

Stepmoms

Not everyone gets a stepmom.

Lots of things in life must happen to have a stepmom.

Stepmoms understand how this relationship came to be.

Stepmom is her title and mom is in her heart.

She knows she hasn't been the one from the start,

but she understands and accepts her title.

She loves us all just the same.

Whipping up those fabulous meals,

planning great vacations and taking care of our dad.

She too has a past, but today she blends two families.

Not an easy task, but loves the reason if you were to ask.

And for that I am grateful; so proud to call her mom!

Not everyone gets a stepmom.
