

A Biblical Gameplan for 2026

MAKE ROOM FOR JESUS

30-Day Devotional Journey

This devotional was prayerfully created to help you let go of the past, embrace the new work God desires to do, and walk into the year ahead with clarity and confidence. At Soul-Fuel Ministry, our heart is to help believers live with intention, anchored in God's Word and led by the Holy Spirit. Over the next 30 days, you will reflect, pray, set

God-centered goals and learn to trust His direction one step at a time.

Day 1: God Makes All Things New

Scripture:

Isaiah 43:18-19 (KJV)

“Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old. Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.”

Devotional:

God begins new seasons by inviting us to release our grip on the past. Holding tightly to yesterday—whether regrets, failures, or even former successes—can prevent us from seeing what God is birthing today. This passage reminds us that God is not finished, not stagnant, and not limited by what has already been. He specializes in new beginnings that often emerge in unexpected places. As you begin this journey, ask God to help you recognize and trust the new work He desires to do in your life this year.

Reflection Questions:

- What am I still holding onto from the past?
- Where might God be inviting me to see something new?

Notes:

Day 2: Letting Go of the Past

Scripture:

Philippians 3:13–14 (KJV)

“Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.”

Devotional:

Each day offers a fresh opportunity to surrender control and trust God's leadership. True direction is formed not through pressure or fear, but through consistent obedience and prayer. As you move forward, allow God's Word to shape your decisions and anchor your confidence. When you walk closely with Him, even uncertain paths become places of growth and purpose.

Reflection Questions:

- Where do I need God's guidance right now?
- What step of faith is God asking me to take today?

Notes:

Day 3: Trusting God's Direction

Scripture:

Proverbs 3:5–6 (KJV)

“Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.”

Devotional:

Each day offers a fresh opportunity to surrender control and trust God's leadership. True direction is formed not through pressure or fear, but through consistent obedience and prayer. As you move forward, allow God's Word to shape your decisions and anchor your confidence. When you walk closely with Him, even uncertain paths become places of growth and purpose.

Reflection Questions:

- Where do I need God's guidance right now?
- What step of faith is God asking me to take today?

Notes:

Day 4: God Leads the Way

Scripture:

Psalm 32:8 (KJV)

"I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye."

Devotional:

Each day offers a fresh opportunity to surrender control and trust God's leadership. True direction is formed not through pressure or fear, but through consistent obedience and prayer. As you move forward, allow God's Word to shape your decisions and anchor your confidence. When you walk closely with Him, even uncertain paths become places of growth and purpose.

Reflection Questions:

- Where do I need God's guidance right now?
- What step of faith is God asking me to take today?

Notes:

Day 5: Letting Go of the Past

Scripture:

Philippians 3:13–14 (KJV)

“Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.”

Devotional:

Each day offers a fresh opportunity to surrender control and trust God's leadership. True direction is formed not through pressure or fear, but through consistent obedience and prayer. As you move forward, allow God's Word to shape your decisions and anchor your confidence. When you walk closely with Him, even uncertain paths become places of growth and purpose.

Reflection Questions:

- Where do I need God's guidance right now?
- What step of faith is God asking me to take today?

Notes:

Day 6: Trusting God's Direction

Scripture:

Proverbs 3:5–6 (KJV)

"Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

Devotional:

Each day offers a fresh opportunity to surrender control and trust God's leadership. True direction is formed not through pressure or fear, but through consistent obedience and prayer. As you move forward, allow God's Word to shape your decisions and anchor your confidence. When you walk closely with Him, even uncertain paths become places of growth and purpose.

Reflection Questions:

- Where do I need God's guidance right now?
- What step of faith is God asking me to take today?

Notes:

Day 7: God Leads the Way

Scripture:

Psalm 32:8 (KJV)

"I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye."

Devotional:

Each day offers a fresh opportunity to surrender control and trust God's leadership. True direction is formed not through pressure or fear, but through consistent obedience and prayer. As you move forward, allow God's Word to shape your decisions and anchor your confidence. When you walk closely with Him, even uncertain paths become places of growth and purpose.

