Message from the Acting Headteacher

Asalaam Alaikum Parents and Carers,

I pray you are all well. Thank you to many parents who attended our Curriculum Workshop and Meet the Teacher event earlier this week. It is always wonderful to see children proudly showcasing their learning to parents and visitors! All the information from the workshop can be accessed on our school website: Year 1; Year 2; Year 3

Thank you to many parent volunteers who have been conscientiously supporting Mrs Jessa in our library; your efforts are very much appreciated.

Please see additional information on: Build your Library, Readathon, School Book Fair and Competition.

Also, attached is information for Parenting Workshops at our school, led by the Harrow Early Support Team; please note there is no parking on site for this event.

And lastly, please see attached information about Milad un Nabi hosted by FoHPS, in collaboration with the school.

Wishing you a lovely weekend,

Mrs Saad

Message from the Faith Leader

Asalaam Alaikum Parents and Carers,

This week we reflected on verse 263 from Surah Al Baqarah, Chapter 2, which says:

قَوْلٌ مَّعْرُوفٌ وَمَغْفِرَةٌ خَيْرٌ مِّنْ صَدَقَةٍ يَتْبَعُهَا أَذَىٰ وَاللَّهُ غَنِيٌّ حَلِيمٌ
A word of kindness and forgiveness are better than charity followed by hurtful words. And Allah is Self Sufficient, forbearing.

We talked about how we can show kindness through our words and actions and were inspired by how powerful kindness and compassion can be when we read the story 'Kindness is my Superpower'. We reflected on how we show kindness to our friends, families, teachers and neighbours.

I ask you as families of Hujjat Primary School to be role models in showing these values to our school neighbours, staff and each other. May Allah (SWT) help us all to always show compassion in our thoughts, words and actions in our relationship with Allah (SWT), ourselves, our families, our friends, staff, neighbours and the wider community. May He help us to always be role models, representing the compassion that the Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) taught us. Insha'Allah. Ameen. Have a blessed weekend,

Mrs Jessa

'Pupil of the Week' Achievements

Each week of this half term, we focus on one of our school values. During PSHE lessons and assemblies we discuss the importance of our school values and how we can demonstrate these by following the example of our beloved Prophet (PBUH). The value for this half term is compassion. We are very proud of our pupils demonstrating this value!

The Amin Ambassadors

We are so proud of our first ever school councillors. This week, our school council came together for the first time.

We spoke about right to have an opinion and for it to be listened to, as stated in the UN Rights of a Child document. Then we reflected on the verse of the Quran from Chapter 3 of the Quran, verse 110

كُنْتُمْ خَيْرَ أُمَّةٍ أُخْرِجَتْ لِلنَّاسِ تَأْمُرُونَ بِالْمَعْرُوفِ وَتَنْهَوْنَ عَنِ الْمُنْكَرِ وَتُؤْمِنُونَ بِاللَّهِ
"You are the best community ever raised for humanity—you encourage good, forbid evil and believe in Allah"

We spoke about our important role as school councillors to be role models and represent our class by listening and putting forward their ideas and opinions and helping to improve the school by promoting and living our school values encouraging good to make our school the very best community.

We decided that the best role model for our School Council would be Prophet Muhammad (saw) so we looked at some of his titles to come up with an inspiring name for our school council. Our friends and teachers have entrusted us with an important role, so we have decided to call ourselves The Amin Ambassadors, inspired by the title of the prophet 'Al-Amin' meaning 'The Trustee/The Trustworthy'

Congratulations to our Amin Ambassadors:

Birthdays and treats

We would be very grateful if parents and carers not bring in party bags or edibles for children's birthdays.

As an alternative, why not donate a book to the school for all your friends to enjoy to mark your special day. We have put a list of wonderful reading books, and recommend you buy a book/ books from this list and donate to the school. Please see flyer below for more information. We will put a special birthday message inside the book/ books on behalf of your child. Thank you for your understanding.
