split equally the amount of day money available for that performance.

R5.9 Tie-down Roping Day-Money Payoff.

R5.9.1 Use of Day-Money System. The day-money system will be used in the tie-down roping at all rodeos with two or more performances, $3999.99 or less added money and one go-round. Each contestant scheduled to compete during a paid performance must pay double entry fees; half of those fees being used for day money, and the other half being used, along with fees from contestants up during the slack, for the overall payoff. Six percent will not be deducted from the funds used for day money. The top three tie-down ropers making a qualified time during a paid performance will be paid an equal share of the available day money for that performance. Money won in the day money competition will count as Championship Points. The following guidelines shall be used:

R5.9.2 Designated Performance Change. In the instance that a contestant's designated performance changes due to injured livestock, contestant injury, etc., the portion of that contestant's entry fee will remain in the performance in which that contestant was originally designated.

R5.9.3 Contestants Scheduled in Slack. Contestants who are originally scheduled to compete in the slack shall not be eligible to compete for day money no matter where they complete competition.

R5.9.4 No Qualified Times. If no qualified times are made during a paid performance, the total day money (less the deduction set forth in R5.7.1.1) for that performance will be added directly to the overall payoff. Six percent shall not be deducted from this money added to the overall payoff.

R5.9.5 Payoff. Day-money checks shall be written at the end of each performance if the performance competition has been completed.

R5.10 Progressive Go-Rounds. At rodeos where a progressive go-round system is used in the riding events, equal money will be paid for each go-round, except for the finals (regardless of the number of contestants involved). The average will be determined according to the number of go-rounds (i.e., same as the go-round for two-go-round events; one-and-one-half times the go-round for three go-round events; twice the go-round for four go-round events, etc.). The number of places paid will be the same for each go-round, except the finals.

 DRAW OUTS, TURNOUTS AND DOCTOR RELEASES **

- R6.1 No Refund of Entry Fees Once a Contestant Has Competed. If a contestant has competed in an event once during a rodeo, that contestant's entry fees for that event will not be returned. If said contestant is entered in other events in which he is unable to contest, the entry fees for those events must be returned. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a contestant is injured while competing in the first go-round of an event and has not been disqualified up to the point of injury, his entry fees will be refunded if a reride or rerun is due in that event.
- R6.2 Draw outs Due to Postponed Performances. Contestants will be permitted to draw out because of a postponed performance.
- R6.3 Riding Events.
- R6.3.1 Notification of Unavailability of Stock Drawn for Contestant at Time of Rodeo. If a riding event contestant arrives at a rodeo and the stock drawn for his first go-round competition is not available for competition for said contestant's original position (up to and including the time the contestant asks for the animal to be released for competition), said contestant shall have the option of accepting the reride or receiving a refund of his entry fees.
- R6.3.2 Notification of Unavailability of Stock Drawn for Contestant by the Central Entry Office. A riding event contestant who is notified by the Central Entry Office that his riding event draw will not be available at a rodeo may notify the Central Entry Office of his intention to accept the replacement animal or to draw out. This option shall not be available should the contestant be notified of a stock draw change when the Misdraw procedure is used. If a contestant has already notified the Central Entry Office of a turn out before he is informed by the Central Entry Office or another source that the animal he has drawn is not available, that contestant cannot void the turn out and change it to a draw out.
- R6.4 Team Roping.
- R6.4.1 Replacement of Partner. When replacing a partner, only a header may replace a header (e.g. a replacement for a header must begin all competitions for that rodeo from the header's box), and only a heeler may replace a heeler (e.g. a replacement for a heeler must begin all competitions for that rodeo from the heeler's box). A partner may only be replaced prior to the stock draw for the first go-round, unless an exception set forth in Part R6.4.5 or R6.4.7 applies. After a team roping team has competed one time at a rodeo, neither partner may be replaced, unless the exception set forth in Part R6.4.5 applies.

- R6.4.2 Draw out, Doctor Release or Visible Injury Turn out by a Partner. If a team roper doctor releases, draws out or turns out with a visible injury prior to the first go-round in accordance with the regulations of these Official Rodeo Rules, the individual entered with him may draw out or may get another partner from among any of the PRCA event contestants entered at the rodeo, except team ropers already scheduled to compete in the event. If a team roper notifies of a turn out prior to first go-round competition, in accordance with PRCA turn out procedures, the individual entered with him may select another partner from among any of the PRCA event contestants already entered at the rodeo, except those scheduled to compete in the event, or that individual may draw out if and only if he is present at the rodeo and personally notifies the rodeo secretary prior to the cattle draw of first go-round competition.
- R6.4.3 Failure of Partners of Two Separate Teams to Appear at the Rodeo. In the instance that a partner from each of two teams has turned out or drawn out of the rodeo due to a notified turn out, non-notified turn out, doctor's release or visible injury or illness, the remaining two team members may compete as a new team, provided that the remaining team members must remain either a header or heeler and notify the Arena Secretary by the times specified below. If either of the new team members' partner is a notified turn-out, a notified doctor release, or a notified visible injury or illness, then the new team members must notify the Arena Secretary that they will compete as a team prior to the stock draw for competition of the first original team. If neither of the new team members' partners is a notified turn out/doctor release/visible injury or illness, then the new team members must notify the Arena Secretary that they will compete as a team prior to the time of competition in that rodeo of the first original team. In all instances covered by this Rule R6.4.3, the position for competition of the newly-formed team shall be determined by the flip of a coin.
- R6.4.4 Notification to Arena Secretary. If the Arena Secretary has been notified of a team roper's turn out, doctor release, or draw out, the partner must notify the Arena Secretary prior to the cattle draw of first go-round competition if he is drawing out or if he is replacing his partner and who his replacement partner will be. If the secretary is not notified, the contestant will be subject to entry fee payment, will be disqualified from the team roping for that rodeo, and no cattle will be drawn.

- R6.4.5 Failure of a Partner to Notify of a Turn out. If a team roper's partner fails to notify of a turn out, and does not appear prior to first go-round competition, the individual entered with him may, up until the time of his competition in the first go-round of the team roping, obtain another partner from among any of the PRCA event contestants entered at the rodeo, except team ropers already scheduled to compete in the event, or he may draw out, provided he is present at the rodeo and the draw out is approved by the judges of that rodeo.
- R6.4.6 Responsibility of Replacement Team Roper for Entry Fees. If an alternate team roping contestant is replacing a partner who has turned out (either notified or non-notified that replacement will not be required to pay entry fees. If an alternate team roping contestant is replacing a partner who has doctor released or been officially drawn out, that replacement will be required to pay entry fees.
- R6.4.7 Replacement of Team Roper in Second or Subsequent Go-Rounds. If a team roper's partner is unable to compete in the second or subsequent go-round due to a visible injury or doctor release, the remaining partner may obtain a replacement partner from among those contestants entered in that rodeo who are not already entered in the team roping, provided that the originally-entered team competed in the first go-round. This newly established team will not be eligible for the average payoff. Any money won in a go-round by the newly established team will not count as Championship Points, Circuit Points, any All-Around awards, or sponsor bonuses. Only one replacement partner per rodeo will be allowed under this Rule. The replacement partner shall not be responsible for entry fees.
- R6.5 Notified Turn out.
- R6.5.1 Procedure. A contestant wishing to make a notified turn out must so notify the Central Entry Office no later than three hours prior to the performance of which he is turning out, unless an earlier deadline applies pursuant to Part R6.5.1.1. Should circumstances change that make it possible for a contestant to compete after a turn out notification has been made, it will be his responsibility to notify that rodeo's representative individually. If his stock is available, contestant may be allowed to compete. If timed event stock has already been drawn excluding this contestant, he shall not be allowed to compete.
- R6.5.1.1 Morning Slack. A contestant desiring to make a notified turn out for a morning section of slack must so notify the Central Entry Office no later than the turn out deadline of the previous evening's performance or 5:00 p.m. (Colorado Mountain Time) of the day prior to such section of slack if there is no performance the previous evening.

- R6.5.1.2 Early Performances. A contestant desiring to make a notified turn out for a performance, the turn out deadline of which is prior to Central Entry Office business hours for that day, must so notify the Central Entry Office in accordance with procedures outlined in Rule R6.5.1.1.
- R6.5.2 Mount Money in Riding Events. A riding event contestant who notifies of a turn out in the first go-round no later than 5 p.m. (Mountain Time) of the day prior to scheduled stock call-back time will not be held responsible for mount money. Arena Secretaries will be notified of which contestants are not to be charged mount money.
- R6.5.3 Not Eligible for Average Payoff. Any contestant turning out at any time in an event will not be eligible for any average payoff in that event or advancement to progressive and/or finals go-rounds, except in the instance that every contestant has turned out at least once, but will be eligible to compete on all other stock at that particular rodeo.
- R6.5.4 Eligible to Compete on Other Stock. If a contestant turns out in an event at a particular rodeo, he will still be eligible to compete on all other stock at that particular rodeo, unless he turns out in a go-round prior to a progressive go-round and/or finals go-round. (Refer to R6.5.3). However, no multi-event contestant may turn out in one event and compete in another in a given paid performance unless he is a non-notified turn-out in one event, in which case he may compete in another.
- R6.5.5 Turn out in Slack. A contestant turning out in one event in any given section of slack is eligible to compete on all other stock in that same section of slack.
- R6.6 Turn out Due to Visible Injury or Illness.
- R6.6.1 Procedure. A contestant may turn out due to a visible injury or illness, provided notification of such a turn out is authorized by a judge at the given rodeo, or the contestant so notifies the Central Entry Office no later than three hours prior to the performance that he is turning out. In the case of a visible injury turn out to be authorized by a judge, the judge is to grant a visible injury release only if there is an obvious injury or illness; otherwise, the contestant must have a letter from a doctor verifying the injury or illness. In this instance, the contestant shall remain eligible to enter or compete in any PRCA rodeo following the performance which he has turned out because of a visible injury or illness.
- R6.6.2 Entry Fees, Turn out Fines and Mount Money. The entry fees of contestants turning out due to a visible injury or illness shall remain in the payoff. All turn out fines and mount money charges will be waived, provided the following conditions are met:
A) A doctor verification form, or PRCA visible injury or illness form signed by the judge of a given rodeo, is received in the PRCA National Office no later than seven days following the last performance of the subject rodeo; and

B) Entry fees not paid to the Arena Secretary are sent to the PRCA National Office in accordance with all applicable rules.

R6.6.3 No Competition at Another Rodeo During the Same Time Period. If a contestant turns out of a performance or section of slack of a rodeo with a visible injury or illness, he may not compete in that event at another rodeo during that same time period.

R6.6.4 Not Eligible for Average Payoff. A contestant turning out due to a visible injury or illness in an event will not be eligible for any average payoff in that event, except in the instance where every contestant in that event has turned out at least once.

R6.6.5 Turn out Due To Visible Injury. Turn outs due to visible injury or illness will be counted as official rodeos.

R6.7 Doctor Release.

R6.7.1 Procedure. A contestant may doctor release, thus waiving all obligations for entry fees, turn out fines, and mount monies, provided:

A) Contestant has an injury or illness which prevents him from competing in one or more events for which he is entered at a rodeo;

B) Contestant notifies the Central Entry Office of the intended doctor releases no later than three hours prior to the performance for which the contestant's first go-round competition is scheduled (with contestant responsible for listing all rodeos in which he is scheduled to compete within the 4, 10-or 30-day ineligibility time period described below); and

C) A medical doctor verification can only be submitted by a licensed medical doctor, physician's assistant, nurse practitioner or any member of the sports medicine team at a rodeo. The doctor's verification must be on the attending medical practitioner's letterhead bearing the attending practitioner's name, address and phone number signed by the attending licensed medical doctor, physician's assistant, nurse practitioner or any member of the sports medicine team at a rodeo. This release is to be received by the PRCA National Office within seven days of the date of the last performance of the first rodeo for which the contestant doctor released. Failure to submit such a doctor's verification will result in a fine equal to the entry fees for the event in question plus an additional $50.

R6.7.2 Ineligibility Period. At the time a contestant doctor releases, he must indicate whether the mandatory ineligibility period shall last 4, 10 or 30 days. Ineligibility period shall begin the first day of competition after notification to the Central Entry Office of the intended doctor release and shall continue through the period of 4, 10 or 30 days following the first scheduled competition of the rodeo or rodeos for which the contestant doctor releases. During a Rodeo Year, a contestant may not designate more than two ineligibility periods which last less than 30 days. All subsequent ineligibility periods shall automatically last 30-days.

R6.7.2.1 Ground Rule for Mandatory Ineligibility Period.

A rodeo (or an Event Representative on behalf of the rodeo) where a special Ground Rule has been approved for a “No Doctor Release” may apply for a special Ground Rule imposing a minimum number of days that a contestant must be ineligible should a contestant doctor release after a specified deadline.

R6.7.2.2 Competing While Ineligible. A contestant who competes in an event at a rodeo while ineligible due to a doctor’s release in that event will forfeit any money, points or awards won at the rodeo in which he competed while ineligible and will be fined $500 per rodeo competed in while ineligible.

R6.7.2.3 Entry in Event During Doctor Release Ineligibility Period. A contestant may enter a rodeo if available competition times follow his doctor release ineligibility period. However, should that contestant be positioned during a competition time that falls within the doctor release ineligibility time, said contestant will be required to “Visible Injury” that performance or slack, and must pay entry fees and related charges for that rodeo.

R6.7.3 Competition in Another Event. A contestant who doctor releases in one event may compete in another.

R6.7.4 Central Entry Office Charge. A contestant will be charged the $5 Central Entry Office charge for each rodeo from which he doctor releases.

R6.7.5 Turn out Due to Doctor Release. Turn outs due to doctor releases will be unofficial.

PART 7

All livestock furnished to a PRCA-sanctioned event must be owned by a PRCA Noncontestant Card Member Stock Contractor or First Year Stock Contractor. For purposes of this Rule R7.1, an animal shall be considered “owned” if (1) the Stock Contractor or First Year Stock Contractor owns one hundred percent (100%) of the right, title and interest in that animal, and (2) the Stock Contractor or First Year Stock Contractor meets the requirements as further defined in B2.5.13.2 and B2.5.13.3.2, and (3) the animal carries a permanent, legible brand of the Stock Contractor/First Year Stock Contractor that has been registered with the PRCA. Violation of this Rule at any PRCA Rodeo or performance, including slack, covered by sections 8 or 9 of the PRCA Bylaws, or such other championship or finals rodeo identified by the PRCA National Office (i.e. National Finals Rodeo, National Circuit Finals, Circuit Finals, etc.) is a Class III offense and shall result in a two-year suspension from the championship rodeos or finals rodeos and a fine equal to five thousand dollars ($5,000) for each animal used at a championship or finals rodeo not owned by the Stock Contractor/First Year Stock Contractor. Violation of this rule at any PRCA-sanctioned event, other than a championship or finals rodeo, shall result in a fine of one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each animal used at the PRCA-sanctioned event, performance or slack. Such fines shall be assessed unless there is a demonstrated emergency or hardship deemed acceptable by the PRCA or unless written approval has been granted by the PRCA prior to the event, performance or slack. In the event that any provision of this Section R7.1 shall conflict with one or more PRCA Bylaws or other Official Rodeo Rules, the terms of this Section R7.1 shall prevail.

R7.1.1 Fresh Animals. For purposes of these Official Rodeo Rules and the Bylaws, fresh tie-down roping animals or fresh steers shall refer to those animals on which no one has ever competed.

Inspection of ownership brands of riding event livestock of Stock Contractors will be done at all PRCA-sanctioned events. Inspection will be done by PRCA judges. If number or ownership brands are "haired over" or blurred, such brands must be clipped, if requested; or re-branded as to be readable at all times. All brands must be on PROCOMS list one day prior to the stock draw, if they are not on the list in PROCOM, they cannot be used in the draw. Failure to have an acceptable, legible number or legible ownership brand shall result in a fine of $250.00 per animal.

R7.3.1 Ear Tags or Permanent Brand. Tie-down roping animals may be identified with permanent, factory-numbered ear tags and/or permanent brand, which must be on the right side, except in those states that require tags in the left ear. All tie-down roping animals at a given rodeo must be tagged on the same side. Any placement of tags in the left ear must be approved by the tie-down roping Event Representative and the Director of Rodeo Administration.

calendar year to the next, unless approved by Event Representative and the Director of Rodeo Administration.

R7.5 No Switching of Events. No steers may be switched in events unless approved by the event representative or the Director of Rodeo Administration prior to the time of entry closing. Fine shall be $100 per head per competition per event.

R7.7 Tie-Down Roping Animals.

R7.7.1 Fresh Cattle. 1. Stock Contractor and/or the Rodeo Committee must notify PROCOM prior to position callbacks if fresh tie-down roping animals will be used at the rodeo. Failure to notify PROCOM that the tie-down roping animals will be fresh, and the time set for tying the tie-down roping animals, will subject the Stock Contractor and/or the Rodeo Committee to a fine of $25 per tie-down roping animal not tied. 2. Tie-down roping animals prepared at a location other than the location of the rodeo without approval and full knowledge of the Tie-down Roping Event Representative and the Director of Rodeo Administration will result in a $25 fine per animal to the Stock Contractor and $25 per animal to the Rodeo Committee.

R7.7.2 Tie Down of Tie-Down Roping Animals. The Tie-down Roping Event Representative or his duly appointed designee has the authority to tie-down roping animals that have already been roped in competition tying them no more than three times unless otherwise approved by the Stock Contractor and/or judge. This must occur no less than two hours prior to competition with a judge present. The time for preparation must be designated and reported to PROCOM. If no PRCA Members show up to tie down the animals, the preparation will be cancelled and not rescheduled.

R7.8 Supply of Timed Event Cattle. Stock Contractors and/or the Rodeo Committee shall be responsible for providing adequate numbers of timed event stock which complies with these Rules and Bylaws. Failure to provide the requisite numbers shall result in a fine levied against the Stock Contractor or Rodeo Committee responsible for supplying stock.

In the team roping, at all rodeos, there will be either one steer for every entry or the minimum number of cattle will be one half the number of entries.
- R7.8.2 Rodeo With Six or More Performances. At a rodeo with six or more performances, one animal per every two entries, not to exceed 100 animals, will be required. A comprehensive documented report, outlining the specific reason(s) why the animal is unsatisfactory for competition, which may include video of the unsatisfactory occurrence(s), the rodeo and date of the unsatisfactory occurrence(s), and the contestant that was affected by the unsatisfactory occurrence(s), must be submitted to PRCA Rodeo Administration within 7 days of the unsatisfactory occurrence(s) for review. The Director of Rodeo Administration will review the information regarding the unsatisfactory animal and will determine whether or not the animal will be deemed unsatisfactory. The Stock Contractor will be notified of the competition status of the animal within 7 days of the submission of the information to be reviewed. If the elimination of an animal from competition results in a stock shortage, the Stock Contractor shall be subject to the appropriate fine. Unsatisfactory animal(s) may be reinstated with approval by the Event Representative upon an application for reinstatement. If an animal has been declared unsatisfactory for an event, that animal may not be used for another event without the approval of the Event Representative.

R7.9.1 Definition of Unsatisfactory Riding Event Stock. In regard to R7.9, "Unsatisfactory" shall be defined for riding event stock as recurring instances (more than twice) where the animal is: dangerous in the chute, runs off, fights the chute, flips, falls, stumbles consistently, runs into fences, stops, is a head slinging bull or has a bucking pattern that makes the animal extremely dangerous to contestants or the pickup men. Riding event stock shall also be considered unsatisfactory when the animal's performance results in a re-ride due to inferior performance more than two consecutive times or where the animal's removal is necessary for animal welfare reasons. Unsatisfactory animals may be reinstated with the approval of the Event Representative upon application for reinstatement.

