WELCOME TO MACFEST 2021!

Welcome to MACFEST 2021, a groundbreaking and award-winning Muslim Arts and Culture Festival in the North West. This year we have gone global!

Our mission: celebrating arts, diversity and connecting communities. We are proud to offer you a rich feast of over 70 events from January to June 2021 across Greater Manchester, celebrating the rich heritage of the Muslim diaspora communities. As a national festival we are delighted to have MACFEST hosted in Manchester, Bolton, Bury, Oldham, Stockport, Rochdale, Huddersfield, Glasgow and Liverpool in the UK.

We are also delighted to offer you an international feast, with events hosted from Azerbaijan, Dubai, France, Morocco, Turkey, South Africa, the Philippines and Pakistan. There are many highlights, including the Azerbaijan Festival on 4th April and the Arab Heritage Festival on 27th June.

You will find something for the whole family: literature, art, history, music, performance, photography, culture, comedy, art exhibitions, demonstrations, debates, women and youth panels, children's activities, and art workshops. We are bringing you a great line-up of local, national and international speakers: performers, writers, academics, photographers, comedians, poets, film makers, actors, artists and singers: from Manchester - to Uzbekistan.

Due to the Covid-19 pandemic restrictions, we are offering a mainly digital programme. Our wonderful host partners are: The Lowry Theatre, the Central, Longsight, Portico, Oldham, Bolton and John Rylands Libraries, Whitworth Art Gallery, Manchester Museum, Manchester Science and Industry Museum, Elizabeth Gaskell's House, Khizra Mosque, the British Muslim Heritage Centre and Stretford Public Hall.

We are delighted to partner with Huddersfield Literature Festival, Manchester Science Festival, Bury BAME project, Bolton Sunnyside Club, Glasgow Active Life Club, Manchester Muslim Writers and Trafford/Stockport College Partnership Group, hosting events and mini festivals.

We are equally delighted to host various schools and colleges from the North West of England, who are celebrating MACFEST Days, with arts and cultural activities. A warm welcome also to British and international students from Turkey, Gambia, Germany, the USA and Palestine who are taking part in youth panels.

Nearly all of our events are free.

Thank you for joining us!

Enjoy!

Medicine in the Middle East: A Forgotten Heritage, shared between East and West

Date: Saturday 30th January

Time: 13.00 - 14.00

Venue: Digital

Tickets: Free, register on Eventbrite

Peter Pormann takes you on a journey into Medicine in the Islamic world, telling how it unfolded against the background of the Greek legacy, as a new polity emerged.

Arabic became the language of scientific and medical discourse, from the river Guadalquivir in Spain, to the Ganges. Although this heritage is often forgotten today, it formed an integral part - not just of the Eastern - but also the Western medical tradition. It was also highly innovative, partly because it forged a medical tradition that went beyond country and creed.

Peter Pormann, Professor of Classics and Graeco-Arabic studies, University of Manchester.

Moderated by: Dr Savas Konur, Foundation for Science, Technology and Civilisation UK, Manchester.

Creative British Muslims

Date: Saturday 30th January

Life in Mecca and Madina during the time of the Prophet Muhammad

Date: Thursday 25th March

Time: 18.00 -19.00

Venue: Digital

Tickets: Free, register on Eventbrite

The transformation of Arab society by the Prophet Muhammad started his mission in a strictly tribal society, where the motto was that a person is a mere number in his/her tribe. Yet without a tribe they were unsafe, even in their own home. The Prophet remoulded the Arab society into one coherent unit, in which a person had great value.

Dr Adil Salahi will explore answers to some of these questions. What measures did the Prophet take to accomplish such a transformation? Did the old divisions, on a tribal basis, completely disappear? Or did they go through a change of direction, and in what way?

Moderated by: Dr Musharraf Hussain OBE DL, CEO & Chief Imam, Karimia Institute.

Ibn Khaldun 700 years ago. Then and Now!

Date: Tuesday 30th March

Time: 18.00 - 19.00