Reflection Questions:

- Where do I need God's guidance right now?
- What step of faith is God asking me to take today?

Notes:

Day 8: Letting Go of the Past

Scripture:

Philippians 3:13–14 (KJV)

“Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.”

Devotional:

Each day offers a fresh opportunity to surrender control and trust God's leadership. True direction is formed not through pressure or fear, but through consistent obedience and prayer. As you move forward, allow God's Word to shape your decisions and anchor your confidence. When you walk closely with Him, even uncertain paths become places of growth and purpose.

Reflection Questions:

- Where do I need God's guidance right now?
- What step of faith is God asking me to take today?

Notes:

Day 9: Trusting God's Direction

Scripture:

Proverbs 3:5–6 (KJV)

"Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

Devotional:

Each day offers a fresh opportunity to surrender control and trust God's leadership. True direction is formed not through pressure or fear, but through consistent obedience and prayer. As you move forward, allow God's Word to shape your decisions and anchor your confidence. When you walk closely with Him, even uncertain paths become places of growth and purpose.

Reflection Questions:

- Where do I need God's guidance right now?
- What step of faith is God asking me to take today?

Notes:

Day 10: God Leads the Way

Scripture:

Psalm 32:8 (KJV)

"I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye."

Devotional:

Each day offers a fresh opportunity to surrender control and trust God's leadership. True direction is formed not through pressure or fear, but through consistent obedience and prayer. As you move forward, allow God's Word to shape your decisions and anchor your confidence. When you walk closely with Him, even uncertain paths become places of growth and purpose.

Reflection Questions:

- Where do I need God's guidance right now?
- What step of faith is God asking me to take today?

Notes:

Day 11: Letting Go of the Past

Scripture:

Philippians 3:13–14 (KJV)

“Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.”

Devotional:

Each day offers a fresh opportunity to surrender control and trust God's leadership. True direction is formed not through pressure or fear, but through consistent obedience and prayer. As you move forward, allow God's Word to shape your decisions and anchor your confidence. When you walk closely with Him, even uncertain paths become places of growth and purpose.

Reflection Questions:

- Where do I need God's guidance right now?
- What step of faith is God asking me to take today?

Notes:

Day 12: Trusting God's Direction

Scripture:

Proverbs 3:5–6 (KJV)

"Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

Devotional:

Each day offers a fresh opportunity to surrender control and trust God's leadership. True direction is formed not through pressure or fear, but through consistent obedience and prayer. As you move forward, allow God's Word to shape your decisions and anchor your confidence. When you walk closely with Him, even uncertain paths become places of growth and purpose.

Reflection Questions:

- Where do I need God's guidance right now?
- What step of faith is God asking me to take today?

Notes:

Day 13: God Leads the Way

Scripture:

Psalm 32:8 (KJV)

"I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye."

Devotional:

Each day offers a fresh opportunity to surrender control and trust God's leadership. True direction is formed not through pressure or fear, but through consistent obedience and prayer. As you move forward, allow God's Word to shape your decisions and anchor your confidence. When you walk closely with Him, even uncertain paths become places of growth and purpose.

Reflection Questions:

- Where do I need God's guidance right now?
- What step of faith is God asking me to take today?

Notes:

Day 14: Letting Go of the Past

Scripture:

Philippians 3:13–14 (KJV)

“Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.”

Devotional:

Each day offers a fresh opportunity to surrender control and trust God's leadership. True direction is formed not through pressure or fear, but through consistent obedience and prayer. As you move forward, allow God's Word to shape your decisions and anchor your confidence. When you walk closely with Him, even uncertain paths become places of growth and purpose.

Reflection Questions:

- Where do I need God's guidance right now?
- What step of faith is God asking me to take today?

Notes:

Day 15: Trusting God's Direction

Scripture:

Proverbs 3:5–6 (KJV)

"Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

Devotional:

Each day offers a fresh opportunity to surrender control and trust God's leadership. True direction is formed not through pressure or fear, but through consistent obedience and prayer. As you move forward, allow God's Word to shape your decisions and anchor your confidence. When you walk closely with Him, even uncertain paths become places of growth and purpose.

