DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

In the interest of full disclosure about the counseling you will be receiving, please read through this following agreement (sign when requested), and sign/date at the bottom. This form must be signed and included with the intake form in order to begin counseling.

DESCRIPTION OF COUNSELING

My counseling philosophy is holistic in that three interrelated perspectives are explored in counseling: the Existential (the person), the Situational (his/her world), and the Normative (his/her God). Based on your counseling needs, you may be advised to take appropriate tests/inventories or seek medical treatment to facilitate the counseling process. I adhere to the Code of Ethics prescribed by South Carolina Code of Ethics for Mental Health Professionals.

REFERRAL POLICY/DISCLAIMER

Clients will be referred to another counselor when treatment required is beyond the scope of care available. Though I strive to be responsible and professional in the referral procedure, it is your full right and responsibility to select the professional of your choice. I am not liable for any services provided or not provided by the referred professional. Once an intake evaluation has occurred, a chart will be opened as a new client. Any chart that has not been active in one year will be considered inactive and the chart will be closed and you will no longer be considered a current client.

FINANCIAL POLICY AND INFORMATION

Initial Evaluation fee (90 minutes) is $225. The fee for a 50-minute session is $150. The fee for a 90-minute session is $225. Payment is due at the beginning or the end of each session and accounts must be kept current in order to continue counseling. Cash, checks, and some credit cards are accepted forms of payment (there is a $30 charge on all returned checks.).

Fees for any court related requests are my standard hourly rates which will include any written correspondence, phone calls, travel time and/or court related appearances.

Jodi G. Dunphy, MA LPC LLC is not in network with any insurance providers. If you would like to file out of network, a form will be provided to you at the end of each session. Payment is due at time of service.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Generally speaking, information provided by and to a client in a professional relationship with a counselor is legally confidential. By law, information can only be released with the written consent of the client and only to parties specified by the client. There are specific exceptions to your right to confidentially which include: 1) Any suspected incident of child abuse or neglect; and 2) Imminent danger to self or others. When consulting with parents regarding minor children, specific content of therapy sessions with children or adolescents will be held in confidence unless their welfare requires that the parent(s) have access to such information. In most cases, joint meetings between children and/or adolescents, their parents and the therapist will be arranged as a part of the therapy process.

CANCELLATION POLICY

I request that you notify at least 24 hours before your scheduled appointment time if you need to cancel a session. Failure to do so will result in charges for the missed appointment. This charge should be paid before or at the time of your next appointment to continue in the counseling relationship. Exceptions are for sudden illnesses and emergencies only.

CONTACTING YOUR COUNSELOR

For scheduling and canceling your appointments, you must contact my office directly. For emergencies after hours, please contact 911 or go to your nearest emergency room. I am available for very limited contact during non scheduled times. I do not have regular office hours and have limited availability to communicate via phone, email or text.
