Epiphany 2026 – “Go and search diligently for the child!”

As we enter this new year of 2026, and approach the celebration of the parish's 100th anniversary, we are challenged to follow this same command – to go and search for the child. I often think about the Google searches I make each day and week on my phone and computer; sure, some are focused on content for my homilies, or biblical research, or even info about a saint. But, I can also be swept up in some political commentary – “did you hear what the president... or governor... or the new mayor said?!”; and I am just as guilty to check scores... Islanders and Rangers, college football, and the NFL playoffs. And, most embarrassingly, “what is the origin and meaning of 6-7?” Lord, help me!

There are countless other life technological interruptions that distract us – but the new year is a time to refocus. We can take the focus off ourselves and our screens and look up at the bright lights that God is placing before us. The feast of the Epiphany always comes at the right time. If you remember, it is the celebration of the manifestation and presentation of the Messiah to the rest of the world – to pagans and non-believers – not “just the faithful.” The Christ was not just for the Jews – but for all who would be willing to come, to know, to adore, and to worship the newborn king. But, let's face it, the innkeeper, the local townsfolk, King Herod, even the priests of the temple, were all too busy to recognize that Jesus had entered the world right in front of them. And so, it was the shepherd, the Magi, and the angels who give us a gentle reminder to refocus and look up!

Have you looked up from your personal screens to allow for family quality time? It is in the facetime of family meals, and car rides, and snow shoveling, and maybe even sledding last week, where the meaningful and deep conversations can actually occur. So often I hear parishioners speak of a desire for older, simpler times, when family and faith were at the center of our lives; Grandma's Sunday dinner after Mass, stopping at the bakery for fresh bread, rolls, and dessert – everyone was there, no excuses. I recently saw a law or mandate that has been enacted in a few different countries, and even here in New York, that places warnings on devices for social media and what our young people are searching for and looking at. Are we passing on the responsibility of parenting to the state? People, wake up, and you “go and search for your children!”

I believe in this new year that the Lord is calling us once again to take a personal inventory of life, family, and loved ones. Where is our focus? Where is the focus of our time and calendar scheduled? The last thing we need is one more activity for the kids and grandkids that keep them away from our guidance and instruction. Trust me, your kids would rather have a catch and conversation in the backyard with you – not some former, mediocre high school or college athlete at one of our local fields and parks. You will never get this time back.

It's time for a personal epiphany – or an “a-ha moment.” We have the ability now to be intentional and focus our direction and attention on the things that will get us to heaven and not mindless distractions and timewasters. The Lord understands that life is busy and that we have responsibilities for ourselves and the ones we love. Jesus does not shy away from our messiness and imperfections, but desires to enter in – but He will not force Himself on us – we must invite Him. Remember where the Wise Men found him; in a dirty, smelly barn. Don't worry, our heart, our family, and our generational baggage does not scare God. Our God is merciful, forgiving, and loving. And that, my friends, is good news. In fact, it is the Good News! Now, we must tell others where to search.

May I invite you to take some time this week and discern what your faith experience will look like in this new year? Small, simple areas to grow individually and as a family: daily prayer, grace before meals, reading the Bible, and going to Sunday Mass. You will experience an epiphany each time you make more room for God when you search – and tell others where to go and see – the Christ Child, the King of Kings!

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Baptisms

Let us welcome the following children who were baptized this past weekend:

Santino DiPreta
Gabriel Quagliano
Madison Roy
Romeo Thompson
Sienna Tuxen

Pillar of Hospitality

In today's Gospel, we hear the story of the magi.

As we near the end of the Christmas season, be sure to keep Christ alive in your hearts. Don't let all the good deeds you performed and all the spiritual formation you developed during the Advent and Christmas seasons stay there - live the meaning of Christmas throughout the year - throughout your life!

St. Peregrine Prayer Hour

The St. Peregrine Prayer Hour will be held on Monday, January 5th from 2:00 - 3:00 PM in the Church.

St. Peregrine is the patron saint of those suffering from cancer.

Future prayer hours will be held on the first Monday of each month. Cancer victims, families, and their care-givers are all invited to come and pray.

Year-End Tax Statement

Please note that year-end tax statements for your taxes will not be automatically mailed out. They may be obtained by request from the Rectory.

Please call 516-785-1266 or email information@stwilliam.org

Thank You!

We want to again thank you for your presence, generosity, and the treats that made their way to the Rectory over Christmas!

We also loved receiving your family Christmas cards and all your well wishes!

May God bless you and your families in this new year!

Fr. Joe, Fr. Michael, and the staff of
St. William the Abbot

BLESSING YOUR HOME FOR THE EPIPHANY

“Chalking the Door” is a centuries-old tradition in which we ask for God’s blessings upon our home and families on the Feast of the Epiphany.

Typically done with chalk, you can also print the banner below and affix it over your front door.

20 + C + M + B + 26

The “20” and “26” represent the year and the “+” between each letter symbolizes the cross of Jesus Christ. The “C”, “M”, and “B” stand for the latin “Christus mansionem benedicat” (“Christ, bless this house”) and are also the initials of three Wise Men - Casper, Melchior, and Balthazar.

As you chalk your door, or affix the banner, you can recite the following prayer with your family:

God of Light, bless this home. Make it a haven of rest for all in need of your warmth and care. When we go out from this place, may we never lose sight of Christ's light. May all who enter throughout this year find love and light; for Christ has come to dwell in this home and the hearts of those who live here. Amen.

Parish Social Ministry

Pantry Needs

Cookies - Cereal - Ketchup - Sugar - Apple Juice - Tissues

Donation Spotlight - Seaford Lions

We would like to sincerely thank the Seaford Lions for supporting our ministry to serve those in need. Recently, the Lions provided tickets to their annual "Polar Express" holiday party for families served by our office, and the children of these families were treated to a very special afternoon and a visit with Santa! In addition, the Lions made a large Christmas donation to the Social Ministry, allowing us to help our neighbors that need it most. They are a great example of faith in action, and we truly could not serve our Parish as generously as we do without their support.

Prayer Shawl Ministry

The next meeting of the Prayer Shawl Ministry will be on Tuesday January 6 at 10am in the Abbey. This ministry knits and crochets lap robes, blankets, hats, scarves, and other items for the sick and needy of our community. Yarn is provided, and new members at any skill level are always welcome!

Poinsettias for Our Parish Homebound

Last week Eucharistic Ministers delivered poinsettias from the Parish to homebound parishioners for Christmas. Each Homebound Eucharistic Minister delivered a poinsettia to their parishioner, including 25 deliveries at Cedar Cove done by EM Keith Glastal! We are so grateful to all of the Parish's Eucharistic Ministers and volunteers for helping us bring joy to the homebound this Advent season!

Local Clothing Donations

Did you know that used clothing can be donated locally to be re-used by those in need? "The Boutique" in Amityville is run by the Long Island Coalition for the Homeless. This special distribution center allows people in need to come and pick out clothes and other essential items, all for free! Donations of new and used clothing are accepted Tuesday through Thursday, 10am to 3pm at their 600 Albany Avenue location, or by appointment. By helping The Boutique, you also help our Parish families in need, because we can send referrals for our families to shop there! To contact The Boutique, call 631-464-4314.
