Virtual Museum Spotlights

Over the course of eight Tuesdays in August & September, a representative from the museum will highlight the history of the site and what you may see during your visit. Here is the schedule of virtual presentations:

- August 2, at 5 pm: Meadowcroft Rockshelter
- August 9, at 5 pm: Somerset Historical Center
- August 16, at 5 pm: Old Economy Village
- August 23, at 5 pm: Duncan & Miller Glass Museum
- August 30 at 5 pm: Historic Fort Steuben
- In September the following virtual visits will be to West Overton Village, Merrick Art Gallery & the Heinz History Center.

A museum kit from each site can be checked out from the library for a period of seven days and includes a pass for free admission for up to four people.

Art Classes

Elementary aged children are invited to register for an upcoming workshop with Ms. Deanna Volz on Thursday, August 4, from 5:00-6:00 p.m. Ms. Volz graduated from Wittenberg University, majoring in Art & Japanese. Soon after, she obtained certification in Children's Book Illustration from Hollins University in Virginia. She is currently working in Japan as an Assistant Language Teacher. She also publishes a webcomic called 'Jams and Jellies' on the websites Webtoon and Tapas. Please call 724.627.9776 to register your child/children. Ms. Volz will also be hosting an Art is for Adults, Too class on Thursday, August 11 at 5:00 p.m. She will be instructing how to do pencil sketching and still-life drawings. Reserve your seat today at the Circulation Desk!