R7.9.2 No Change of Events. If an animal has been declared unsatisfactory for an event, that animal may not be used for another event without the approval of the Event Representative.

The declaration of an animal as being unsatisfactory must be done prior to the establishment of the herd for that given rodeo. Should an entire herd be declared unsatisfactory in accordance with guidelines established above, the Stock Contractor would be allowed 21 days from the date of notification to replace that entire herd with acceptable cattle.

R7.10 Animals With Horns.

R7.10.1 Trimming the Horns. Stock Contractors and the Rodeo Committee will be expected to cooperate in trimming the horns of steers that are not able to pass through the timed event chute.

R7.10.2 Steer Wrestling Cattle. The horns on steer wrestling cattle must be blunted to the size of a dime. Horns must be no less than 9" on each side. Failure to abide by this Rule will result in a $50 fine per animal levied against the Stock Contractor or Rodeo Committee.

Failure to abide by this Rule will result in a $50 fine per steer levied against the Stock Contractor or Rodeo Committee. All team roping steers must have a minimum of 8" horns on both sides of the steer's head.
- R7.10.5 Blunting of Bull Horns. All horned animals used in the PRCA bull riding, bullfighting or Clown events shall have their horns blunted to at least the diameter of a half-dollar. Upon direction of the PRCA Bull Riding Representative or his duly designated appointee, any animal's horns may be shortened to any length deemed necessary for competition. If the above specifications are not adhered to, said animal shall be removed from competitive status until the requirements set forth herein are satisfied.
- R7.10.6 Inspection of Bull Horns. Judges are to inspect bulls' horns at least two hours prior to performance. If bulls are not available at that time, inspection will be allowed up to the time of competition. If the horns are considered too sharp, the contestant shall have the option of a reride. Judges shall notify the Central Entry Office of bulls that need to be tipped. If those bulls are not tipped by the next time they are out, the fine to the Stock Contractor will be $100 for the first offense, progressively doubling thereafter.
- R7.11 No Use of Animals Other Than Contest Events. An animal used in the contest events of a PRCA rodeo may not be used in any way, other than in the contest events of that rodeo, until after the last time that animal has been used in the contest events at that rodeo, unless otherwise approved by the Event Representative. Failure to abide by this Rule shall result in a $50 fine per head per competition levied against the Stock Contractor or Rodeo Committee.
- R7.12 Absence of an Animal From a Rodeo.
- R7.12.1 Failure to Appear or Early Shipping. If a Stock Contractor or Rodeo Committee fails to provide an animal for a rodeo by the scheduled time for the competition stock draw in the timed events or the scheduled time for the riding event (including the scheduled time for each section in the riding event) or ships an animal from a rodeo after it has been drawn, but before it has been competed on, the Stock Contractor of record or Rodeo Committee will be subject to a $100 fine per animal.

R7.12.2 Injured Animals at Rodeo. The Stock Contractor of record shall be responsible for notifying the Central Entry Office of riding event stock which becomes injured at a rodeo and is in the draw for later competition time. Failure to do so shall subject the Stock Contractor of record to a $250 fine per offense.

R7.12.3 Ineligibility Period for Injured Animals. If a riding event animal is replaced in the draw at a rodeo as “injured”, that animal cannot be used for a period of 48 hours following the first performance that the animal was replaced. Using an animal before the end of the 48 hour period will result in a fine of $500 per animal to the owner of the animal.

R7.13 Specifications of Animals.

R7.13.1 Tie-down Roping Animals. 1. Weight for tie-down roping animals shall be a minimum of 220 pounds and a maximum of 280 pounds with fresh tie-down roping animals not to exceed a maximum of 260 pounds and must be healthy. 2. Any deviations must be approved by the Tie-down Roping Event Representative or his duly appointed designee and the Director of Rodeo Administration. 3. There can be no more than a 50-pound deviation in weight from the smallest to the largest tie-down roping animal in a given Herd. 4. The tie-down Roping Event Representative or his appointee and the PRCA Judge must approve the animals prior to the establishment of the Herd. 5. If any individual tie-down roping animal does not meet the requirements, the Tie-down Roping Event Representative or his duly appointed designee has the right to remove immediately (but prior to the establishment of the Herd) that tie-down roping animal from the Herd for the duration of the rodeo, potentially subjecting the Stock Contractor to a fine per head for being short of the required number of animals. 6. Failure of the PRCA Member owner and/or committee to comply with the criteria listed above will result in the PRCA Member owner and/or committee to be fined an amount equal to the shortage of livestock fines outlined in the Rulebook. 7. Judges have the authority to weigh the tie-down roping animals. If the PRCA Member owner refuses to allow weighing of the animals, the Member will be fined for underweight animals for the tie-down roping animals in question. 8. Adequate facilities that may include shelter, shade and bedding must be provided by the Rodeo Committee.

R7.13.2 Steer Wrestling Cattle. All steer wrestling steers must be Mexican Corriente steers; i.e., the steers must originate from Mexico as can be attested by the “M” branded on the jaw or hip, along with Federal documents showing Mexico origination. All steer wrestling cattle must weigh a minimum of 450 pounds, and a maximum of 600 pounds per head.

R7.13.3 Team Roping. The minimum weight for animals that are to be used in team roping is 450 pounds per head, and the maximum weight is 650 pounds per head. Any deviations must be approved by the Team Roping Event Representative. There can be no more than a 50-pound deviation in weight from the smallest to the largest animal in a given herd. If any individual animal does not meet the requirements, the Team Roping Event Representative has the right to remove immediately (but prior to the establishment of the herd) that animal from the herd for the duration of the rodeo, potentially subjecting the Stock Contractor to a fine per head for being short of the required number of cattle. Any deviation from the rules must be approved by the Team Roping Event Representative and Director of Rodeo Administration. All team roping steers must be Corriente steers of Mexican descent.

R7.13.3.1 The use of heifers may be allowed at rodeos that add under $7,000 in the team roping if approved by the Team Roping Event Representative and Director of Rodeo Administration.

R7.13.4 Steer Roping. All steer roping steers must be Mexican Corriente steers. All steers in the steer roping event must weigh a minimum of 450 pounds and a maximum of 600 pounds, unless otherwise approved by the Director of Rodeo Administration and the Event Representative.

R7.14 Furnishing Stock.

R7.14.1 Riding Event Stock. Riding-event stock may not be used at PRCA rodeos unless such stock is owned by PRCA-Member Stock Contractors (refer to Rule R7.1) or unless each use of riding-event stock that is owned by persons other than PRCA Stock Contractors is first approved by the Director of Rodeo Administration in consultation with the event representative for the riding event in which such stock is proposed to be used. In the event a Stock Contractor desires to buck a particular animal or animals at a PRCA-approved rodeo pursuant to a lease purchase option, for two outs only, with a stock owner who is not a PRCA Stock Contractor, or in the event of other special circumstances or hardship for one rodeo only, PRCA Stock Contractor may request consideration for special approval for the use of riding-event stock that is owned by persons other than PRCA Stock Contractors only by contacting the Director of Rodeo Administration and the event representative for the riding event in question no less than 10 days prior to the stock draw for the particular PRCA rodeo involved (or as soon as reasonably possible before the rodeo should it be impracticable under the circumstances to seek approval at least 10 days before the rodeo). If the lease to purchase option is used, no more than five animals can be leased at a single rodeo and specifically no more than three can be used in any one event. The lease to purchase option will not be available for rodeos that add $5,000 or more in a riding event. Violation of the lease to purchase will be $250 per head each time an unapproved animal is in the draw.

R7.14.1.1 Trying of Riding Event Stock. All animals in riding events must have been tried at least once as a bucking animal before being put into the draw. Failure to abide by this Rule will subject Stock Contractor to a $250 fine per animal.

R7.14.1.2 Fighting Bulls. All bulls used as fighting bulls in PRCA-sanctioned bull fighting matches must be owned by a PRCA-Member Stock Contractor.

R7.14.1.3 Ownership Brand. All riding event livestock selected for the National Finals Rodeo, a Circuit Finals Rodeo, the National Circuit Finals Rodeo, or any other Special Event must have an ownership brand of the PRCA-member Stock Contractor furnishing the livestock.

R7.14.2 Timed Event Stock. Any person not holding a PRCA Stock Contractor membership who furnishes stock at a PRCA rodeo will be subject to all PRCA rules and regulations. If a Rodeo Committee or a stock contractor wishes to lease timed event stock from a non-PRCA Member Stock Contractor, that non-PRCA Member Stock Contractor must be approved by the Director of Rodeo Administration, under the advisement of the Event Representative, at time of rodeo approval. That person's stock must be approved no less than 10 days prior to the particular PRCA rodeo involved (or as soon as reasonably possible before the rodeo should it be impracticable under the circumstances to seek approval at least 10 days before the rodeo.) This Rule shall be enforced by the appropriate Member (Stock Contractor, Rodeo Committee or Rodeo Producer). The penalty for violation of this Rule will be in accordance with the livestock shortage Rule (R7.8.4).

R7.15 Bucking Stock of the Year. To be eligible for bucking stock of the year, the animal must have been drawn for competition a minimum of 8 times at PRCA rodeos before the Rodeo Year-end cutoff date, during the Rodeo Year for which the NFR is being held. All scores for each animal must be posted with the animal. The number of votes must be posted for the bucking stock of the year.

PART 8

 HUMANE TREATMENT OF RODEO ANIMALS **

- R8.1 General. These Rules are intended to ensure the humane treatment of rodeo animals and shall be in effect for all PRCA-sanctioned events. No animal shall be treated inhumanely by any Member.
- R8.2 Veterinarian. Rodeo Committees shall ensure the presence of veterinarians in accordance with Bylaw B10.7.8.
- R8.3 Sore, Lamé, Sick or Injured Animal. Animals for all events will be inspected before the draw, and no sore, lame, sick or injured animal, or animal with defective eyesight, shall be permitted in the draw at any time. Should an animal become sick or incapacitated between the time it is drawn and the time it is scheduled to be used in competition, that animal shall not be used in competition and another animal shall be drawn for the contestant as provided in the PRCA Official Rodeo Rules.
- R8.4 Humane Removal of Injured Animal. Any injured livestock shall be humanely removed from the arena before continuing the rodeo contest or performance. A conveyance must be available, supplied by the Rodeo Committee, and shall be used, where practicable, to remove animals from the arena in case of injury. Conveyance must be large enough to remove a horse or a bull. Injured calves shall be removed from the arena in a pickup truck, stretcher or by conveyance. Animals removed from the arena pursuant to this Rule shall be placed in a situation as isolated and comfortable as possible to reduce stress.
- R8.5 Rowels. No locked rowels, or rowels that will lock on spurs, may be used on bareback horses or saddle broncs. Spurs must be dulled. Violation of this Rule shall be a Class III offense.
- R8.6 No Sharp Objects in Cinch, Saddle, Girth or Flank Straps. No sharp or cutting objects in cinch, saddle girth, or flank straps shall be permitted. Flank straps used for horses must be either sheepskin-lined or neoprene-lined and shall be of the quick-release type. Sheepskin-lined or neoprene-lined flank straps shall be placed on the animal so the lined portion is over both flanks of the animal. In the bull riding, a soft cotton rope at least 5/8" in diameter is acceptable as a flank strap and does not require the sheepskin or neoprene lining.
- R8.7 Movement and Loading of Livestock. Except as set forth in rule 9.1.6.1 and 9.1.6.2, standard livestock prods shall be used only to move and load livestock when necessary and the animal has an open gate or area in order to move forward. If a prod is used, the animal shall be touched only on the hip or shoulder area. Commonly accepted livestock moving tools such as sorting sticks and paddles are also acceptable, when used appropriately, to move and load livestock. Once livestock is loaded into the chute which it will compete out of, the prod may only be used when needed for the safety of the livestock, contestant or personnel. All determinations of necessary use of a prod during competition will be determined by a rodeo judge. Any violation of this rule will result in an initial fine of $1,000 to the Stock Contractor/stock contracting firm owning the animal with that fine progressively doubling for any additional offense(s). The contestant will receive an automatic option for a reride.

R8.8 Arena.

R8.8.1 Construction of Chutes. Chutes must be constructed to prevent injury to an animal. Maintenance men and equipment shall be available at chutes to assist in removal of any animal should it become necessary.

R8.8.2 Conditions of Arena. The arena shall be as free as possible of rock, holes and unnecessary obstacles.

R8.8.3 No Small Animals. No small animals or pets allowed in the arena, unless part of a contract act.

R8.8.4 Removal of Livestock After Competition. Livestock must be removed from the arena after each competition is completed.

R8.9 Neckrope Must Be Used in Tie-down Roping. In tie-down roping, a neckrope must be used. Calves may not be intentionally flipped backward. Contestant must adjust rope and reins in such a manner that will prevent horse from dragging calf. Rope is to be removed from calf's body as soon as possible after the "tie" is approved. Roping calves shall be strong and healthy.

R8.10 No Stimulants or Hypnotics. No stimulants or hypnotics may be given to any animal used for contest purposes.

R8.11 Animals Excessively Excited in Chute. Any animal that becomes excessively excited and/or lays down in the chute repeatedly, or tries repeatedly to jump out of the chute, or in any way appears to be in danger of injuring itself, may be released immediately.

R8.12 Confinement and Transportation. No stock shall be confined or transported in vehicles beyond a period of 24 hours without being unloaded, properly fed and watered. Failure to abide by this Rule shall subject the Stock Contractor or contestant involved to a $500 fine for the first offense and a progressively doubling fine for any offense thereafter.

R8.13 Mistreatment of Animal. Any member who mistreats an animal anywhere on the grounds of a facility in which a sanctioned PRCA rodeo is being held shall be fined no less than $500 and, depending on the severity of the offense, may be declared ineligible, suspended, suspended from PRCA privileges and/or expelled.

R8.14 Tie-downs Covered. All chain, metal and wire tie-downs and bosals must be covered. The fine for failure to do so will result in $25 for the first offense, that fine doubling progressively thereafter.

R8.15 Apparent Injury During Competition. Should a riding event animal show evidence of injury caused the contestant in the competition arena, that contestant will be fined $250 for the first offense and $500 for the second offense, and $1000 for third and subsequent offenses. The number of offenses reported for a particular contestant will be started afresh with each Rodeo Year.

R8.16 Delay Further Use of Animal Injured. Should a riding event animal be apparently injured by a contestant during competition, thus resulting in the contestant being reported for such violation, that animal cannot be used until such time as the injury is completely healed. If the animal is used prior to the injury being healed, the Stock Contractor shall be fined $500.

PART 9

 RIDING EVENTS **

R9.1 General Rules for All Riding Events.

R9.1.1 Markings. The ride and animal are to be marked separately. Ride will be marked according to how much the rider spurs the animal. Figures used in marking the riding events shall range from zero to 25 per judge for both bucking animal and rider. By using the full spread, the total may reach a maximum of 100 points.

R9.1.2 Timing. All riding events shall be timed for eight seconds. Time starts when the animal's inside front shoulder passes the plane of the chute gate. All riding event contestants must complete the eight second qualification limit to be eligible for a marking.

R9.1.3 Judges' Official Markings. Judges in the riding events at all PRCA rodeos will submit to the Arena Secretary their markings for all events for that performance immediately following the completion of the performance. These markings shall be termed the official markings when posted and/or verified by the judges and may not be changed once submitted.

R9.1.4 Use of Flags to Indicate Disqualification. Rodeo judges will use flags to indicate a disqualification violation. Judges are to also indicate disqualification violations by already-established hand signals.

R9.1.5 Drawn Animal Becomes Sick or Injured. If an animal that is drawn in a riding event becomes sick or injured before it is competed on, a judge must approve the animal's inability to be used before it can be shipped or replaced in the draw.

R9.1.6 Standard Use of Prods.

R9.1.6.1 Chute Stalling Horses. In the bareback and saddle bronc events, the use of prods and similar devices is prohibited except in the case of a chute stalling horse. In this instance, the use must be agreed upon by the contestant, stock contractor and the judge before the contestant's competition begins. The prod shall be the handheld variety and be used only on the neck or shoulder. Use of a prod without the agreement of the contestant, Stock Contractor and the judge before the contestant's competition begins in the saddle bronc riding and the bareback riding, shall result in a fine of $1000 to the Stock Contractor/stock contracting firm owning the animal with that fine progressively doubling for any additional offense(s). The contestant will receive an automatic option for a ride.

- R9.1.6.2 Bull Riding. The use of the standard livestock prod during the bull riding event is strictly prohibited once the bull is loaded into the bucking chute which it will buck out of, except if needed for the safety of the livestock, contestant or personnel as determined by a rodeo judge. Any violation of this rule will result in an initial fine of $1,000 to the Stock Contractor/stock contracting firm owning the animal with that fine progressively doubling for any additional offense(s). The contestant will receive an automatic option for a reride.
- R9.1.7 Holding On To The Gate. Any riding event contestant who holds on to the chute gate, thus preventing the gate from being opened, after he has indicated he is ready will be fined $50 for the first offense, with the fine progressively doubling thereafter.
- R9.1.8 Cinch Riggings, Cinch Saddles and Pull Ropes. Contestants may cinch riggings, cinch saddles and pull ropes from either side in all riding events. Back cinch belongs to the bronc rider.
- R9.2 General Rules for Bareback and Saddle Bronc.
- R9.2.1 Spur Out Rule. To qualify for a marking, bareback or saddle bronc rider must have the rowels of the spurs touching the horse above the break of the shoulders when horse's front feet hit the ground on its initial move out of the chute.
- R9.2.2 Stalled Horse. If a horse stalls in the chute, either judge shall tell rider to take his feet out of the horse's neck and the spur out rule will be waived. The rider shall be disqualified for not following judge's instructions to take feet from neck of horse stalled in chute as described in the previous sentence.
- R9.2.3 Foul at the Gate. If, in the opinion of the judges, a rider is fouled at the gate, the spur out rule will be waived.
- R9.2.4 Tie In. Stock Contractor must tie in bareback and saddle bronc horses if requested by the contestant. The person running the neck rope or pushing the horse's head out of the chute must be agreed upon by the Contestant and the Stock Contractor.
- R9.3 Rerides.
- R9.3.1 Contestant May Not Influence Judge. Contestants shall not influence the judges by asking for a reride at any time. Violation of this Rule shall constitute a Class III violation.
- R9.3.2 Judge Shall Inform Contestant of His Options. If reride is given, judge shall inform contestant of his marking, and an option of a reride. Contestant may refuse the reride and take the marking. Contestant must notify judge immediately of his decision to accept or reject the option upon learning which animal would be used as a reride and the time of the reride.
- R9.3.3 Circumstances Warranting a Reride.

R9.3.3.1 Discretion of Judge. Rerides will be given at the discretion of a judge. Reasons for possible rerides include the following: if an animal stops or fouls rider, Stock Contractor's equipment fails, performance of animal is inferior or, if by Stock Contractor's or Flankman's own admission, the Flankman did not flank the animal properly. No reride will be given if a contestant's own equipment breaks.

R9.3.3.1.1 Options of Contestant. If a Contestant is granted a reride under this Part R9.3.3.1, he may take the same animal for the reride, provided the Stock Contractor is willing and a mutually agreeable time can be arranged. If a contestant opts to accept the reride on the same animal, he must take the marking for the reride, unless there is a foul or the Stock Contractor's equipment fails on the reride.

R9.3.3.1.2 Reride Animal Already Drawn for Another Contestant. If an animal that is drawn for a reride already is drawn for another contestant in that or a later go-round, the contestant entitled to the reride shall compete on the animal first.