Reflection Questions:

- Where do I need God's guidance right now?
- What step of faith is God asking me to take today?

Notes:

Day 16: God Leads the Way

Scripture:

Psalm 32:8 (KJV)

"I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye."

Devotional:

Each day offers a fresh opportunity to surrender control and trust God's leadership. True direction is formed not through pressure or fear, but through consistent obedience and prayer. As you move forward, allow God's Word to shape your decisions and anchor your confidence. When you walk closely with Him, even uncertain paths become places of growth and purpose.

Reflection Questions:

- Where do I need God's guidance right now?
- What step of faith is God asking me to take today?

Notes:

Day 17: Letting Go of the Past

Scripture:

Philippians 3:13–14 (KJV)

“Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.”

Devotional:

Each day offers a fresh opportunity to surrender control and trust God's leadership. True direction is formed not through pressure or fear, but through consistent obedience and prayer. As you move forward, allow God's Word to shape your decisions and anchor your confidence. When you walk closely with Him, even uncertain paths become places of growth and purpose.

Reflection Questions:

- Where do I need God's guidance right now?
- What step of faith is God asking me to take today?

Notes:

Day 18: Trusting God's Direction

Scripture:

Proverbs 3:5–6 (KJV)

"Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

Devotional:

Each day offers a fresh opportunity to surrender control and trust God's leadership. True direction is formed not through pressure or fear, but through consistent obedience and prayer. As you move forward, allow God's Word to shape your decisions and anchor your confidence. When you walk closely with Him, even uncertain paths become places of growth and purpose.

Reflection Questions:

- Where do I need God's guidance right now?
- What step of faith is God asking me to take today?

Notes:

Day 19: God Leads the Way

Scripture:

Psalm 32:8 (KJV)

"I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye."

Devotional:

Each day offers a fresh opportunity to surrender control and trust God's leadership. True direction is formed not through pressure or fear, but through consistent obedience and prayer. As you move forward, allow God's Word to shape your decisions and anchor your confidence. When you walk closely with Him, even uncertain paths become places of growth and purpose.

Reflection Questions:

- Where do I need God's guidance right now?
- What step of faith is God asking me to take today?

Notes:

Day 20: Letting Go of the Past

Scripture:

Philippians 3:13–14 (KJV)

“Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.”

Devotional:

Each day offers a fresh opportunity to surrender control and trust God's leadership. True direction is formed not through pressure or fear, but through consistent obedience and prayer. As you move forward, allow God's Word to shape your decisions and anchor your confidence. When you walk closely with Him, even uncertain paths become places of growth and purpose.

Reflection Questions:

- Where do I need God's guidance right now?
- What step of faith is God asking me to take today?

Notes:

Day 21: Trusting God's Direction

Scripture:

Proverbs 3:5–6 (KJV)

"Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

Devotional:

Each day offers a fresh opportunity to surrender control and trust God's leadership. True direction is formed not through pressure or fear, but through consistent obedience and prayer. As you move forward, allow God's Word to shape your decisions and anchor your confidence. When you walk closely with Him, even uncertain paths become places of growth and purpose.

Reflection Questions:

- Where do I need God's guidance right now?
- What step of faith is God asking me to take today?

Notes:

Day 22: God Leads the Way

Scripture:

Psalm 32:8 (KJV)

"I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye."

Devotional:

Each day offers a fresh opportunity to surrender control and trust God's leadership. True direction is formed not through pressure or fear, but through consistent obedience and prayer. As you move forward, allow God's Word to shape your decisions and anchor your confidence. When you walk closely with Him, even uncertain paths become places of growth and purpose.

Reflection Questions:

- Where do I need God's guidance right now?
- What step of faith is God asking me to take today?

Notes:

Day 23: Letting Go of the Past

Scripture:

Philippians 3:13–14 (KJV)

“Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.”

