

Felix Ingram, President, Hearts of Wheels. Felix earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from Stillman College in Tuscaloosa, Alabama and a Master in Business Administration (MBA) from Troy University in Montgomery, Alabama. Felix retired from Southern Company as a Fleet Operations Coordinator and Real-time Operations Supervisor, after 38 years of service. Felix is married to Dr. Shelia McGee Ingram and they have three children and two Granddaughters.

Larry Savage Sr., Founder, Hearts of Wheels, and a native of Leeds, Alabama. Larry retired from Southern Company as an Energy Trader after 39 years of service. Larry is a Navy veteran of the Vietnam and Gulf Wars. For 25 years, Larry and his wife Kamara worked in various non-profit ministries. In 1993, they became Executive Directors of the Inner-City Children's Ministry, Inc. of Sardis Missionary Baptist Church. In 1996, they were called to Children's Village, Inc., as Executive Directors. Under his leadership a new home for girls would be built that allowed many of the siblings to be reunited. In 2017, Larry was given a vision to form Hearts of Wheels, a non-profit agency to help at risk youth navigate the road to success with transportation assistance. Larry is married to Kamara Savage and is the father of three children, and 8 grandchildren.

Belinda Mobley, Esq., is a native of Eutaw, Alabama. Belinda has a Bachelor of Science in Secondary Education and History/Political Science from the University of West Alabama in Livingston, Alabama. Belinda served nine years in the United States Air Force. Belinda was employed with a local utility company for 20 years. In 2007, Belinda received a Juris Doctorate degree from Miles Law School in Fairfield, Alabama and is currently a practicing member of the Alabama State Bar Association and an active member of the Birmingham Bar Association. Belinda is also a proud member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

Alison Simpkins Smith, a native of Birmingham, Alabama. Alison obtained an Executive MBA from Kennesaw State University (KSU) (Kennesaw, GA) and a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering from The University of Alabama (UA) (Tuscaloosa, AL). Allison held several engineering, technical, managerial, and leadership roles at International Paper and Southern Company (Alabama Power, Georgia Power, Southern Nuclear and Southern Company Services). She retired from Southern Company after 34 years of service. Alison is married to Clarence Smith, Jr. and has two children.

Shelia McGee Ingram, Ph.D., Dr. Ingram holds a Bachelor of Science in Finance and a Master in Mathematics Education from the University of Alabama at Birmingham. She earned a Ph.D. in Curriculum and Instructions-Mathematics from The University of Alabama. She also holds a Professional Leadership Certification and Alabama Secondary Mathematics Teacher Certification. She is the founder and principal consultant of Infinity Teaching and Learning, LLC, who designs, creates, and facilitates professional learning opportunities for administrators and classroom teachers. Dr. Ingram is the co-author of the textbook "Now, I Can Understand Algebra (Vols. 1-2)". She is also the co-author of several articles and papers. Sheila is married to Felix Ingram and they have 2 children and 2 granddaughters.

Jerry A. Harper resides in Hueytown, Alabama and employed by the Hoover City School System as a Bus Shop Supervisor. In this role, he is responsible for safe operations and maintenance of school buses. Mr. Harper is a graduate of Bessemer State Technical School where he studied auto mechanics. He is married to Torino Harper and they have two daughters.

Sherri T. Radney, Treasurer, a native of Columbus, GA and currently resides in Birmingham, Alabama. Sherri has a Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering from Mercer University and a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from Columbus State University. She is currently pursuing a Master of Arts in Clinical Mental Health Counseling from the Grand Rapids Theological Seminary at Cornerstone University. Sherri is a licensed minister. Sherri worked at Georgia Power Company in Generation for over eleven years in various leadership roles in engineering, maintenance, operations, and planning. In December of 2017, Sherri joined the Alabama Power Company Resource Planning group, where she currently is a Project Manager. Over the years, Sherri has volunteered and supported many non-profit activities and organizations. Sherri is a member of the Jefferson County Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated.

Adrienne N. Newton, P.E., a native of Birmingham, Alabama, has a Bachelor of Science in Chemical Engineering from Howard University and a MBA from the University of Alabama in Birmingham. She also has her Professional Engineer's (PE) license. Adrienne is employed by Southern Company in the Generation Planning and Development Group, where she does economic evaluations of the company's existing operating units. Adrienne serves on the Advisory Board for the YMCA Youth Center in downtown Birmingham. She volunteers and support many non-profit activities and organizations.

Kamara Savage, Executive Director, Hearts of Wheels. Kamara is a native of Charleston, South Carolina. She has a Bachelor of Science in Business Education from Charleston Southern University. Kamara retired from UAB, serving as the Executive Assistant to the Chief of Staff of the UAB Health System. Prior to working at UAB, Kamara taught on a post-secondary level and spent over 25 years working in various ministries with her husband, Larry. In 1993, Kamara and Larry became Executive Directors of the Inner City Children's Ministry of Sardis Missionary Baptist Church and later they became Executive Directors of Children's Village, Inc. Under her leadership a new home for girls would be built that allowed many of the siblings to be reunited. Kamara and her husband Larry have 3 children and 8 grandchildren.