

SOUTHLAKE

CITY GUIDE

State Texas
Population 30,840
Area 22.43 sq. mi

Time Zone Central (UTC-6)
Climate Humid Continental
Mayor Laura Hill

WHY SOUTHLAKE?

Southlake is full of places to play. Work the knives like Wolfgang with a cooking class at Central Market, ride the slides at the Marq community center pool, let your mind unwind with a Moroccan oil-infused massage from a local spa, or catch an outdoor concert at the Masterworks Music Series held every spring.

Shopping

From public art, shopping, dining, spa services and luxury accommodations, you will find Southlake more quaint than many other destinations in Texas. Every day, every weekend, there is something new to enjoy.

Parks

The City of Southlake is proud of the sport fields, parks and outdoor trails available for visitors to enjoy! The Bob Jones Nature Center is one place you won't want to miss!

Food

There are extensive dining chains and restaurants to choose from and can all be discovered on the Southlake, Texas Dining Guide.

Music & Concerts

Summer nights in Southlake are perfect for taking in some live music in the park. Bringing the best music acts in Dallas/Fort Worth, Southlake offers music for every genre throughout the year.

The Arts

The City has many monuments and sculptures that's art made for the public. On the website there is an ever-expanding catalog of public art that colors the City's landscape waiting to be explored!

City History

Think there's no history in Southlake? Think again! The Southlake area has a rich history that reaches past its birth in 1956 to the 1840s, when Texas was a republic, and before. interesting city of Southlake.

FUN FACTS ABOUT SOUTHLAKE

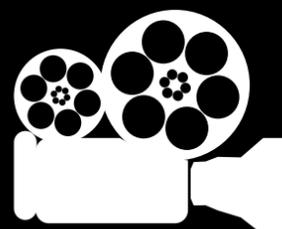

Southlake is known for the Southlake Town Square, its wealth, Gateway Church and Carroll High School's 8-time state champion Football and Men's Swim & Dive team.

Harkins Theatres in Southlake is home to one of the largest movie theaters, the well-known Cine Capri.

In March 2016, Southlake was ranked no. 5 on a list called 'The $100K Club: America's Highest-Earning Cities'.

The Dragon isn't just a mascot; it's a way of life.