STAGE TWO FROM LOCKDOWN.

Sark entered stage two yesterday, Thursday 25th February 2021. However, the Island remains closed to visitors with a mandatory 14-day isolation requirement for anyone arriving into the Island.

Private boaters are not able to land into Sark, any attempt will be dealt with by the Constable and in accordance with the regulations.

SARK SHIPPING:

At the moment passenger sailings remain under review and there is no set date for recommencement.

This will depend on Covid incidence in Guernsey and the safe re-implementation of a Bailiwick bubble, Public Health advice and risk to Sark residents.
