V. Define the following (Any Five)
1) What is the significance of the place where we stand at the time of church service? We are to praise and worship God at all hours every day. Hence we pray “We submit all praise, hour and worship to you on all days of feast; at all hours, times and throughout our lives”. We should prepare our body and mind and stand in a disciplined manner for worship.
2) What are the two occasions in which people recognize the salvific act of Jesus Christ for the sake of mankind? When the devotees submit frankincense during the service of bonfire on Christmas day and when we honour the Holy Cross while incense are burned on Good Friday they remember Christ’s sacrifice for the sake of human beings.
3) In the church worship, the priest burns incense in the censor immediately after the reading of the Promeyon, and the deacon swings the sensor throughout the time of the Sedra. Why? Because the prayers submitted at that hour rise up to heaven like sweet smell of incense from the censor.
4) What message do we get from the blessing of the censor? The blessing of the censor that follows indicates the manner in which our sins are remitted. We earn remission of sins from Lord Jesus Christ who said that even if our sins are as red as the red sky, he would turn them as white as snow. The blessing of censor is also a worship of the Holy Trinity.
5) The real significance of prayer with incense? Jesus Christ who is the second Person of the Holy Trinity became the sacrifice for the salvation of mankind. Thus He bestowed. He is mercy in both the worlds to us who are sinners so that our sins are absolved.
6) Why do we offer incense before God? The incense is burned indicates the presence of God and atonement for our sins, the blessing of the censor in the Holy Eucharist.
7) What are the four features of the place where we stand during the hour of worship?
(a) Before Lord Jesus Christ who blesses.
(b) Before the Holy Altar which gives remission of sins.
(c) Before the sacred and heavenly mysteries.
(d) In presence of adorable priesthood.

VI. Write a paragraph each (any three)
1) Describe an incident in which submission of incense was done for atonement of sin? When the people like Korah, Dathan, Abiram, rebelled against the leadership of Moses and Aaron, Yehweh was angry with them. 14,700 people died because of the Lord’s anger and the people of Israel were sore afraid of God. Immediately Moses commanded Aaron to stand between the living and dead. As a result the plague was stopped.
2) What is the significance of the priest going round the altar with the censor in his hands at the beginning of the Holy Eucharist? In the prefatory part of the Holy Eucharist the officiating priest goes round the Altar carrying the censor in his hand. This is to give worship of Jesus who incarnated for the salvation of the world. This also commemorates the coming of the three wise men with gold, myrrh and feankincense to see Child Jesus.
The priest after honouring Christ, the second Person of the Holy Trinity offers incense to the congregation. By doing so he is announcing the gospel of salvation to the entire world. The congregation accepts this gospel by bowing down and making the sign of the cross.

3) What are the various parts of the censor symbolize? (The censor is a representation of the mission of salvation of Lord Jesus Christ). Explain. There is a base bowl for burning charcoal. The upper bowl is a lid over the bowl for charcoal. Both these bowls together stand for the whole universe, which is the creation of God. The lower bowl filled with charcoal indicates thin sinful world. The upper bowl stands for heaven. The burning charcoal indicates mankind purified by fire, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. The chains of the censor indicate the Holy Trinity. The first chain symbolizes God the Father and the fourth one symbolizes the Holy Spirit. The second and third chains are symbols of Jesus Christ who is man and God at the same time. There are 12 small bells altogether on the four chains, they indicate the 12 apostles. There are 72 links in the four chains, they stand for 72 messengers sent by Lord Jesus Christ. In short, the censor represents the mission of salvation of Lord Jesus Christ.

4) “The three proclamations made by the priest holding the chains of the censor at the time of blessing the censor, is a declaration of the fundamental faith of the church”. Explain. The priest while blessing the censor holds the first chain and announces “Holy God the Father is Holy”. Then he holds the second and third chains together and declares “Holy God and the Son is Holy”. Finally he holds the Fourth chain and declares ‘Holy Spirit is Holy”. Then the priest prays “The Lord purifies the incense submitted by His sinful servant by showing tender mercy upon our souls and the souls our Father, Brothers and sisters, teachers, leaders and our departed… in both the world”. Then he shows incense by swinging the censor towards the laity. This is followed by the laity who received the incense fumes declaring their faith in the Holy Trinity.

VI. Write a paragraph each (any three)

1) How do we know that God takes care of nature? During the time of the Great flood God saved not only Noah and his family but also all living things. He conserved them in pairs and blessed them. God takes care of his creations. Lord Jesus Christ says “Consider the ravens, for they neither sow nor reap. And God feeds them. Jesus again says Consider the lilies how they grow: they neither toil nor spin God so clothes the grass, which today is in the field and tomorrow is thrown into the open.

   Many of the parables of Jesus of Jesus Christ lived in perfect harmony with nature. He was born in a manger amidst animals, haystack and grass. Christ observed fast in the desert. He was baptized in River Jordan and He delivered his sermons in natural settings. People sang Hosanna to Christ holding the branches of olives and date palms.

2) What should be our commitment towards nature?

   (1) We should protect nature
   (2) We should not alter the natural order
   (3) Check the use of materials harmful to Nature
   (4) Keep the surroundings clean
   (5) Dispose waste properly
   (6) Planting herbs, shrubs and trees
   (7) Tube wells will lead to water scarcity
   (8) Ensure equity in the use of natural resources.
   (9) Return to nature
   (10) The equilibrium of nature shall be preserved.

Prayer

O Thou, full of mercy, renew Thy creation at the resurrection. O Lord, comfort and absolve our departed ones, who died with hope in Thee, and await Thy coming. O Lord, make them dwell in the bosom of Abraham, and of Isaac and of Jacob. May the living and the departed together cry out, ‘Blessed is He, who has come, and is to come, and give life to the dead’. Amen.

Hymn

Bovoosa of Mor Ephrem

Lord, Thy mercy on us cast,
Use our service, every piece,
Grant us from Thy treasure vast,
Mercy, blessing and release.

Let me Lord, before Thee stand,
Wakefully my watch I’d keep,
Should I fall to slumber’s hand,
Guard Thou me from sinful sleep.

For if to wrong I take,
Mercifully absolve Thou me;
Sleeping, if a sin I make,
Pardon grant in clemency.

By the Cross of Thy disgrace
Grant me, Lord, a restful sleep,
Evil dreams do Thou efface,
Wicked thoughts far from me keep.

Through the night conduct me Lord,
Peaceful sleep give Thou to me
Lest foul thoughts in me find hoard
Phantoms lest a terror be.

Grant Thy angel's watchful view,
Guard my limbs without abate,
Hateful lusts in me subdue,
By Thy living flesh I ate.

While I lie and sleep in calm,
May Thy blood my keeper be
Let my soul dwell free from qualm
In Thine image mad’st Thou me.

Overshadow with Thy hand,
Me a handicraft of Thine,
Let me in Thy fortress stand,
Mercy shielding round be mine.

While my body silent lies,
May Thy pow’r its vigil keep,
Let my breath like incense rise,
T’ward Thy greatness in my sleep,
Let not evil touch my bed,
By Thy mother’s pleas for me,
By Thy blood atoning shed,
Satan’s harm removed be.
