

Dr. Felix Daniel Rafael Guzmán Rivadeneira
(Translated from Spanish by Google Translate.)
Prepared by Program Assistant, Valeria

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Medical Professional _ Clinic Internal and Preventive. Specialized in Health Public and Research Medicine _ computerized.

Focused on making an impact positive for the health centers and hospitals in which I have worked with a high degree of responsibility and easy interpretation of the new changes doctors administrative and influential national or global.

EXPERIENCE AND ACHIEVEMENTS

January 1982 – Graduated from the Javier College of Guayaquil
Graduate as Bachelor of Science biological and Chemistry with honors being one of the first in its class.

January 1982 - January 1989

Study at the State University of Guayaquil, Faculty of Sciences medical . was received as doctor in medicine and general surgery.

He graduated with honors from the University.

January 1989 -December 1991

Job as in his training with Operation "Smile". Reconstruction Operations . _ Catholic University of Rio de Janeiro

January 1992 – January 1995

Registered with the ECFMG (Educational Commission of Foreign Medical Graduate) to take the USMLE (United States Medical License Examination).

January 1995 – December 1999

Complete their rotations at UCLA, USC, Ventura Regional Hospital, Santa Barbara and Santa Maria in California, under the auspices of Doctors without borders in the United States United of North America.

December 1999 – January 2004

Doctor Guzmán opened his office in Camarillo, United States. He dedicated himself to follow courses with UNICEF, and do charity work, national and global. Specialized in medicine preventive, exploration medicine, computerized and general health medicine. Publishes at Five Branches University under the auspices of Doctors without borders.

January 2004 – January 2010

He dedicated himself to teaching in various Universities and Colleges of their experiences directing and writing several articles for interest national about preventive medicine and hospital administration .

January 2010 – January 2013

Doctor Guzmán learned Russian in Portland Oregon and went to work at OHSU as professor in the Medicine area Internal, Medicine Preventive, Investigative Medicine, Computerized and Health Medicine. Public always under the auspices of Doctors without Borders.

January 2013 – July 2016

Doctor Guzmán began working at Loyola University Hospital, Rush Medical in which had a display in his medicine specialties-Preventive, Medicine Clinical, Research Medicine, Computerized and Health Medicine, Public and hospital administration .

July 2016 – Present – Medical Director of the Medical Center Orthomolecular and Olon Medical Center, Healthy Life.

Doctor internist works with Doctors Without Borders and has its own office in Salinas and Olon, Ecuador. Practice medicine homeopathi , acupuncture and medicine traditional.

TRAINING PROFESSIONAL

Member of Doctors Without Borders since 1989

Doctor of Medicine and General Surgery 1989

Specialty in Medicine Reconstructive 2001

Master of Medicine Internal 1999

Master in Prevention Medicine 2000

Master in Research Medicine, computerized 2005

Master of Medicine in Medicine Health Public and Hospital Administration 2010

Master's Degree and Professor of Science Medical Education 2015

COURSES AND SEMINARS

Doctor Guzmán has attended multiple seminars and symposiums in the States United States, Central America and South America. He has also done many speeches at Universities and Medical Schools.