Credit will be given to horses negotiating the obstacles with style and some degree of speed, providing correctness is not sacrificed. Horses should receive credit for showing attentiveness to the obstacles and the capability of picking their own way through the course when obstacles warrant it and willingly responding to the rider's cues on more difficult obstacles. WESTERN PLEASURE- A good western pleasure horse has a free- flowing stride of reasonable length in keeping with its conformation. The horse should cover a reasonable amount of ground with little effort. Ideally, the horse should have a balanced, flowing motion, while exhibiting correct gaits that are of proper cadence. The quality of movement and the consistency of gaits is a major consideration. The horse should carry its head and neck above the level of the withers. The horse should not carry its head behind the vertical, giving the appearance of intimidation, or be excessively nosed out, giving a resistant appearance. The horse's head should be level with its nose slightly in front of the vertical, having a bright expression with its ears alert. The horse should be shown on a reasonably loose rein, but with light contact and control. The horse should be responsive, yet smooth in transitions when called for. When asked to extend, the horse should move out with the same flowing motion. Maximum credit should be given to the flowing, balanced and willingness of the horse which gives the appearance of being fit and a pleasure to ride.

WESTERN PLEASURE MAIDEN HORSE – For horses who have not won a Western Pleasure class prior to January 1 of the show year. To be judged the same as the Western Pleasure class.

OLDER THAN DIRT WESTERN PLEASURE - Rider must be 50 years of age or older. To be shown at a walk, jog and lope. To be judged on performance, manners and apparent ability to give a good pleasure ride.

This class is to determine the ability of the rider. Results shown by the performance of the horse are not considered more important than the method used to obtain them. There will be a pattern posted to be memorized and ridden at individual times.

Only one rider is permitted, and one groom is mandatory. Each of the two ways counts equally. A prize may be offered to the fastest groom!
