

Chief Pleas welcomes new Members and His Excellency unveils HM The King's portrait

Chief Pleas met twice in January; on Monday 20th to vote on Committee memberships, and on Wednesday 22nd for its first substantive ('Christmas') meeting of the new year, at which His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor of the Bailiwick of Guernsey, Lieutenant General Richard Cripwell, unveiled a portrait of His Majesty The King.

His Excellency with The King's Portrait.

Chief Pleas on Monday 20th January.

The Speaker of Chief Pleas, Paul Armorgie, welcomed the new and returning members, and paid tribute to former members for their service. Mr. Armorgie said, "It was a delight to preside at the first Chief Pleas of the year and to welcome members old and new. The enthusiasm for our small island democracy is clear, and I thank everyone for their contributions."

28th January 2025