R9.3.3.2 Contact Between Arena Personnel and Animal. If any arena personnel come in contact with a bareback or saddle bronc horse before the qualified time has elapsed and if the contestant makes a qualifying ride, contestant will be given a marking with an option of a reride. If any arena personnel come in contact with a bareback or saddle bronc horse before the qualified time has elapsed and contestant is unable to make a qualifying ride because of the impact, contestant will be given a reride, provided contestant made a qualifying ride up to the point of the infraction.

R9.3.3.3 Inferior Animal Performance. If an animal's performance is inferior and that animal is already drawn for another contestant, that contestant must qualify on that animal before reride may be given. If, in the opinion of the Stock Contractor and judges, that animal needs to be taken out of the draw, the contestant who had him drawn will be given the option of accepting the designated reride or drawing out (if in the first go-round).

R9.3.3.4 Chute-Fighting Animal. If, in the opinion of the judges, a rider makes two honest efforts on a chute-fighting animal and is unable to do so, he may have a reride drawn for him.

- R9.3.3.5 Flank Breaks in Bareback Riding. Rider may be given a reride on same horse if flank comes off or breaks. A bareback rider may have the option of a reride, or of accepting a marking if flank comes off the animal, provided the contestant has completed a qualified ride. A contestant will only have the option of a reride if the flank comes off the animal and the contestant did not complete a qualified ride, but was qualified up to the point of the flank coming off.
- R9.3.3.6 Flank or Halter Failure in Saddle Bronc Riding. A saddle bronc rider may have the option of a reride, or of accepting a marking if flank comes off the animal, provided the contestant has completed a qualified ride. A contestant will only have the option of a reride if the flank comes off the animal and the contestant did not complete a qualified ride, but was qualified up to the point of the flank coming off. If a flank comes off, rider may have reride on same horse. If halter breaks, rider may have a reride, provided contestant has made a qualified ride up to the time the halter breaks, and provided that the halter does not belong to the contestant.
- R9.3.3.7 Animal Deliberately Throws Itself. If, in the opinion of the judges, an animal deliberately throws itself, the rider shall have the choice of the same animal again or he may have an animal drawn for him from the reride animals.
- R9.3.3.8 Bull Riders Knocked Off at the Chute, or Fall by a Bull. Riders who are knocked off at the chute, or whose bull falls, shall be entitled to a reride at discretion of judges.
- R9.3.3.9 Flank Comes Off a Bull. A bull rider may have the option of a reride, or of accepting a marking, if flank comes off the animal, provided the contestant has completed a qualified ride. A contestant will only have the option of a reride if the flank comes off the animal, and the contestant did not complete a qualified ride, but was qualified up to the point of the flank coming off. The reride may be given on the same animal, if the Stock Contractor is willing, or a reride animal, if so requested by the contestant.
- R9.3.3.10 Outside Help Used to Restart a Riding Event Animal. If a riding-event animal stops after an initial start, and any outside help is used to start it again, contestant will not be required to qualify in order to be awarded a reride.
- R9.3.3.11 Horse turns out backwards. If a horse turns out backwards, he will receive an option for a reride or the contestant may keep the score.

R9.3.3.12 Falling Animal. In the riding events a fall will be considered: An animal falling or stumbling to at least its front knees, or slipping in the hind end where the animal's hocks come in contact with the ground. The contestant may take the marking or have the option of taking a reride.

R9.3.4 Procedure for Drawing a Reride.

R9.3.4.1 Designated Reride. In the case of riding event stock injuries or animals not shipped after the draw has been made, replacement stock should be the designated reride for the performance for which the injured animal was scheduled for competition. Any reride thereafter will be drawn from doctor releases and turn outs for that performance, provided those animals have not been mounted. A replacement designated reride should be drawn immediately from the notified turn outs for that performance. If there are not any turn outs, use the procedure set forth in Part R9.3.4.3.

R9.3.4.2 Draw of Reride Order. Prior to each performance or section of slack, judges will draw a reride order, using the designated reride (if not already awarded) as the first reride. All notified turned out or doctor released animals will constitute the balance of the reride pen from which the order is drawn. Contestants given a reride will receive the animal that directly correlates with the order rerides were accepted. Animals mounted out shall be used in the reverse order of the reride position draw with the first two animals in the reride order remaining available for rerides until after the last contestant who is entered has competed. Failure of the Stock Contractor to abide by this mount-out order shall subject the Stock Contractor to a fine of $100 per offense. Up to five hours prior to each performance, judges (or the Central Entry Office if judges are not available) may draw a reride order using available turn out/doctor release notification. At least two animals must be brought to the arena for rerides (including the designated reride), provided there is one or more turn out/doctor release notifications. When final turn out notifications are received for that performance, all animals then at the arena who have been turned out/doctor released will be drawn for a reride order, with the designated reride always being the first reride if not already used for an animal that is injured or that has already been shipped.

R9.3.4.3 Procedure Where More Rerides Are Awarded Than There Are Animals Available.

If more rerides are awarded than there are animals in that performance or slack reride draw, the remaining contestants who have not received a reride animal will be drawn rerides from the performance immediately following that performance or section of slack which the contestant originally competed in, using the same procedure as outlined in Part R9.3.4.1 and R9.3.4.2. This procedure will be repeated until all contestants awarded rerides have been drawn rerides. These rerides will be competed on during the performance or section of slack the animals were designated to be bucked, or at a time mutually agreeable to both Stock Contractor and contestant.

R9.3.4.3.1 Last Go-Round. In the case of the last performance of a go-round, if there are more rerides awarded than there are animals in reride draw, then all animals bucked the last day of the rodeo shall be declared exempt and the rerides will be comprised of all unused rerides (both designated rerides and turned out stock) from prior performances and slacks in that go-round.

R9.3.4.3.2 List of Available Rerides for Last Performance.

In the last performance of a go-round, when all rerides from previous performances have been used, the Stock Contractor must provide the judges with a list of available animals from which reride animals can be drawn. These animals must have been in the original draw of this rodeo in this event. The Stock Contractor can exempt 1/3 of available animals prior to the reride draw.

R9.3.4.3.3 Finals. In a finals, any turned out animal shall be considered the first reride animal. Should there be more than one turned out animal, an order will be drawn. If more rerides are required, the designated reride(s) will be used. Should more rerides be needed than those available, 1/3 of the animals from the short go-round pen can be featured, and additional rerides necessary will be drawn from that finals pen.

R9.4 Bareback Riding.

R9.4.1 One-Handed Rigging. Riding shall be done with one-handed rigging.

- R9.4.1.1 Rigging Requirements. Rigging shall be leather and shall not be more than 10 inches in width at the hand-hold and not over 6 inches wide at the “D” ring. Latigo cannot be blocked in the “D” ring. Riggings will use a standard “D” ring to be set to sit flat on a horse’s back when cinched. Only rawhide may be used under the body of the hand-hold. There will be no rawhide restrictions with the exception of no rawhide may be within 1 inch of the back of the rigging body excluding the “D” ring wrap which may be no more than 2 inches up from the bottom of the body. The rigging body must also be spread 9 inches apart at the back of the rigging 4 inches down from the center. The handle bars under the rigging body must be tapered down to at least 1/4 inch at the end of the handle bar.
- R9.4.1.2 Modified Rigging Requirements. Rigging shall be leather and shall not be more than 7 inches in width top center, front to back and over 6 inches at the “D” ring. There may be a concave inset at the center back of the body, not to be over 1 inch deep and not over 8 inches in width. Rawhide may be used under the body of the hand-hold and tapered down the full length of the body to allow it to wrap around the “D” ring inset. Also, there may be full rawhide around the “D” ring inset not to be over 4 inches in length.
- R9.4.1.3 No Fiberglass or Metal in Riggings or Hand Holds. No fiberglass or metal will be allowed in riggings or hand-holds. Only leather or rawhide is allowed for hand-hold, with a maximum of 3/4 inch of rawhide allowed. Flat-head rivets and/or screws and “t” nuts are allowed to secure hand-hold. The only other metal allowed will be in the “D” rings.
- R9.4.1.4 Cinches and Latigos. Cinches on bareback riggings shall be made of mohair or neoprene and shall be at least 8 inches in width at the center, but may be tapered to accommodate cinch “D” rings. Latigos must be of leather only.
- R9.4.1.5 No Quick Trips. No quick trips are allowed on bareback riggings.
- R9.4.2 Bareback Pads. Required bareback pads are to completely cover the underside of the rigging, and are to extend a full 2 inches behind the rigging.
- R9.4.2.1 Pads Must Cover Underside of Rigging. Pads used under riggings must be leather-covered on both sides. No hair pads will be allowed. Only a high density foam pad, at least 3/4 inch thick will be allowed. In addition, the pad must have leather over the bars 3/16 inch thick extending at least 1/2 inch on either side and the back of the handle bars.

R9.4.2.2 Leather Attached to the Pad. In addition to the pad, a piece of leather a minimum of 3/16 inch thick and 4 inches square must be glued or sewn to the pad, and centered in comparison to the total body length of the rigging. This piece of leather shall be placed so that 1/2 inch of it extends behind the rigging and the remaining 2 inches are under the rigging.

R9.4.3 Approval of Riggings and Pads. Stock Contractors will have the right to have judges pass on whether riggings and pads satisfy the requirements listed above. Judges shall determine whether pads are satisfactory. If judges rule the pads are not satisfactory, contestant will be warned for the first offense. Any offense thereafter shall result in an immediate 15-day ineligibility.

R9.4.4 Rider's Glove. The rider's glove will be a plain glove with no flaps, rolls or wedges. An extra piece of leather may be used at the base of the little finger only. It must be on the inside of the glove and is not to extend out from the seam more than 5/8 inch and can be no more than 5/8 inch thick.

R9.4.5 Use of Palm Piece. A palm piece may be used in glove, which will be at least 1 inch wide and 3 inches long, and will be glued in.

R9.4.6 Use of Adhesives. There will be no adhesive material other than dry resin used on rigging or on rider's glove. White athletic tape may be used. Benzoin may be used.

PART 10

 TIMED EVENTS **

R10.1 General-Equipment Rules.

R10.1.1 Barrier Rules.

R10.1.1.1 Height. The height of the barrier in timed events shall be from 32-36 inches, measured at the center of the box. Once the barrier height has been set for a rodeo that height must remain for the entire rodeo.

R10.1.1.2 No Automatic Slack Catchers. Automatic slack catchers may not be used.

R10.1.1.3 Side Pull Barrier. Barriers in the timed events must be a side-pull barrier with pulley and neck rope pulling from side of chute.

R10.1.1.4 Barrier Flag. The barrier flag must be on the barrier.

R10.1.1.5 Barrier Equipment. The Stock Contractor of record for each rodeo shall be responsible for furnishing adequate barrier equipment.

R10.1.2 Chutes.

R10.1.2.1 Automatic Trip Gate. All timed event chutes shall have an automatic trip gate with horizontal bars, unless otherwise approved by the Director of Rodeo Administration and the Timed Event Representatives. No hydraulic gate openers will be allowed.

R10.1.2.2 Clearance. The timed event chute must have at least 28 inches clearance inside the chute, and at the gate when in an open position for steer wrestling, team roping and steer roping.

R10.1.3 Measuring Tape. The Stock Contractor or Rodeo Committee shall ensure that an adequate measuring tape shall be on hand for the barrier judge.

R10.1.4 Length of Timed Event Box. Unless otherwise approved by the Director of Rodeo Administration, the box for each timed event must be at least 16 feet in length, and the boxes must be the same length.

R10.1.5 Lining for Timed Event Boxes. In order to protect the contestant's horse, the back and the side opposite the timed event chute of timed event boxes shall be lined from a minimum of 4 inches under ground level (unless properly supported by other means) up to a minimum of 3' high with a solid panel (metal or no less than 3/4" thick plywood). Box pads are likewise required for each timed event box. Failure to do so shall result in a fine to the Rodeo Committee of $250 per performance or section of slack.

R10.2 General-Judges' Responsibilities.

R10.2.1 Change Barrier String. Barrier judge is responsible for changing barrier string whenever it may have been weakened, or on request of next contestant.

R10.2.2 Adjust Barrier Neck Rope. Barrier judge shall keep a record of the length of the barrier neck rope for each performance and section of slack, to assure the same start for contestants in each performance and section of slack. Barrier judge shall adjust the length of the neck rope when necessary.

R10.2.3 Inspect Barrier Equipment. Barrier equipment must be inspected by the judge before each timed event. If equipment is faulty, it must be replaced. Should barrier break at any point other than designated breaking point, the barrier judge shall determine whether the break was caused by the contestant. If contestant obviously beats barrier, or barrier rope is broken and string is unbroken, barrier judge may assess a 10-second penalty against the contestant.

R10.2.4 Flag Start. If a barrier judge is used to flag the start, he shall flag the animal when animal's nose crosses the starting line.

R10.2.5 Prevent Tampering With Barrier Equipment. Barrier judge shall ensure that no person can stand close enough to barrier or barrier equipment to tamper with same.

R10.2.6 Placement of Flag Judge. Flag judge shall position himself for tie-down roping at the end of the arena, allowing him to come towards the roper. In steer wrestling and team roping, field judge shall place himself on the right-hand side of the timed event box when facing the timed event chutes. In the steer roping, the field judge should position himself so that he can see the trip (right side on right-handed ropers or left side on left-handed ropers), and must maintain this same position for every contestant.

R10.3 General-Competition Rules.

R10.3.1 Scoreline. Any scoreline over 18' must be approved by the Director of Rodeo Administration at the time of rodeo approval.

R10.3.2 Breaking Plane of Barrier. A contestant must be on his horse and his horse must break the plane of the barrier with his draw breaking the plane of the scoreline before he is allowed to compete.

R10.3.3 Breaking Through Barrier. Contestants shall start from behind a barrier. A 10-second penalty will be added for breaking or beating the barrier.

R10.3.4 Barrier Flag Must Operate. In order for time to be considered official, barrier flag must operate.

R10.3.5 Barrier Failure. If barrier fails to work but the flag operates correctly and time is recorded, contestant or team will receive that time. Barrier penalty will be waived unless barrier is obviously beaten by contestant.

- R10.3.6 Failure of Official Time to Start. If official time has not started, contestant or team will receive stock which contestant originally drew if contestant has qualified on that stock. If barrier was obviously beaten, the barrier penalty will be applied to the rerun.
- R10.3.7 Contestant Is Fouled.
- R10.3.7.1 Fouled by Barrier. If, in the opinion of the barrier judge, a contestant is fouled by the barrier, the contestant shall be entitled to a rerun on his original stock, provided that contestant declares immediately.
- R10.3.7.2 Steer Roping. In the steer roping, if in the opinion of the line judge, the neck rope does not come off the animal or if the animal does not cross the width of the scoreline (which is the width of the boxes at the length of the scoreline) before it crosses the scoreline, the contestant shall be entitled to a rerun on his original stock, provided that the contestant declares immediately. There will be no penalty added to the rerun if, in the opinion of the judge, the contestant did not deliberately beat the barrier and if the contestant declares himself immediately.
- R10.3.8 Animal Which Escapes from Chute or Pen. During any performance/slack, if an animal in a timed event escapes the chutes or pens before it is called for by contestant, or if the flag fails to work and stock is brought back, contestant must take same animal over, during or immediately after the same performance or section of slack; provided, however, that if a rodeo is specially approved with a Ground Rule whereby the extra in a paid performance automatically replaces an escaped animal, that escaped animal then becomes the extra for that pen and is returned to the Herd for that run and subsequent runs.
- R10.3.9 Drawn Animal Becomes Sick or Injured. If an animal that is drawn in a pen in a timed event becomes sick or injured before it is competed on, a judge must pass on the animal's inability to be used before it can be shipped or replaced in the draw. In that instance, that animal is to be removed from the draw (or herd) for the remainder of the rodeo. If the animal is injured prior to competition but the injury is not detected until after the run has started, contestant must declare immediately and must not compete on that animal. Contestant will receive a rerun on a different animal.
- R10.3.10 Animal Escaping From Arena. In any timed event, if an animal escapes from the arena, the field judge will drop his flag and all watches will be stopped. Contestant will receive his original animal with a lap-and-tap start (if a rope is on animal when it escapes from the arena, contestant will receive the same animal with a lap-and-tap start with the rope on it in chute). Time already accumulated will be added to time used to complete the qualifying run. If time is not recorded, the contestant will receive a 10 second penalty for any jump or any loop used.

R10.3.11 Contestant Must Make Effort at a Second Loop or Jump. Contestant must make an effort at a second loop or jump or be flagged out automatically. Once a contestant has been flagged out, he will receive no stock back.

R10.3.12 Time Not Recorded For Contestant With Another Loop or Jump Coming. If time is not recorded when a field flagger flags out a contestant who has another loop or jump coming, the contestant has the option of taking the animal back, with a lap-and tap start, with 10 seconds added to the new time.

R10.3.13 Returning Animals. An animal that must be returned will be returned by the arena director and the labor crew during, or at the end of, that performance or section of slack. A minimum of three animals will be brought back together. The decision as to when stock will be rerun will be made by arena director.

R10.3.14 Request for Change in Order of Performance. If splitting of horses is necessary and contestant wishes to request a change in the performance competition order, such a request must be made to the Arena Secretary or the timed event chute boss. Contestants can only be moved far enough to accommodate the split on a horse. Violation of this Rule shall be a Class III offense.

R10.3.14.1 Compete in Order Drawn. In all sections of the timed events, the original position order must be maintained, unless contestants are riding the same horse and their positions must be split. In such case, the first contestant drawn for a position not riding this horse shall be moved up to the position to be split, unless the judges authorize a further split because of arena conditions.

R10.3.14.2 No Consecutive Runs on Same Horse. In timed events, provided there are other qualified horses on the rodeo grounds, no consecutive runs shall be allowed on the same horse, or horses, unless approval is granted by the arena director, arena boss and/or Stock Contractor.

R10.3.15 Contestant May Dismiss Individuals from Box. Within the confines of the timed event box, it is the privilege of a contestant to dismiss someone from the box or have up to three persons in the box for assistance. He may instruct the judge to either remove or allow other people in the box.

R10.3.15.1 Cattle Pusher. The individual pushing the cattle in the timed events cannot leave the mouth of the chute until the animal has crossed the score line. Penalty for failure to abide by this Rule will be a $25 fine charged the contestant.

R10.3.15.2 No Rattling of Chute. A timed event contestant may not have someone rattle the chute for him. This applies in both the performance and the slack. The contestant and/or the person rattling the chute shall be fined $25.

R10.3.15.3 Horses Allowed in Box. Only the horses needed during actual competition in the event will be allowed in the boxes during any timed event and/or noncompetitive runs. Offender is subject to a $25 fine for the first offense, with that offense progressively doubling thereafter.

R10.3.16 Recoiled or Rebuilt Rope. In roping events, a dropped rope that must be recoiled and/or rebuilt shall be considered a thrown rope.

R10.3.17 Neck Ropes Must Be Tied With String. Neck ropes must be tied with string. No metal snaps, elastics or hardware shall be used on neck ropes in the timed events. Adjustable slide shall be used on all neck ropes for cattle used in the timed events.

R10.3.18 Liners. A liner must be used in the tie-down roping and steer roping. Liner must maintain the same position for all competitions.

R10.3.19 Judges and Timers. There shall be at least two Timers, a barrier judge and a field flag judge. Time shall be determined between two flags.

R10.3.20 Competition Must Be From Same Box. All timed event contestants must compete from the same box designated for their event, unless otherwise approved by the Event Representative and the Director of Rodeo Administration at time of rodeo approval:

- A) Steer Roping – either box may be used, if barrier equipment permits;
- B) Team Roping – Header must start from left box (as viewed from the box facing the arena) and Heeler must start from right box;
- C) Steer Wrestling – Steer Wrestler must start from left box and Hazer must start from right box;
- D) Tie-down Roping – right box must be used.

