

Junior Roughstock Association Rules 2021-2022

ORGANIZATION INFORMATION:

The Junior Roughstock Association (JRA) is a private organization /DBA under 406 Event Productions LLP that provides a qualification system for paid members to compete for a spot to the Junior World Finals (Rookie, Junior, Senior and Novice age Groups) and the Junior Roughstock Extreme Finals (PeeWee age Group for all horse riding roughstock events and bull riding events hosted by JRA Contractors and Producers). Calf, Sheep and Steer Riding are optional events that can be hosted by local producers. Calf Sheep and Steer Riding champions “may” be crowned on a regional/series level (this would be up to the regional directors). Calf, Steers and Sheep will not be a World Finals Event and will not be required to have a JRA membership card. Buckaroo and lead line events will also be regional events also and will not advance to the Finals in Las Vegas, Nevada or qualify for the Extreme Finals.

The JRA consists of 12 regions. Each region may have specialized rules and regulations to increase safety of contestants and stock. Deadlines may vary based on region; however, it is recommended that rules and guidelines be followed by all members.

All business information that the association chooses to share will be available on juniorroughstockworld.com or on social media sites. Current carded members can request the past finals financials by providing contestant name and parents name at any time.

The JRA will consist of a council of owners and advisors allowing a communication and voting system for the youth association. A current list of contractors, producers and board members can be found at www.juniorroughstockworld.com. In the event a vote is required, a voting council has been established. Voting Council – Cameron Tucket (Senior Regional Director), Brad Duckworth (Stock Contractor), Lacie DeMers (Secretary), Toby Martin (Event Production), Bubba Miller (Contestant Representative).

All funds to produce the finals are raised through membership cards, fundraisers, sponsorships, and are backed by personal funding.

Official Rule Book is available at www.juniorroughstockworld.com

WORLD FINALS (Junior, Senior and Novice Age Groups) *please note that all references for prize payout and qualifying stock is based on 15-25 competing contestants per age group. A finals will be held for each division with less than 15 competing contestants; however number of contestants advancing to the short round will be 5 and the prize line payout will also reflect number of contestants per age group. Each event is not to exceed 25 contestants per age group.

The Junior World Finals will be hosted by Las Vegas Events at Cowboy Christmas during the National Finals Rodeo in Las Vegas, NV at the Las Vegas Convention Center.

Up to date finals information for the Junior Roughstock Finals can be found on both the Junior Roughstock Association website as well as the NFR Experience webpage. The JRA Finals (qualified Peewee's and qualified JRA Bull Riders) and the Last Chance Qualifier will be held in Wickenburg, Arizona. The event dates will tentatively be October 5th- 8th 2022 (Wickenburg, Arizona). The Junior World Finals (qualified Rookie, Junior, Senior and Novice Bareback and Saddle Bronc Riders) will be held at the Las Vegas Convention Center. Contestant check-in will be November 30th, 2022. Rodeo event dates will be December 1st -December 5th, welcome ceremony and awards may be on days separate of these dates. Official schedule will be provided with entry information to qualified contestants.

Contestants will be required to check in one day prior to finals event at designated check in time. Those that fail to check in on time will be disqualified unless previously authorized by National Office.

All around winners and top 10 contestants must be present at awards unless dismissed due to medical circumstances or other preapproved reason.

No regional points will be carried over to Junior World Finals. All Junior World Finals points are based on aggregate points which includes all points accrued in both long go and short go rounds.

There will be 2 long go rounds for each division the top 10 in each division at the Junior World Finals will advance to the short go. The top ten contestants in the Peewee and Rookie Junior division will advance to the short go of the Junior Rough stock Extreme Finals.

All Entries will be completed through Cognito Forms and/or Saddle Book.

Fees for the 2022 finals are TBD but will not exceed $550/event.

Failure to check-in during designated timeframe could result in disqualification.

If a region does not fill the allowed spots, it could result in less contestants at the finals.

Estimated payout based on 25 Contestants (Payout will vary based on number of paid/entered contests).

Based on entry fee off $550, with $50 office charge, and up to a 40% stock charge, all added money, if available, will be paid out in addition to base payout.

Entry Fee (less office charge): $500 Guaranteed to pot per contestant: 60% ($300)
Guaranteed to pot per 25 contestants: $7500 20% out per round (3 rounds, paying two spots) total per round $1,500 40% out per average (paying 3 spots) total average pot $3,000.

Finals costs will be covered by stock charges and raffle ticket sales. Additional funds needed to produce the Junior World Finals will be raised by additional fundraisers and sponsorships.

WORLD FINALS (Peewee Division/Bull Riding Age) Regional Finals information will be updated on or before September 15th, 2022.

REGIONAL INFORMATION:

<https://juniorroughstockworld.com/contact>

Advisory Council - Each region will have representation from at least one contractor and a parent from each established region. The advisory council will allow for each region to be represented by a regional representative, responsible for communicating regional questions and concerns, recommending new ideas, as well as relaying important information to their regional series coordinators and contractors. With the association growing so quickly it is important for us to know what changes and enhancements are needed in all regions. It is suggested that each region have a planning committee for their region to discuss events, opportunities, and to help fund prizes for the regional finals.

$25 from each regional final's entry fee will be applied to operations and payout for the 2022 World Finals.

Any non-compliant region will default to previous region for the regional finals. Contact National Office for more information.

Recommended entry fee for events is $75/round ($45 to the pot / $30 to stock contractor), not to exceed $225 per regional event.

Region final's dates/locations will be set by each region by June 1st, 2022.

All regional finals must be completed by OCTOBER 1st, 2022, unless previously approved,

A list of regional directors and stock contractors will be posted on the association website, <https://juniorroughstockworld.com>, and social media sites.

The local directors will let everyone know the time of the draw. The draw will be conducted by official event personnel.

All Regional Finals Entries will be completed by Cognito Forms and/or Saddle Book.

MEMBERSHIP:

Regional membership cards are $150.00 per region.

Contestants qualifying in more than one region will be required to take first qualifying spot.

Memberships must be purchased and paid for online. Cheques will no longer be accepted for membership cards. Membership cards include insurance for regional and national finals. Insurance may be offered by individual rodeos if local committee provides it.

Please check with each regional director for membership card and stock contractor card purchase cut-off dates.

QUALIFYING:

Members can qualify for the Junior World Finals three different ways, direct qualifier, last chance, or through regional finals. Las Vegas Events has authorization to invite qualified contestants from other accredited associations of their choice.

Top four contestants from each regional series advances on to regional finals (Peewee, Rookie Junior, Junior, Senior, Novice).

Top four contestants from regional finals qualify for Junior World Finals (Rookie, Junior, Senior, Novice).

Winner of regional finals advance on to Junior Roughstock Extreme Finals (Peewee). Date and location tentatively to be October 5th- 8th 2022 Wickenburg, Arizona.

All members qualifying within their region must first qualify to their regional finals to advance to the World Finals.

Every qualification method requires that contestants must have a qualified ride. No contestants will advance on time, and contestants must have a score to advance to the Junior World Finals and Junior Roughstock Extreme Finals.

NATIONAL TOUR:

2022 will not consist of a National Tour.

DIRECT QUALIFIERS:

We will have Direct Qualifiers in addition to the last chance qualifier. Direct Qualifiers will be announced on or before June 1st, 2022. Direct Qualifier hosts will be required to contribute a sponsorship opportunity to host the event. All direct Qualifiers must be preapproved and honor sponsorship obligations.

PAYOUT:

Payout should be at least 50% of entry fee after office fees are deducted. *Prizes based on individual events are optional. Champion prizes are highly encouraged for each regional finals event. All payouts for both points and monies won is based on maximum number of entries. Payouts and advancements examples will be based on 15-25 contestant entries. An event will still be hosted for age groups with less contestant numbers, but the event producers will adjust prize lines and advancement spots to reflect number of contestant entries.

Event Point Payout for groups providing a rodeo series and keeping track of average scores is suggested as follows for regional events (World Finals Payout Information will be provided in Entry Packet)

1st Place 10 points

3rd Place 8 Points

5th place 6 Points

2nd Place 9 points

4th Place 7 Points

- Pony mugger, pick-up men, chute boss and arena director will be required to wear sponsor provided gear. Failure to do so will disqualify contractor for receiving payment for contracted work.
- Pony mugger/Bull Fighter will be in arena for event.
- 2 judges will be present for event.

MISC:

- If the tour stop/direct qualifier is a multi-day event and ran as a daily rodeo rather than a long go/short go format all riders must ride in same location, and the same stock contractor and judges must be used for every rodeo. The riders first ride or declared re-ride counts for point standings and event payout standings.

- The use of alcohol during an associated youth event can lead to disqualification of parent, personnel, and contractors.
- Sulking of animals by anyone can lead to disqualification

2022 Rules for Bull Riding (Added 2022)

1. The judges will score each ride 1-25 for the rider & 1-25 for the stock, then the two front judges scores will be added up and this will constitute the score on a qualified ride for the rider, the score will also serve as the rider's points see example below. Judges' decisions are final. Parents or other persons approaching, engaging, petitioning, or protesting in any way which is distracting to the judges, arena directors, or YBR officials during the event for any reason will be subject to having their child disqualified for the finals.

Example: 1st ride 68 pts, 2nd ride 70 pts going into the short go the rider would have 138 pts.

2. The Timer will have the official times during the event in case of a malfunction from the timer(s)watch, then the latch side judge time would be used, the back timer will have the time in case the official buzzer malfunctions. The Chute Boss will also oversee the 30 second rule and can disqualify you, as well as any other violations.

3. In the event of a questioned time, the official timers time will be used.

4. All riders will compete one handed, except for mutton busting.

5. It is the responsibility of the contestant to make sure he or she is competing on the correct head of stock. Competing on the incorrect stock will result in disqualification on that ride.

6. All stock will be drawn before the bull riding starts. The draw is done by the event Secretary and judge or official chute boss. Contestants will not draw the same head of stock in any performance that he/she has drawn previously, this will not include re-rides, except in the short go, and contestants could draw the same animal.

7. No unauthorized personnel will be allowed into the secretary area PERIOD! When the sheets have been tallied for that event, the results will be posted. This will help to eliminate the possibility of errors, as we want each rider to get the most accurate count.

8. Contestant will have 30 seconds to call for their animal once the gate men get to them. The judge will have a stopwatch and keep times. It will be at the back judge's or chute boss discretion if the contestant is being given a fair shot by the animal. Riders need to have their ropes on and be ready to go when the rider in front of them goes.

9. *The use of abusive, profane language, improper gestures, theft of any kind or fighting by any contestant, parent or any person attending the event or staying at a host hotel acting in an unruly manner during any event which of which is then reported by the hotel manager back to the office, will be subject to disqualification of the finals. THIS WILL NOT BE TOLERATED!!!!

10. Western dress code will be in effect at all times during the World Finals and any events that you are asked to participate in. This is for anyone and everyone entering the "Limits of the event". This includes all Dads, Moms, and or Helpers.

11. Alcoholic Beverages will not be allowed during the event by contestant or parent.

12. In the event of multiple rounds, the top 10 riders will make it back to the Short Go.

13. The Board of Directors reserves the right to not accept entries and to amend or revise any rule at any time during the event or year.

14. Announced times and scores are unofficial.

15. All personnel must display event pass at all times if and when one is provided in and out of the arena. Contestants must wear their back numbers at all times in and out of the arena during World Finals and Regional Finals. This is their ticket to behind the chutes and rodeo

16. Protests

1. Only rule violations can be protested. Quality of judges or stock will not be protested. Protests are only allowed and World Finals Events

2. Protest fee: $250.00

3. Protest procedure is as follows:
