Holiday Open House

The Friends of the Eva K. Bowlby Public Library cordially invite you & your families to their Holiday Open House on Wednesday, December 8. The festivities will begin at 3:30 p.m. and will continue through 7:00 p.m. The Friends are offering a Cookie Walk, Photos with Santa, light refreshments and live music. Craft vendors will also be available for seasonal gifts. The Friends group is also sponsoring two raffles: A Cookie Basket (12 dozen cookies for holiday entertaining!) and a Children's Basket (filled with assorted toys and gift cards). Tickets are currently on sale at the library for $1 each, or six tickets for $5.

Fetch's Stuffed Animal Sleepover will also take place on this date, with a special holiday story hour beginning at 5:00 p.m. in the Youth Services department. There will be a holiday craft for youngsters, and a snack provided. Children are also invited to bring their favorite stuffed animal/toy to spend the night with Fetch, our library mascot. Parents may pick up their child's toy the following day.

Library-To-Go services is still available for those patrons who are exercising extra precaution during this time. Patrons may call ahead with material requests or place "Holds" online. Call before you arrive & we'll have your order ready! You can reach a staff member at 724-627-9776.