R10.3.21 Failure of Animal to Pull Neck Rope. In the timed events, if an animal fails to break the neck rope and time is officially started by the contestant, that animal belongs to the contestant. However, if time is started by the animal and contestant (tie down roper, steer roper, steer wrestler and hazer, or header and heeler) remains behind the plane of the barrier for approximately 10 seconds, that animal should be considered a sulking animal and replaced using the Misdraw procedure.

R10.4 Arena Personnel.

R10.4.1 Labor Crew. Stock Contractors will be required to have a labor crew assigned to the timed events consisting of a minimum of five people. At the discretion of the judge, Stock Contractor may be reported for failure to abide by this requirement. First offense shall constitute a warning; second and subsequent offense(s) shall constitute a $250 fine per performance or section of slack.

R10.4.2 Interference by Arena Personnel. If any arena personnel (pickup men, Clowns, announcers, etc.) interfere with a timed-event competition, the contestant may, at the discretion of the judge, receive a rerun providing he has made a qualified run up to the point of interference and contestant declares himself at time of interference.

R10.5 Scorelines.

R10.5.1 Scoreline Lengths. All scoreline lengths are to be set by the Judges and/or the Arena Director, in accordance with the Official Rodeo Rules, unless otherwise approved at time of rodeo approval. In all cases, scoreline lengths of 18 feet or more must be approved at time of rodeo approval. The Event Representative may, prior to the start of the initial competition stock draw at a given rodeo, approve the lengthening or shortening of the scoreline by no more than 1' over Official Rodeo Rule guidelines. Once the scoreline has been set, it shall not be changed at that rodeo, nor shall the length of the box be changed.

R10.5.2 Tie-down Roping. In the tie-down roping, at indoor rodeos, the length of score will be the length of the box minus 3 feet. The minimum length of score at outdoor rodeos will be the length of the roping box minus 2 feet.

R10.5.3 Steer Wrestling. In steer wrestling, at all rodeos, the score may be no longer than the length of the steer wrestling box minus five-and-a-half feet in the case of a steer wrestling box which is less than or equal to eighteen feet, or minus six feet in the case of a steer wrestling box which is greater than eighteen feet. If the head gate is V open, the barrier will be the length of the box minus 5 feet.

R10.5.4 Team Roping. The minimum length of the team roping scoreline shall be the length of the box minus 2 feet.

R10.5.5 Steer Roping. The standard barrier length in the steer roping will be one foot less than the box, unless otherwise approved by the Event Representative.

R10.6 Tie-down Roping.

R10.6.1 General Requirements. Contestant must rope animal, dismount, throw animal by hand and cross and tie any three legs. To qualify as legal tie, there shall be at least one wrap around all three legs and a half-hitch. If animal is down when roper reaches it, the animal must be let up to his feet and be thrown by hand. If roper's hand is on the animal when animal falls, animal is considered thrown by hand. Roper must hold animal until roper gets hand on animal. Three legs must remain crossed and tied from six seconds, as timed by the judge, from the time the rope horse takes his first step forward after the roper has remounted, until approved by the judge. Roper must not touch animal after signaling that he is finished until after the judge has completed his examination. Roper must remain slack until field judge approves the tie. Unless instructed to do so by the judge, roper will be disqualified for removing rope from animal after signaling for time, until the tie has been passed on by the field judge. In the event a contestant's catch rope is off an animal after completion of tie, the six-second time period is to start when roper clears animal. Flag judge must watch calf during the six second period and will stop watch when an animal kicks free, using the time shown on the watch to determine whether animal was tied long enough to qualify. If tie becomes illegal by animal kicking, or animal gets to his feet before tie has been approved by the judge, the roper will be marked "no time."

R10.6.2 Two Loops Permitted. Two loops will be permitted, catch-as-catch-can, and should the roper miss with both, he must retire and will be marked "no time." Roping the animal without releasing the loop from the hand is not permitted. If roper intends to use two loops, he must carry two ropes and must use second rope for second loop. If a second rope is used, the first rope must first be released from either the saddle or the animal. Violation of this Rule shall be a Class III Offense for mistreatment of animals.

R10.6.3 Time Limit. There will be a 25-second elapsed time limit in the tie-down roping. A whistle indicating "no time" shall be blown by the Timer at the end of the 25-second span. Roping an animal after the 25-second whistle has sounded shall be a Class III Offense for mistreatment of animals. This Rule shall not apply to legal ties completed in less than 25 seconds but which, due to a penalty, are recorded as having taken more than 25 seconds.

R10.6.4 No Dragging of Animal. A neck rope must be used on the horse, and contestant must adjust rope and reins in a manner that will prevent horse from dragging animal. Contestant must receive no assistance of any kind from outside. If the horse drags the animal at least five feet, field judge may stop horse. The fine for unintentionally dragging an animal five feet but less than ten feet shall be $25. The fine for unintentionally dragging an animal ten feet or more shall be $100. Intentionally dragging an animal, regardless of distance, shall result in a $250 fine for each offense, plus possible disqualification. Intentional shall be defined as caused by contestant.

R10.6.5 No Jerk Down. 1. In the tie-down roping event a contestant will be fined $150 if the added money is less than $10,000, or $250 if the added money is $10,000 or greater, for a jerk down violation. Fines shall double after the third offense within a given season. Jerk down is defined as bringing the animal over backwards between 10 and 2 with the animal landing on his back or head with all four feet in the air. 2. The Tie-Down Roping Event Representative or his appointee must approve the length of the score. 3. At a two-judge rodeo if the field flagger is in doubt he may confer with the line judge and if the line judge is not definitive there is not a jerk down violation. 4. At a rodeo that has three judges, the third judge is responsible for calling the jerk down. If the judge is in doubt he may confer with the field flagger and if the field flagger is not definitive there is not a jerk down violation.

R10.6.6 Tie-Down Roping Horn Length. Any tie-down roping animal cannot have horns exceeding 2 inches in length. If an animal has horns more than two inches in length, the animal will be removed from the Herd subjecting the Stock Contractor and/or Rodeo Committee to a fine equal to the fines for stock shortage per R7.8.5.

R10.7 Steer Wrestling.

R10.7.1 General Requirements. After catching steer, wrestler must change direction or bring steer to a stop and twist it down. If steer is accidentally knocked down, or thrown by wrestler putting animal's horns into the ground, it must be let up on all four feet and then thrown. Steer will be considered down only when it is lying flat on its side, or on its back, with all four feet and head facing the same direction. Wrestler must have hand on steer when flagged. The fairness of catch and throw will be determined by the judges.

R10.7.2 Falling Steer. In the Steer wrestling, if in the opinion of the line judge, if the animal falls before it crosses the scoreline, the contestant shall be entitled to a rerun on his original stock, provided that the contestant declares immediately. There will be no penalty added to the rerun if, in the opinion of the judge, the contestant did not deliberately beat the barrier and if the contestant declares himself immediately. If the originally drawn animal cannot be re-ran, the contestant will run the extra (where an extra is available) or have a steer drawn for him according to the misdraw procedure.

R10.7.3 Loose Steer. If steer gets loose after wrestler has jumped from the horse, wrestler may take no more than one step to catch steer.

R10.7.4 Furnish Hazer and Horses. Contestant must furnish own hazer and horses. Steer must be caught from horse. Only one hazer allowed. Hazers must be Active PRCA Members. Local entry contestants must use Active Member hazers.

R10.7.5 No Assistance. Hazer must not render any assistance to contestant while contestant is working with steer. Failure to observe this Rule will disqualify contestant. Contestant and hazer must use the same two horses with which they leave chute.

R10.7.6 Addition of Fresh Steers. Fresh steers may be added to the herd after they have been bulldogged from horseback and thrown down. It is the responsibility of steer wrestlers to throw the cattle, at a time mutually agreed upon with the Stock Contractor.

R10.7.7 Limit on Use of Steer Wrestling Cattle. Cattle used for steer roping, team roping or other events shall not be used for steer wrestling.

R10.7.8 After Completed Run. Contestant is required to turn steer's head so it can stand up after time has been recorded.

R10.7.9 Time Limit. There will be a 60-second elapsed time limit in the steer wrestling. A whistle indicating “no time” shall be blown by the Timer at the end of the 60-second span. This Rule shall not apply to legal throws completed in less than 60 seconds but which, due to a penalty, are recorded as having taken more than the 60 seconds.

R10.7.10 Fresh Steers Thrown Down if Missed in Competition. If fresh steers are missed in the steer wrestling, any steer missed in competition must be thrown down immediately following the performance or section of slack in which the steer was drawn. Such steer shall be thrown down by a person appointed by the Steer Wrestling Event Representative. Each steer missed in competition is to be thrown no more than one time.

R10.8 Dally Team Roping.

R10.8.1 General Rules. Each contestant will be allowed to carry only one rope. If there are more than two go-rounds, each team will be allowed three throws in all. At all one go-round and two go-round Rodeos, only two loops per team shall be allowed (one loop at each end). Roping steers without turning loose the loop will be considered no catch. Roper must rope, dally and change direction of steer. Any heeler 50 years of age or older in addition to any female may tie on hard and fast. Subject to the terms of Rule R6.4.1 on the replacement of a partner, Championship Points in the header category will be awarded only to the contestant who entered as the header; likewise, Championship Points in the heeler category will be awarded only to the contestant who entered as the heeler.

R10.8.1.1 Header/Heeler Championship Points. At rodeos where three loops are allowed, if the header (the contestant who starts from the header’s box) misses with his first loop, and the heeler (the contestant who starts from the heeler’s box) chooses to rope the head, any Championship Points won shall be counted toward the Header Championship Point Standings and the Heeler Championship Point Standings in accordance with the original Header and Heeler designation indicated at time of entry for that rodeo.

R10.8.1.2 Barriers. All headers shall start from behind a barrier. A 10-second penalty will be added for breaking or beating a barrier.

R10.8.2 Requirements for Roping. Field judge shall drop flag when steer is roped by its head and heels, and both horses are facing steer in line with ropes dallied and tight. Horses’ front feet must be on ground and ropers must be mounted for flag to drop.

- R10.8.3 Throwing Heel Loop. The direction of the steer's body must be changed before the heel loop can be thrown. However, if the steer stops, it must only be moving forward for the heel loop to be legal. Any heel loop thrown before the completion of the initial switch will be considered a crossfire and no time will be recorded.
- R10.8.4 Steer Roped by One Horn. If steer is roped by one horn, roper is not allowed to use his hands to remove loop or put loop over other horn or head.
- R10.8.5 Heeler Roping Front Foot. If the heeler ropes a front foot or feet in the heel loop, this is a foul catch. Neither contestant may remove the front foot or feet from the loop by hand. However, should the front foot or feet come out of the heel loop by the time the field judge drops his flag, time will be official.
- R10.8.6 Legal Head Catches. There will be only three legal head catches:
- A) Around both horns.
 - B) Half a head.
 - C) Around the neck.
- R10.8.7 Illegal Head Catches. The following shall be illegal head catches:
- A) If Hondo passes over one horn and the loop over the other;
 - B) If loop crosses itself in a head catch.
 - C) If loop is in the steer's mouth.
- R10.8.8 Heel Catches.
- R10.8.8.1 Behind Both Shoulders. Any heel catch behind both shoulders is legal if rope goes up heels.
 - R10.8.8.2 One Hind Foot. One hind foot receives a five-second penalty.
- R10.8.9 Inspection of Catches. Any questions as to catches in this contest will be decided by the judges. If a field judge tells the header to hold the steer so the field judge may inspect the head catch, and the header does not do so, the team may receive a "no-time".
- R10.8.10 Time Limit. There will be a 30-second elapsed time limit in the team roping. A whistle indicating "no time" shall be blown by the Timer at the end of the 30-second span. This Rule shall not apply to legal catches completed in less than 30 seconds but which, due to a penalty, are recorded as having taken more than 30 seconds.
- R10.8.11 Falling Steer. In the team roping, if in the opinion of the line judge, if the animal falls before it crosses the scoreline, the contestants shall be entitled to a rerun on the original stock, provided that the contestants declare immediately. There will be no penalty added to the rerun if, in the opinion of the judge, the contestants did not deliberately beat the barrier and if the contestants declare immediately. If the originally drawn animal cannot be reran, the contestants will run the extra (where an extra is available) or have a steer drawn according to the Misdraw procedure.

R10.9 Steer Roping.

- R10.9.1 General Requirements. Steer must be tripped by horse. Contestant must cross and tie three legs. A steer must remain tied for six seconds to qualify as a legal tie. Additionally, there must be at least one wrap around all three legs, and a half-hitch. After roper signals a completed tie and remounts, he will bring his horse back toward steer before the six-second inspection will begin, so as to give ample slack to rope while judge is examining tie for a six-second period. Unless instructed to do so by the judge, rope will not be removed from steer until tie is approved. Contestants can receive no outside assistance of any kind. Only one loop and one trip attempt will be allowed. Deviations must be approved at time of rodeo approval.
- R10.9.2 Legal Catch. Only slick around both horns shall be a legal catch. A legal head catch in which the rope continues to wrap around the steer's neck shall result in disqualification for that go-round.
- R10.9.3 Trips.
- R10.9.3.1 Legal Trip. For a trip to be legal, the rope must go over and below the hip of the steer on the side opposite the direction the horse is turning.
- R10.9.3.2 Intentional Trip With Illegal Catch. Any steer roper who intentionally trips a steer with an illegal catch shall be flagged out. However, if the illegal head catch becomes legal prior to qualifying it shall be considered a qualified time. If flagged out, the steer roper will be fined $250.
- R10.9.3.3 Steer Tripped With Legs Over Rope. If a steer is tripped with either a front leg or both back legs over the rope, and steer is injured, the contestant will be fined $250 but the roper will receive the time.
- R10.9.3.4 Jerking Steer Down Without Having a Trip. If in the opinion of the judge the steer roper jerks the steer down intentionally without ever having a trip, he will be fined $100. However, if the steer is injured, the fine will be $250.
- R10.9.4 Steer's Horns. If steer's horns pull together and the rope comes off, contestant will receive "no time". If the rope stays on one horn from a legal head catch until tie has been completed and examined, tie will be official.
- R10.9.5 Position of Horse. Horse must turn away from steer. Steer must be thrown by horse. Steer cannot be thrown by hand after steer has fully regained his feet. It is illegal to double back past steer.
- R10.9.6 Time Limit. There will be a 30-second elapsed time limit in the steer roping. A whistle indicating "no time" shall be blown by the Timer at the end of the appropriate time limit. Deviations must be approved at time of rodeo approval. If a roper trips a steer after the whistle has sounded, the roper has committed a Class III Offense for mistreatment of livestock. This Rule shall not apply to legal trips completed in less than 30 seconds but which, due to a penalty, are recorded as having taken more than 30 seconds.

- R10.9.7 Qualified Catch. To be a qualified catch, rope must be on steer and tied to saddle and horse when Roper completes the tie. Roping steer without turning loose the loop shall not be considered a legal catch. If foul catch is made, second rope may be used, but first rope must be released from either saddle or steer. Violation of this Rule shall be a Class III offense.
- R10.9.8 No Touching Steer. Roper cannot touch steer or rope after once giving "finished" signal, unless judge concurs to prevent injury. Judge will determine tie, and his decision will be final.
- R10.9.9 Lining of Steer and Liner for Left-Handed. In the steer roping, when box is located on the right-hand fence, a left-handed roper may request of the judge that the steer be lined from the fence and the liner be allowed to stand the same distance as the score past the scoreline.
- R10.9.10 Excessive Dragging of Steer. Steer roping contestant who, in the opinion of the judge, excessively drags a steer while flat on his side will be fined and may be disqualified. Violation of this Rule shall be a $100 fine.
- R10.9.11 Steer Stops. If a steer stops no rerun will be given and that steer that stopped will be condemned and removed from the herd prior to the next draw.
- R10.9.12 Injured Steer. Any steer used during any Steer Roping event that is injured during competition, shall be immediately considered an unsatisfactory animal as per PRCA Rule R7.9 and shall be immediately condemned from the herd and can no longer be used in any manner at a PRCA sanctioned rodeo or event. The injured animal's brand/tag number and nature of injury shall be recorded and submitted by the PRCA judges/officials in their "Judges Report." Failure of judges to condemn, or the stock contractors to adhere, shall be considered Mistreatment of Stock as defined in PRCA Rule R11.4.12.
- R10.9.13 Steer Roping Four Go-rounds. Steer Roping competitions held at any PRCA sanctioned rodeo or event that have at least four (4) full go-rounds, must have a minimum of $5,000 in added prize money in the Steer Roping event, unless otherwise approved by the Steer Roping Event Representative and Director of Rodeo Administration.

Such challenge must be received by the PRCA Director of Rodeo Administration no later than fourteen business days after the corresponding rodeo-year-end cutoff date. If a Member desires to file a challenge the result of which, if successful, could be a change in the Official Standings for a rodeo, event or sponsorship award which has a Cutoff Date other than the Rodeo Year-end Cutoff Date, and the Member desires that any resulting changes in Official Standings be made in time to affect qualification for such rodeo, event or sponsorship award, such challenge must be received by the Director of Rodeo Administration no later than 14 calendar days after the end of the corresponding Cutoff Date for that rodeo, event or sponsorship award. If the 14th day after a Cutoff Date falls on a non-PRCA National Office Business Day, then the challenge must be received no later than the next PRCA National Office Business Day. Likewise, a successful challenge may result in a change in the Official Standings for one rodeo, event or sponsorship award for which the challenge was timely filed, but no change in the Official Standings for another rodeo, event or sponsorship award for which the challenge was not timely filed (for example, a successful challenge may impact the Official Standings for the NFR, but if that challenge is filed more than 14 days after the Cutoff Date for a CFR, the corresponding change will not be made in the Official Standings for that CFR).

R12.2.3 Procedure for Addressing a Challenge. Provided that a challenge letter is received by the PRCA Director of Rodeo Administration on or before the specified deadlines, within seven days after the receipt of such challenge a panel consisting of the Director of Rodeo Administration, the CEO and the PRCA Auditor will meet with the challenger and other parties involved to consider the merits of the challenge. Such meeting may be held in person or via telephonic conference. No modification of the final audited standings shall be made unless the challenger proves to the panel that a miscalculation or error has been made. The decision of such panel shall be final and binding on all parties.

R12.2.4 Correction of Errors. If the PRCA, either on its own or acting through its auditors, discovers or is made aware of an error of any kind in the PRCA Official Standings (including but not limited to errors in Championship Points or number of official rodeos), the PRCA shall have the authority to correct such error, subject to the limitations set forth below.

R12.2.4.1 Limitation on Timing of Corrections. The PRCA shall not correct any errors, pursuant to R12.2.4, for a given Rodeo Year subsequent to the date 14 days after the end of the Rodeo Year-end Cutoff Date. Likewise, any changes made by the PRCA pursuant to R12.2.4 more than 14 days after the Cutoff Date for a particular rodeo, event or sponsorship award shall not be made in the Official Standings for that particular rodeo, event or sponsorship award (for example, the PRCA may timely correct an error which impacts the Official Standings for the NFR, but if that change is made more than 14 days after the Cutoff Date for a CFR, the corresponding change will not be made in the Official Standings for that CFR).

R12.2.4.2 Challenge to Correction. In the event that a Member believes that a correction to an error made by the PRCA pursuant to R12.2.4 is not correct or is improper, that Member may challenge such correction pursuant to the Grievance Process, provided that all elements necessary to bring a grievance are satisfied. If the PRCA makes a correction after a rodeo, event or sponsorship award Cutoff Date (but before the deadline set forth in Part R12.2.4.1) which impacts the Official Standings for that rodeo, event or sponsorship award, notwithstanding the deadlines set forth in B12.1.4, a Member desiring to file a grievance to challenge that correction must file a grievance no later than 14 days after the corresponding Cutoff Date for that rodeo, event or sponsorship award or 7 days after the date the PRCA decides to make a correction, whichever is later.

