A MESSAGE FROM THE NATIONAL PRESIDENT

ELSIE COOKE-HOLMES

Greetings Sorors of the Blazing Southwest Region:

A special thank you to the Regional Director, Michelle Brown, Regional Representative, Lauryn Cornish, and to Northwest Arkansas Area Alumnae Chapter for hosting this stop of the 2021-2022 Delta Authors on Tour.

I am excited about your efforts to celebrate our sisters in literary arts. Honoring our stories nurtures our souls and inspires us to do something good for our community. Especially during these unprecedented times, reading is vital to enriching one's mental and physical wellness. Communities that value reading help build thriving and intellectual individuals. Reading also allows us to be uplifted, strengthened, and ready to take action!

Sorors, the Delta Authors on Tour initiative is an opportunity to support our very own and to ensure that their hard work receives a greater level of exposure. Since its inception, Delta Authors on Tour has influenced more than 800 sorors to become first-time published authors. I encourage you to support our authors by purchasing their books and asking your friends and family to do the same. There is power in numbers!

I am grateful for your support of this national program, and I salute all of those who worked so diligently to bring this opportunity to fruition.

Welcome to the seventh season of Delta Authors on Tour! Exposing the world to stories penned by sisters of our illustrious organization, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated.

We are excited to invite you on this journey as we continue to promote black women authors, increase literacy, and subsequently improve our economy by supporting the works that our authors have created. What better way to do all of this than by attending our virtual tour stops across the country and by purchasing books for not only yourselves – but, for your family and friends of all ages. This is a national initiative that will benefit the entire community.

THANK YOU! To our regional leadership teams for saying “yes” to DAOT; To our 70+ authors for sharing your literary gifts; To the hard-working Host Chapters for providing the virtual framework and planning for a fun and creative environment; And to all of you, our sorors, for your unwavering support. We are certainly better together and is the unity of our sisterhood that allows us to make this happen.

Let the seventh season of Delta Authors on Tour begin!

Blazing Southwest Region

Greetings Sorors!

We are happy to welcome Delta Authors on Tour to the Blazing Southwest Region, hosted by the Northwest Arkansas Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated. Delta Authors on Tour is a key program under the sorority's National Commission on Arts & Letters which began in 2010 as a platform for authors to promote literacy, provide information about writing and publishing, and to share their own literary works.

As we celebrate Sisterhood and Women's History Month, the timing is perfect to celebrate these ten dynamic authors, who are also members of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. Each featured author brings varied experiences and different genres - from inspirational to fiction - to share with us and the communities we serve. We are excited to present National authors April Ryan, T'Keyah Keymah, Victoria Christopher Murray and Brenda Jackson. Completing our list of amazing authors from across the regions are Jennifer Matthews from the Eastern Region, Tiffani Teachey from the South Atlantic Region, Candice McField from the Central Region, Josephine McCall from the Southern Region, and from the Blazing Southwest, Brenda White, and Jewel Radford! We extend a special thank you to these distinguished authors; we appreciate their dedication to literacy and ensuring we are versed with the opportunities to read books that reflects our culture and our history.

Thank you to Tanya Cook, President, and the members of Northwest Arkansas Area Alumnae Chapter for graciously hosting Books on the Hill. Your hospitality is a testament to your true sisterhood and commitment to our beloved sorority. A special thank you to our Arkansas State Coordinator, Deborah Bland, who has taken this literary journey alongside Northwest Arkansas. Lastly, kudos to Arts and Letters Commissioner Charlene Ayers, who serves as the DAOT Liaison and hails from the Blazing Southwest. All of these sorors have worked so diligently to bring Delta Authors on Tour to the Southwest Region. Great job sorors!

We know this will be a wonderful experience, filled with enlightenment, storytelling, and laughter. Thank you for Keeping it REAL in the Blazing Southwest Region, while continuing to uphold the goals and ideas of our glorious sisterhood!

Yours in Delta,

Michelle Brown

Message from the President

On behalf of the savvy sorors of the Northwest Arkansas Area Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated, I bring you greetings! We are elated to host the 2022 Delta Authors on Tour in the Southwest Region. It is our hope that you will feel the warmth that comes from the "Blazing Books on the Hill" showcase of literary art at its finest. Ten authors representing various regions of the country will be stopping by to share their motivations and impress you with their creations. It is our honor to bring this virtual opportunity to you - our sorors, family, and community friends. We all understand that art comes in a variety of forms to include that which is found in black ink on white paper bound between two covers. However, the magnificence found in the work of these authors will leap off of the paper and entice you into their worlds of ingenuity, as well as allow you the freedom to imagine. We want to encourage each of you to fully engage with the authors, purchase books and most importantly have a great time! Don't leave the event without your fire lit!

Much Delta Love,

Tanya Cook

2021-2022 VIRTUAL STOPS

How This Works

This season, we are excited to again have you virtually shop online with us! We thank you in advance for perusing through this exciting document with our featured authors' books! Here's how it will work:

1. On all flyers, each chapter has listed an event registration link. Please make sure to sign up early as some stops may be limited!
2. Thirty days prior to a tour stop, each chapter will release a DAOT Order Guide highlighting each author invited to their Region. Featured authors have provided two methods of virtual payment and this document will be used for patrons to purchase the highlighted works of these exceptional authors.
3. Prior to each stop, a link will be sent to the registered attendees by the Host Chapter.
4. The DAOT events are hosted on virtual online platforms such as Zoom or Hopin and are scheduled to last 2 hours. This format allows each author to speak about her fascinating book(s) and includes individual Breakout room sessions where you will have an opportunity to directly engage authors who've particularly piqued your interest. During the event, Patrons will also be able to virtually order books directly from the author. All purchases will be shipped to you, free of charge.
5. In order to best facilitate the s&H process, all books will be autographed, not personalized. If you'd like to order more books, simply repeat the process.
6. The last day you may purchase books will be midnight in your time zone i.e., 12 p.m. EST, CST, PST, etc.. If books are not received two weeks after the tour stop, PLEASE let the chapter know at the email address on the title page.

Cycle of Love is an uplifting, 28-day regimen of fitness and fulfillment for people who are stressed out or otherwise stuck in unhealthy life patterns. The book offers meditations, positive affirmations, and exercises, plus recipes, and tips on dietary health, organization, keeping active, and personal safety. It encourages the reader to lovingly center each day with positive mindfulness and healthy organization to find peace and order in life, despite all of the chaos that currently surrounds us all.

Some of My Best Friends is an inspiring series of humorous, dramatic and / or poetic, socially conscious vignettes featuring a dozen characters who are: finding their place in the world; trying to hold onto it; wondering what has become of it; looking to change it, or creating a world of their own. The show enjoyed sold-out houses in Chicago, Los Angeles, New York and around the country, won an NAACP Theater Award for Best Play and was nominated for Best Writing.

(A portion of the book sale proceeds will benefit the T'Keyah Crystal Keymah scholarship funds at FAMU and Meharry Medical College.)

April can be seen almost daily on CNN as a political analyst. She is also the Washington D.C Bureau Chief on TheGrio. She has been featured in Essence, Vogue, Cosmopolitan and Elle magazines – to name a few. April Ryan has served on the board of the prestigious White House Correspondents Association. She is one of only three African Americans in the Association’s over 100-year history to serve on its board. Ms. Ryan is a two-time NAACP Image Award Nominee, a graduate of Morgan State University, and a Baltimore native.
