Felix loses his re-election bid, Felix and Catherine finally share their darkest secrets concluding neither of them are angels..... Soon after they marry, honeymoon in San Luis Potosi, Mexico, Felix's birthplace, and buy a 100-acre ranch there to raise their children after their birth in Dallas. Unexpectedly, Felix is recruited by the outgoing Vice President of the United States to serve as a liaison to the President of Mexico in an attempted U.S. military coup of incoming Vice President Dmitry Melnikoff. The CIA subsequently learns after Dmitry Melnikoff is appointed Vice President.... That President Mike Davis has cancer that spreads to his lymph nodes. The President's initial diagnosis is three months to live. The prevailing thinking is, given how quickly Davis's supporters fell in line regarding his selection of Vice President Melnikoff....With Davis's unexpected passing, they will accept Melnikoff as their new President, President of the United States of America.

The coup fails... President Mike Davis lives three weeks longer than predicted before passing. Catherine and Felix enjoying the last word on restoring Mexico's sovereignty, wonder if will they have the last word on restoring America's sovereignty too?
