Past meeting minutes were approved as printed in the newsletter.

First order of business was the parsonage damage from the broken pipes. Pete explained what was known and done so far. Restoration Services was cleaning up and working on drying the building. No more was known about financial responsibilities and estimates at this time.

Elders reported that Pastor Moldenhauer would not be available for services for the rest of the month due to health reasons. Elders would fill in when Pastor Giebel would not be able to work.

Outreach is working with the Red Cross for further blood drives. More information will follow as soon as dates can be secured and put on a calendar. The road sign for our church is moving forward.

The treasurer's report was approved.

Finance Committee is doing fine.

Memory Work ~ Who Needs It?

Recently a program about mathematics was shown on Public Television called "Math Who Needs It?" It turns out that everyone needs math. No matter what a person's occupation, mathematics is used in some way. So how does this relate to memory work?

We pack our brains with all sorts of information. Some of it isn't very important, such as the plot of last night's TV show. It would be disgraceful if we use our memory for trivial things - thousands of trivial things - but never commit one speck of memory to the Bible, the hymnal, or the catechism.

As Christians we try to use all our talents in a manner pleasing to God. This includes the gift of memory which God gave us. We want to hang onto our faith in the tough tomes as well as the good.

Memory work is one tool to help us do these things, especially if it is done in the right way. Just sitting down to memorize worse doesn't mean anything. The person memorizing needs to understand what the meaning is first. The person needs to think about what he's saying as he repeats the words. Then the more the words are repeated, the more the meaning is engraved in the heart. Really knowing memory work is a process.

If you are an older person who says, "I don't remember the things I memorized," it's maybe time to do some memory work. Get a catechism and refresh your memory! Try singing by memory some verses of a favorite hymn. Recite the memory work back to your child or grandchild when they recite to you. The children can check you with the catechism in the words you learned (maybe even German, if you originally learned it in German).

So memory work - Who needs it? Grandpas need it. Grandmas need it. Moms need it. Dads need it. And kids need it. We all need it! If your child has a memory assignment, discuss what it means with him or her, then let them recite it to you. And then you recite it back to your child. That will make memory a memorable family affair, benefiting both your child and you.

Ever Wonder What the "Lutheran Laymen's League" is about?

The International Lutheran Laymen's League (Int'l LLL) is a dedicated group of supporters and volunteers who are active in ministry domestically and around the world. These are people of all ages and walks of life. The ministry of the organization is currently expressed through a wide range of Christ-centered outreach efforts under the name of Lutheran Hour Ministries (LHM). Originally called the Lutheran Laymen's League (LLL) upon its formation in 1917, the organization was renamed the International Lutheran Laymen's League in 1972 to reflect its growing impact globally. Today, the Int'l LLL's business and financial affairs are overseen by a Board of Directors consisting of a chair, vice chair and 12 directors.

During all the years of the League's history, tens of thousands of people have provided prayers, volunteer work and financial support which, under the blessings of God, have accomplished great things for the Kingdom. League membership now numbers just under 100,000 individuals and also includes hundreds of local congregational groups including both men and women.

In 1992, due to the popularity of The Lutheran Hour radio program, the International Lutheran Laymen's League chose Lutheran Hour Ministries as the overall identity for its media outreach programs. Based in St. Louis, Missouri, Lutheran Hour Ministries continues to explore new media and to expand its use of others to serve congregations as a partner in God's mission.

Today, through ministry programs such as The Lutheran Hour, International Ministries, Men's Network, LHM Learn, and others, Lutheran Hour Ministries is calling our communities, our country and our world back to God. Lutheran Hour Ministries is ready to meet the challenges of a post-Christian culture by bringing a message of rescue, restoration and renewal in Jesus Christ to millions of people who desperately need to hear it..

Adam And Eve Story

One day an angel appeared to Adam. The angel said, "Adam, I've got great news. God is going to create something wonderful for you." Adam said, "Oh, what is it?"

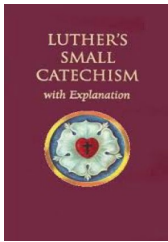

The angel said, "It's not an "it," it's a "she." God is going to make something called a woman." Adam said, "Go on."

The angel continued, "This is going to be wonderful. This woman will be made to be a lot like you physically, only much more beautiful. She will live to serve you at all times. When you are tired, she'll give you a massage. When you are hungry, she'll feed you. She'll come and bow down to you in the morning and when you return from working in the garden in the evening. She'll live to serve your every pleasure each day."

"In addition," the angel continued, "she will never argue with you or complain. She wont nag you or talk back to you either. For every command you give her, she'll simply reply, "yes master." She'll clean your house, and tend to your every desire."

Adam had a sparkle in his eye and said with excitement, "Wow, that sounds amazing. I'd really like to have something like that. But what's it going to cost me?" The angel said, "Well Adam, it's going to cost you your right arm, and a leg."

Adam thought about it for a while, and then replied, "What can I get for just a rib?"

The Apostles' Creed – The Third Article (Sanctification):

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of _____, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the _____ and the life everlasting. Amen.

What does this mean?

I believe that I cannot by my own _____ or strength believe in Jesus Christ, my Lord, or come to Him; but the Holy Spirit has called me by the _____, enlightened me with His gifts, sanctified and kept me in the true faith.

In the same way He calls, gathers, enlightens, and sanctifies the whole Christian Church on earth, and keeps it with Jesus Christ in the one true _____.

In this Christian Church He daily and richly _____ all my sins and the sins of all believers.

On the Last Day He will raise _____ and all the dead, and give eternal life to me and all believers in Christ.

This is most certainly true.

Agnus Day by James Wetzstein

BIBLE PASSAGE — Now I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you—unless you have come to believe in vain. For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them—though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.