Devotional:

Each day offers a fresh opportunity to surrender control and trust God's leadership. True direction is formed not through pressure or fear, but through consistent obedience and prayer. As you move forward, allow God's Word to shape your decisions and anchor your confidence. When you walk closely with Him, even uncertain paths become places of growth and purpose.

Reflection Questions:

- Where do I need God's guidance right now?
- What step of faith is God asking me to take today?

Notes:

Day 24: Trusting God's Direction

Scripture:

Proverbs 3:5–6 (KJV)

"Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

Devotional:

Each day offers a fresh opportunity to surrender control and trust God's leadership. True direction is formed not through pressure or fear, but through consistent obedience and prayer. As you move forward, allow God's Word to shape your decisions and anchor your confidence. When you walk closely with Him, even uncertain paths become places of growth and purpose.

Reflection Questions:

- Where do I need God's guidance right now?
- What step of faith is God asking me to take today?

Notes:

Day 25: God Leads the Way

Scripture:

Psalm 32:8 (KJV)

"I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye."

Devotional:

Each day offers a fresh opportunity to surrender control and trust God's leadership. True direction is formed not through pressure or fear, but through consistent obedience and prayer. As you move forward, allow God's Word to shape your decisions and anchor your confidence. When you walk closely with Him, even uncertain paths become places of growth and purpose.

Reflection Questions:

- Where do I need God's guidance right now?
- What step of faith is God asking me to take today?

Notes:

Day 26: Letting Go of the Past

Scripture:

Philippians 3:13–14 (KJV)

“Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.”

Devotional:

Each day offers a fresh opportunity to surrender control and trust God's leadership. True direction is formed not through pressure or fear, but through consistent obedience and prayer. As you move forward, allow God's Word to shape your decisions and anchor your confidence. When you walk closely with Him, even uncertain paths become places of growth and purpose.

Reflection Questions:

- Where do I need God's guidance right now?
- What step of faith is God asking me to take today?

Notes:

Day 27: Trusting God's Direction

Scripture:

Proverbs 3:5–6 (KJV)

“Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.”

Devotional:

Each day offers a fresh opportunity to surrender control and trust God's leadership. True direction is formed not through pressure or fear, but through consistent obedience and prayer. As you move forward, allow God's Word to shape your decisions and anchor your confidence. When you walk closely with Him, even uncertain paths become places of growth and purpose.

Reflection Questions:

- Where do I need God's guidance right now?
- What step of faith is God asking me to take today?

Notes:

Day 28: God Leads the Way

Scripture:

Psalm 32:8 (KJV)

"I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye."

Devotional:

Each day offers a fresh opportunity to surrender control and trust God's leadership. True direction is formed not through pressure or fear, but through consistent obedience and prayer. As you move forward, allow God's Word to shape your decisions and anchor your confidence. When you walk closely with Him, even uncertain paths become places of growth and purpose.

Reflection Questions:

- Where do I need God's guidance right now?
- What step of faith is God asking me to take today?

Notes:

Day 29: Letting Go of the Past

Scripture:

Philippians 3:13–14 (KJV)

“Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.”

Devotional:

Each day offers a fresh opportunity to surrender control and trust God's leadership. True direction is formed not through pressure or fear, but through consistent obedience and prayer. As you move forward, allow God's Word to shape your decisions and anchor your confidence. When you walk closely with Him, even uncertain paths become places of growth and purpose.

Reflection Questions:

- Where do I need God's guidance right now?
- What step of faith is God asking me to take today?

Notes:

Day 30: Trusting God's Direction

Scripture:

Proverbs 3:5–6 (KJV)

"Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

Devotional:

Each day offers a fresh opportunity to surrender control and trust God's leadership. True direction is formed not through pressure or fear, but through consistent obedience and prayer. As you move forward, allow God's Word to shape your decisions and anchor your confidence. When you walk closely with Him, even uncertain paths become places of growth and purpose.

Reflection Questions:

- Where do I need God's guidance right now?
- What step of faith is God asking me to take today?

Notes: