Performance Notes

This song was written and arranged by Bob "Diz" Disney in 1977 as an opener for his quartet, B&O Connection. "Diz" has been a Barbershopper for over 50 years, and he sang lead in many great quartets. B&O Connection won a third place medal in 1979. Among his other songs is Riding the Railroad.

It's a Brand New Day is a straightforward rhythm song with an uplifting key change and an exciting tag. It makes a great show opener. An alternate tag is provided for those who find the original too high.

As a final note: Questions about the suitability of this or any other song/arrangement should be directed to the judging community and measured against current contest rules. Ask before you sing.
