

WHERE THE SOUTHERN ROSES GROW

1904

Words by RICHARD H. BUCK
Words by THEODORE F. MORSE
Arr. by David Wright 5/29/93

B

INTRO:

There's a val - ley where the south - ern ros - es grow.

grow, fra - grant ros - es

Begin
Here:

VERSE:

Where the ev' - ning sun is set - ting in the crim - son flood - ed west, and the grow. ___

whip - poor - wills are sing - ing all the wear - y world to rest. In my dreams I hear you call - ing and your face ap - pears to me just as fair as an - y an - gels up in heav - en e'er can be. Once a -

be. ___

gain I see the val-ley, gen-tle riv-er run-ning through, and the path-way where I wan-dered, hand in
see the val-ley hand, dear one, with you. And the fra-grance in the mead-ow's just as sweet as long a-go, when we

CHORUS: With expression sang our song to-geth-er where the south-ern ros-es grow. Where the Swan-ee Riv-er's twin-ing, I can see the home lights shin-ing. Like stars of hope they glim-mer in the twin-ing, I can see the home lights shin-ing. Like stars of hope they glim-mer in the val-ley far be-low. And as twi-light time comes steal-ing, I can see my sweet-heart val-ley far be-low. And as twi-light time comes steal-ing, I can see my sweet-heart

8

kneel - ing

8

kneel - ing, And I know she's pray - ing for me where the south - ern ros - es grow. In the

32 33 34 35 36

TAG:

f

8

val - ley where the south - ern ros - es grow, She's

37 38 39 40

pp

grow, My love of long a - go, -

8

wait - ing where the sweet ros - es grow, sweet ros - es grow. —

41 42 43 44

grow. —