R12.3 World Championships. World Championships for the bareback riding, saddle bronc riding, bull riding, tie-down roping, steer wrestling, team roping header, team roping heeler, steer roping and All-Around will be determined by combining Rodeo Year-end winnings for that Rodeo Year and National Finals Rodeo winnings from the NFR held in conjunction with that Rodeo Year.

R12.4 All-Around World Championship.

R12.4.1 All-Around Points. All-Around Points shall be awarded to Contestant Card Members or Life Members in the same manner as Championship Points, subject to the restrictions set forth in the Bylaws and these Official Rodeo Rules. At a given rodeo, only those who compete on every head in every event entered will qualify for the All-Around honors, and the saddle bronc riding, bareback riding, bull riding and tie-down roping Day-Money will not count towards the All-Around award unless that award is determined by the person entered in a single event who has won the most money in a single event. In order for All-Around Points from two or more events to be counted in the All-Around Standings, a Contestant Card Member or Life Member must have won a minimum of $3,000 in at least two events. For purposes of this $3,000 minimum requirement, points won as a header and heeler in the team roping will be combined for that event. Once a Contestant Card Member has won $3,000 in at least two events, the points won in all eligible PRCA events shall be counted in the All-Around Standings.

R12.4.2 World Champion. The PRCA shall award its All-Around World Championship to the Contestant Card Member or Life Member who has won the most All-Around Points in two or more events, as set forth in the Official Rodeo Rules, provided that such All-Around World Champion has won $3,000 or more in each of two events. Once a Contestant Card Member has won $3,000 in at least two events, the points won in all eligible PRCA events shall be counted in the All-Around Standings. If no Contestant Card Member or Life Member has won $3,000 or more in two events, the Contestant Card Member or Life Member who has won the most All-Around Points in two or more events shall be awarded the All-Around World Championship. If no Contestant Card Member wins money in two or more events, the All-Around World Championship will go to that Contestant Card Member or Life Member entered in two or more events but winning the most All-Around Points in a single event. If no Contestant Card Member or Life Member entered in two or more events wins any money, the All-Around World Championship will be awarded to that Contestant Card Member or Life Member winning the most All-Around Points in a single event.

R12.5 Rookie of the Year.

R12.5.1 All-Around Rookie of the Year. Rookie of the Year shall be awarded to that Contestant Card Member in his first dues-paying year as a Contestant Card Member who wins the most Championship Points in two or more events as of the end of the Rodeo Year, including any championship events up to and through the National Finals Rodeo. Points won while a Permit Member shall not count toward Rookie of the Year standings.

R12.5.2 Event Rookie of the Year. Rookie of the Year in each of the PRCA required events shall be awarded to that first-year Contestant Card Member with the most Championship Points in a particular required event as of the end of the Rodeo Year, including any championship events up to and through the National Finals Rodeo. Rookie of the Year shall be awarded to both the header and heeler who win the most championship points as a header and heeler, respectively, in the team roping.

R12.6 Rodeo Year End. The Board of Directors, at a regular or special meeting, shall establish a cutoff date which shall be the end of the Rodeo Year. All Championship Points won in a rodeo completed before midnight on the Rodeo Year cutoff date shall be counted in the Official PRCA Standing for that Rodeo Year. Championship Points won in a rodeo completed after the cutoff date shall be counted in the following Rodeo Year's Official PRCA Standings. All results of rodeos completed within a Rodeo Year must be forwarded to the PRCA National Office in a timely manner in order to provide a reasonable time for winnings to be counted.

JUDGING

Welcome to the challenge of rodeo judging. If you love rodeo and are willing to work, you can develop a skill which is personally satisfying and beneficial to the American sport of rodeo. There are no shortcuts to true officiating success any more than there are to true athletic success. An enthusiastic effort on your part can lead to a stimulating addition to your life.

The continuous and phenomenal growth of rodeo in this country has produced a great need for qualified judges. Contestants and committees know that good officiating helps to produce a healthy and sportsmanlike environment and a fair determination of the winner. They wish to have judges who will be advantageous to the arena. The same contestants and committees know, on the other hand, that poorly trained, incompetent judges can create tensions and generate frustration among contestants, stock contractors, and spectators, sometimes with serious consequences.

To put it simply, the judges are an essential dimension of a rodeo contest. The contestant, stock contractor, and the judges interact, and depending upon their abilities and attitudes, combine to produce a variety of possible results—not merely a winner and a loser, but also satisfaction or disappointment, thrills or mediocrity, healthy competition or antagonism, mutual respect or mistrust.

The challenge of the prospective judge is to develop his capabilities so that he can do what he is expected to do, regardless of the difficulties presented. Achieving a high degree of competence is chiefly the result of concentrated study and experience in this sport, supplemented by continuous evaluation and continuous efforts to improve.

Judging is not a simple or easy avocation. It is a challenging task. Judges should dedicate themselves toward significant goals if they expect to be successful.

THE FUNDAMENTAL AIM: TO CAUSE THE RODEO TO PROGRESS SMOOTHLY WITHIN THE RULES

The judge's overriding goal is to promote the normal progress of a contest, as it was meant to be contested, with as little interference as possible. That is not to say that rule enforcement should be neglected to the slightest degree, but that the competent judge should not only be concerned about penalizing rule infractions. Preventing rule infractions before they occur is also an important concern. Infractions can be prevented in two general ways: (1) by establishing a subtle but unquestioned influence over the sport; and (2) by actively preventing specific infractions.

A contest frequently and unnecessarily interrupted by the judge or faulty equipment leaves no one satisfied. Under such circumstances, the judge rather than the contestant becomes the dominant factor. Contestants and stock contractors alike respect the judge who, within the contesting rules, provides for continuous and uninterrupted action.

I. Establishing a Subtle Influence

In almost all cases, contestants wish to avoid rule infractions because penalties hurt. The competent official capitalizes on the desires and abilities of the contestants by establishing his influence over the contest early in the contest.

In order to accomplish this, the effective judge must be completely "prepared" on the first action of the event in order to make any necessary ruling without hesitation. He realizes that the quality of "early control" established, or not established, can influence the entire contest. Two important ways in which you as a judge can establish this influence are:

1. By being in a position where you can best observe and be observed.
2. By reacting immediately to rule infractions.

When contestants, on their own, try to compete in accordance with the spirit and letter of the rules, the result is satisfying and rewarding to all concerned. Such a situation is not always found, but the dedicated judge constantly seeks it.

II. Active Prevention

Obviously, more than just a subtle influence is needed occasionally in competition. On these occasions the usual result is a decision by the official and the enforcement of the prescribed ruling. On other occasions, however, it is appropriate and advisable for the judge to anticipate the impending infraction and to "talk the contestant out of" committing it. Direct action can and should be preventive as well as curative.

Considerable experience and background in the sport is necessary in order to know where and when not to issue warnings. A proper approach to a contestant about refraining from a rule infraction should be used. There are moments in all sports and at all levels of play, when this type of preventive officiating can be accomplished appropriately and unobtrusively. Such warnings not only eliminate unnecessary and unwanted infractions but they also help to establish a positive contestant and judge relationship.

To repeat, the primary aim of the competent official is to cause the rodeo to progress smoothly and with as little interference as possible.

THE ESSENTIAL INGREDIENTS

There are four fundamental requirements that must be met if you wish to be considered a successful judge.

1. You must enforce the rules intelligently.
2. You must show integrity, be fair.
3. You must build sound human relations.
4. You must show primary concern for the individual contestant.

I. Intelligent Rule Enforcement

The rules of rodeo have evolved from the concentrated attention of many contestants over a period of many years. As such, the rules command respect and demand enforcement. The contestants are not adequate or appropriate rule enforcers. Rule enforcement is the job of the judge; this is why he is there. He is expected to show his respect for the sport and for the contestant by knowing the rules and enforcing them. To do otherwise usually brings the unwanted consequences of disorganization, unsportsmanlike acts and even the danger of injury.

Applying the rules requires the use of judgement on the part of the official. He is concerned about preserving the integrity of the sport through his rule enforcement.

The judge must know and understand the correct rule interpretation so that his decisions are as consistent as possible.

II. Absolute Integrity

The capable judge wants to see the rodeo progress correctly, without bias or inconsistency. In spite of pressures he will not be unduly influenced by contestants, or the reactions of the stock contractor or spectators, nor will he be influenced by the direction of previous decisions. To a considerable degree, he sees each contestant of the competition as competition in itself, unconnected with what has happened previously.

In certain instances, great courage and personal confidence are required in order for a judge to rule with absolute integrity, but this is exactly what he must do. Regardless of the circumstances, the judge must be completely honest in all phases of his job, especially in his application of the rules, and also in his relationships with fellow judges, contestants and stock contractors.

Personal integrity can also be shown by what judging assignments you do not accept. A judge should never accept an assignment where he places himself in a compromising position. He should not work a contest when he has a close relationship with contestants or other personal reasons.

Finally, personal integrity can be shown by your reliability in meeting all accepted assignments and meeting them on time. The only judging sin more serious than appearing late is not appearing at all.

In retrospect, judging integrity is a product of personal honesty and reliability. A potentially outstanding judge can rise or fall according to the integrity he demonstrates.

III. Sound Human Relations

It has been said with considerable truth that judging is more like an art than a science. Building sound relationships with fellow judges, contestants, stock contractors and spectators while under the fire of intense competitive rivalry calls for "an artist's touch."

Your relationship with your fellow judges is important. For the most part, judges are on their own at the rodeo. If their mutual support and teamwork break down, problems in other areas will certainly increase. You should always support your fellow judge. Don't be confused by the word "support;" it doesn't mean to explain or to defend his calls, but to support his decision. Here are a few specific suggestions which may clarify what is needed in order to produce real teamwork among judges.

1. Always arrive early enough to consult with your fellow judge and arena director so that you can agree on mechanics and rule interpretations and begin to become acquainted with one another.
2. Never argue with a fellow judge.
3. Agree in advance about who will do what.
4. Agree in advance about how you may assist one another in making decisions which require assistance.
5. Decide in advance the circumstances whereupon one judge may overrule or cancel the decision of another.

6. During the contest, avoid the temptation to explain your fellow judge's decision. Let him make his own explanations and then back him up.
7. The more experienced judge should take the initiative to help the inexperienced judge.
8. If you are entered in a timed event and must find an alternate in that event, you should always use the same criteria as used when selecting you as a judge:
 - a. Be a current PRCA member in good standing.
 - b. Insurance paid if gold card holder.
 - c. Alternate judge should be available for every performance and section of slack.
 - d. Accept all responsibilities, make all decisions with the judge not contesting in that event.
 - e. As a judge participating in the event, you have given up all authority as a judge in that event.

Relationships with contestants. Good relationships between contestant and judge are of fundamental importance. Judges should be neither overly friendly nor aloof in their dealings with contestants. Contestants tend to mistrust a judge who seems to be trying to win a popularity contest. They expect the judge to act like an official who has an important job to do.

A domineering or dictatorial judge upsets the contestants. Judges must be or at least act human and approachable. A judge must show respect for the contestant if he wishes to gain respect. Knowledge and enthusiasm also increase contestant respect. What is especially needed under most circumstances is not anger or revenge but an accurate and efficient ruling enforced confidently and calmly. A businesslike, but not unfriendly, explanation of the decision may prevent serious consequences.

A judge should never issue, directly or indirectly, newspaper, radio, television interviews, or statements, at the site where he has or will judge, nor should he issue statements nor engage in careless discussion regarding contestants, fellow judges or rodeos. A judge is permitted to state the pertinent rule and decision regarding an infraction in which he was involved.

In summary, sound public relations must be a part of competent judging because sports involve human beings with opposing loyalties. These human beings possess different backgrounds, abilities and emotional responses. In fact some of them will not like judges. Apparently the rodeo judge cannot satisfy everyone, nor should this be his aim. He should show respect for others, avoid antagonizing anyone, and be approachable. His main efforts should be directed toward the best judging job he can produce.

IV. Your Foremost Concern: The Contestant

A judge is concerned with the protection of the contestant. He knows that correct rulings can motivate improvement through the trial-and-error learning process. He does not discourage questions on the rules, because he knows that contestants don't understand all the rules.

QUALITIES OF A COMPETENT JUDGE

I. Precise Knowledge of Rules

The rules of any sport provide the direction for competition. Judges are expected to see that the sport is in accordance to those rules. Mastery of rules is a continuing effort. This means rules pertaining to humane treatment of livestock as well. Any mistreatment of livestock may result in disqualification, as well as fines for such mistreatment. The most effective means of resolving confusion and promoting understanding in complex sections of the rules is accomplished in smaller study groups. Competent judges make it a practice to review the total rule book the night before an assignment. The judge finds it helpful to analyze carefully difficult sections of the rules on the day of the rodeo. Following the rodeo, officials should critique their individual effort and the performance of the judging unit. This will allow for immediate attention to deficiencies in the understanding of the rules while situations are still fresh in the mind.

II. Judgment

Judgment in an individual contest should be based primarily upon a thorough knowledge and understanding of the rules. No judge has ever said or probably ever will be able to say, "My judgment is complete and perfect." Development of good judgment is a never-ending process. The judge who continues to study the rules and to apply his judging experiences to personal improvement is the judge who will succeed. Good judgment is a foremost qualification of the top-notch judge, because it permits him to make the correct decision unhesitatingly under any circumstance. It also develops the respect and approval of the contestants.

When a judge is able to make one sound decision after another, his control of the rodeo becomes evident. The rodeo progresses as it was meant to progress, with the contestant and the action, rather than the judges playing the dominant role.

Competitive experience in the sport greatly helps the judgment, but such an experience is certainly not enough in itself.

III. Good Mechanics

Mechanics refers to the routine procedures surrounding what the judge does. The two primary areas of mechanics are signaling and positioning. When more than one judge is involved, "teamwork" becomes a third area of mechanics. Signals may be made by mechanical device, by voice, depending upon the event or the circumstance. The mechanics of positioning and teamwork are all of essential importance to a professional performance. Good positioning is necessary if you are to see what you are supposed to see.

When proper mechanics are performed precisely, the rodeo progresses without confusion or unnecessary delay. There is nothing complicated or magical about the mechanics of the sport. Good mechanics are not too difficult to develop if correct habits are established early in the judge's career. Difficulty does occur when the new judge unsuspectingly forms incorrect habits. Mechanics, good or bad, are habitual actions. It is much easier to learn the correct habit first than to unlearn an incorrect habit later.

Procedures you have developed in order to be an effective judge:

- A. Check-points on every event.
- B. Examples of items you should check. You may develop many others:
 - 1. cattle
 - 2. injuries
 - 3. numbers
 - 4. gates
 - 5. flag horse
 - 6. gatemen
 - 7. pickup men, your sight and markings
 - 8. production
 - 9. drawing procedure
 - 10. post-performance duties
 - 11. PROCOM
 - 12. equipment
 - a. stopwatch
 - b. flag
 - c. judge's sheets
 - d. pencils
 - e. barrier equipment
 - f. throw flags
 - 13. arena conditions; ground preparation

IV. Hustle

Depending on the event, hustle can be demonstrated in several different ways. It should be defined broadly to include such related attributes as alertness, physical effort, dedication and enthusiasm. A hustling judge will display better mechanics, see more and enjoy his work more.

A judge for the most part is perceived by the contestants through his appearance and the way he handles himself. Body language reveals a great deal about the judge to the contestants. He displays concern, attention, respect, intensity and many other characteristics through his body actions.

V. Decisiveness

The decisive judge converts a controversial or judgmental decision into an accepted ruling decision merely by his decisiveness. The usual result is a continuous contest apparently decided by the skills of the contestants, not an interrupted contest "unfairly" affected by the "questionable" decisions of a judge. The experienced, competent judge realizes that his judgment is not subject to formal protest in any case; he therefore avoids any unnecessary and hopeless controversy by ruling decisively on close decisions: the closer the decision, the greater the decisiveness. When there is a hesitant, indecisive, delayed decision, one contestant or another is sure to believe that the decision was incorrect. Since a decision must be made in any event, the competent official makes all his decisions decisively.

VI. Poise

Rodeo contests are exciting and, therefore, frequently arouse the emotions of the contestants and spectators. Contests can get out of hand when emotions run high. Judges cannot control the emotions of others, but they are expected to control their own and to show poise, regardless of the circumstances.

Confidence and calmness are the basic components needed. Persons who lack personal confidence or who are excitable or emotional do not usually make good judges. Such persons add to existing tensions by overreacting in pressurized moments. On the other hand, the poised judge contributes to a controlled atmosphere. During tense moments, he acts deliberately, almost slowly, whenever possible. The greater the momentary tension, the greater is the need for calm. Obviously, to maintain poise under extreme tension is not easy. To do so under certain circumstances requires nearly superhuman personal control. Most outstanding judges have developed the habit, consciously or unconsciously, of acting calmly at times when, in fact, they are very excited.

VII. Consistency

If a count were taken of the judges qualities most frequently criticized by and most upsetting to contestants, undoubtedly inconsistency would lead the list. Contestants expect the rules to apply equally. True consistency results not from attempting to even up all sides, but from applying the correct rule interpretation to each separate competitive act. The underlying truth is that, especially where judgment is concerned, no two competitive situations are exactly alike. If an official applies accurate judgment, according to the letter and meaning of the rules, to each separate decision, he will be consistent—because the correct rule interpretation is unchanging. Proper judgment and interpretation are the sources of consistency. The official who understands and applies the rules and their interpretations will gain the reputation of being consistent.

VIII. Courage

This quality is closely related to objectivity and integrity. Nevertheless, no list of necessary judging qualities could be complete without separating and emphasizing the personal courage which is necessary for effective judging.

Unknown judges have to prove themselves and everyone is aware of this. The really tough decision may occur at any moment and that is just the decision that separates the superior judge from the mediocre. The superior judge calls them all to the best of his ability, because he has the courage to do so. He realizes that he is empowered by the rules and obligated to the contestants to make the difficult decision. He is well aware that two of the most unfavorable things he can do are (1) avoid a decision where a decision is required, or (2) make a decision merely because the contestant demands it.

IX. Rapport

Implications regarding rapport have already been made under the section dealing with sound relationships. Rapport refers to the quality of relating effectively to others.

While conscientiously meeting the many requirements of his job, the official must not neglect human relationships. The great judge can certainly show his humane and friendly nature without compromising his job; he not only can but he does.

Regardless of your individual personality, rapport can be improved if you:

1. Demonstrate courtesy and respect for stock contractor, contestants, and committees.
2. Show a sense of humor at appropriate moments.
3. Are approachable and receptive to questions.

X. Objectivity

As human beings, judges, like others, can be influenced by various pressures. But unlike many others, the judge is not supposed to be influenced by external pressures. Perhaps a judge's preparation should include mentally pledging: "I solemnly swear to call only what I see and not to be swayed by what people say, by my previous calls or by personalities (including my own)."

Most judges benefit from, first, consciously recognizing their own potential for being influenced and, second, seriously attempting to improve their complete objectivity in each rodeo. Otherwise, the temptations of a given moment in the competition can lead the normally well-meaning individual to make a popular decision rather than a correct decision.

The best way to avoid a controversy and be objective is to have previously thought out all rule infractions with an appropriate and correct decision so that when the infraction occurs you instinctively make the correct ruling to fit the situation.

XI. Reaction Time

Assuming that judgment is correct, decisions which are made quickly have a greater chance of being accepted without question. A judge with a slow reaction time is open to question. A judge with fast reactions frequently can make his decision almost simultaneously with the moment of the infraction. Thus, his "subtle influence" on the contest is quickly and firmly established. The slow reacting judge frequently compensates for his slowness by developing the poor habit of "anticipating" impending infractions and consequently calling infractions that did not occur.

