

How to Make a Good Confession:

1. Examine your conscience.
2. When you are prepared, go in to the confessional and begin with the Sign of the Cross out loud.
3. Then say, “Bless me Father for I have sinned. It has been (weeks, months, or years) since my last confession. These are my sins: Tell the priest your mortal sins in number and kind, starting with any you are particularly struggling with. Let the priest know you are done by saying, “for these and all my sins I am sincerely sorry.”
4. The priest will give you a penance.
5. Make the Act of Contrition:
My God, I am sorry for all my sins with all my heart. In choosing to wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you, who I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin.
Amen.
6. The Priest will then give you absolution, the sacramental forgiveness of the Church, and a penance. Bow your head and receive the priest’s absolution with humility and gratitude. Make the Sign of the Cross when he does and listen to his words attentively. The priest will dismiss you with a prayer.
Response: Thanks be to God.

Leave knowing of God's mercy and forgiveness! Give thanks to God for forgiving you again. Take time to pray in the church after your Confession, especially if your penance was to say certain prayers.

Teen Examination of Conscience

“Confession is an act of honesty and courage – an act of entrusting ourselves, beyond sin, to the mercy of a loving and forgiving God.”

- St. John Paul II

Examination of Conscience

- Do I trust in good luck, witchcraft, horoscopes, or superstition instead of the love and perfect plan of God?
- Have I purposely ever denied that I believe in God or that I am Catholic?
- Do I care more about how I appear to others than how I appear before God?
- Have I received Communion in the state of mortal sin?
- Have I ever purposely not confessed a serious sin before? I would like to confess it now...