Concentration — not anticipation — is the key word to good officiating. Mastering this art of proper concentration is very difficult. Here are a few helpful hints:

1. Relax between competitions.
2. Know where to look.
3. Look at the correct position at the right time.
4. Don't try to see something that isn't there.
5. Constantly make decisions in your own mind on meeting rule requirements.

XII. Appearance

A certain razor company once increased its sales through the slogan: "Look sharp! Feel sharp! Be sharp!" This slogan presents excellent advice to judges. "Feel sharp" has implications for physical and mental preparation. "Be sharp" suggests that a judge react quickly, hustle and display good judgment and mechanics. We are concerned here with the "looking sharp."

Most judges' associations have minimum dress regulations which should be observed. A judge who reports for duty in an unkempt, dirty uniform does not inspire the confidence of contestants or spectators. Such judges start the rodeo at a disadvantage. It makes no sense, nor is it justifiable, for a judge to report for a rodeo in an unfit or sloppy condition. You are expected to adhere to the arena Dress Code (B10.1.1) when judging the rodeo in any official capacity. Shirts worn under your vest should match, preferably light blue in color.

THE ROLES

As the action and tempo of a rodeo progress and change, the judge must oftentimes assume several different roles, depending upon the particular circumstance. According to the particular situation, it may be necessary for the judge to assume partially the role of an educator, a salesman, a psychologist or a statesman.

As an educator. He briefly explains the rule and its proper interpretation.

As a salesman. He influences contestants toward fair, clean and sportsmanlike play and away from unsportsmanlike conduct.

As a psychologist. He understands the feelings of the contestants, stock contractor, and spectators, and through his understanding he is able to show respect and in turn gain their respect.

As a statesman. He speaks clearly and logically when it is necessary for him to speak.

SUMMARY

There is a great need for qualified judges to meet the demands of an expanding rodeo scene. Regardless of the level of competition, the benefits of rodeo competition are greater when the competition is guided by capable judges. Such judges cause particular contests to be conducted as they were meant to be conducted and cause the result of the competition to be based upon contestant ability and observance of the rules.

Judges should be guided by an overall aim of causing the rodeo to progress smoothly with as little interference as possible. The essential ingredients of effective rodeo judging are (1) intelligent rule enforcement, (2) absolute integrity, (3) sound human relationships, and (4) a focus upon the protection of the individual contestant.

Judging is a difficult but rewarding avocation. The primary awards will be related more to personal development and satisfaction than to financial gain. When judges are well trained, highly dedicated and more aware of the total requirements of their responsibilities, competition will benefit.

As an official it is much more important to be respected than to be liked, and it is almost impossible to think you can be both.

THE IDEAL JUDGE

He notices everything but is seldom noticed himself; he has resourcefulness and initiative; he has dignity of voice and manner but with no suggestion of pompousness; he is considerate and courteous without sacrificing firmness; he can control the contestants effectively and understandingly; he has constant concern for the physical welfare of the contestants and livestock; he cooperates fully with fellow judges; he is physically able to be—and is—in the right place at the right time; he knows what the rules say and what the rules mean.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The manner, appearance, and conduct of rodeo judges should reflect credit to the sport of rodeo and to the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association. They should cooperate with the arena director, stock contractor, and rodeo secretary in all matters regarding conduct of the rodeo.

Judges must remember that the arena director is an important official of the rodeo, and is actually the “boss” of the production of the rodeo. The only way the arena director has to enforce his decisions is through the rodeo judges or the arena police. There is a lot more to serving as a judge at a rodeo than just marking the rides, handing the book to someone and leaving. It is your duty to see that all of the rules in the rule book are enforced including those regarding humane treatment of livestock, as well as those regarding contestant’s equipment. Notification of all rule violations must be posted after each performance in the rodeo office.

Protect your judge’s books at all times. Don’t let them out of your hands, because of the possibility they might be changed. Until the winners are publicly posted no one else except the arena secretary has rightful access to the judge’s books.

Plenty of time and thought should be given to the markings in order to be sure the full spread is used. This is very important, and in the final analysis is the yardstick by which each judge’s competence is determined. Failure to use the full spread shows lack of confidence and firm judgment.

DOCTOR RELEASE

A judge cannot authorize a doctor release, but can only draw out a contestant per rule R6.1.1.

VISIBLE INJURY

Judges are not doctors. And it is not fair to the rodeo business to authorize a visible injury release simply because a contestant requests one. If there is swelling or obvious visible injury you may grant a visible injury release but if it is not obvious the contestant must get a doctor to authorize the visible injury release.

AS SOON AS POSSIBLE UPON ARRIVING IN RODEO TOWN

Report to the secretary or stock contractor.

1. Give address and phone number of where you will be staying during rodeo.
2. Check stock to see if numbered, and numbers correspond; for illness or injury, using discretion in determining the soundness of an animal. Be aware, if possible, of old scars or injuries that do not affect the performance of the animal. Double check to make sure the rough stock animal that is supposed to be injured, in fact, is. Notify PROCOM immediately of any injured livestock.
3. Discuss the deadline for second go-round trades with the arena secretary. Be aware of rules R2.12, R2.12.1.1 and R2.12.1.2.
4. Draw pens of stock if necessary.
5. Become familiar with any special approved ground rules for the rodeo. Also, check to see if ground rules are posted correctly.
6. Supervise ground preparation.

MARKING JUDGE'S SHEETS

Be sure each contestant has whatever type of marking needed behind his name before you turn in your judge's sheet. Never turn in a sheet with blanks behind a contestant's name. If a contestant qualifies for an entry fee refund, notify the secretary as soon as possible.

Example of when a contestant is due his entry fees refunded:

1. Injured and still qualified at that point in the roughstock events
2. Contestant's original animal not available in the roughstock events.
3. Team roper, if present when partner turns out, doctor releases or doesn't show in the first go-round.

Markings to be used are:

EXB	Animal is exhibited (mounted or run)
N/TO	Notified Turn Out
NN/TO	Non-Notified Turn Out

DG	Double Grabbed
Hang-up	Hanging up in Bareback
RR	Reride (Note on judge's sheet when reride will be taken, and what animal. Indicate reason.)

A blank or no marking behind the contestant's name on your judge's sheets when turned into the office will be treated as a non-notified turnout, which could cause some serious complication for a contestant as well as headaches for you. So, please leave an accurate trail of paperwork. This includes rerides with appropriate animals and their markings.

TIMER'S MARKINGS ON SHEETS

Record total time if time is awarded. Then, if contestant is disqualified, mark line through time and zero above it in the same square.

Broken barrier fine marked in upper left corner indicating penalty at beginning of contest. Heel penalties marked upper right.

ROUGHSTOCK

General

It is the responsibility of the judge to see that the contestants use legal equipment and, at any time, to ensure that no one is taking advantage of the animal or other contestants.

The rules state the judge may disqualify a contestant who is not above the animal with glove on if he has been advised he is next to go. Don't hesitate to enforce the rule. It is essential to keep the event moving and judges must help the other officials in getting the contestants out.

Judges are to change sides at the completion of each go-round.

Instruction to Gatemen in Roughstock Events

Prior to the start of the rodeo, open all gates to see if they open freely and wide enough. (Or how wide they do actually open.) Discuss briefly the procedures for opening gates.

The gateman's knowledge about the animals can help prevent fouls, injury, rerides, and also bring out the best performance from the animals. The animal's pattern of leaving the chute will determine when and how wide to open the gate. In order to prevent fouls or injury to the contestant or animal, never open the gate to its maximum width until after the animal's initial move out of the gate. Be sure to catch the gate when it's pulled or thrown to its maximum flexibility, to ensure that the gate cannot bounce back and interfere with the animal or rider. At the first opportunity, when rider and animal are clear so as not to interfere with either, close and latch the gate.

Latch gateman should open the gate from a 45-degree to a 90-degree angle, leaving additional slack to be taken out (by the gateman running the rope) to full gate extension upon action of the animal after its initial move.

MARKINGS IN RIDING EVENTS

Rule R9.2.1

To qualify for a marking, bareback or saddle bronc rider must have the rowels of the spurs touching the horse above the break of the shoulders when horse's front feet hit the ground on its initial move out of the chute. Some judges have been misinterpreting this rule. It is not necessary to have spurs over the break when the horse is still standing in the chute. Too many riders are rough-locking the horse before he ever moves, causing many horses to stall. The best way to spur one out is to reach for him after he moves.

The spur rowels may be rolling in the bareback riding event, but must be touching the horse above the break of the shoulders when the horse's front feet hit the ground it initial move out of the chute.

The initial move out of the chute may be the following:

1. Rear out
2. Run out
3. Buck out

4. Step out

Time starts when the animal's inside front shoulder crosses the plane of the chute.

Don't stand too close or behind the gate. Get a clear view of the rider and the horse at the same time. Don't be late in shouting "go on" if rider gets fouled in the chute or the horse stalls. If the rider is fouled at the gate, the judge yelling "go on" tells the contestant if he is in shape to try the animal and the mark out rule has been waived. If contestant tries his animal, he has accepted the animal, and has no ride coming because of the foul at the gate.

Even if the contestant has missed spurring out on your side, continue to watch the ride because the other official may have waived the spur out rule.

Be aware of a contestant getting in a little trouble and jumping off when he is not fouled by the animal. He may be trying to take advantage of other contestants by getting a ride. This applies to a horse stumbling and falling or bucking into a fence. Treat all contestants alike.

Even though the ride and the animal are marked separately, marking for the ride is dependent to a degree on the difficulty of the animal.

Use the full spread when at all possible and don't hesitate to mark the top of the spread when you see something outstanding, either rider or horse. Not using the full spread shows lack of confidence and expertise on the part of the judge. This means you should use low marks (from 5-10) for a poor ride or a sorry animal, and higher markings (from 20-25) for the exceptional performance by animals and/or riders. Low markings on the winning rides defeats the purpose of the scoring system. Be consistent for the entire rodeo. Don't pick out one thing on which to dock a ride. You may forget about the rest of the good points. Train yourself on what to watch for, and mark the horse and rider accordingly.

Be sure to judge your foot and your foot alone. But if an animal moves to a point where you can't see your foot, you will have to mark him from what you can see. If a bull or horse spins and rider is buried in with your foot and spurring with the other foot, let the other judge mark him accordingly for an outstanding ride, even though your side was only fair.

Anytime one judge's view is blocked for very much of the ride, he should refer to the other judge's marking for the animal, and to see if the ride was consistent while his view was blocked. In some cases, if a judge doesn't get to see very much of the ride he should disqualify himself and use the other judge's marking.

Judge the full (8) seconds of the ride. If an animal starts and then stalls for any length of time, mark the animal and rider for what they have done. If the animal stalls four seconds and bucks four seconds, only mark him for four seconds. Notify the rider of his marking with the option of a ride. Don't base your markings on the last part only, consider the full time of the ride. Judges most often favor an animal that finishes strong over one that starts strong when both should have been judged the same.

Contestants do not necessarily compete in the same order as the judge's sheets, so make sure you have marked the correct contestant and animal.

Refer back to your books, especially at rodeos with several performances, to refresh your memory about the rides. Don't let the Saturday night crowd or last performance contestants win simply because of when they drew up.

Be sure to mark the animal and contestant only for their efforts. Don't be fooled by dramatic actions of contestants or by movement of chaps or other equipment used to make the ride or animal look good.

Don't let an announcer, stock contractor, spectators, contestants or anyone else influence your decision. Animals, just like contestants, have good days and bad days, so score them both on how they perform today. When an unriden animal gets ridden it is no guarantee that the cowboy should automatically win or even place.

EXPLANATIONS OF RIDING EVENT TERMINOLOGY

1. Length of Spurring Stroke

BAREBACK: Feet are as far forward as possible and as high in the neck as you can, then pulling your feet in a straight line to the front of the bareback rigging.

SADDLE BRONC: Extension of the legs as far forward in the neck of the horse, then in a sweeping motion back toward the cantle.

2. Exposure

Willingness to go beyond standard spurring motion. Extending oneself beyond secure control.

BAREBACK: The distance the feet are away from the horse when repositioning at the end of the spurring stroke.

SADDLE BRONC: Willingness to extend the forward stroke beyond the normal secure position of the spurring motion in the neck.

3. Aggressiveness

Speed of the rider's feet when repositioning on forward stroke. Positive, forward, forceful movement of spurring motion.

4. Timing

The position of your spurring motion in relation to animals bucking efforts coordinate efforts in rhythm with each other on each jump.

5. Control

In balance (not out of control). Control of keeping your body in balance with bucking efforts of the animal while exhibiting all the requirements of the ride. Sitting squarely in the middle of the animal with balance.

6. Drag

Continuous spur rowel pressure with the animal through the length of the spur stroke.

7. Spur Position

Rowel against the animal with the toes turned out.

Characteristics and Explanation of Bucking Horse Action

1. Front-end Moves and Ducks

Horse is changing leads and directions from side to side as if dodging imaginary obstacles. The horse will hit the ground, one foot at a time, causing direct change in the shoulder movement which creates a sideward rocking action in the rigging or swells of the saddle.

2. How High the Horse Gets in the Air

How much distance between the ground and horses front feet. Also, how high the animal kicks. Front end height alone is not enough.

3. Front-end Drop

Vertical drop which has no, or very little, forward motion. It would seem as though the animal is sucking backwards underneath you with a strong effort to throw you over the front of your saddle or rigging. The timing of the delayed kick creates a downward power (centrifugal force) on the swells and rigging which is seen in the drop of the rigging or swells of the saddle.

4. Direction Change or Spin

5. Kicks

Hard kicks, side kicks, uneven kicks, full extended even kicks, both feet together, high, delayed. Creates power, drop, rhythm, timing, rocking, and any combination of the above.

6. Timing

Regularity of the speed, kicking efforts and pattern of the horse's bucking efforts.

7. Rhythm (much the same as timing)

GOOD RHYTHM: Smooth, even, consistent bucking efforts.

NO RHYTHM: Changing up jumps, uncoordinated kicks, drop and movements of the horse.

8. Power

Mainly a combination of drop and kick creating stress on the rigging or saddle and jerk on the contestant. The overall image of the degree of intensity the horse puts into his bucking efforts.

It is harder for a rider to maintain his body control and spurring action on an animal that has a unique bucking pattern. Horses without timing or rhythm with front end moves and ducks are hard to ride and very difficult to spur.

A horse that drops in front and does not float out of the air throws much more power at the rider. The power and strength of the animal's bucking efforts depends on how hard he kicks, lunges, and hits the ground.

Speed and quickness of the animal creates much more action within the eight-second period.

When marking the bucking horses, remember that a horse that ducks and dives is hard to ride and hard to stay in time with, and should be marked high even though he does not look sensational in action. When you see one that jumps high, kicks high, and has speed and power, Don't hesitate to give a high marking, right up to the 25. The high jumping, floating type of horse that is easy to ride is a good draw only because a great ride can be made on him. He is usually just a fair horse.

The really hard-to-ride horse is entitled to a high marking even though it is tough to make a good ride on him, and the poor ride marking will take care of it. Then if a man makes an outstanding ride on a rank, hard to ride horse, he is entitled to win, not be penalized because he didn't draw one of the cream puffs. Remember, horse and rider are to be marked separately, from zero to 25, using the full spread.

9. Speed and Quickness

Rapidness of bucking efforts. More speed, the more jumps and actions in eight seconds (hard to keep up with).

EXPLANATION OF BULL'S BUCKING EFFORTS:

Control and report untipped horns. Refer to rule R7.10.5.

When judging the bull ride, position yourself so you can see all the action clearly and still be safe. It is impossible to concentrate on the ride, and how the bull is bucking, if you are having to run for safety. You will need to maintain a similar judging position for the entire contest.

1. Spinning

Continuous circling in one spot. Needs speed or other qualities to make the bull difficult to ride.

2. Jumping and Kicking with the Spin

Creates power and is much harder to ride than flat spinning bull, depending upon the height of the jumps, drops and kicks of the bull.

3. Jumping and Kicking in a Straight Line or a Big Circle

Depends upon how many combinations are involved (shoulder rolls, height, kick, power). Can be very difficult to ride.

4. Lunges

Unexpected forward movement with little if any kick. Usually by a bull with little or no timing – not spectacular, but very difficult to ride, and should be given credit for doing so.

5. Shoulder Roll

Side to side body movement, could be on the ground or at the top of his jump. A bull that kicks with shoulder rolls increases the difficulty.

6. Rearing and Kicking

Front end comes up abnormally high, usually accompanied by drop, trying to pull you down over his head. Usually by a bull with little rhythm and timing. Difficult to maintain control.

7. Rhythm

Smooth, even, consistent bucking motion no matter what his pattern of bucking might be. Sameness throughout the entire ride with coordinated kicks.

8. Fades

Refers to movement sideways, or even backwards, instead of forward. Tends to slide out from underneath you.

9. Strength and Power

Front end drop, strong delayed kicking, and overall effort in bucking along with size, speed and quickness play an important role in the power of the bull.

10. Drop

Vertical drop of the bull's front end as he drives his front feet into the ground creating power on the contestant by jerking downward on the bull rope (related to jumping and kicking efforts of the bull).

11. Hops or Walks on Front-end

Lands on front feet and walks a step or two before his kick causing a whip to the upper body and a very uneven rhythm. Very difficult to ride.

12. Speed

Rapidness of movement or lack of it.

RERIDES

Refer to reride rules in part R9.3 of the rule book. The designated reride should replace any injured animal prior to the draw of the reride order. If not used, the designated reride automatically becomes the first animal used in the reride order (See R9.3.4.3.3 for exception to this for a finals). The order for the remaining rerides should be drawn from those turned out or doctor released animals that performance. When the turn outs and doctor releases create more than an ample number of rerides, a judge may, up to five hours prior to the performance, draw a pen of at least two from these animals which must remain available for rerides. If the judge is not available, the stock contractor may request PROCOM to perform this draw procedure.

Then 1-1/2 hours prior to the performance, along with the timed events, draw the reride order. A contestant given a reride will receive the animal that directly correlates with the order rerides are accepted in the performance.

The reride order is unknown to the contestant, but they may know what animals are in the pen. However, if a marking with an option of a reride is given, the contestant deserves to know which animal would be the reride given and when that animal is available before accepting his score or take the reride. After knowing what the animal is and when the reride may be mounted, if he accepts the reride, he cannot later request his original score unless the terms of this agreement are changed - either the animal or the time of competition change.

If an animal in the riding events stops and is pushed or pulled back into the chute, the contestant will be given the option of a reride or may take the original animal back.

Contestants in the riding events who cannot compete on their originally drawn animal may have the option of accepting the reride or getting their entry fees refunded (first go-round only).

A riding event contestant with a reride which can only be taken during a performance other than that contestant's originally scheduled performance for that rodeo, thereby creating a conflict with the first go-round of a second rodeo, may draw out of the either rodeo provided the contestant follows the following procedure: 1) The contestant must notify the ProOfficials of the rodeo where the option of the reride was given of his decision to accept the reride, or to draw out of that rodeo, immediately upon learning which animal would be used as a reride and the time of the reride. 2) Should the contestant accept the reride, he must notify the Central Entry Office of his decision to be drawn out of the second rodeo no later than the turn-out deadline for his position for the first go-round of the second rodeo. In no case will a draw out option be accepted if the option is for other than a first go-round.

Animals mounted out should be in the reverse order of the reride position draw with the first two animals in the reride order remaining available for rerides until after the last contestant who is entered has competed. If they are not, a rule infraction must be reported.

One judge shall serve as a backup timer in the bull riding event. The judge's stopwatch reading shall be used as a means of verification when the length of the ride is in question. The judge shall stop his watch when, in his opinion, the contestant has been disqualified for any reason, or when he hears the whistle, whichever comes first. In either instance, the whistle or eight or more seconds on the judge's watch, the contestant shall be entitled to a marking.

At a rodeo with 2 judges, both judges will have to carry a watch. Only the judge on the latch side is considered official, unless that watch failed to operate. In that instance, the other judge's watch will become official. The only thing a contestant has to go by is the whistle. If the whistle is sounded early, and your watch stopped on the whistle but prior to the eight-second reading on your watch, the contestant is still deserving of his score.

When three or more judges are used in the riding events, the third judge shall time from behind the bucking chutes.

If contestant is fouled, he must declare immediately to receive a re-ride. If contestant accepts the foul and continues to compete and qualifies he is only entitled to his marking.

If contestant animal falls or stops, contestant must only qualify up to the point of the fall or stop to receive a re-ride. If contestant makes a qualified ride and the animal falls or stops during the 8 seconds, contestant will receive his marking with the option of a re-ride.

All bulls' horns should be inspected by the judges prior to their use at all PRCA rodeos (preferably before the draw of the reride order and the timed-event cattle). If, in the judge's opinion, a bull's horns do not meet the rule book requirements for tipping, the judge will notify the stock contractor that he must immediately tip the bull or the contestant will get his option of: a) entry fees refunded if contestant doesn't want the designated reride bull; b) accepting the designated reride bull.

SPECIFIC EVENT

BAREBACK

Be sure to enforce the no-tuck rule. Check to see there is no substance on the glove or the hand hold other than dry resin or benzoin. White athletic tape may be used on front of rigging handle. No rolls or flaps inside or outside of the glove. Contestants are allowed no more than one wrap of tape on a finger.

Many things go to making a good bareback ride. Consider how much the contestant rolls his spurs toward his rigging and the area the spurs are touching the horse in the neck with toes turned out, as well as timing and length of the spur stroke from the starting position up the neck to the rigging.

A perfect ride would find the contestant positioning his feet high in the neck and rolling spurs upward toward the rigging. The length of the stroke, drag, exposure, and positioning of spurs should be considered for marking the ride. For exposure, spurs should be away from the horse when repositioning feet for the next jump. A rider that rolls them up to the rigging and doesn't throw them out when repositioning feet would be making just a fair ride, the same as one that rolls them only half the way to the rigging and throws them out when repositioning. If a rider's feet come back to the flat of the shoulder instead of the neck, he should be marked lower. High markings are awarded aggressive rides with control and exposure. Things a rider should be penalized for are: going to the cinch, getting on a tilt, not spurring.

Disqualify the rider who touches the animal, his equipment, or himself with his free hand (including the arm). If, in the opinion of the judge, a contestant uses his free arm to aid his ride in any manner, contestant will be disqualified.

SADDLE BRONC

Points should be awarded primarily for aggressiveness, control, timing and length of spurring stroke. Timing is a must when a horse changes direction, hesitates, rears, jumps and kicks, or a combination of these. The length of the stroke should be from high in the neck above the break of the shoulders to the saddle skirts. The rider must be aggressive and expose himself more to reach the top of the neck (extending his spurring stroke) and should be scored accordingly. To achieve a high marking a contestant must have his toes turned out, spurs touching the animal; use full stroke without stopping; set his feet; follow with a good drag; and maintain control for the entire length of the ride.

A rider loses points if his toes are not turned with spurs in contact with the horse; if spurring is not continuous throughout the ride; or if the rider is not balanced and in control. (Rider's body must be centered over horse, not tilted to either side.) Points are gained or lost according to the rider's rhythm and timing with the horse's bucking. Disqualify a contestant for losing a stirrup; touching the horse, saddle, or self with free hand (arm included); changing hands on the bucking rein; or dropping the rein.

BULL RIDING

The rider should be given credit for the kind of bull he rides, and also how well he rides him. The contestant should be marked the same as the animal for his ride with consideration for: adding points for good body position and movements; use of free arm or shoulders; and spurring to adjust for the bull's bucking style and to help maintain control.

Staying in the middle of the bull in full control of the ride without being on a tilt or reared back is what is desired and should be scored accordingly.

Winning rides should be on the rank animals when the contestant shows aggressiveness and control.

A contestant who is sitting up but trying to protect himself (and not aid his ride) should be given consideration for slapping the animal if he is on a bull that slings or throws his head and comes in contact with the contestant's free hand (arm).

Indicate time of disqualification in the Bull riding and score of animal on the judges sheet.

TIMED EVENTS

Per Rule R10.4.1: Stock contractors will be required to have a labor crew assigned to the timed events consisting of a minimum of five people.

Definition of herd: Herd shall be defined as those animals designated prior to the initial draw of the first go-round to be used in a given event. No animals other than those pre-designated animals shall be considered qualified stock for said rodeo unless one for everyone. Two or more herds may be formed at a rodeo provided there is one animal per herd for each contestant with ample extras. In progressive go-rounds the herd must be maintained.

At a rodeo with five or fewer performances, a minimum number of cattle will be one-half the number of entries (not to exceed 50 animals) with a minimum of 15 head of usable and desirable cattle, unless otherwise approved by the PRCA event representative and the Director of Rodeo Administration.

The only time less than 15 animals is acceptable is when there are less than 15 entries in the contest. Then one animal for each contestant is sufficient even though more than one go-round may be given at said rodeo. However, it is still acceptable to use all the animals, providing they are usable and desirable. In the team roping there only needs to be one for every entry or half enough.

The herd and the length of the score should be determined prior to the contestant draw. Changing either could drastically affect one's competitive opportunity once the competition draw is known.

Definition of extra: If pens are drawn from the predesignated herd (according to the rule book), at least one (1) more animal than the number of contestants should be drawn to be used in the case of a misdraw. Following the cattle draw, that animal (or animals) remaining shall be considered the extra. In case the extra is not used for that given performance or section of slack, said extra shall be placed in the subsequent draw.

Subsequent draw: refers to placing unused animal back into the rest of the unused herd (not the next pen).

DRAWING CATTLE

When necessary, pens of cattle for the next performance or section of slack should be drawn along with at least one extra for the pen. Pens may be drawn for the slack when a repeat run on the animals is necessary to expedite sorting of cattle as the initial run is taking place. However, fewer animals in a repeat run than the number per performance, this procedure is not acceptable.

Cattle used in all exhibition runs should be drawn by the judges. These cattle are considered run. They should not be removed from the herd but an accurate record as to who ran what animal, with the results of that run kept and posted by the rodeo secretary. No record need be kept if the exhibition cattle are not part of the herd used at that rodeo.

Refer to drawing timed event rules: R3.1, R3.3.

All cattle drawn will be run providing someone is ready when animal is loaded for competition. The person(s) running the exhibited animals is subject to all the same rules and fines that pertain to the timed events.

DRAWING PENS OF CATTLE

Not more than 24 hours prior to the first performance and/or slack, the judges must draw a pen of cattle equal to the number of contestants, plus one extra (if possible), scheduled to perform in that performance or slack. If slack is run prior to the first performance and all of the cattle available will be used, it is not necessary to draw a pen. (Drawing pens of cattle makes it possible for the roping chute boss to cut off feed and water those animals to be used.)

The secretary should write lightly in pencil the numbers of the cattle in the pen to the left of the names on the timer's sheet, and on the right of the names for the 2nd go-round, using a slash mark to indicate a split pen (some of the cattle in the 1st run, some in the 2nd run.) The cattle numbers for each pen should be listed in numerical order for easier sorting of the cattle. This does not indicate which animal is drawn for the contestant but it does insure the secretary that enough cattle have been drawn for the contestants in the performance.

DRAWING CATTLE FOR COMPETITION

One and one-half hours before the performance or slack, the judge will draw an animal for each contestant scheduled to compete that performance. The animal remaining will be considered the "extra." (Note: Facilities may make it impossible to bring extras.) It will be helpful if secretary color codes each run of the cattle on the timer's sheets. (EXAMPLE: 1st run of cattle recorded in green ink, 2nd run recorded in brown ink, etc.) This enables the contestants and the secretary to see that all cattle were run the proper number of times.

Except for split performances (when one run ends and another starts) all cattle must be run once before any are run a second time; the second run of the cattle must be completed before any are run a third time; etc. Position changes so that horses do not have two runs in a row may make this impossible. However, even if positions are rearranged because of the horses available, the cattle are to be drawn according to the original position draw; i.e., straight down the day sheet for the first go-round, and from the bottom up in the 2nd go-round.

If only one animal remains to complete a run on the cattle, the next person scheduled for competition will automatically be paired with that animal even though it appears to be a pairing. If that contestant has already drawn that animal then that animal would be taken out and not issued to the next contestant.

If more cattle than there are contestants are being used at a two go-round rodeo, the cattle remaining (not drawn) at the end of the 1st go-round are to be used for the first contestants on the list reading from the bottom for the 2nd go-round. This is true even if there is only one animal remaining and it would appear that contestant is issued his draw.

Each judge should be aware of the procedure the rodeo secretary is using to organize the poker chips according to runs, pens, etc., making suggestions if deemed necessary.

Using a lined pad at the beginning of the rodeo list all animals to be used at that rodeo in numerical order. When an animal is taken out of the draw, circle that number for use as a reference sheet and to cross check that the chip for that animal is removed.

Help supervise position changes (splitting of horses) immediately after the draw of the cattle, following the basic outline of moving the first man not riding the horse up to the position to be split. Refer to rule R10.3.14.

MISDRAWS

If four or more head are misdrawn, all unused stock shall be put back in draw box and all redrawn.

Definition of misdraw: Any animal which must be replaced will be considered one misdraw. Examples of possible reasons for replacing an animal are:

1. Injured or unhealthy animal
2. Animal not properly numbered or distinguishable
3. Animal not on premises after being drawn
4. Duplicate brand and/or ear tag and animals not distinguishable prior to draw
5. Contestant left out of draw

6. Animal drawn incorrectly due to clerical error (examples: two poker chips with the same number; contestant drawn same animal twice; wrong run)

Misdraw discovered prior to a performance, or any time during the slack:

1. If an extra is available, all unused animals below the misdraw up to the end of the run on the cattle are used, including the extra. One animal is drawn, that being the animal assigned to the contestant with the misdraw. If the animal drawn for the misdraw is the extra, no other changes are made. If the animal drawn had originally been drawn by another contestant, the contestant who originally had that animal will be assigned the extra.

2. If no extra is available, all unused animals below the misdraw up to the end of the run on the cattle are used with the last unused animal drawn in that run designated the extra. In this instance, the last man to have originally drawn an animal in that run will require a repeat of the misdraw procedure which applies, but will not be considered an additional misdraw.

Example 1	Draw
Contestant A	22
Contestant B	25
Contestant C	21
Contestant D	27
Contestant E	19- misdraw
Contestant F	23
Contestant G	16
Contestant H	9
Contestant I	10
Contestant J	45
Extra Animal	17

No. of animals reduced. All animals and the extra are in the same run. To adjust the misdraw, put all animals drawn below the misdraw or all unused cattle if not run in order (in this case 23, 16, 9, 10 and 45) as well as the extra animal (17) in the draw box. If 17 is drawn, it automatically replaces 19. If one of the others is drawn (say 10), it is replaced by 17 and 19 is replaced by 10. This is the method hereby referred to as “draw away from someone.”

Example 2	Draw
Contestant A	22
Contestant B	25
Contestant C	21
Contestant D	27
Contestant E	19
Contestant F	23 end of run
Contestant G	16
Contestant H	9
Contestant I	10-misdraw
Contestant J	45
Extra Animal	17

No. of animals reduced. All animals above the line are the end of a given run on the cattle. All animals below the line start a new run on the cattle. Considering that the misdraw and the extra are in the same run, follow the same procedure as above to draw away from someone.

Example 3	Draw
Contestant A	22
Contestant B	25
Contestant C	21-misdraw
Contestant D	27
Contestant E	19
Contestant F	23 end of run
Contestant G	16
Contestant H	9
Contestant I	10
Extra Animal	17

No. of animals reduced. Since the misdraw and the extra are not in the same run, consider the last animal drawn in the first run (in this case 23) and use him as the extra. Using all animals below the misdraw (27, 19, 23) but just through the end of the run, draw away from someone to replace 21. Contestant F then becomes the first contestant to start the new run. Using the extra, plus all animals on next run (16, 9, 10, 45, 17) draw to get an animal for contestant F. If F gets 17 everyone stays the same. If F draws 10 then contestant I gets 17.

Example 4	Draw
Contestant A	22
Contestant B	25
Contestant C	21
Contestant D	27-misdraw
Contestant E	19
Contestant F	23
Contestant G	16
Contestant H	9
Contestant I	10
No Extra Animal

No. of animals reduced. All animals are in the same pen. There is no extra. Use the last animal drawn as the extra (in this case 45) and draw away from someone to replace 27. Contestant J, then, will be without an animal and must draw from all those animals left in the run or from the entire herd if this was the end of the run.

No. animals not reduced. Contestant J already had animal 45. DO NOT USE EXTRA. Set out clerical misdraw 45 (same as if extra). Use the misdraw procedure; since no animals are below the misdraw reverse and put the animal above the misdraw 10, 9, 16, 23, 19, 27, 21, 25, 22 in the draw. If contestant J draws 27, Contestant D gets 45.

Use last animal for the slack (in this case #22) and draw away from someone to replace #8. Use this procedure even though this may cause pens to be changed. Contestant X, then, will be without an animal and must draw from those animals left in the run or from the entire herd if this was the end of the run.

Misdraw is discovered after the start of a paid performance: (this is subject to the availability of both judges and the secretary prior to the start of the rodeo.)

1. If an extra is available, the contestant involved will automatically be assigned the extra, regardless of a possible difference in runs on the cattle.
2. If no extra is available, the contestants involved will not compete as scheduled, but later in the performance or immediately after. A replacement animal will be drawn from all animals left in the run.

If a misdraw procedure is used and a contestant involved cannot be used because of clerical problems (he already has the animal), the misdraw is nullified. Repeat the procedure. (No need to involve more contestants than necessary.)

Any time this procedure has been used to correct a misdraw and then later another misdraw is found, treat them separately. Don't lump them together to create a completely new draw. There has to be four or more misdraws at one time to create a redraw.

Example of multiple misdraws: During the slack all cattle in the herd are drawn, leaving no extras. Cattle are also chute run, not in order. Misdraws were not discovered until some cattle had already been run.

In this example three animals are misdrawn. Those cattle competed on prior to the misdraw remain as drawn and recorded. Since all animals are drawn you should use the unused animal low est on the list (#25) as the extra. Only one animal will be needed since one of the misdraws (#27) falls below those contestants getting the next run on the cattle and contestant R has a clerical error which can be used. Contestants W and V will get the next run on the cattle. First, draw order for the cattle #16, #25 to be used as the extras. For simplicity, let's say that #16 is the first one drawn, then #25.

Then put all unused animals below the first misdraw into the draw container (#12, # 14, #17, #19, #21, #16, #18, #20, #25). Notice this includes the two extras. Draw animal for Contestant L (first misdraw). If #16 (an extra) was drawn, go on to the second misdraw. But if you draw away from someone, say #19, then Contestant L gets #19 and Contestant P would get #16 (first extra). Repeat the same procedure for the next misdraw.

Indicates a misdraw.

BARRIER JUDGE

Check Equipment

1. Pulleys
2. Rope—not too much stretch or wear
3. Rings
4. String for neckrope and barrier—ample amount so you can use same string for everyone, right size and strength
5. Length of tail on barrier not to exceed 10 inches.
6. Operate gate several times to make sure it is in good working condition—does it open quickly, both sides open evenly—does it open wide enough to allow steers' horns to pass by freely—measure width of chute
7. Barrier flag clearly distinguishable and visible to timers
8. Marker for score line

Measure Box and Barrier

1. The length of the box is determined by hooking up the barrier and measuring from the center of the back of the box to the center of the barrier rope. The length of the box can't be changed after the rodeo starts.
2. Also, measure the height of the barrier from the ground 32 inches to 36 inches at pin, pulley and center of barrier.

Set Up Barriers

1. An automatic barrier must be used at all rodeos (unless approved by board of directors).

SCORE LENGTHS (REFER TO RULE R11.5)

Side Pull

In the timed events, the event representative may prior to the start of the initial competition stock draw at a given rodeo, approve the lengthening or shortening of the scoreline by no more than one foot over official rodeo rule guidelines. If this causes the score to be over 18 feet, it is acceptable.

All barriers in the timed events must be mounted where pulley and neckrope pull from the side of the chute. The pulley on the neckrope should be attached on the chute from 38 to 48 inches above the ground.

Length of neckrope with the pin in place and pulled tight is 18 inches short of the scoreline in the tie-down roping and 24 inches short of the score line in the steer events.

The score is the distance from a point on the ground directly below the pin to scoreline. Length of the score will be determined by measuring from score line to the ground directly under the pin with the pin in the barrier ring. See Figure 2.

Example of 14-foot score

The scoreline would be set 14 feet from a position on the ground directly below the pin. Then with the pin in place and the neck rope pulled tight, the neck rope should reach to a point on the ground 12 feet, 6 inches (12' 6"). In the calf events and 12 feet (12') in the steer events.

Figure 2

INSTRUCT GATE-MAN

1. The person opening the timed-event chute gate must remain the same for the entire rodeo. Any exception must be approved by the line judge.
2. If the gate fails on the first attempt stop and wait for another nod from the contestant.
3. Allow the judge to pin the barrier and get into position for the event.
4. Know who will push the animals.

CHECK BEFORE EVENTS START

(Before each section, performance, or slack.)

1. Set the scoreline
2. Measure the neckrope to make sure it hasn't changed
3. Check the string on the barrier rope and the string supply
4. Be sure the tension on the barrier is okay and the stop behind the pulley on the barrier rope (not neckrope) is tight
5. Operate the gate and barrier once if time permits
6. Be sure the flag is visible.

CHECKLIST FOR EACH CONTESTANT

1. Be sure the field flagger is in place.
2. Verify that the correct animal is in the chute for the contestant getting ready to compete. Don't be afraid to ask the contestant's name. However, asking what animal number the contestant has may destroy his concentration.
3. Make sure the neckrope is placed on the animal correctly.
4. Check the barrier string.
5. Record all barrier penalties for breaking or beating the barrier, even if there is no time in field. Marking the broken barrier penalties should be done immediately before ever retying the barrier or signaling to the timers.
6. Indicate a broken barrier to the timers by holding up hands or waving hat (work out signals and verification signals with timers).

BEATING THE BARRIER

If the horse in any manner breaks the barrier (nose, bits, front feet or other), a 10-second penalty will be assessed.

However, stretching the barrier without obviously beating the barrier is not considered a broken barrier. If, however, the barrier is not broken but obviously beaten, a 10-second penalty should still be imposed.

Beating the barrier with a 10-second penalty can only be imposed after the contestant has nodded or asked for his animal to be released. Whatever happened prior to his nod is not to be considered.

Anytime the chest of the horse behind the barrier crosses the vertical plane of the barrier rope before the animal to be contested on is given the proper head start the barrier is considered beaten and a 10-second penalty should be imposed. (Examples: Horse rears over barrier rope, rope breaks but string doesn't, barrier trips early and contestant takes obvious advantage of it.)

The tall of the barrier should not exceed 10 inches in length. However, if the contestant has obviously broken the barrier you may still impose a beating-the-barrier penalty.

If the neckrope doesn't pull the pin and the pigtail remains pinned, a barrier penalty may be omitted. In such cases the judge alone should determine whether the fault is in the equipment or the contestant. When the chute is temporary, make sure no one leans or pushes against it causing the barrier to trip early or not function properly.

The decision of whether an animal in the timed events is to be brought back is the sole responsibility of the judges and they should not allow themselves to be influenced by anyone. Any deviation to this must be an approved ground rule.

The contestant must either qualify or declare to receive another chance.

Qualify: If the contestant is not fouled and has no visible way of knowing if something didn't function correctly, he must qualify in order to get another chance.

Declare: If the contestant is fouled and he can visibly see that he is, or will be, fouled he must declare by pulling up or attempting to pull up and not try to go on with the contest. If he does not declare he accepts the situation the way it is. You should not give the contestant two chances by letting him try the animal and then get that animal back if he doesn't do well.

WATCHING THE BARRIER

1. Place the neckrope on the animal correctly (the short side toward the roper in the tie-down events)
2. Position yourself correctly depending upon the event (see events)
3. After reaching the correct position, watch to see contestant nod or ask for his animal
4. Check to see if the animal pulls the barrier prior to the string breaking off the animal's neck (sometimes the neckrope string may break before pulling the barrier if it doesn't feed correctly, string is too weak, string is not tied correctly, or other reasons)
5. Use peripheral vision to watch the neckrope and pin somewhat at the same time
6. The barrier is used to determine when it is too close to call, but the judge must make the decision if the barrier fails to operate correctly.

The decision whether or not timed event cattle are to be lined will be made by the respective event director or his duly assigned appointee, who will in turn notify the barrier judge. If cattle are to be lined, it shall be accomplished by one appointee to be stationed at the same position on all contested or exhibitioned cattle in that event. Be sure to keep contestants back during the slack; they often act as lines by watching the contest.

A contestant should be allowed one fair opportunity to compete on the animal drawn for him. That means one chance at the animal and one chance at the barrier. It is not fair to other contestants if you allow him more. It is not fair to the contestant if you allow less. Make sure the contestant is not fouled. Don't give an animal back due to a bad break where the contestant has a fair chance.

- Beware of push men pulling the barrier. If a contestant's push man intentionally or accidentally pulls the barrier, the judge may assess a 10-second penalty.
- Beware of a contestant getting an animal back without a 10-second penalty if the barrier works and he broke out. (Examples: Rope is fouled in the neckrope after a broken barrier, the timer didn't get the time because the flagger wasn't ready, or timers were not ready). The contestant is entitled to an animal back lap-and-tap with a 10-second penalty. If the contestant competes on the wrong animal, the barrier penalty would naturally be waived.
- The barrier string or the neckrope string should be tied with one string. If two or more strengths are needed, wrap that string around two or more times. This creates equal tension on each strand.

FIELD FLAGGER

CHECK EQUIPMENT

1. Horse. It's very important to try the horse prior to the rodeo to determine how manageable he is, and to make certain he has been properly cinched and warmed up. Also, make arrangements to have the flag horse available at the necessary place and time.
2. Flag
3. Stop Watch
4. Possible note pad and pencil.

POSITION

Check specific event for the starting position, adjusting if necessary to get into the best possible position to watch the contest. The starting position in the tie-down roping requires the greatest adjustment. Maintain the same position for all contestants, if possible.

Hold the flag high and in full view of the timers. Don't anticipate flagging with the momentum of the run being made. It will cause an early flag or a mistake. Have in mind a picture of what constitutes the completion of the run, and hold the flag until you see that happen. Drop the flag with one sharp quick motion of the wrist and elbow. Raise the flag early enough so it can be dropped in case the animal escapes the arena. Make no false starts. Leave no doubt for the timers. "Concentrate, Don't anticipate," is the key to good flagging.

Roping without turning loose of the loop will be considered a no-catch in all roping events.

A second loop must be made up and on the saddle (except in team roping) when three loops are allowed. A rope that needs to be rebuilt, is considered a thrown rope.

In reference to head catches the may become legal in the steer roping events, a contestant has up until the field flagger has dropped his flag.

A field judge must ask the contestant if he wants a second loop or jump. If time is not recorded when a field flagger flags out a contestant who has a second loop or a second jump coming, the contestant has the option of taking the animals back, lap-and-tap with 10 seconds. Refer to rule R10.3.12.

Be sure to check for the second loop or second jump. A contestant wishing to use a second loop or jump must reply at once. No immediate effort from the contestant would signify the contestant's decision to not attempt a second jump or throw a second loop. Consider, however, an aggressive effort may spook a roping horse.

If you are out of position and cannot flag because of a flag horse acting up, the contestant should receive the same animal over after the performance or in the slack if the contestant qualified.

In any timed event, if an animal escapes from the arena the flag will be dropped and watches stopped. The contestant will get the same animal back after the performance, with consideration for the situation (roped or not roped). If the animal was not roped the contestant will get the animal back with a lap-and-tap start, time already spent to be added to the time used in qualifying. A lap-and-tap start is hand- flagged at the score line by the line judge. If the animal escapes or must be brought back in the roping events the contestant must start from a mounted position. Time resumes on lap-and-tap start when the animal crosses the scoreline. Do not allow the contestant to compete on the animal until the animal does cross the scoreline. If the rope is on the animal, the roper will get the animal with the rope on it in the chute and time will resume when the animal makes his initial move out of the chute.

Make sure the timers have a record of disqualification flags or other information necessary at the time you flag a contestant. (It is important to keep accurate records while flagging in the field.)

The field flag judge will pass on the tie through use of a stop watch, timing six (6) seconds from the time the rope horse takes his first step forward after the roper has remounted, providing there is slack in the rope. Slack in the rope during the six-second procedure would be defined as the rope laying on the ground a minimum of 2 to 3 feet in front of the tie-down animal.

If warranted, the field flagger may disqualify that contestant from that event for the remainder of the rodeo. (Refer to B11.6)

Intentional dragging is caused by the contestant's actions that result in his horse dragging the tie-down animal. Contestant backing his horse after remounting and obviously moving the tie-down animal, even though the five-foot limit was not reached, will be in violation.

Excessive dragging does not just occur after the completion of the tie. A violation may occur well before the tie is completed. However, consideration should be given for the reason a horse is overworking.

A tie-down animal kicking or struggling while being tied, or after the tie is completed, should be given consideration for the length of the drag. The impression made by the tie-down animal after being flanked should not be considered as part of the drag. A spotlight or other outside interference should also be considered. Do not just waive the rule! Give consideration for exactly what the tie-down animal has or has not done to create the drag.

Your position while flagging the event is very important to give consideration for the interpretation of the drag rule. (Refer to rule R10.6.4. Be specific)

Continue to observe contestant and animal until released by the contestant or untie men to avoid humane problems and to detect injuries to the animal that may have occurred.

SIX-SECOND PROCEDURE

Start your watch for the six-second time limit only after the roper has remounted his horse and the horse has stepped forward. A slack rope before the rider remounts his horse does not constitute the starting of the watch. (If the rope is not on the animal the six second time period starts immediately upon completion of the tie.) Slack must remain in the rope during the six-second time procedure to be a qualified tie. If the tie-down animal causes the rope to become tightened, the roper must give additional slack. If the roper causes the slack to come out, which in turn aids the contestant's chances of the tie-down animal remaining tied, he would be disqualified. Start your watch and check to see if it is running. During the rest of the six seconds, do not take your eyes off the animal. In order to keep your eyes on the animal and not the watch work out a counting system that will amount to the full six seconds. If at any time the animal becomes improperly tied, stop your watch and check. A full six seconds must be registered on the watch to be legal. As a courtesy to the contestant, allow him to check your watch if he so desires.

TIE-DOWN ROPING

Line judge should position himself at the score line on the same side as the contestant providing arena structure will allow such positioning. A liner should be on the opposite side of the line judge at the scoreline.

A field flag judge should position himself far enough down the left side (right-hand tie) of the arena fence so that you have full view of the tie-down animal and the roper as you ride toward the contestant to inspect the throw and the tie. The best approach after the roper has caught his tie-down animal is a position at a 45-degree angle behind and to the side of the contestant. This will enable you to tell if the tie-down animal was allowed to regain his feet. (If the tie-down animal does regain his feet in front and back, he will be considered up.) You should be able to return to your starting position without holding up the rodeo.

The rope must hold (tie-down animal to horse) until the roper gets his hand on the tie-down animal to be a legal catch-as-catch-can. The tie-down animal must be thrown by hand. If the tie-down animal is down when the roper reaches it, the tie-down animal must be let up to his feet and be thrown by hand. If the roper's hand is on the tie-down animal when the tie-down animal falls after the initial jerk, the tie-down animal is considered thrown by hand. If a roper loses complete contact with a tie-down animal after he has been thrown, and the tie-down animal fully regains his feet, the tie-down animal again must be thrown by hand.

The tie-down animal must be standing on his feet, he may be squatting if he is standing on hooves and not on hocks or knees. If the tie-down animal has one or more feet in the loop he must be in a position that if the tie-down animal desired, it could be standing on the remaining feet not tangled in the rope. If the tie-down animal's feet are under him and his body is on or touching the ground, he is not up. But, if he is standing on his feet, he is considered up. If a tie-down animal is down, he must be lifted high enough with his feet and legs in a standing position so that he could regain his feet if desired before he can be flanked and tied.

To qualify as a legal tie there shall be at least one wrap around any three legs (or all three legs must be tied together) and secured with a half hitch. (EXAMPLE: One wrap around two legs, third leg wrapped to one or both of first two.) A tie where the front leg is only attached to the other leg when strung is illegal. The tie must hold and three legs remain crossed until passed on by the judge. The roper must not touch the tie-down animal after giving a finished signal until after the judge has completed his examination. However, if the roper injures himself and has to use the animal to push off to get up, then he should not be penalized. If the roper is injured to a point of being unable to remount his horse, another person may ride the horse forward for the six (6) second time period.

Position yourself so that you are able to see if both of the roper's hands are free from the piggin' string and tie-down animal when you drop the flag. If you are at the roper's back, be sure you can see both of the roper's hands.

Don't anticipate fast ties. Watch the contestant put the wraps and the half hitch on the tie-down animal. Then give a quick, sharp drop of the flag after both hands are free from the string and tie-down animal.

A roper is to be disqualified if he removes a rope from the tie-down animal after signaling for time if the tie has not been passed on by the field flagger. (However, you may request a contestant to cut or remove his rope to prevent injury to the animal if the horse is fouled or tangled in the rope.)

There will be a 25-second elapsed time period in the tie-down roping. A whistle indicating no time shall be blown by the timers at the end of the 25-second span. A contestant must release the tie-down animal to the untie men when they get into proper position. Contestant must remount his horse allowing the untie men to release the tie-down animal.

A contestant must adjust his rope and reins in a manner that will prevent his horse from dragging the tie-down animal. A contestant's competitive opportunity and humane problems may be caused by the crowd becoming involved at an inopportune time during a run in the roping events.

A judge must use discretion on stopping a roping horse that is dragging a tie-down animal. Ride up cross ways allowing the horse to bump into you but Don't spook the horse by waving, yelling, or other actions which may upset the horse.

Procedure used when tying fresh tie-down animals:

- A. If tie-down animal is smaller and takes the tie good, retie tie-down animal on the ground only. This is a total of one (1) flank and two (2) ties.
- B. If tie-down animal is big, wild, hard to flank, strains or kicks, flank this type of tie-down animal two (2) times. If after two (2) flanks there is no struggle retie tie-down animal on ground for a total of two (2) flanks and three (3) ties.
- C. If tie-down animal "B" still kicks, strains, or is wild, flank a third time and retie on ground for a total of three (3) flanks and five (5) ties only.

Ranch-tied tie-down animals are not acceptable unless approved by event representative.

STEER WRESTLING

The line judge should position himself at the scoreline on the same side as the contestant.

The field flagger should position himself on the left hand side of the arena by the dogging box. When the steer wrestler passes, follow him down the left side of the arena. When you are unable to follow the dogging horse, position yourself so that you will be on the side where you are best able to see the steer's head and all four feet.

After catching the steer, the steer wrestler must either bring the steer to a stop or change the steer's body direction before the throw. The steer is considered knocked down if he is knocked to his knees in front, his hocks behind, or a combination of both, before his body direction is changed or he's brought to a stop. In this instance the steer must be let up and then thrown to be legal. The steer is considered thrown only when it is lying flat on its side, or on its back, with all four feet and head straight. Make sure that the entire length of the steer's body is on the ground before flagging.

The steer wrestler must have his hand on the steer when flagged. If a steer is knocked down or thrown by the steer wrestler by putting the animal's horns into the ground, the fall is illegal. Likewise, if the steer wrestler does not stop or change the direction of the steer, but steps in front of the animal causing the steer to throw himself, the fall is illegal. However, if the steer is down, but regains his feet while the contestant is changing directions, the steer is to be considered up. The steer must be up on all four feet and then thrown.

“Dog fall” refers to a steer falling in the opposite direction the steer wrestler is attempting to throw him. Be aware of the fact that if the steer dog falls, the contestant may choose to turn the steer’s head to correspond with the leg position to make this a legal fall.

The steer must be caught from a horse. The rule pertaining to the steer wrestler taking one step to catch the steer applies only after the steer has been caught from the horse.

If for any reason the flagger is out of position when the steer is thrown and cannot see all four legs, he should watch the hips of the steer. If the hip appears flat you have to assume all four feet are out.

When the steer wrestler is working with a steer, the hazer is not to render assistance of any kind; i.e., setting up the steer by grabbing at it’s horns; or touching, holding, batting, or striking the steer in any way. A hazer giving assistance will constitute contestant disqualification. (Waving the dogging horse off is not giving assistance.)

Watch until contestant turns the steer loose. If contestant continues to twist on the steer, tell him to turn him loose at once. If he does not comply, report him to the Association office for inhumane treatment of stock, giving details of the offense. If necessary, steer wrestler is required to turn the steer’s head so he can get up.

Allow the contestant to hold the horns or head to protect himself from the steer throwing his head or if the steer’s horns are caught in the contestant’s clothing. The flagger should watch until the steer has regained his feet and has been turned loose.

Each contestant is an individual run. Consider it as such. If you make a mistake on one run, do not let this influence the others.

TEAM ROPING

The line judge should position himself at the scoreline on the same side as the header.

The field flagger should be positioned on the left of the chutes about 45 degrees from the score line and ten to fifteen feet down the arena. Use discretion in positioning, depending on arena conditions. The flagman may position himself to improve the roping, but must treat all teams alike.

The field flagger should concentrate on the head catch first and, after the steer and the team have passed, ride across and down the arena to get in position to flag the team. The flagger should try to get a 90-degree angle from the action and far enough away to be able to watch both the header and heeler with the least amount of movement. Watch the heel loop, then the dally, making sure both ropes are dallied tight and straight down the rope each contestant is using. The amount of V must be consistent with consideration to animal’s health and arena conditions. After both horses are faced with all four front feet on the ground, and the rope is tight, the flag should be given.

Any rodeo where there are more than two go-rounds, three loops are allowed. In case the field flag judge flags out a team that still legally has one or more loops coming, the judge may give the same steer back lap-and-tap. And, a 10-second penalty will be assessed for each loop already thrown.

Any question regarding catches in this contest will be decided by the field judge.

LEGAL HEAD CATCHES

1. Around both horns.
2. Half a head. (Horn and head)
3. Around the neck.

If it isn't one of the three above-mentioned acceptable catches, then it is not legal.

ILLEGAL HEAD CATCHES (CONSTITUTES NO TIME)

1. Hondo over horn.
2. Any time the head loop crosses itself.
3. Front foot in head loop.
3. Loop in steer's mouth.

LEGAL HEEL CATCHES

1. Both hind legs, even if rope is crossed.
2. One hind leg receives a five (5) second penalty.

ILLEGAL HEEL CATCHES

1. Heeler throws loop before header ropes, dallies, and changes direction of the steer.
2. Front foot in heel loop

A team should not be flagged out when heeler crossfires because they may still have a legal loop coming in a three-head contest. A flag should be given when contestant has completed the run, then flagged out for crossfiring using same procedure as a team having an illegal head catch.

STEER ROPING

The field flagger should position himself so that he can see the trip (right side on right-handed ropers or left side on left-handed ropers), and must maintain this same position for every contestant.

Any catch other than a slick around both horns is illegal and the roper must not attempt to trip the steer.

Only one loop will be allowed at one go-round contests. If a steer is roped and tripped down with any catch other than the legal catch listed above, the roper shall be flagged out.

To be a qualified catch, the rope must be on the steer and tied to the saddle and horse, when the roper completes the tie.

If the steer's horns pull together and the rope comes off first or second loop, the contestant will receive no time. But if the rope stays on one horn from a legal head catch until the tie has been completed and examined, the tie will be official.

The horse must turn away from the steer. The steer must be thrown by the horse. The steer cannot be thrown by hand after the steer has fully regained his feet.

To qualify as a legal tie there must be at least one wrap around all three legs and a half hitch. The rope will not be removed from the steer until the tie is passed on by the field flagger.

It is illegal to double back past the steer and jerk him down. If the first pass does not get the steer down, the roper must go around the steer so the steer and his horse are pointed in the same direction, pass by the steer again, and turn off to trip him down.

Only one loop and one attempt will be allowed. An attempt would be defined as changing the course of the steer 90 degrees after the catch. A flat fall means the steer is lying flat on his side or on his back with all four feet extended.

If a foul catch is made, a second rope may be used. But, first the rope must be released from either the saddle or the steer.

The roper may be permitted by the judge to lift the nose of the animal after completing the tie to permit proper breathing.

A one-half hitch on the hind leg is illegal.

Don't flag out too quickly with a one horn catch. Contestants may try to fish a legal catch on the other horn.

If a steer is tripped the flagger can't signal a no time until the steer fully regains his feet under controlled balance. A steer may turn completely over without regaining his feet.

BARREL RACE

One judge is to act as a line flagger, the other judge is to determine any irregularities in pattern or arena.

For a pre-rodeo check, the judge must set barrel and score line markers.

The judges marking the barrel position must give a copy of the measurements to the rodeo secretary to be posted in the rodeo office.

Entrance, exit and pattern shall remain permanent and stay exactly the same for everyone. (Unless posted otherwise in ground rules.)

Flagman should drop flag when horse's nose reaches starting and finish line.

Contestant shall be assessed a five-second penalty for each barrel knocked over.

Brightly colored 55-gallon steel drums with both ends enclosed must be used.

If the rodeo has additional barrel racing during the rodeo, barrels must be set on a completely different set of markers.

When setting barrels on markers, center of the barrel should be positioned over where the marker comes out of the ground.

Prior to and in the slack, ground around the barrels must be worked the same as in a performance.

Electric timer must be backed up by a flagman and one timer will record the times that appear on the electric-eye control readout. Two timers are to operate a handheld digital stop watch with one of those two recording the time shown thereon.

Contestants may be drawn out and entry fees refunded for Doctor Release or for a Vet Release. A contestant may be held back to the end of a go-round, with approval, due to injury or illness of contestant. Contestant must be able to show valid release if requested. Contestant must be last out in the go-round she is held back in.

If contestant feels she has been fouled during her competition run, she must declare herself to the judge; i.e., pull up. This does not apply to unsafe ground conditions.

Only one contestant's horse is allowed in the arena at a time with no exceptions.

Questions may be addressed to the judge no sooner than at the end of the event for that performance. Questions should not interfere with his performance in another event.

Make yourself familiar with the WPRA rule book and other rules and regulations pertaining to the barrel race.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF A JUDGE AFTER PERFORMANCE

1. Sub-total, total, and post your own judge's sheets copies after each performance.
2. Check barrier fines with timers and rodeo secretary.
3. Draw rerides if necessary.
4. Draw pens of cattle for next slack or performance.
5. Remain available in case of questions.

FOLLOWING LAST PERFORMANCE

1. Turn in your judge's sheets as soon as possible during or at the end of the rodeo to help the rodeo secretary figure the pay-off. This will help make it convenient for everyone.
2. Remain until the markings are finalized and the placings are agreed upon and posted.
